

Alvo Department

Sherill Fifer, who is pitching for the Greenwood team, won over the Independent Red Toppers, a Lincoln team, by a score of 5 to 4.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Skinner were fishing over on the Platte river and camping near the vicinity of Pawnee Lodge, where the fishing is fine.

The Alvo baseball team will play with the Manley team at that place this coming Sunday, July 15th, and the game promises to be a good one.

Art Skinner was assisting in the installation of a bridge at the corner near the home of E. A. Shulke during a good portion of the past week.

Carl Browne was looking after the garage for the day last Wednesday, while Mr. Dinges was away, and was supplying people with gas and other things.

Last Tuesday Phillip and George Coatsman drove to Kansas City, where they visited with friends as well as enjoyed the Fourth in the big town on the Kaw.

Lester Coon, of South Omaha, was a visitor for a few days last week at the home of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George Hardnock, where he visited for over the week end.

Simon Rehmeier was a visitor with friends in Omaha for the day on last Wednesday, being accompanied by the family, and they enjoying the celebrating of the Fourth in the big city.

Alfred Snelgen, the superintendent of the Alvo consolidated school, has purchased a new auto, this time picking a Whipper Four, and making the purchase through their agent in this locality, Mr. Oris Foreman.

Lee Coatsman, who is pitching for Uken, has added another very fine game to his record, when he won last Sunday in a game which was played with Rising City, he getting the decision by a score of 17 to 2.

W. H. Warner, who had his engine which he uses for his threshing outfit, stored under a shed for its safe keeping, when he woke up Wednesday morning found that the roof had blown away, leaving only the engine standing there.

Working about the home during the day, and looking after some minor affairs, John Banning and the good wife departed early in the afternoon for Union, where they visited for a time and later went to Nebraska City, where they enjoyed the fireworks, which consisted of their entire program for the Fourth.

Arthur Dinges and wife, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Skinner and C. D. Ganz and wife formed a merry party of fishers, who went to Pawnee Lodge, where they spent the day in fishing, lounging and getting acquainted with the chiggers which are the real inhabitants of that locality. Oh, the fish? Well, we did not hear anything about that.

During the storm of last Wednesday morning, a wagon which had a hay rack on and was setting near the barn of S. C. Boyles, took a notion to move and with the aid of the wind, ran over to the fence near Simon Rehmeier's home and stopped. Only a simple stunt, but it contributed its portion to the various escapades the windstorm accomplished.

SHOWER FOR MRS. MEISINGER

From Saturday's Daily— Mrs. Roy Perkins, Mrs. Fred Sharpnack, and Mrs. Herman Tiekotter, Jr., were joint hostesses at a very delightful miscellaneous shower on Thursday evening at the Tiekotter home, in honor of Mrs. Bernard Meisinger, one of the happy June brides.

The occasion was one that all will long remember very delightfully and in honor of the event the guest of honor received many very handsome gifts as remembrances of the friends in this city.

The ladies spent the evening in the diversion of radio and visiting in the cool breeze of the evening and on their departure extended to Mrs. Meisinger their best wishes for future years of happiness.

Those attending the event were: Misses Edna Warren, Hilda Wallengren, Hazel Davis, Helen Libershal, Mesdames John P. Sattler, William Schmidtman, Jr., Mrs. John Sattler, Jr., Mrs. Herman Tiekotter, Sr., Mrs. Fay McClintock and Mrs. W. H. Mason.

Home for Next Sunday

The Rev. R. H. Chenoweth, who with the family, are at this time in Wisconsin, where he has been attending school for the past month, writes that he will be home for the coming Sunday service, that of July 15th, and wants all to come and be in attendance for that day.

Greenwood Transfer Line

We do a general business—make trips regularly to Omaha on Monday and Thursday, also to Lincoln Tuesday and Friday. Pick up loads on these trips. Full loads at any time. FRED HOFFMAN

Invited to the Picnic

The ex-service men of Alvo and vicinity, where there is no American Legion post, and some of whom belong to the Lincoln post, are being sent invitations to the Cass county Legion picnic, thru courtesy of the Greenwood post, whose commander, George Bucknell, has sent to Carl Ganz a supply of the cards to be mailed out to ex-service men of this vicinity, regardless of whether they belong to the Legion or not. The picnic is to be held at Louisville next Sunday, July 15th, in the beautiful surroundings of the tourist park, baseball grounds and river front grove, located at the south end of the Platte river bridge. The Greenwood Legion post is planning on taking its band along, and the Louisville band will be out to help entertain the visitors. A big picnic dinner at 12:30 will be followed by a program of sports in the afternoon with prizes to the winners. The Louisville Commercial club will furnish free lemonade for everyone and the Legion posts are contributing to a fund for the purchase of ice cream and pop for the children.

Laying In Their Coal

The Alvo school board are looking forward and have had a car of coal placed in the basement of their school for the coming winter. For the past few days, George Hardnock, the drayman, has been busy notwithstanding the warm weather, getting the coal into the bunkers.

Are Playing Good Ball

In a ball game which was staged between Alvo and Weeping Water a few days since, the Alvo team won over the big town by a score of 6 to 5. However, the Alvo team takes great satisfaction in this winning, as in some thirty-eight games which the Weeping Water team has played, they have lost only eight and of the eight games which they lost Alvo has played and won five of them. And this is not so bad a record.

Next Sunday, July 15th, the Alvo team will play at Manley, and a fine contest is looked for. Alvo has an exceptionally good aggregation of baseball artists and Manley is not so slow when it comes to driving out hits and scampering across the home plate with scores.

RECEIVES SCHOLARSHIP

From Saturday's Daily— When the graduation exercises of the Plattsmouth high school was held, the board of education had the privilege of conferring a scholarship on the highest ranking student of the class of 1928 of the high school, Miss Fern Jahrig, and since that time they have had the pleasure of receiving another scholarship, that has been conferred on George Olson, the second student of the class.

The first scholarship received was from the denominational schools of the state while the one conferred on Mr. Olson is from the state normal schools and will entitle Mr. Olson to the privilege of attending any one of these schools the coming season.

Mr. Olson has stood high in the ranks of the scholarship at the local school and his classmates and many friends are pleased to learn that he has been given the scholarship and the board of education pleased to have the privilege of presenting the scholarship to the young man that stood so high in the class of graduates.

MANLEY NEWS ITEMS

W. J. Rau and the wife were visiting in Weeping Water on last Wednesday, as the bank was closed for the holiday.

Fred Faltschman and the family were enjoying a visit in Omaha on the 4th of July, they driving over to the big town in their car.

Mike Scheehan was a visitor in Omaha for the afternoon and evening of last Wednesday, where he was enjoying the Fourth of July.

Herman Rauth had his crib in a manner wrecked by the storm of last Wednesday, but it can be gotten in condition for the crop when it comes.

Eli Keckler and Earnest Mann were fishing on the Fourth as the roads were fine and they were not compelled to get the grading outfit out at all that day.

Fred Faltschman and the family were enjoying the Fourth in Ashland, driving over in the morning and visiting for the day, as well as remaining for the fireworks in the evening.

John Bergmann and Edward Kelly were over to Plattsmouth last Wednesday afternoon, and when they knew there was no celebration there, why should they go so far on a hot day?

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Seybolt entertained for dinner on the Fourth and had for their guests on this occasion, Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Brendel and their son, Richard, and Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Brendel.

John Gruber and family, Joseph Macera and John Crane were enjoying the evening of the Fourth at Ashland, where they celebrated and especially enjoyed the fireworks in the evening.

Art Johnson and wife of Santa Anna, Calif., were visiting for a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Brendel and after a most enjoyable time they departed on last Wednesday morning for their home in the west.

John Gruber was sporting a new Cadillac, that is new to him and to the people of Manley and vicinity, and since securing it, the wagon has been performing wonderfully and John is living in hopes that it will continue to do as well until about the year 1950.

Dodge cars, which are counted as among the very best and substantial, are growing in popularity with the people in and about Manley, the most recent ones to become possessors of this excellent line of cars are Arnold Schliefert and John Mockenhaupt, who both secured the superb Dodge Bros. DeLuxe sedan.

Father Reiss, pastor at Hebron, with his housekeeper, Mrs. Maggie Hazen and her daughter, Miss Marie, were guests at the home of Mr. J. C. Rauth, and with them, and also accompanied by Herman Rauth and Miss Anna Rauth, they were all in Omaha early last week, where they attended the inauguration of the new Bishop.

Much damage was done in and around Manley on the morning of the 4th, when cribs were broken down and trees uprooted, a tree being shattered badly at the Harms store, and also another in the yard of the parish house at the St. Patrick's church. The home of A. V. Stander was moved and partly wrecked, while at the home of Walter Heier, the garage was blown away, and the car left standing. At the home of August Krecklow, a crib was blown down.

Celebrated the Fourth

The Fourth of July was celebrated at the home of August Jochin last Wednesday evening with the meeting of the family and the judicious use of fireworks, and with a very fine family visit with sociability and refreshments, which make an ideal evening's gathering. There were there for the occasion, August Jochin and family, Arnold Schliefert and family, Oris Schliefert and family, Henry Heil and family, George and Henry Vogler and families.
