Prepared in the Interest of the People of Greenwood and Surrounding Vicinity

Harry Schroder suffered the end being blown out of the garage at his country home, but it did not blow his car away.

Frank Bauer and sister, Anna, of Union, were enjoying a visit for the day last Sunday at the home of Harvey Schroder and wife, near Greenwood. Mrs. P. A. Sauborn was visiting with relatives in Omaha for a few days, including the Fourth, going on last Monday and remaining for most of the week.

Warren Boucher, instead of shooting firecrackers, plowed corn during the morning of the Fourth and in the afternoon cut wheat, of which he has a very nice field.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Headley were enjoying the evening of the Fourth by attending the dance and fireworks which were a feature of the evening at Linoma Beach.

F. H. Gorder, county commissioner, was over from his home at Weeping Water on last Tuesday, looking after the construction of a bridge a short distance from Greenwood.

Walter E. Palling and Walter, Jr., were celebrating their Fourth of July in the corn fields, laying back the crop, which is in excellent condition, and counted the day very well spent.

George Bucknell and family and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. White were over to Cortland Beach, where they enjoyed the evening and especially the fireworks which were there in abundance.

John E. Stradley put in the morning of the Fourth assisting C. D. Fulmer in getting his tractor working for the harvesting of the excellent crop of wheat which Mr. Fulmer has on his farm near Greenwood.

As July 4th was a national holiday,

E. A. Landon closed the elevator and went to the farm, where he enjoyed the day shocking some excellent wheat which his son Wayne had been cutting for the past few days.

Mrs. Bertha Stiles, who has been making her home for some time past at Muskogee, Oklahoma, arrived in Greenwood early last week and will visit for some time with her friends here. Mrs. Stiles has been making her home with her son, Perry.

Miss Uvon West, who is taking a course in nurse training at Lincoln, was able to secure a vacation of a few weeks and held on Wednesday evening, and her grandfather, W. E. Newkirk, went over to the big town on the morning of July 4th and brought Miss Uvon home for the visit.

S. S. Peterson and Fred Ethrege were enjoying the statewide celebration which was held at the I. O. O. F. home at York, they making the trip out in the auto of Mr. Peterson and enjoying the excellent time which the home furnished as well as the trip out and back.

The band concert, which has been the feature of the mid-week for some time past and held on Wednesday evenings, was changed last week to Saturday in order that many people of this vicinity might go elsewhere to celebrate the Fourth. This week and thereafter the concerts will again be held on Wednesday evenings.

The guessing contest which was held at the store of White & Bucknell, and which was terminated last Saturday, showed that Walter Johnson was the best guesser and he was awarded the nickled copper wash boiler, for the best guess, and Verner Green was the one to receive the second prize, which was at first tied with Wayne Orolf, and was settled between themselves.

Dr. W. H. McFadden and wife, Col. Phil L. Hall and wife and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. McDonald went over to the river last Tuesday with the camping outfit and made a temporary home on the banks of the Platte, where they could enjoy the storm which came Tuesday night, and could fish the following day, July 4th. Only Phil did not go until the morning of the Fourth. Dr. Fall, of Lincoln, a friend of Dr. McFadden, was also a member of the party.

Will Attend Legion Picnic

Many of the service men of the vicinity of Greenwood have evinced their intention of attending the big Cass county American Legion picnic which will be held at Louisville on Sunday, July 15th. Better get there that day and enjoy the occasion for it will be well worth your while. Cards are being sent out by Greenwood post officials advising all their members as well as eligible ex-service men in the vicinity of this picnic.

Will Teach at Bloomfield

John Weatherhogg, who has been attending summer school at the state university at Lincoln for some time past, was over to Greenwood on the Fourth, and with the family were guests at the home of Mrs. Weatherhogg's parents, A. R. Birdsall and wife, where all enjoyed the day most pleasantly. Prof. Weatherhogg will have charge as superintendent of the schools at Bloomfield the coming school year.

so at the next meeting, July 11 which will be held at the leaders home, Miss Leola Heil.

NOTICE TO ALL

Notice is hereby given to all parties that from and after July 9th, 1928, I will not be held responsible for any bills or contracts whatsoever that my wife, Mrs. Elmer Yardley, may make, owing to the fact that she has voluntarily left my home and protection. ELMER YARDLEY. j9-2sw, 2d

Hon. W. R. Patrick Denies Remarks Credited to Him

Distinguished Omaha and Sarpy County Attorney Praises Record of Judge Begley.

Plattsmouth, Nebr., July 3, 1928. Nehawka Enterprise, Nehawka, Nebraska. Gentlemen:

My attention has just been called to certain derogatory statements attributed to me concerning Hon. J. T. Begley, by Mr. A. L. Tidd in the course of an address in the Methodist church in your village on the morning of July 1, 1928, and I wish to refute said statements very emphatically.

Some decisions of Judge Begley's have been disconcerting to me—when I happened to be on the losing side, but I have never attributed any adverse decision of his to liquor drunk in the home of the successful litigant, or elsewhere, nor to influence of any kind. In fact, my long acquaintance with Judge Begley would preclude any such thought.

Years ago while county attorney of Sarpy county, Judge Begley was offered a bribe of $250.00 per month to permit bootleggers to operate at Fort Crook. His answer was an indictment of the person who offered the bribe, by a grand jury, and it became my very pleasant task as special county attorney, appointed by the late Judge Travis, then judge of the district court of this district, to conduct the prosecution of said offender. I secured a conviction and the court imposed a sentence of three years in the penitentiary.

I could, if necessary, recount many other incidents in his career as County Attorney and Judge of the District Court which indicate that he has always stood for law enforcement, and an impartial administration of justice, but feel that he is so well and favorably known by the people of his judicial district that any brief presented in his behalf would be but dignifying any attack upon his integrity as a judge.

Very truly yours, WM. R. PATRICK.

DEATH OF OLD RESIDENT

From Saturday's Daily—Word was received here this morning of the death yesterday of Mrs. Marie Goetz, former resident of this city in the late eighties and early nineties, who passed away at her home at Havelock. The deceased lady was the widow of Joe Goetz, who preceded the wife in death a year ago. The family resided here for a great many years and are known to a large number of the older residents of the community. While here Mr. Goetz was an employe of the Burlington but later removed to Lincoln and Havelock. The funeral will be held Sunday at Lincoln and the interment made at that place.

HAD REAL STORM

Weeping Water and vicinity was struck by a severe wind storm Tuesday night which completely demolished large trees, stripping others of limbs and branches, overturning small out-buildings, and resulting in a good deal of damage.

On Main street several windows were broken out, and possibly the greatest damage in this respect was the smashing of the large plate glass in the front of the postoffice building and another one in the Meier Drug Store building. John McGrady reported that his home a large south porch was completely blown over the house and deposited on the north side. In the country a mile or so north of town it was reported that in one mile twenty telephone poles were blown down.

The storm came at about 1:30 a. m., following a very calm evening, and it was agreed by all that the wind came straight for the most part, without the twitter-like effect, which plays so much havoc. It was thought by some that the wind must have twisted some when it struck the homes of Leslie Miles, Harold Myers, Lloyd Wolcott and J. C. Lehman, as the trees in their yards were completely demolished.

The storm followed closely the damaging storm reported in Minnesota, South Dakota, and other neighboring states Tuesday.—Weeping Water Republican.

W. C. T. U. MEETS

From Friday's Daily—The members of the W. C. T. U. this week enjoyed their regular meeting at the pleasant home of Mrs. W. T. Richardson of Mynard and who was assisted by Mrs. George Weaver of that place as associate hostess.

The members from this city enjoyed very much the auto ride to the place of meeting and there they found a most hospitable home and an interesting program awaiting them.

The program was laid along patriotic and political lines, covering a discussion of the problems of the day and the lessons of national patriotism. Rev. George A. Weaver gave a short talk on "National Politics" and Mrs. Etta Perry Barker, a talk on "Government of the People, for the People, and By the People," both being much enjoyed. Mrs. Mattie G. Wiles also gave a poem, "A Little Red Drum." Mrs. J. E. Wiles, a number, "Our Flag" and Mrs. Robert

ORGANIZE NEW SUN-DAY SCHOOL CLASS

The class at the Eight Mile Grove Lutheran church, which has been under the leadership of Mrs. P. A. Hennings, formally organized at a meeting held at the home of the teacher a few days ago and at which there were eighteen of the young people present to enjoy the occasion. The officers for the club were selected as follows: President, Earl Albert; Vice-President, Elmer Stoehr; Secretary, Eunice Hennings; Treasurer, Florence Shogren; Yell Leader, Glen Kraeger.

After the business section of the class had been disposed of by the members, the remainder of the session was devoted to playing games of all kinds and at which the utmost pleasure was derived by all of the members and which made the event one that they will all long remember. At the close of the evening dainty refreshments were served that everyone appreciated to the utmost. The next meeting will be held with Earl Albert.

GIRLS' TENNIS TOURNAMENT

From Friday's Daily—The girls' tennis tournament will open today at the Washington avenue tourist park courts and a very fine series of matches are in prospect among the youthful devotees of this sport, and which will probably require several days to complete.

The drawings resulted in byes for all of the members entered and the matches arranged for the opening play today will see the following pitted against each other: Eleanor Swatek v. Mary Swatek; Gladys Bushnell v. Margaret Nelson; Jean Hayes v. Florence Nelson; Germaine Mason v. Mildred Hall.

As soon as the first round is completed, the girls will enter the semi-finals and then the championship round to determine the winner of the tournament.
