

Nehawka Department!

Prepared in the interests of the People of Nehawka and Surrounding Vicinity Especially for the Journal Readers.

Uncle Nicholas Opp is having the home sided and otherwise repaired and put in the best condition possible.

Robert Troop was a visitor at Grand Island on Monday of this week, where he went to attend a cattle sale which was held there.

C. D. St. John was a business visitor in Plattsmouth on last Monday morning, running up for the purpose of looking after some business which he had in hand.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Rood, of Burr, drove over from their home last Sunday and spent the day visiting at the home of Mr. Rood's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Anderson.

Carl W. Stone was hopping to the task of cutting the weeds along the fence rows as they do not allow the crops a fair and equal chance and anyway Carl does not like the looks of them.

John G. Wunderlich and wife were over to Plattsmouth on last Sunday, where they visited for the afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rosencrans, all enjoying the occasion very much.

D. C. West writes from Masonic Park, Colorado, telling of the crowd from Nehawka who are spending some time there, of having an excellent time, and that they will remain for some time yet.

Albert Anderson went over to Lorton on last Sunday, where Mrs. Anderson had been visiting for the past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Steffens, and visited for the day, all returning home in the evening.

Miss Florence Griffin, who is attending school at Lincoln, and her brother, Orville Griffin, who is employed in a bank there, were visiting at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Griffin for over Sunday.

Misses Lenna McReynolds and Gladys Wolfe were visiting in Plattsmouth on last Saturday afternoon and evening and on their return home Saturday evening stopped in Murray and brought Mr. Wolfe home with them to spend Sunday.

Edward Woods, who has had such a serious time with one of his eyes, is feeling some better, thank you, and is able to be at his work again, which was pressing him very much as it was. He is compelled to wear glasses now to protect the eyes, as they are weak as yet.

There was some rejoicing at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Edmunds when on last Friday the stock brought Mr. and Mrs. Edmunds a very fine little baby girl for their very own. The mother and little daughter are getting along nicely and there is still hope for Gilbert.

Roy Christweiser, the drayman, has been kept rustling for some time past with an overplussage of work, and among which were three cars that he unloaded, one a day consecutively for A. F. Sturm, a car of sand on last Friday, a car of lumber on Saturday and a car of cement on Monday.

R. Kettlehut has been having the house on the farm painted and otherwise repaired and put in the best possible condition before the coming of the winter months, which will say to all of us pretty soon, "How is the coal bin; it is filled?" Now is the time for looking after the demands of the coming winter.

Mrs. Hennings Johnson, who has been at Omaha at a hospital, where she underwent an operation some time since for the removal of her appendix, has now recovered sufficiently to be moved and was able to return to her home near Nehawka on last Friday and is reported as getting along very nicely at this time.

We visited the Nehawka elevator on Monday of this week and found our friend S. J. Rough head over heels in the receiving of wheat, and he said that the threshing was sure keeping him hopping to it, so that he hardly knew what he was doing. The farmers are surely pouring the wheat into the elevator early and late and every day.

Miss Beulah Philpot, who has been troubled for some time past with repeated attacks of appendicitis, was compelled to go to Omaha last week, where she underwent an operation for relief, and is reported as doing very well since the ordeal, and it is the hope of her many friends that she may soon be able to return to her home entirely well again.

Mrs. Bert Willis, who has been in the hospital at Nebraska City for the past two weeks, where she has been receiving treatment, has been making good progress of late and was so far recovered that it was deemed best for her to return home. Mrs. Marion Tucker went to Nebraska City with her car last Monday, accompanied by Mr. Willis and brought Mrs. Willis home. Mrs. Willis is doing very nicely, though still very weak from her long illness.

Mrs. W. O. Troop and three daughters, Misses Julia and Lois Troop and Mrs. William Gorder and Mrs. Nellie Gorder were over to Shenandoah last Saturday, where they viewed the magnificent flower fields, the city proper and the two broadcasting stations, and were much impressed with the excellence of the crops between Nehawka and Shenandoah. While there, little Mary Catherine Gorder posed for her picture, which was taken by the point boys of KMA, Catherine being less than a year of age.

Promise Work on the Oil Well
C. E. Holt, the driller, who is interested in the Nehawka oil well, was in Nehawka for a time on last Saturday night and in interviews with some of the people of Nehawka promised that work would be resumed on the sinking of the oil well, which has been held up on account of the non-arrival of the casings, which were lost nearly two years ago. The hoisting of stock it is said are now reduced to three men, one of them a local man, and it is also promised that the work will be commenced at an early date and pushed to a conclusion, a demonstration as to whether there is really oil or not. The men are promised the worst or the best in a short time.

Chautauqua at Nehawka
With the coming Sunday, there will be inaugurated a Chautauqua at Nehawka, which will continue for four days or until and including Wednesday of the coming week. There will be excellent programs as well as musical numbers and the people of Nehawka and vicinity will be privileged to enjoy this four days of excellent entertainment.

Jersey Heifers For Sale
I have nine jersey heifers coming two years old for sale, all good ones a portion of which are expected to be fresh in a few months. If you want a cow for the winter come and see me.

Found Justin at Work
Mrs. J. H. Dane, of Iowa City, sent a clipping from the Chicago Tribune, in which was an article descriptive of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Justin Sturm, of Chicago. A reporter for the paper had visited the home and made some photos of the home and gave vivid descriptions of the place.

which is over one hundred and fifty years old. He also found Mr. Sturm at work with the story, which is soon to appear. The article paid very high compliments to Mrs. Sturm as a housekeeper, and told of the beauty of the home over which she presides.

Visiting in Minnesota
Late last week Glen Rutledge and family and Mrs. A. B. Rutledge all departed in the car of Mr. Rutledge for a point in Minnesota where the parents of Mrs. A. B. Rutledge reside, expecting to remain for about ten days with them and also will do some fishing and other recreational sports while there.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR JOHN EDWIN TUEY
John Edwin Tuey was born October 4, 1857 at Watertown, Minn., and departed this life July 26, 1928 at the age of 70 years, 9 months and 22 days.

Mr. Tuey came from Minnesota to Iowa when a young man and was married October 20, 1886 to Mary J. McDaniel of Sidney, Fremont county Iowa. To this union were born five children, Zelma B. Jennings, Springfield, Mass.; Ernest J. Tuey, Madrid, Neb.; Alice J. Barnette, Kankakee, Ill.; Hazel L. Cameron, Great Falls, Mont.; Chester A. Tuey, Coridon, Ia.

In January, 1919 he was again united in marriage to Myra Barnett at Council Bluffs, Iowa who together with the aforesaid children and ten grand children and three brothers mourn his departure.

Mr. Tuey was engaged in business at Tabor, Iowa for about twelve years and also at Plattsmouth, Neb., for about sixteen years but later was engaged in farming until he moved into Glenwood.

He united with the Baptist church when a young man and was a member of the First Baptist church of this city at the time of his death.

Services were held at the First Baptist church at 2:30 p. m. Sunday conducted by Rev. J. F. Stille. Music for the service was furnished by Mrs. D. G. Lofler, Mrs. Wm. Lusch, Harry Hamilton and E. G. Johnson with Mrs. R. W. Rhoades at the piano. The body was laid to rest in the family lot in the Glenwood cemetery.—Glenwood Opinion.

RETURNS FROM OUTING
From Wednesday's Daily—
This morning Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Dwyer returned home from an outing of several weeks that has covered a great deal of the south and east on the very pleasant trip. Mrs. Dwyer stopped at Americus, Georgia, to visit her parents and was joined there by Mr. Dwyer and from that city they journeyed to Florida to visit at Jacksonville for a few days. From Jacksonville the trip to New York was made by boat and was a most delightful outing for Mr. Dwyer as it was his first ocean travel experience. From New York they visited for a week at Newport, Rhode Island where they were guests of Captain and Mrs. Hamilton Thorne at Fort Adams. Mrs. Thorne being a daughter of Mr. Dwyer. The trip was one that they will long pleasantly remember and covered a great deal of the United States.

HAS BLOOD TRANSFUSION
From Tuesday's Daily—
Mrs. Jess Atterberry, who is at the Methodist hospital at Omaha, is reported as being somewhat improved this morning but her weakened condition makes her case still very serious. Mrs. Atterberry was given a blood transfusion yesterday to aid in the battle for her recovery and was able to take a little nourishment, the first for some time. If the patient continues as well for the next two days it is hoped that she may recover.

SHOWING SOME IMPROVEMENT
From Tuesday's Daily—
The reports from the Inmaneue' hospital in Omaha state that Edward Rummel, well known farmer of near this city, is now showing some improvement at the hospital where he was operated on the last of the week. Mr. Rummel has been through a very serious operation and his many friends will be pleased to learn that he is now showing such marked progress and trust that it may continue until he is able to return to this city.

CANNING CLUB MEETS
The "Good Luck" 4-H Sewing club met on July 24, 1928 at the home of Lucille and Eula Pace.

Circulars and patterns were given to the various members and one new member, Rose Hasnaden was taken into the club.

The next meeting is to be held July 31, 1928 at the home of Helen Gilmore when it is expected to have the clothes pin bags completed.

CARD OF THANKS
We desire to thank the many friends for their help and sympathy during the illness and death of our dear mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Betty, also for the beautiful floral remembrances at the funeral. We also wish to thank the Christian church congregation for the use of the church.—The Children.

German Police Puppes for sale.—James Earhart, Murray, Nebr.
