NOW WHAT?

The H. M. Soennichsen Company store is closed today—Monday—it will be closed all day Tuesday—

The Greatest Slaughter of prices ever handed out to a buying public—in this part of the state —will be here when the doors of this establishment open for final selling—

Wednesday Morning

at 9:00 O'clock

The outstanding feature for Wednesday will be the wonderful blanket sale—700 pairs of Extra Large Wool Blankets—Indian Blankets—Sheet Blankets —blankets with wide satin bindings—and all of them big—larger than ordinary sizes—but cheaper than you ever dreamed possible—

Never in your life have you seen such an enormous display of the finest blankets money will buy—and we are going to give every person who purchases two wool blankets their choice of any other blanket or pair of blankets in the house—absolutely free—There is no trick advertising about this —no strings attached to this proposition whatever—“No Monkey Business”—The reason why we are making such a startling offer is this—to draw the greatest possible crowd of buyers together—Quick—as our time here is just about over—and—during the two days we are closing the store—we are making desperate effort to get out all the winter merchandise which has been packed away upstairs—up to this time—

That's about all we have to say now—but—whatever else you do—in justice to yourself—your family—and your pocket book—take the fullest possible advantage of the remaining hours of this Gigantic Sale—you will not have another such opportunity for a long long time—and That's the Truth—
