Al Smith seems to be gaining new friends all over the country. The man who makes hay while the sun shines is likely to get sun-struck.

An Atchison man is worried about his daughter. She spends her evenings at home. Once upon a time a Chinese army marched for four hours without trespassing on a foreign concession.

There's nothing against the inferiority complex, except that it doesn't affect the right people. Parson Straten has made an ass of himself by challenging Al Smith to a joint debate on religion.

A Racine, Wisconsin, man reports one of his hens laid an egg with three yolks. At least it isn't a white lie. Charlie Bryan is a full fledged democrat and is for the democratic ticket from Governor Smith down to the extreme end.

And the pistols' red glare, bombs bursting in air, gave proof through the night that Chicago's still there. Switzerland is enjoying her first Pullman train. It's easy to pronounce the car names if you can yodel.

Often the neighbors think the family next door has moved when it's just a case of a golf mound being the husband of a bridge fiend. Violinists are said to make good aviators because of their rhythm. Sounds reasonable unless they start to fiddle around up in the air.

One fine thing about these talking movies the pest who reads subtitles out loud will be thrown out of employment. America is learning good manners, but even yet there are many parents who speak disrespectfully to their children.

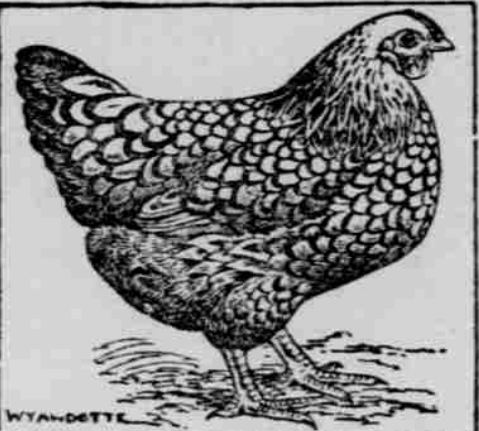

Certainly knowledge is power. We see by the way ad columns that young men with college educations are wanted to learn the chain store business. Twenty-five co-operative societies in Canada are reported to have sold $6,794,000 worth of merchandise last year, an increase of nearly $1,000,000 over 1926.

Night flying calls not only for special training but for a special type of man. Not every good day pilot makes a good night flier. They are trying to divorce politics from crime in Chicago, but it certainly can't be done on the ground of non-support.—Might try it here.

Commander Byrd has ordered a half ton of Hoosier popcorn for his trip to the South Pole, which will surely help to whittle away the long antarctic evenings. The public safety department of the California State Automobile Association finds that the most effective way of curbing reckless drivers is to take away their driver's license.

Two candidates in Greece went on a stumping tour and were captured by brigands who are holding them for a ransom of 5,000,000 drachmas.

They probably have small chance of collecting. Can you imagine a populace's raising 5,000,000 drachmas to have two candidates set free to continue their speaking tour? The thing for the brigands to do is to threaten to turn 'em loose. Then the drachmas will pile up.

JUDGE THOMPSON'S CAMPAIGN

Seldom does a campaign for any public office rise above political expediency. We have seen the Republicans returned to power under Mr. Coolidge without even referring to the villainies of the Harding regime. Mr. Hoover talks of the last eight years of Republican rule as if they perfectly illustrated the kind of government we profess in America.

Illinois, as the country has good reason to know, is politically one of the most corrupt states in the Union. It is so steeped in corruption that when Frank L. Smith was refused in the United States Senate the seat which had been bought for him there by the electrical power interests of his State, he resorted that he would achieve popular vindication by running again. He did run again, and the people of Illinois emphatically sustained the Senate. They had become aroused by one exposure after another, and at last expressed with emphasis what they thought of the kind of politics Illinois had been having.

President Calles of Mexico has issued a decree forbidding mothers from taking children under two years of age into movie houses on the grounds that it interferes with their sleep. President Calles, obviously, doesn't know what an excellent soporific some movies can be.

Keep cool and well. Heat bothers people who are not in best health. Keep your body strong and your mind clear and active these days by eating light, easily digested foods with plenty of roughage. Shredded Wheat has all the bran you need. Its toasted shreds of whole wheat are easily digested because they compel chewing — and are so good that you want to chew them anyway! Serve Shredded Wheat with milk and peaches or berries. Everyone will like it—and it's good for them.
