Louisville and Greenwood Two of the Places Visited by Blue Springs Youths Who Gain Little

From Tuesday's Daily—
A career of crime which lasted three weeks, involved six towns and netted five thousand dollars in merchandise but only $25 in cash was detailed to the Omaha police Saturday when Frank Hogue, 27, and Cyrus Hoke, 19, both of Blue Springs, Neb., confessed following their arrest on charges of robbery.

The two men came to Omaha six weeks ago, and decided to take up a life of crime. They had an automobile and a desire to make money quickly. Three weeks ago they actually started work.

In the period they broke into and robbed stores in Colton, Otos, Kendall, Louisville, Greenwood and Swede-horse, all near Omaha. They specialized on cigar stores, stealing cigars, sigarets and tobacco, but in Greenwood they robbed a general merchandise store and clothing.

Taken in East Omaha.
Their career came to a quick ending Saturday when police were warned that they were trying to dispose of stolen property. They were captured at Fifth and Locust streets East Omaha, by Detectives Munch and Krebs. They were taking some of the stolen property into the store of Carl Johnson, 591 Locust street. Police obtained a search warrant for the store, but found nothing.

Johnson was booked for investigation. He admitted that he had sold the boys a new car for $14 when their first one broke down, but said he had had no other dealings with them.

Tell of Hiding Loot.
Hogue and Hoke said they had cached about two thousand dollars worth of loot in a cornfield northwest of Omaha. Another large cache had been made, they said, in a barn between Millard and Ralston, but when they looked for it recently it had, in turn, been stolen from them.

They had managed to realize only $12.50 apiece on the stolen property. "Not enough," they added regretfully, "to pay for our gasoline."

Hogue, police said, seemed remorseful at leading Hoke into evil ways and said he wanted to take the blame for everything.

Several of the Champion and President 2nd Round Matches Not Played—Finals Sept. 9th.

From Tuesday's Daily—
The opening rounds of the Plattsmouth golf tournament on Sunday brought several upsets to the dope bucket and many of the veteran and heretofore invincible of the club players found themselves at long end of the score and making a number of dark horse entries into the second chapter of the annual golfers festival.

One of the chief upsets was when Rev. H. G. McClusky was a winner over J. W. Holmes, local nabby, in the opening round and bringing Rev. McClusky into the semi-finals.

The two former caddies, Frank Horsack and Donald Pittman clashed in the opening with Pittman as the winner and who in turn was eliminated in the second round by Dr. R. P. Westover, former South-eastern champion.

Another of the upsets was when E. A. Wurl gave a defeat to A. W. Cloidt in the opening round of play.

A case of the pupil being more skillful than the teacher was developed in the Erle Teepel-C. A. Rosenkrans match, and Clate regrets very much having shown Teepel the inside dope on golfing in the past year as Teepel was the winner over his former instructor.

The play Monday was interfered with by the circus and state fair and few of the matches were able to be played off but two of the championship fights were finished, Andy Moore defeating Erle Teepel and Dr. R. P. Westover winning from Donald Pittman.

Sunday Results.
CHAMPIONSHIP FLIGHT
Donald Pittman won from Frank Horsack, 1 up.
Dr. R. P. Westover won from L. W. Niel, 5-4.

A. O. Moore won from William Krecklow, 6-5.
Erle Teepel won from C. A. Rosenkrans, 2-1.
J. V. Hatt won from S. W. Bell, 7-5.
E. A. Wurl won from A. W. Cloidt, 5-3.
E. A. Fricke won from George Petring, 4-3.

In the President's flight the following was the result of the Sunday games.
William Baird won from C. E. Hartford, 1 up.
Paul Wohlfarth won from Robert Walling, 3-2.
Ralph Petring won from R. A. Bates, 1 up.
Lee McCarty won from Louis Horsack, 1 up.

The first round of the championship consolation was won by J. W. Holmes against A. W. Cloidt.

Monday Results.
Dr. R. P. Westover won from Donald Pittman 4-3.
A. O. Moore won from Erle Teepel 3-1.

Nebraska Health Winners Chosen

Ruth Long, Webster County, and Clyde Gadekin, Kimball, Selected Best Girl and Boy

Miss Ruth Long of Cowels, Webster county, is Nebraska's healthiest 4-H club girl, and Clyde Gadekin of Kimball county is the healthiest boy.

A staff of university doctors and dentists gave Ruth a score of 97.6 and Clyde a score of 95.45. The contest was so close that they called back the two highest girls and boys to look them over again.

Miss Elaine Turney of Douglas county placed second with a score of 97.3 and Arthur McGrath of Douglas county was second among the boys with a score of 95.25.

Ruth and Clyde will represent Nebraska in the national health contest at Chicago in December at the time of the annual club congress.

Ruth is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Long. Mr. Long is regent of the University of Nebraska. Ruth attends Cowels high school and has been in club work three years. She entered the contest with a badly swollen eye due to a sting but that did not hinder her in winning first place.

Clyde is the son of Mr. and Mrs. August Gadekin. He is now in the dairy club but has had two years of poultry club and one year of potato club work and is a member of the largest health contests in the state this fall.

Herman Rosse of Lincoln county scored the highest of the boys on posture and Margaret Mayburn of Furnas county was first among the girls. Clyde and Ruth were both high in the score of feet. Clyde won again on his teeth and Gertrude Heikes of Dakota county had the best teeth of the girls.

His silence spelled His Guilt, and yet...

HER face was deathly white. Her heart seemed to stop beating as she stared in horrified unbelief at the letter clutched in her trembling hand. A letter to Dave, her husband—from a strange woman—asking for money! Oh, it couldn't—couldn't be true!

And yet—who was this woman? Why had she written Dave this letter? Was there, after all, some romantic episode in her husband's life that he had kept hidden from her? Surely there had been some terrible mistake. Surely Dave could explain.

But that night, when she quietly handed him the letter, Dave sat with bowed head, in stony silence—his face a mask, to hide—what?

Torn between love and suspicion, between hope and despair, between faith and disillusionment, she searched her breaking heart in a piteous attempt to learn what she had done to deserve this crucifixion. All she had loved and lived for seemed to lay in crumbling ruins at her feet. God knew she loved Dave, no matter what he had done. And yet—

Farmers Gain the Most in New Radio Shake-Up

City Listeners Also Will Profit by Lessened Interference; Wholesale Slashing, Need

Washington, Sept. 4.—I rejoice that the commission has taken the action (promulgated in general order No. 40, issued August 30) necessary to improve radio reception.

After the most intensive study of all sorts of palliatives, the examination of every possible expedient, and the consideration of innumerable suggestions, the commission has determined that a major operation is necessary to cure the ills of broadcasting.

"The whole setup of broadcasting stations has been readjusted, in the new allocation now ready for announcement, in accordance with a definite, practical plan. Radio reception will be materially bettered for practically all listeners.

Farmers Chief Gainers.
It is noteworthy that, while all classes of listeners benefit under the new allocation, the farmers will be the chief gainers. They will not only be able to receive more stations reliably without interference, but practically all points on the radio dial will be free from the curse of heterodyne whistles. The city listeners will gain through heterodyne-free reception of their various local stations and also reception of distant stations free from interference.

In order to bring about these improvements, and introduce order into the broadcasting chaos, the commission was forced with two alternatives.

(A) The abolition of several hundred stations.

(B) The use of such expedients as time division and restriction of power on some of the channels in order to provide opportunity for the continuation in existence of approximately the present number of stations.

Best Plan Possible.
The commission having chosen course (B), I consider that the new allocation is the best that can be worked out.

In the few days since the allocation plan was announced, there have been some objections expressed which in general boil down to two:
(A) The frequencies of most of the stations are changed.

Thomas Walling Company
Abstracts of Title
Phone 324 - Plattsmouth

(B) There are considerable curtailments of power and time of operation of stations in the fourth zone. The commission's order establishing the basis of the new allocation shows that an exact equalization of the broadcasting channels among the ones has been attained. In my view the commission's action has fully justified the hope of radio men for the much needed improvement of broadcasting.—Omaha Bee-News.

He made clear the nonpartisan attitude of the federation itself.

Extension of the five-day week was characterized by Green as the outstanding accomplishment of labor in the last year.

Labor Day Attendance at Fair Great- est Ever; Thousands of Folk Visit State Capitol.

Lincoln, Sept. 5.—All attendance records at the state fair were exceeded Monday by more than 5,000, but that is not all of the story. There would have been several thousands more on the ground had it not been broadcast that there was not even standing room to see the circus. So thousands made up their minds to wait a day to see the fair, and instead went to see Nebraska's new $10,000,000 state house.

Guides recruited from the university student body piloted large groups through the building, explaining in detail the symbolic figures, translating some of the inscriptions and pointing out the ceramic art in the flooring. There some of the figures in the nude seemed to shock a few. The center of attraction is, of course, the great rotunda. Next to that is the governor's reception room and the adjoining room where he holds his public hearings.

Labor day was too crowded for talking politics, but the button dispensers were kept pretty busy.

Horseshoe Pitching.

Today practically every candidate for state office was on the grounds, together with four or five candidates for congress. Arthur J. Weaver and Charles W. Bryan were here making political hay when not mending political fences. Charley Pool, perennial candidate for secretary of state, was busier than a one-armed paperhanger with the itch, and Representative John H. Morehead's headquarters entertained many. Elmer J. Burkholder, former United States senator and candidate against Morehead, was much in evidence.

The first round of the horseshoe tournament began this morning. Thirty-eight players reported. Glen Uhlig of Cozad, winner in 1926 and 1927, is defending his title and Howard Robinson of Ong, 1927 runner-up, is determined to beat him out. Both of them will have to look out for little Fritz Kummerfeld of Tilden. Lee Englehaupt of Beaver Crossing and Emden Sommerhafter of Guide Rock, former champions, are again in the contest.

Palmer Welch of Seward won the dairymen's contest with his Guernsey bull, belonging to his dairy calf club. Dale Bush of Lewiston placed second, after losing 10 points because he was not dressed in the regulation 4-H uniform.—Omaha Bee-News.

WILL YOU LOVE ME THEN?

"When the rear end starts a-bumping
And the engine starts a-thumping
And the top falls down and hits you in the neck;
When the water starts a-hissing
And three cylinders are missing.
Will you love me when my fivver is a wreck?"

"When the front wheels are a-wiggling
And the bursted hood is jigglin',
And the rusty springs they bounce you all about;
When the squeaking never ceases,
And the windshield is in pieces
Will you love me when my Lizzie's down and out?"

"When both brakes are braking,
And the rattling doors are shaking,
And you sit upon the bare springs in the seat;
Will you love me like you used,
When she's crowing like a rooster,
And the oilcloth cushions look like shredded wheat?"

ADVANCES INTO SEMI-FINALS

From Wednesday's Daily—
The progress of the Plattsmouth golf tournament continued yesterday afternoon when Rev. H. G. McClusky, who on Saturday upset the dope by defeating James W. Holmes, advanced into the semi-finals of the tournament by winning from E. A. Wurl with the score of 4 up. The defeat of Mr. Holmes Saturday was a real surprise as the veteran golfer had been figured as a winner and Rev. McClusky by repeating the victory yesterday in retiring Mr. Wurl looks good for the genial pastor when he plays in the semi-finals against Dr. Westover, the former southeastern champion and one of the most consistent players of the local club.

The next play of the third round will be when Andy Moore plays Ed Fricke for the honor of entering the finals and the battle for the golf cup.

In the event that Rev. McClusky in the winner of the semi-finals the championship match will probably be played either Saturday or Monday as the pastor does not golf on Sunday but in case the other members of the club are the winners the battle will be staged as per scheduled on next Sunday.
