Murray Stores Again Visited by Burglars

Earl Lancaster and B. H. Nelson Have Stock Looted by Night Visitors Again.

From Friday's Daily—
The little city of Murray was again the victim of burglars last night and for the twentieth time Earl Lancaster was the victim of the work of the night callers and as the result is short a large part of the stock in the store, the exact value of which cannot as yet be determined.

The parties made their way into the double store building occupied by the B. H. Nelson hardware store and the Earl Lancaster general store, by forcing the window in the rear of the building and from the hardware store gained entrance to the room occupied by the Lancaster store and where the larger part of the loot was secured.

The robbery was discovered this morning when parties who reside north of the store building saw the open windows and an investigation revealed the fact that the stores had again been visited by burglars.

The articles taken appear to have been mostly wearing apparel, shirts, shoes, overalls and other articles of a similar nature being among the loot that the burglars made away with.

That the parties making the visit at the store were cool and deliberate about the matter is shown by the fact that they stopped and changed their clothes in the store, leaving the old and worn garments and changing to a new outfit at the expense of Mr. Lancaster.

That robbery appeared to be the work of some experienced hands and who were not in a hurry in making their getaway but took plenty of time in selecting just what they wanted from the stock and making away with it.

Sheriff Reed was notified of the robbery after its discovery this morning and spent some time at Murray but the fact that the robbery had occurred several hours before gave but little chance of getting on a "hot trail" of the robbers who had ample time to be many miles away before the robbery was revealed.

GETTING ON THE JOB

From Friday's Daily—
The F. L. Busche Construction Co., of Omaha, which has the contract for the paving in this city, covering some ten blocks, is getting on the job for the work and yesterday were moving their large concrete mixing machines to the scene of the paving operation and getting all ready for the work of starting the laying of concrete as soon as the grading and other preliminary work is finished.

While all of the streets that are in the new paving districts are in need of the pavement to make the hill streets more possible, the residents in the North 5th street district will find that it is a blessing in every way as that street has been kept in bad shape all of the summer by the rains that kept deep gullies washed in the roadway despite the work that the city placed on the road. The paving of the hilly streets will eliminate the city having to expand large sums each year and which are practically losses, as the rains make it necessary to repeat the work many times during the summer. The cutting down of the number of unpaved streets will permit the city keeping the other streets in better shape.

HONORED ON BIRTHDAY

Grandman Rosenow, one of the old time residents of this town, was the honor guest Thursday, Sept. 20, at a pleasant birthday party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Rosenow.

The time was spent in visiting and all of the members of the party came with flowers and gifts for Grandma. The members of the party joined in their congratulatory to the guest of honor who was passing her 85th birthday and in the wishes that she might enjoy many more such occasions.

At 5:00 o'clock a delicious dinner was served by Mrs. E. Rosenow and Roy Rosenow, grandchildren of the guest of honor.

The table looked beautiful with the yellow and white decoration of baskets and candles. The birthday cake was a beautiful angel food for the centerpiece. Wilken, Mrs. Pieper and sister, Mrs. Oertle of California, Miss Gougeon, Mrs. E. Rosenow, Miss Emma Rosenkoetter, Mrs. Weigert, and Mrs. I. J. Fuller.

Service to Community Part of a Good Citizen

Judge Begley Speaking at Nebraska City Before Rotary Club Outlines Lines of Citizenship

"A man's value to his community depends upon the service he gives to it, and that service, to be of value, must be a matter of sacrifice of his personal affairs," Judge James T. Begley told the Nebraska City Rotary Club Wednesday noon at the Frontier Hotel, says the Nebraska City News-Press.

Judge Begley was discussing "Citizenship" in connection with the annual observance of that important subject by the club.

"The qualities which, in my mind, make for good citizenship," Judge Begley told his interested hearers, "are industry, vision, courage, honesty, character and service."

"In this day when men have been found corrupt in public service and have violated the trust of their fellow citizens in their private affairs, we frequently hear that honesty doesn't pay," the speaker continued. "It is not true. Never has there been a time when men and women demand more honesty from their public officials or from those with whom they associate in a business way than at the present time. Honesty is conducted on honor, and no institution, public or private, can exist by engaging in questionable practices."

County Attorney George H. Heinke also spoke briefly along the lines of good citizenship and law enforcement.

Other guests of the club were Thomas E. Dunbar and John C. Miller.

From Friday's Daily—
The funeral services of the late Rudolph Wurga were held at the Holy Rosary church on west Pearl street and attended by a very large number of the school friends and associates of the young man, as well as friends of the family, to pay their last tributes to his memory.

The requiem mass was celebrated by Father Jerry Hancock and gave the last rites of the church to the deceased, who had been a faithful member of the church since his childhood. The wealth of flowers and the large number present attested the deep feeling of sorrow that the untimely death of the young high school student has caused in the community where he was born and spent his lifetime.

The burial was at the Catholic cemetery and the pall bearers were selected from the young school friends and associates, they being Henry Krejci, Raphael Janda, George Kalasek, Louis Sedlak, Joe Knoflicek and James Zitka.

The friends are hopeful that she may soon be in condition to undergo the operation and be back in her former good health.

Louisville People Hold a Fish Feed

Local People Attend the Annual Dinner of Chamber of Commerce of Neighboring City.

From Friday's Daily—
Last evening the Louisville Chamber of Commerce held their annual fish dinner at the auditorium in that city and in which members of the Plattsmouth Chamber of Commerce were invited to be present and enjoy.

The event was held in the handsome community building, which has just been decorated and arranged with a fine system of indirect lighting that makes it a very handsome place and one that is beautiful in every way.

The dinner, which was prepared by the E. P. Stewart cafe, was served by the ladies of the community and was one that was appetizing and delicious and embraced the finest fish that could be procured and with all the necessary trimmings that served to make it a feast that everyone will long very pleasantly remember and which everyone enjoyed to the utmost.

The dinner was presided over by Lee J. Mayfield, editor of the Courier and after the array of toothsome fish had been disposed of by the members of the party, Mayor Elmer Sundstrom extended the welcome of the people of Louisville to the visitors from the nearby cities.

The main address of the evening was made by Congressman John H. Morehead, who has been for the past six years the able and efficient representative of the people of the first congressional district at Washington and who gave one of his most pleasing addresses, speaking as a neighbor to his friends and detailing a little of the work that the congressman does at Washington. Mr. Morehead has been very active in looking after every interest of his people and his personal attention to the requests of the citizens regardless of politics or position has made him a world of friends over the district.

Charley Gardner, general secretary of the Ak-Sar-Ben, was present with the Omaha visitors and gave a pleasant response to the toasts of the evening in one of his characteristic speeches that kept everyone in a laughing mood.

Short remarks were made by Carl Humphrey, former Plattsmouth resident and now with the Standard Oil company, at Omaha, County Judge A. H. Duxbury and several others, which added to the interest and pleasure of the meeting.

Those from this city who attended the event were C. C. Westcott, president of the Chamber of Commerce; John Lahr, manager of the Lincoln Telephone & Telegraph Co.; L. O. Minor and ude Duxbury.

Mr. Shoemaker is making his home with Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Hall, who reside in his residence and have been looking after his care since he was taken ill. His son, Claude Shoemaker of Los Angeles, was notified yesterday of the very serious condition of the father and he is expected here to assist in doing what is possible for the aged man.

Norris Again Lauds Smith's Farm Views

"God Bless Him," Declares Senator Commenting on St. Paul Address—Outlines Plans

Washington, Sept. 28.—Governor Smith's plan for farm relief, as given last night at St. Paul, Minn., were indorsed again today by Senator Norris of Nebraska.

"I don't see how any man who backs up the McNary-Haugen bill can find fault with Governor Smith," he said.

Norris said the principle behind this equalization fee machinery was that the cost of selling surplus at a loss "on the other side of the tariff wall" should be assessed against the crop benefited.

"That principle was indorsed emphatically by Smith, both at Omaha and St. Paul," he continued, "and he has promised to call a commission to consider better machinery for operating the principle. I say God bless him and make him go ahead with his commission, if it can improve the machinery. If any man can improve the position of the McNary-Haugen bill, I take off my hat to him. I assume that the equalization fee will be accepted if nothing better can be found."

Norris repeated his previous assertion that he would not discuss the presidential candidates in forth coming speeches in Minnesota, North Dakota, Montana, Washington and Nebraska. The first speech has been set for October 5 in Rochester, Minn., where he will advocate the re-election of Senator Shipstead, farmer labor. Norris plans to campaign for senators up for re-election in the other states also, and he takes the position that discussion of the presidential candidates would not be material.

The Nebraskan said he could find no real difference between Smith and Hoover on the immigration question or plans for a waterway from the great lakes to the Atlantic.—World-Herald.

Miss Gering is very enthusiastically supporting the state and national ticket.

Miss Gering has accepted the appointment and will begin her duties immediately by getting in touch with the Democratic committeewomen throughout the county.

CARS HAVE SMASH UP

From Saturday's Daily—
Last evening a small auto smash-up occurred on the King of Trails highway near the sub-station of the Iowa-Nebraska Light & Power company, which resulted in a great deal of damage being done to the Whip sedan of John Urish and an Olds touring car from Pawnee City.

The cars were coming from opposite directions at the time of the accident. Mr. Urish and daughter, Miss Geneva, were going south to their home in the country, while the car from Pawnee City was coming north. The cars had started to pass, when they collided and as the result both were more or less damaged.

Fortunately none of the parties were injured and were able to return to their homes, while the cars were hauled to local garages for repairs and will be out of commission for some time.

Creighton Prep Wins from the Platters Friday

Locals Lose to Fast Omaha Team 18 to 0—Fumbles Prove Costly in Giving Foo Score

From Saturday's Daily—
The Creighton Prep school football team yesterday afternoon at the Creighton stadium were able to take revenge for their 13 to 0 defeat here last year at the hands of the Plattsmouth team, by handing the Platters a 18 to 0 defeat.

The Omaha team is doped as probably the strongest of the Omaha school teams this year and their opening game stamped them as hard foes for any team with Tony Marfil and "Red" Surber as the main cogs in the scoring machine of the Preppers.

This was the first game of the season for both teams and while the locals were losers they showed a good front to the overpowering foe with the exceptions of two costly fumbles, the breaks of the game, that allowed the Omaha team to start the plays that resulted in touchdowns, and with this hard game as a lesson the Platters will be able to show more steam in their succeeding conflicts the next of which will be the game with Tecumseh at this city on Friday, October 5th.

The scoring in the game Friday was in the first half of the game and twelve of the Preppers points were gained in the first quarter.

The first score came when on the Creighton kick, Herold, playing half-back and safety allowed the pigskin to get away from him on receiving and several of the Omaha warriors fell on the ball on the Plattsmouth fifteen yard line. On the first play from the down "Red" Surber, with a tight line of interference skirted the left end of the line and was able to carry the ball over for the first score. Surber failed on the kick as he did in the two succeeding tries.

The second score occurred when Marfil punted sixty yards to place the ball deep in the Plattsmouth territory and held the locals and then started their march to another scoring. Marfil shot around the end for a twenty yard gain and plunged by Caniglia put the ball on the twenty yard line of Plattsmouth. On a fake play on the left of the line the Platters defence was drawn and Surber slipped around the right end of the line to grab a fifteen yard pass from Marfil and was able to make the remaining ten yards for the second touchdown.

The last touchdown of Creighton occurred in the second quarter when another fumble of a punt allowed Creighton the ball on the Plattsmouth twenty-seven yard line. The Preppers were penalized and then Surber broke away for a seventeen yard dash to the fifteen yard line of the Platters. Fullback Caniglia carried the ball on a fake play for a fifteen yard gain and with the ball on the two yard line Caniglia plunged through for the final counter.

The Platters tightened in the second half and while unable to score held the plunging and resourceful foe on their plays and the last half of the game remained scoreless. For the Platters Bob Fitch, full-back, and John Teepell at left guard were the outstanding of the team and made several fine plays.

The summary of the game was as follows:
Prep. J. Hartford L. E. Smith (C) Farmer L. T. Dugan Teepell L. G. Mokry Spangler C. Ford Hirz R. G. Gepsor Lawton R. T. Mullaigue R. Hartford R. E. Mullen Hadraba (C) Q. B. Lyman Herold L. H. T. Marfil Wiles R. H. Surber Fitch F. B. Caniglia

Substitutions—Plattsmouth: Miller for Hirz, Stole for Miller, Dew for Wiles, McClanahan for Farmer, Galloway for J. Hartford, McCreary for Galloway.
Creighton Prep—Baile for Lyman, Henningson for Surber, Cash for Mullaigue, Murray for Gepsor, Barner for Marfil, Pace for Caniglia.
Touchdowns—Surber (2), Caniglia.

Score by periods:

MEDICAL LIBRARY SOLD

Will M. Maupin, for many years a Nebraska and Omaha newspaperman, left last night for Hastings where he will assume his duties as editor of the Democrat.

Mr. Maupin has served in many capacities on newspapers, from operating the old Washington hand press 40 years ago to the position of columnist and humorist. He was with The World-Herald prior to being associated with W. J. Bryant, Commoner at Lincoln. He was owner and publisher of newspapers at Gering and other towns of Nebraska. Maupin and "Doc" Bixby also "teamed" on the lecture platform until, as Maupin says, "everybody knew all our stuff. Then we had to quit and go to work again."

Prof. Deming is Granted Leave

Member University Faculty to Go to Chemical Research Firm for the Coming Year

Dr. Horace G. Deming, professor of chemistry at the University of Nebraska, has been granted a year's leave of absence in order to take charge of the Arthur G. Little, Inc., department of information, at Cambridge, Mass. The firm is the largest body of consulting chemical engineers in the world and employs between fifty and sixty men investigating the application of chemistry to the industries.

Professor Deming has already spent two summers with the firm in the laboratory where troubles of any sort of manufacturers are investigated and located. The firm occupies a building about the size of the university chemistry building and has a big technical library where information is gathered for the various departments. A group of a dozen while favorable to the idea thought that more information would be necessary before a real idea of the working of this form of government could be reached by the residents here where the city has been under the councilmanic form of government since its organization.

H. A. Schneider gave the best news of the meeting in the discussion of the bridge that is planned for the Missouri river at this point and stated that if everything progressed as it had been that work would be possible to get under way this fall and a great deal of work done this coming winter on the bridge with the structure in readiness next year to be opened for travel. This was a piece of information that the community has long been looking for and the remarks of Mr. Schneider received a very hearty round of applause for his statement and for his interest and work in boosting the bridge proposition.

DEATH OF OLD RESIDENT HERE

From Saturday's Daily—
The announcement has been received here by old time friends of the death in southern California of Walter Houseworth, a resident here for a great many years and brother of George F. Houseworth, former clerk of the district court and who is now living at Long Beach, California. The deceased Mr. Houseworth came here in the early seventies and made his home here for a number of years, being engaged as a clerk in the offices of the Burlington and later moved to Lincoln.

He was instrumental in the organization of the Degree of Honor in this state and was the first grand recorder of the order in the state, a position that he held until removing from Lincoln to the west. While here, Mr. Houseworth was married to Miss Kate Johnson, who was well known in this city, and when she died he was so tragically terminated, bringing to the parents and grandparents a deep and lasting sorrow. She is survived by the parents, one brother and one sister, the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Dasher and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goucheour, nine uncles and three aunts.

There will be a brief service held at the home in the south part of the city Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and the services held at the First Christian church at 2:30, with Rev. H. L. Grassmuck in charge of the service.

PURCHASES NEW TRUCKS

The Modern Construction Co., of which Henry C. McMaken of this city is the head, has grown in the last few years into one of the largest contracting firms in the state in handling paving and graveling contracts in all sections of the country. The business of this firm is growing very rapidly and as the result the company has just completed the purchase of a fleet of eight new White trucks that will be used in their contracting work over the state, a large part of them being sent to Alliance, Nebraska, near where the company has a large number of state road contracts.

The new trucks in addition to those already owned by the company will place them in position where they can handle any contract, however large, and which will be carried out with the usual McMaken policy of efficiency and service.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank those who were so kind to us in the hour of our bereavement, for the generous donation of cars for the funeral, for the beautiful flowers and other acts of sympathy and aid in the death of our father and grandfather.—The Children and Relatives of John Bueack.

Pow-Wow of the Chamber of Commerce Last Night

Small Attendance Checks the Expressions of the Commission form of Government

From Saturday's Daily—
Last evening the Pow-Wow of the Chamber of Commerce, the meeting which was voted by the members to be held once a month during the summer season, was staged at the auditorium of the public library and was but very small in the point of those attending.

Those who did attend the meeting, however, had a treat in the excellent little program that was given by the youngsters that were participating. Jean and Billy Knorr, the children of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Knorr were heard in a group of songs very cleverly given and in which they gave real jazz effects of the more mature entertainers. Joe Horsack, another of the talented little residents of the city, gave a group of the accordion solos that was very much enjoyed and reflected the greatest credit on the little man.

President Westcott stated that it had been desired to secure a speaker that would give the negative side of the commission form of government agitation, but had been unable to do so and asked various members of the chamber and the audience to give their views of the question.

In response to the request of the president of the Chamber of Commerce, brief remarks were made by H. A. Schneider, J. H. McMaken, Mrs. Fred Coryell, George Luschnisky, W. A. Robertson and Rev. H. L. Grassmuck, all in favor of the proposition, while R. W. Clement, E. H. Schulhof, C. E. Hartford, W. H. Paul while favorable to the idea thought that more information would be necessary before a real idea of the working of this form of government could be reached by the residents here where the city has been under the councilmanic form of government since its organization.

H. A. Schneider gave the best news of the meeting in the discussion of the bridge that is planned for the Missouri river at this point and stated that if everything progressed as it had been that work would be possible to get under way this fall and a great deal of work done this coming winter on the bridge with the structure in readiness next year to be opened for travel. This was a piece of information that the community has long been looking for and the remarks of Mr. Schneider received a very hearty round of applause for his statement and for his interest and work in boosting the bridge proposition.

With the small audience it was possible to secure an early adjournment and the meeting closed at 9 o'clock.

DEATH OF LITTLE CHILD

From Saturday's Daily—
The home of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Goucheour in the south part of the city has been sorrow stricken by the death of their little four-year-old daughter, Cordelia Olive Mae, who passed away last evening at 7 o'clock. The death of the little one occurred as the result of severe burns which were received when she secured some matches and lighting them caught her clothing afire and was so badly burned that death finally came to relieve her sufferings.

Little Cordelia Olive Mae was born at Plattsmouth on October 11, 1924, and was nearing her fourth birthday when the little life was so tragically terminated, bringing to the parents and grandparents a deep and lasting sorrow. She is survived by the parents, one brother and one sister, the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Dasher and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goucheour, nine uncles and three aunts.

There will be a brief service held at the home in the south part of the city Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and the services held at the First Christian church at 2:30, with Rev. H. L. Grassmuck in charge of the service.

HAS EARNED RE-ELECTION

A capable administrator is entitled to hold office just as long as he serves the people. Judge James T. Begley, of the Second Judicial district, has earned this right. He has a splendid record of efficiency. He has been able, courageous, desirous of expediting the business of his court. He has been patient, industrious and uniformly fair with those who have had business in his court. He has the respect of attorneys, litigants and the public.

There is no reason for making a change in the judgeship in the Second district and Otoe county, at least, will put the stamp of approval on Judge Begley's record by voting for him in large numbers in November.—Nebraska City News-Press.
