THERE was once a man who made a good salary. He always spent every cent he earned and boasted of never caring about the "tomorrow."

He told his banker that his pockets were stronger than the bank's vaults.

Today that man has nothing. His friends, who believed in the stability of the bank and who deposited part of their income regularly, have homes, cars and other conveniences.

Moral: Think about tomorrow and open an account in this bank.

They Had The Money.

Yes the Murray Branch of the Cass county Chapter of the Red Cross had the money on hands which was the call came for their quota which was $75.00, for the relief of the storm sufferers in Northeast Nebraska and South Dakota, and immediately the treasurer of the branch at Murray forwarded to the county chapter at Murdock. This is nice to have the money on hand and for what every one knows to be a very laudable purpose and knowing that it is to relieve actual suffering so near our homes. There will soon be a roll call, beginning Armistice Day and extending to Thanksgiving day, let every one rally to this call and so have a fund when the time shall come for another need.

Short Orders and Lunches.

I am prepared to serve short orders and lunches, and carry a stock of confectionary and tobacco and cigars
JOHN FRANS

An Interesting Meeting.

The Murray Study Club held their first meeting for the year on Thursday afternoon, Sept. 27th at the home of Mrs. Myra McDonald, hostess for the occasion.

Subject for the study hour, "Nebraska Character Education Law." The leader for the meeting was Mrs. Elsie Wiles.

This was a wonderful and instructive meeting.

Talks and papers were given which thoroughly covered the subject and proved one of the most interesting meetings the club has enjoyed.

So much interest is being shown and we are expecting wonderful results during the coming year.

At the close of the study hour refreshments were served by Mrs. McDonald and her assistants, Mrs. Pauline Young and Mrs. John Farris.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Stewart, Thursday October 21.

OPEN REVIVAL SERVICE

From Monday's Daily—
Last evening was the opening night of the evangelical services that are being held at the home of Mrs. Rev. Mitchell of New York, is holding for the next three weeks at the First Methodist church and a very pleasing number of the members of the various churches were present at the meeting.

This is a general revival and evangelistic service in which several of the churches of the city are interested and for which purpose the Methodist church has been selected as the place of holding the service.

Rev. Mitchell at his opening meeting took up the interpreting of God, calling as witness the forces of nature, the unbeliever, Moses, the apostles and the Christ, being a forceful and able discussion of the relation of God to mankind.

The evangelist has two assistants in his campaign, Theodore Potter and Miss Barbour, the latter in charge of the musical portion of the services and which is a great feature of the meetings.

Adding a great interest last evening to the forceful message of the evangelist was the large chorus of young people under the leadership of Miss Barbour, giving a wonderful musical setting to the services.

The meetings are to be held nightly at the Methodist church at 7:30 and to which all residents of the community are cordially invited to be present.

SCOUTS HOLD MEETING

From Tuesday's Daily—
Last evening the Plattsmouth Boy Scouts held a very interesting meeting at the high school gym and at which Carlton Hyde, scout executive of the Omaha area and Scout Eddy of Nebraska City were in attendance.

The local boys had the opportunity of seeing a fine demonstration of scout work given by Scout Eddy who demonstrated the building of a fire without the use of matches, the employment of flint in firemaking as well as other special features of scout training that were very much enjoyed by all the members of the local troops.

Mr. Hyde demonstrated to the boys, showing the various bows and the material from which the best bows are constructed as well as arrow making.

HAS CAR STOLEN

From Monday's Daily—
Joe C. Warga is minus his Ford touring car today, the vehicle having been left parked in front of the Warga home on West Main street last evening and this morning was among the missing. The matter was placed in the hands of Sheriff Reel who is trying to locate the car which it was taken it is thought by some one for a joy ride and will probably be found abandoned later. The car bore the license number 20-1160.

ASKS FOR JUDGMENT

From Tuesday's Daily—
An action was filed in the office of the clerk of the district court today in which Mrs. Anna Harzuis, the plaintiff and John Finkle, et al., the defendants. The action is one in which the plaintiff seeks to collect the sum of $2,000 alleged to be due on a note owned by the plaintiff.

Demonstration by Champion Team

The Domingo Brothers of Weeping Water, who received champion placing of all farm demonstrations at the State Fair, have been asked to demonstrate before the Poultry men's association. This association convenes at the Agricultural College, October 18, 1928, and the demonstration is scheduled for 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon of that day.

This is a splendid recognition of the boys ability to demonstrate and if you have not heard this demonstration it will be well worth your while to hear it.

4-H Final Reports.

We have already received some of the final reports from our summer 4-H Clubs. Is yours among those which have been turned in? If not lets make them out, write your story and give them to the local leader so that he or she can make out their local leaders summary. Let's all do our part toward having a 100 per cent finish up in club work.

Hot Lunch Clubs.

Yes, we have 4-H Clubs, also one which is especially practical for a winter club is the Hot Lunch Club. Have you ever heard of a Hot Lunch Club in your school and taken your turn as dishwasher, cook, housekeeper, bookkeeper, etc.? Talk it over with your teacher and see if she wouldnt like to sponsor a Hot Lunch Club. For further information call or write the Farm Bureau office, Weeping Water.

Stored Fruits and Vegetables Must Have Air.

Fruits and vegetables put in storage this fall should have lots of ventilation during the first few weeks. Fruits ripen even after they have been pickled, and should be given every opportunity to breathe. A shaded shed or covered crib is good place as any available on the ordi-

Woman's Club Holds a Very Fine Meeting

Fine Discussion of the U. S. Constitution Given by R. Foster Patterson of High School

From Tuesday's Daily—
Last evening the regular general meeting of the Plattsmouth Woman's club was held at the home of Mrs. R. A. Bates on North 7th street and very largely attended by the ladies to enjoy the fine program that had been prepared for the occasion.

The session of the club was presided over by Mrs. E. H. Wescott president of the club.

Mrs. Erle Teepell, leader of the meeting opening the session with the devotional period and in which selections from the ninety-first psalm was given.

The ladies enjoyed a short business session and in which the club took up the matter of the vacancy in the office of the treasurer, occasioned by the removal of Mrs. A. W. Baysendorfer from the city and to fill this vacancy Mrs. Bert Coleman was elected to the office.

The club also voted the sum of $25 to the Red Cross to be applied for the aid of the tornado sufferers at Walthill, Nebraska and vicinity.

The county convention that convenes at Nelawaka on Wednesday was discussed and a committee composed of Mrs. J. T. Begley, Mrs. J. G. Maury and Mrs. J. F. Wolf was appointed to arrange for transportation to the meeting.

In the selection of the delegate to the state convention at Omaha on October 23-25th, Mrs. Bert Coleman was named with Mrs. Fred Corryel as alternate to the state meeting.

The report of the different department chairmen were given, Mrs. Begley of the music committee reporting the first meeting on Tuesday at her home and announcing that the meetings would be the first Monday of the month. Miss Elizabeth McVey announced the home department would meet on second Tuesday of the month in the future. Mrs. Teepell of the year book committee distributed the books and received many compliments on the splendid manner in which the book was gotten up and this year book will be entered in the state contest at the convention.

Mr. R. Foster Patterson of the high school faculty gave the ladies an unusual treat in a discussion of the constitution, touching on the various parts of the organic law of the nation and in his very able manner making clear many of the points of this great instrument of law that the ladies were not thoroughly familiar with.

Miss Baldwin of the extension department of the county agent's office at Weeping Water was present and discussed her work in a very interesting manner and expressed her appreciation of the interest of the Plattsmouth people and the donation of $100 that had been made by the local Chamber of Commerce for her work. She also stated that two 4-H clubs had been formed in the local school under the leadership of Miss Gladys Harding and one under Miss Clara Weyrich and these clubs will hold a demonstration on Thursday afternoon at 3:15 at the school.

At the close of the evening the hostess served a very dainty luncheon that everyone enjoyed to the utmost and which proved a fitting climax of the most interesting meeting.

DEPARTS FOR CALIFORNIA

From Tuesday's Daily—
This morning Judge and Mrs. Allen J. Beeson, who have been spending the past four weeks here with Mrs. Beeson's brother, Edward Brantner, as well as the old time friends in this county departed for their home on the west coast at Long Beach, California.

The visit of this genial couple has been one of the greatest of pleasure to the many friends in this locality and the only regret is that the Beesons were compelled to return west and again bring the separation with the host of friends over the county.

The members of the family circle of Judge and Mrs. Beeson have all married and settled in homes on the west coast, the youngest daughter marrying a week ago and now the parents are again alone. Mrs. Beeson also has the care of the aged foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Waybright, both well advanced in years and whose condition largely caused the family to move west that they might be with this pioneer couple in their declining years.

However, the friends of Judge and Mrs. Beeson in this community are still trusting that they may again decide to come back to the old familiar surroundings and make their home here.

All the home news delivered to your door for 15c per week.
