Smith Would Aid Treatment of the Indian

Nominee Promises an End to Starvation of Children—Says Capital Wasted by the Bureau.

New York, Oct. 17.—Governor Smith today pledged himself to humanize the federal government's supervision of Indians, in a letter to Dr. Haven Emerson, president of the American Indian Defense association. Dr. Emerson previously asked both Mr. Smith and Herbert Hoover to outline their views on Indian legislation.

Governor Smith cites a report made at the request of the secretary of the institute for government research at Washington. It indicates beyond a doubt, the governor writes, "that more than 27 thousand Indian children, placed by compulsion in government boarding schools, are allotted only the amount of food that can be bought at 11 cents a day for each child; that though these children cannot fail to be dangerously undernourished on such a diet they are compelled to do hard industrial work that would be forbidden by child labor laws of many states; that they are housed in overcrowded, unsanitary buildings, subject to grave fire hazards; and that it is a marvel that they survive at all."

He further quotes the report to show that "contagious diseases have almost free scope" and that the death rate among Indians is two and one-third times that of the general population. "Meanwhile Indian property officially valued at $1,690,000,000 is handled without accounting," the letter continues, "without court review over the acts of the executive guardian, and without any voice on the part of the Indians as to the disposition of either principal or income."

"Proper application of these funds would undoubtedly make it possible to right many of the wrongs which the report discloses. . . .

"Starvation of Indian children will come to an immediate end if I am elected and I shall see that proper steps are taken to accomplish this end."

Entitled to Accounting
"I believe that the Indians are entitled to an accounting for the 72 million dollars of their income which are being handled annually by the bureau of Indian affairs and for the $1,690,000,000 of capital which the government holds in trust for their benefit. I shall take immediate steps to secure an accounting for them and provide for periodic accountings thereafter."

"Their capital should not be wasted or diverted to uses alien to their need, and I shall see to it that their income shall be employed to foster their activities and to relieve their destitution instead of being wasted in extravagant administrative expenses and diverted to uses to which the Indians are opposed."—World-Herald.

WORKERS GET INJUNCTION
Charleston, W. Va., Oct. 18.—By unanimous action the state supreme court today granted a temporary injunction restraining city authorities of Wheeling "from interfering with any lawful political meetings which may be held by the workers party" in Wheeling and Ohio county.

The injunction, issued upon complaint of three candidates of the party as presidential electors in West Virginia, stipulated, however, that the injunction would not become effective until the plaintiffs execute a bond for $200, before the clerk of the Ohio county court.

The plaintiffs, in their petition cited several instances where they claimed meetings were "suppressed" upon orders of Wheeling police and stated that Scott Nearing and another man were arrested recently as they started to address a meeting.

Central P-T-A Has Fine Meeting at School

Interesting Program Along Line of Literature in the School and Home Is Given.

From Friday's Dainty

Last evening the Parent-Teachers association of the Central building held a very fine meeting at their room in the school and which was attended by a large number of the patrons of the school and members of the association.

In the business session of the association Mrs. H. L. Thomas, who has been the efficient president of the organization tendered her resignation owing to the fact of other duties and her health not permitting her to longer continue in the work and the members named Mrs. W. A. Robertson as the new president.

The program of the evening was of unusual interest and a group of the children from several of the grade rooms of the school presented a character sketch of their favorite books, each appearing in costume to represent the book of their choice. This was very novel and entertaining.

Attorney J. A. Capwell was called upon and gave a most pleasing talk on "Good Books in the Home," which was a real treat and gave a splendid review of a number of the best books and the general value of the choicest literature in the home as well as the school.

Donald Cotner, one of the pupils of the school, favored the members of the party with a saxophone solo that reflected the greatest credit on the young man.

Miss Marjorie Arn gave one of her always enjoyed piano number in a most artistic manner and which was received with marked approval by the audience.

Jean and Billy Knorr, well known youthful musicians were also heard in several vocal numbers and their engaging presence and clever rendition of the numbers pleased the audience immensely.

Mrs. Frank Barkus reviewed the monthly publication of the national P-T-A and pointed out the many points of interest in the magazine. At the close of the evening dainty refreshments were served by the parents of the room of Miss Ault and which completed the very pleasant occasion.

FORMER LOUISVILLE MAN DIES IN DENVER HOSPITAL

Mr. Ramsey is survived by his widow and six children, all of Loveland. He also leaves four brothers. They are James and W. B. Ramsey, of Fort Collins; John, of Loveland, and Hugh, of Pingree Park.

For a number of years it was owned by the Spence family.

The Ramsey family is well remembered by our old time residents, the father of the family being a brother
