A party of hunters composed of E. A. Landon, Dr. W. H. McFadden, Lyman C. Marvin, and George Trunkenzol, departed for the northwestern portion of the state where they will and in fact are now enjoying a very pleasant season of hunting. During their stay there they are also joined by a physician, a friend of Dr. McFadden, making five in the party.

Was Witness to Accident.

While Walter E. Palling and wife were returning from a trip to Lincoln, and Robert Mathews was also returning one evening last week, they were surprised at the direction that ran into the car of Mr. Palling, with such force that the rider was thrown from the machine and the motorcycle continuing for one hundred and fifty feet, before stopping. When they had picked the unfortunate man up it was found that he had one of his feet literally torn from the leg at the ankle. They rendered what assistance they could and were able to have him taken to the hospital at Lincoln. Mr. Mathews who was driving behind was able to see the accident as it happened and had to run to the side of the road to avoid running over the prostrate man, said it was a most sickening sight.

Some time since August Johnson, while at work plowing had the misfortune to receive a very severe injury of one of his legs, which he believed would never heal. Instead it continually grew worse until he was compelled to go to the hospital for treatment and is there now, the leg being in a very serious condition.

Art Dingess has had a new radio installed at his garage which is providing political speeches for all who care to step in and listen, and at the store of R. M. Coatsman is also a radio so that either at the store or at the garage one can be furnished with news from all the world from politics, to the best construction of a woman's gown or the canning of the late vegetables.

Uncle Henry S. Ough, and daughter Mrs. Clo Schaeffer received a letter a few days since telling of the death of a brother of Mr. Ough, Wm. Ough, of near Waunconda in the western portion of the state who passed away at the advanced age of 87 years.

The wife is also very poorly, and she is not expected to recover. They both were pioneers in western Nebraska and have done their part in the rebuilding of this wonderful state.

On last Thursday, October 16th Uncle Henry Thomas who lives quietly by himself in his property of Main street, celebrated the passing of his 88th birthday anniversary, and was greeting his many friends in and about Alvo as he has in the years which have passed, and has added encouragement to all who have in the common lot of life been against the struggle of making a living. Uncle Henry has seen Nebraska grown from a wild and waste territory to the great state which now contributed so much to the feeding of the world.

Wm. Bornemeier and son have just installed a Myers cup elevator at the home of Otto Miller, north of Murdock. This elevator was sold by Mr. Bornemeier some years ago and installed in another building and with the later demands for more room at the home of Mr. Miller, a larger elevator was constructed and a re-installation had to be made and the elevator was found working well and with a slight changing of parts made as good a job as new. Mr. Bornemeier has sold some seventy-five of these elevators and only recently has installed them for August Ruge, Julius Rieke and Leo Rikill.

R. W. Boyer and family, of Lincoln, were visiting for a short time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Weichel, Mrs. Royer being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Weichel. On last Friday was the 62nd anniversary of the birth of A. H. Weichel, but as he was over to Weeping Water building a barn for Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Cook, the celebration of the passing of the event was deferred until Sunday, when all the family was present at the sumptuous dinner that was served at the Weichel home. Mr. and Mrs. Weichel were among the pioneers of Nebraska and have done their portion to make this the wonderful country it is.

Republicans Nominate a Ticket. On last Saturday evening at the county which was held by the Republicans after the preliminaries and looking after the business at hand, a ticket was placed in the field for the voters to select from as their officers the nominations being Charles Appelman for the position of precinct assessor, Art Skinner as road overseer and for the responsible position of dispenser of justice in Greenwood precinct, they selected Judge H. L. Bornemeier. They could not have done better in any of the instances, and especially was their choice excellent in the matter of the Justice which they selected.

Board of Education Entertained. On last Thursday evening at the Jordan Hall, the faculty of the Alvo school gave a very enjoyable evening with a program and a supper to the members of the Board of Education, and their wives. This was given in the style of a hard time sociable and many unique stunts were put on the program. A most enjoyable evening was had, and Simon Heebner and the good wife was the couple to win the prize as impersonating most vividly the character of hard times. It would have been appropriate to have said: "Hard times go away from our cabin door. Hard times, Hard times, come again no more."

Canning Club Sale. Cass county's first canning club sale was held Saturday afternoon, October 13th, in the Methodist church basement in Alvo, by the Sunshine Canning club. The members offered more than 100 jars of canned chicken, squash, beef, pork, pickles, jams, jellies, fruits and vegetables. There were 41 varieties. The girls sold lunches of cocoa, sandwiches, pickles and cake. The proceeds of the sale will be used for prizes, fruits, vegetables and the 20 pints in the budget were displayed on tables. Their state fair prizes and ribbons were also exhibited. The charter, posters and pictures adorned the walls. Festoons of green crepe paper completed the decorations of the large canning booth.

Genevieve Dougherty opened the program with the 4-H motto. All members then gave the pledge, followed by the program: Reading, "We Can," by Edith Robertson. Minutes of the July meeting, by Clara Rueter. Achievement Story, by Irene Rueter.

Readings, "If I Knew You" and "Bobby and the Silver Pitcher," by Lucile Christenson. Playlet, "Her Dream Came True," by Sunshine club. 4-H Camp at Bellevue, by Marvel Skinner. The Reporter's Job, by Edith Robertson.

Difficulties in Canning, by Genevieve Dougherty. Song, "Nellie," by Sunshine club. The assistant leader, Mrs. Orville Robertson, waited on customers at the sale counter.

The inclement weather, mud and freshly graded roads prevented one member, Rosebeth Clark, the county agent, Jessie Baldwin and L. R. Snipes, and many friends from attending the sale. The unsold jars were placed on sale in the Floyd Dickerson store in Alvo. As soon as they are sold, the club will hold its Achievement day and organize another 4-H project for 1929.

PLATTSMOUTH STYLE SHOW

Preparations for the greater Plattsmouth Style Show are coming along in fine shape and according to schedule. Various committees which have been appointed some time ago are reporting splendid progress, assuring a successful termination of the greatest style show ever held in this fair city of ours.

The interest in fall and winter fashions is becoming more intensely so as days pass by, with satin popular as ever, particularly in black, as is also velvet, both putted and plain. Frocks that are soft and feminine with their slightly, only slightly, lengthened skirts take on charming new dignity.

All these and many, many other admirably fashioned feminine creations will go shown on beautiful living models during the greater style show—the most interesting event in the history of Plattsmouth—at the Park Hotel on Wednesday, October 24th. Let us forget, Miss Columbia will then be with us to demonstrate fashions.

DENY A BRYAN STATEMENT

Columbus, Neb., Oct. 18.—Harold Kramer, chairman of the republican Platte county committee, today wired A. J. Weaver, republican candidate for governor, to express the opinion of Columbus national bankers voiced regarding recent democratic attacks of Charles Bryan.

Kramer's wire said the three national bankers in Columbus "who have been democratic wheel horses since the horse and buggy days of politics," denied Bryan's Seward statement that national bankers and republicans were in collusion to kill the state guarantee law.
