Passing of Mrs. George Oberle, an Old Resident

Member of One of the Prominent Families of Near Eagle Hears the Last Call

Last Sunday morning another of the early settlers, Mrs. Mary Oberle passed to her final reward after a more or less continuous illness of several years. Grandma Oberle, as she was familiarly known to most of our people, was highly esteemed by all for her many qualities of courtesy and neighborliness. She has been in declining health for several years though at time had rallied and was able to be out again. Her last illness dates back a few months and her death was not unexpected, as for the past few weeks she was confined to her bed unable to take nourishment.

The funeral occurred Wednesday from the Methodist church and the remains were laid to rest beside those of her husband in the Eagle cemetery. The following obituary was prepared by Rev. Zimmerman and read at the funeral service:
Mary Anna Stolz Oberle was born at Ottenheim, in Baden, Germany the 25 day of January, 1844, and departed this life October, 14, 1928, aged, 84 years, 8 months, and 20 days.

She came to Nebraska City when 27 years of age, and was united in marriage to George Oberle of that place, March 17th, 1873. To this union were born five children: Carl, George, Fred, Rudolph and Emil. She was preceded in death by her husband, and son, Carl, who departed this life at 6 years of age.
In the spring of 1873 they took up a homestead one mile west and one mile south of where Eagle now stands, the farm now occupied by George Hoffmeister, where they resided until the spring of 1914 when they moved to Eagle, where she resided until the time of her death.

RAWLEY IN NEBRASKA LINEUP

Those who drove to Lincoln last Saturday to see Nebraska defeat the Montana 'Bobcats' in a game of football, had the privilege of seeing Claude Rawley in action in the Nebraska line up during the latter part of the game. Rawley was called up on once to punt and did very well and on another occasion he "dumped" a Montana ball carrier who had broken through the left end of the Nebraska line.
Rawley spent the summer at Nehawka working for C. W. Stone and pitched ball for the Nehawka team while here. He hails from Kansas and we expect to hear considerable from him as a Cornhusker football player during the next couple of years.—Nehawka Enterprise.

Business Men's Gym Class Opens for the Season

List of Wounded Is Large and Members Show the Stiffness of the Summer Idleness

From Friday's Daily—
The Business Men's Gym class which has thrived here for the past three years is guaranteed to make strong men weak and weak men wrecks, opens its fall and winter sessions last evening at the high school gym and the task of keeping fit and retaining that youthful figure was taken up in real earnest by the members of the class.
William G. Kieck, who in the periods that he is not persecuting the wrong doer, is the instructor of the class, was on the job but for some reason there was not the snap that Bill used to show in the days when he was a youthful lieutenant in the air service and could work out the most snappy of exercises. In fact the instructor allowed the class to get by with only a few of the more modest and easy exercises and Claude Smith and Henry Schneider did not even lose a pound as the result of the exercises given.

The class was opened by the lung exercises led by C. E. Ledgeway, alias "Chick" and "Silent Cat" and who has some new and snappy yells for the season, but which for lack of space we are unable to give in their full horror. The residents near the high school are warned on Thursday evening not to be alarmed at the cries that may be heard from the building as it is merely the class yelling and not some student receiving punishment.
Speaking of punishment, John E. Turner, county treasurer, states that the students in school should join the class and learn what the real punishment is. John at the session last evening went into two tall spins and crashed, as a result of which he has did the larger part of the office work from the high desk in the treasurer's office.

Another of the casualties of the workout was E. H. Wescott, who has ventured into the realm of athletics instead of devoting his whole time in selling pink undershirts to brunette gentlemen and pale green undies to the blonde gents, and tickling the ivories, but after last night Hilt is thinking more of music than he ever did. The reason-Hilt was in the way of the volley ball.
After the strenuous workout and the various stunts the members sought to bring to the climax the evening of reckless athletics by a shower and that was where Frank Antonia Clodt, secretary of the board of education and member of the gym class was presented with a large and assorted bunch of "Razberries" on account of the fact that the temperature of the water was not as hot as the members are used to having, but Frank will see that this does not occur again.

MANY ATTEND GAME

From Saturday's Daily—
The Syracuse-Nebraska football game at Lincoln was the goal of thousands from all parts of the state and Plattsmouth sent a large number to the capitol city to enjoy the struggle, one of the biggest games that Nebraska will have this season. Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Bestor, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wurl, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Knorr, C. E. Hartford, W. A. Robertson, Robert M. Walling, Judge James T. Begley and son James, Jr., were among the enthusiasts that made the trip and helped to hoast the Nebraska stock.

We have a full stock of rough Cypress Cribbing, 6 and 12-inch, and Cedar Poles. If you are going to build a new crib or repair the old one, it will pay you to see us. We deliver anywhere.—Clodt Lumber & Coal Co., Plattsmouth, Neb.

Platters Drop Game to Ashland High Friday

Score of 25 to 0 Registered on the Local Grounds by Lawson Tribe—Show Good Form

From Saturday's Daily—
The Ashland high school football team under the pilotage of Vint Lawson, Omaha Central and University of Nebraska football star, were entertained yesterday at the baseball park by the Plattsmouth high school team and with the result that the visitors annexed the game by the score of 25 to 0.

In the opening quarter the game of the Platters showed real form and their offensive as well as defensive work was far better than that of the visitors, the younger and less experienced members of the local squad working well against Lawson's veterans in the opening part and serving as a real menace to the Ashland team. The passing work of Plattsmouth was good in this portion of the game.
The scoring of Ashland in the early part of the second quarter came when Ashland punted out of their own territory where the Platters were pressing them, the punt was received by Herold who fumbled and the ball was recovered by the visitors and from the local thirty yard line the march to the Platters goal was commenced. A pass well placed brought the ball to the Plattsmouth fifteen yard line where on the second play a line plunge by Hugo carried the ball over. The try for point failed.

The closing part of the second quarter again saw the visitors tally, when a long end run by Hoffman carried the ball over, but the Ashland player tripped over the sidelines to lose his advantage and the ball was put in play on the Plattsmouth twenty yard line and a flashing end run carried the ball to the local five yard line from where a line plunge with Kiser carrying the ball netted another touchdown.

The third touchdown came just at the opening of the final period of the game when the Ashland team was threatening the Plattsmouth goal and a smashing attack of the visitors placed the ball on the local two yard line from where Hoffman slipped around the end for the score, it being good by inches from being forced out of bounds.
The driving force of the visitors and the breaks against them seemed to dishearten the Platters and they lacked the resisting power in the final period to fight into the enemy territory and the ball was in mid-field or in the Plattsmouth territory the greater part of the time. The attempts of the Platters in the last half to punt out of danger was not effective and gave Ashland a continued advantage.

The final score came on a pass, and end run in the final charge over the line by Kiser for the final score and the visitors made good their final try for point to leave the score 25 to 0.
The game was refereed by Nickles of Malvern, Bezley of Peru, umpire, and Perry of Doane, head linesman.

HOLD MONTHLY CONFERENCE

From Friday's Daily—
The conference of Burlington officials was held today at the local shops by representatives from various parts of the system and to discuss the work of the mechanical department along the several parts of the system. Among those who attended the conference were Mr. Reece, assistant vice-president Bracken, Mr. Ridgeway, superintendent motive power of the Colorado Southern, General Car Forman Harvey, Superintendent of Motive Power Urbach, J. E. Wheeler general car forman and a large number of the minor officials and foremen of the system. These meetings are held monthly at various points over the system and as Plattsmouth is one of the important points on the railroad lines and in the center of the Burlington lines had the pleasure of being selected as the meeting place for the gathering.

Well Loved Boy Called by Death Angel

Youth Just Past His Majority Succumbs to Illness of a Year's Duration—Funeral Here

The funeral of Glenn Henry Stander, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stander, residing west of Louisville, was held from the M. E. church in Louisville last Sunday afternoon, the relatives and friends assembling in great numbers to pay their last tribute of respect to this splendid young man who was called by death just when he was entering upon manhood.
The services were in charge of the pastor, Rev. E. P. Booher, who spoke tenderly and comfortably to the sorrowing family. A male quartette from South Bend sang several fine numbers and the pall bearers were friends and neighbors and were William Neumann, William Blum, Otto Heil, Glenn Weaver, Leo Thimgahn and Paul Reinke. Interment was in the family lot in River View cemetery.

Glenn was born October 24, 1906, and departed this life October 11th, 1928, after an illness covering the last year or more. He was born on his father's farm two miles from South Bend and had lived on that place all his lifetime. He was a very lovable boy and was of a splendid character and held in highest esteem by all who knew him. He was industrious, an obedient son and possessed many sterling qualities that endeared him to all. He bore his sufferings with great patience and courage. He was 21 years, 11 months and 17 days old.
Besides his parents, he leaves four brothers. They are Cecil, living near Ashland; Charles, Harold and Herbert, at home, and two sisters, Mrs. Evelyn Roerber and Mrs. Helen Moonvey, near South Bend. He also leaves many other relatives and a host of friends.—Louisville Courier.

PROGRAM OF STATE CONVENTION

The program of the thirty-third annual state convention of the Nebraska Federation of Women's clubs has been completed for the meeting by Mrs. E. H. Wescott, chairman of the program committee and offers a great array of talent in all lines at the meeting to be held in Omaha, on October 23rd, 24th and 25th.
There will be a large number of the local ladies attending and special features of the convention of the greatest interest to the local ladies are given below so that those who wish to enjoy these treats may have the opportunity.
One of the features of the convention will be that the music will be by Nebraska composers.
The convention meets at the First Methodist church, 26th and Davenport streets and the official headquarters will be at the Hotel Pontenelle.
The convention opens on Tuesday morning and in the afternoon session Miss Mary Ellen Brown will speak on "The Helps Offered Free by the University of Nebraska."
On Tuesday evening Miss Josephine Schain of New York City in an address on "Problems of Social and Juvenile Delinquency."
On Wednesday afternoon Judge Martin J. Wade of the U. S. court for the state of Iowa will speak on "America's Greatest Problem."
On Wednesday evening Mrs. Ona Baird of this city will give the first district a dramatic reading, "Handful of Clay" with the piano accompaniment by E. H. Wescott of this place. At this session of the convention Tien Lai Huang of China will address the convention on "Christianity and International Relations."
Thursday evening Bess Gearhart Morrison will be heard in selected readings from Nebraska authors.
