City Council Has Usual Grind Last Evening

Question of Paving North 11th Street Again Comes Up in Form of Petition from Residents

From Tuesday's Daily—
The city council held their regular session last evening at the council chamber but they were unable to have a full attendance as Councilman Blunt of the fifth ward was absent. The council has not had all of the members present at any session for two years, illness, vacations and other matters keeping some of the legislators away from the meeting each time.

A petition was received from John M. Meisinger asking permission to cut into the curb in front of his residence on Elm street so that a driveway might be made into the place. The matter was referred to the streets, alleys and bridges committee with power to act.

The Plattsmouth Water corporation addressed a letter to the council in which it was stated that the board of equalization of the county had raised the valuation of the water plant for taxing purposes $15,000. The company stated that they would endeavor to retain the rates for water service at the figures now in force and which had been set by the federal court as the water corporation wished to furnish the service just as cheap as possible to the consumer.

The question of paving North 11th street which has been battled back and forth for the past ten years, was again brought to the attention of the council in the form of a petition signed by sixty per cent of the residents of that proposed district. After the reading of the petition the matter was referred to the streets, alleys and bridges committee for their examination and checking and after a short time the committee returned with their report.

Chairman Kunsman asked that further time be granted the committee to investigate the matter before the recommendation for the district was made. In response to inquiries from Councilman Smith of the second ward where the proposed district is located, Mr. Kunsman stated that there was considerable property abutting on the street that the city might have to take for the paving tax and he wished more time to examine whether or not the property would be worth the tax.

Councilman Smith thought that as the law was mandatory on the creation of the district where petitioned for, that it should be created as this seemed the final outcome of the case. He has to take more time to report Mr. Kunsman was supported by his fellow committeeman, Councilman Hayes of the fourth ward, who stated that there was some property that should be looked over before the city made themselves liable to have to take and make the city as a whole have to pay the cost.

The matter was finally adjured by Councilman Smith seconding the motion to give the committee more time.

The bill of Dr. E. J. Gillespie for $5 for fumigating the G. E. Weaver home at that of C. H. Roesler, who had been present to testify as a refund of taxes was referred to the claims committee.

Councilman Clement stated that members of the city council and the mayor had visited the land east of the Burlington station where the city sewers have their outlet but only one of the property owners, Adolph Geise, had been present to confer with the city in regard to changing the line of the present sewer outlet to the Missouri river. Mr. Clement stated that he was in favor of the property owners making some deed or waiver of property to the city that would be necessary in cutting a new channel for the sewer creek.

Councilman Smith reported on the claim of Albert Funk for $10 for the broken in grading for the Marble street paving, that the contractor stated that he would pay the city for the damage and who could then repay Mr. Funk.

The various estimates of work done in the various districts were then read and approved, showing the sum due in district 53 of $1,512.80, in district No. 54 of $4,797.80, and in district No. 56, $576, the cost of curb and gutter in the last named district.

An extradition then gave a short talk on the city finance in urging that the warrants on the new paving work be disposed of to the board of education where the city would have a profit in the warrants as the interest paid would be secured by every kind of paving, registered warrants and school bonds the total was $361,000, but of this the sum of $10,000 had since been paid and $36,000 was already to be paid on the retirement of the school bonds, which excluding the paving costs left the bonded indebtedness at $210,000 and only $11,000 more than in 1890. Since that time the city had paved 115 blocks or ten miles of paving, had created and placed in the electrifier system, constructed many miles of permanent sidewalk and many other improvements.

The following claims were ordered paid by the finance committee of the council:
S. S. Davis, comp. Ins. $154.46
Mid-West Gen. Elect. Co., 61.90
Mid-West Gen. Elect. Co., 28.00
John Ziska, street work 14.40

Standard Traffic Control Urged by Engineering Board

Pittsburgh—Standard traffic control in American cities was recommended Oct. 19 at the meeting of the administrative board of the American Engineering Council. Eighty-three recommendations for attaining a standard system were contained in a report of the committee on street traffic signs, signals and markings.

The committee, headed by W. B. Powell, of Buffalo, N. Y., announced that its report was the result of a survey conducted in 35 states and more than 100 cities having a total population of more than 33,000,000.

The report said that cities were endangering traffic control by employing wrong practices, adding, "It is clearly obvious that some cities are making two fundamental errors in installing street traffic signs, signals and markings."

One error being committed, the report stated, is the placing of traffic control devices without adequate study of conditions which their use is intended to improve, or of the evil effects produced at some intersections resulting from the attempt to correct undesirable conditions at one particular intersection. Employing traffic control devices at places and times not justified by the conditions was pointed out as the second error.

"If these tendencies continue," the report said, "the inevitable result will be a public recognition of the errors and a consequent neglect or unskillfulness toward street traffic signs, signals and markings. This neglect will lead to the ultimate defeat of useful and effective methods of traffic control."

COMMUNISTS NOT WANTED

London, Oct. 22.—(Monday)—The Daily Sketch said today that the government had decided to dismiss all communists new employed at the Woolwich arsenal and the naval dockyards unless they renounced their allegiance to communist doctrines. The paper said the decision was due to reports to the government of communists agitation among workers at the Portsmouth, Devonport and Chatham dockyards and to the open revolutionary aims of the communist party.

Episcopalians Hold a World Peace Meet

Delegates Hear Praise for Anti-War Treaty at Out-door Assembly—Kellogg Letter Read

Washington, D. C., Oct. 21.—On the grounds of the National cathedral, near the spot where a peace cross was erected 30 years ago to commemorate the ending of the war with Spain, the delegates to the forty-ninth triennial conference of the Episcopal church gathered today at a mass meeting in the interests of world peace.

The Kellogg-Briand peace pact which was landed in a resolute yesterday by the house of deputies in general convention, was further extolled by Rev. C. Ashton Oldham, bishop coadjutor of Albany, N. Y., principal speaker at the outdoor service.

A letter from Secretary of State Kellogg was read before the meeting. "We are all determined that the curse of war shall not again devastate the nations," he wrote. "The most certain insurance against this is the training of the thoughts of men in the ways of peace."

"But with the best good will we know that peace cannot always be maintained unless the nations have a method of settling disputes other than the old method of war. Therefore, it behooves the government steadily to develop, and to codify in the form of treaties, the principle of conciliation and arbitration."

"Just so, I believe, the general pact for the renunciation of war, accepted by most nations of the world, is another great forward step."

LANDSLIDE ON SHIP CANAL

St. Catharines, Ontario, Oct. 21.—Two men are dead and five others are in hospitals here with injuries suffered in a landslide on the Welland ship canal at Thorold Saturday. The body of one was recovered by rescuers a few hours after the accident. He had been thrown against a steel dump car in the new canal channel and had died beneath the slide. Another died in a hospital after his leg had been amputated.

Ten men in a working crew were in the new canal channel when the clay above gave way and swept down the bank. Seven were partly buried. Three others, only slightly injured were taken home after emergency treatment.

Those in charge of laying a track along the bottom of the new channel said they believed the jarring of heavy trucks along a highway detour at the edge of the canal was responsible for the landslide.
