UNION NEBRASKA

R. E. Foster and L. G. Todd were over to Nehawka on last Wednesday, where they both purchased a very fine bear for their herds of Hampshire hogs.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Murray of Sumnerfield, Kansas, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Eaton, Mrs. Murray being a sister of Mrs. Eaton.

Pat Roddy is getting his confectionery and cafe ready for business and in fact he is conducting the place now and will have the cafe ready in a short time.

Clifton Clarke, of Omaha, accompanied by his family, were visiting with friends and relatives in Union and vicinity for the day on last Monday, they driving down in their auto.

W. O. Burbee during the past week sold to Henry A. Chilcott a very fine car of the Hupmobile make and one which will give much good service to Mr. and Mrs. Chilcott, a de luxe sedan.

The Junior class of the Union High school pleasantly surprised the superintendent when they appeared with well learned lessons in the Algebra class. He is willing that they keep up the practice.

The Nehawka bridge which is soon to open the Weeping Water at a point just below the one now in use, will be started in a short time, as there remains only three weeks of the contract time in which to complete the structure.

L. J. Austin was hauling coal for Harry M. Frans who last week returned from the hospital at Omaha, where he recently underwent an operation and is at this time getting along nicely and hopes to be in his usual health soon.

E. E. Leach and W. B. Banning are showing commendable dispositions for improvement in the gravelling of the approaches to their homes, and now they can get into and out of their yards without having to plow through the mud.

Mrs. C. D. Austin was a visitor in Nebraska City on last Sunday, where she went to assist in the care of her sister, who was injured in the auto wreck late Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Joseph Hill, and went again Tuesday, as there were plenty to help on Monday.

On last Sunday, Rev. W. A. Taylor and wife were over to Murray, where they conducted services at the Christian church and notwithstanding the rain which prevailed, they had a good meeting. There will be services at the same place on the coming Lord's day evening. All are welcome to these services.

Mrs. F. R. Gobelman and Mrs. C. A. Rosencrans were in Union on last Monday afternoon, stopping on their way to Nebraska City, where they went to visit with Miss Lovey Hiatt, sister of Mrs. Gobelman, who was so seriously injured in the auto accident of Sunday afternoon. Miss Hiatt, it

SENATOR REED RENEWS ATTACK

Missouri Senator Says That Herbert Hoover is An Opportunist.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 20.—Senator James A. Reed of Missouri, in a campaign speech here tonight, renewed his attack on Herbert Hoover's patriotism.

"There is one consoling fact in this campaign," Reed began. "We have the chance to vote for one man whose citizenship does not require an official certificate."

"Nobody has ever suspected Al Smith of being a naturalized British subject. His name has never been certified to a British election board as possessing the voting qualifications of a British taxpayer."

Never in Question. "Al Smith's place of residence has never been in question."

"Smith has not been obliged to maintain a ghost habitat at Stanford university, or at any other place. Governor Smith has never been tendered an English title by the British government."

"Al Smith's investments are not so large as to require syndication."

Tonight was the first time since the democratic national convention that nominated Governor Smith for the presidency that the tongue of the grey and vitriolic Missouri senator had been loosed in such a bitter attack on the republican presidential nominee's citizenship.

Hoover Not a Republican. Reed went even farther than that. He said that Hoover was not a republican; that he was a changeling and an opportunist.

In 1920, said Reed, Hoover was boomed by Colonel House as a democratic successor to Woodrow Wilson and Hoover was acquitted.

Senator Reed quoted from public statements of Senator Charles Curtis (Hoover's running mate), Senator Simeon D. Fess, of Ohio, who delivered the keynote of the republican convention this year, and Senator William E. Borah, who is campaigning for Hoover, to show that those men formerly were critical of the candidate they now are supporting.

Belgium Imported Food. He set out to explode the myth that Hoover was the savior of Belgium when he served as food administrator during the world war.

"In the feeding of the Belgians," Reed said, "Mr. Hoover was, in fact, performing a great service for the British and French governments. The simple facts are that Belgium imported a large part of her food supplies. When Germany invaded Belgium, England caused the closing of the ports of Holland through which Belgium received her supplies."

"Accordingly, arrangements were finally made by which Germany stipulated that supplies to the Belgians would not be seized, but the supplies must be sent in through an agency of neutrals."

Reed said that France and England wanted the Belgians to have food so that the morale of the Belgian army would not go to pieces.

Farmers Suffered During War. "He (Hoover) bled the farmers white during the war," said Reed. "He reduced the price of farm products far below the war level, whilst the farmers were compelled to buy at war level. But now comes Mr. Hoover and says he has a remedy for the farmers. He does not know just what it will be, but it will be something."—Lincoln Star.

Miss Lovey Hiatt, of Sidney, Iowa, was coming north and was accompanied by her brother-in-law, Frank R. Gobelman, of Plattsmouth, and Mrs. Blanche Streight, of Sidney.

Miss Hiatt was driving one of the new Fords, with which she was not overly well acquainted, having driven one of the old style Fords prior to the acquisition of this one. At the same time Joseph Hill and family, of Percival, Iowa, were returning home from a visit with friends and relatives at Murray and Union, and were going south, being just south of the narrow bridge near the home of Jay Austin. Another car was between them, occupied by Fred Cleveland, and in coming down the hill Miss Hiatt's car gathered a lot of speed, causing her to turn out to pass the car of Mr. Cleveland and she did not notice the car of Mr. Hill until it was too late to avoid a collision. The cars came together with much force and in the shake-up, four were very badly injured, they being Mr. and Mrs. Hill, Miss Hiatt and Mr. Gobelman. The three former were taken to the hospital at Nebraska City, but Mr. Gobelman was removed to his home at Plattsmouth. The two Hill children, who were in their car at the time, escaped without serious injury, as did Mrs. Streight, the other occupant of Miss Hiatt's car.

J. W. Hill, a brother of Joseph Hill, the injured man in the wreck, in company with his wife, daughter and the latter's husband, while en route to Nebraska City Monday to see the injured relatives, stopped at the scene of the accident and was struck by a passing car, with the result that his own bus was damaged as well as the occupants shaken up considerably.

Box Social Oct. 30th There will be a box social and program at the Ervin school district No. 10, two miles north and two and one-half miles east of Union, Tuesday, October 30th. Ladies bring boxes.

Smith Stronghold is Entered by Mr. Hoover

Sixth Campaign Address of Republican Candidate to Be in New York

New York, Oct. 21.—Herbert Hoover and his party arrived in New York at 9:30 o'clock tonight by special train and went at once to the Waldorf-Astoria hotel, where the republican nominee will hold conferences and receptions tomorrow until almost time for his address at Madison Square garden.

Seats for this great republican rally have been scarce for weeks and the occasion is to be made the most effective demonstration of strength which the party is capable in the stronghold of Governor Alfred E. Smith.

There will be no parading by Hoover and no public appearance except the one at night, which after he will go on board his train for the return to Washington.

This will be the sixth major campaign address that Hoover has made and his last appearance in the east before election day.

Root Will Preside. Elihu Root will preside at the Garden meeting and Vice-President Charles G. Dawes will speak for the first time in this campaign. He will precede Hoover. His address is a sort of summing up and final challenge to the democrats on economic issues.

Crowds were waiting at all available points of access to his train and the station exits when the candidate reached New York. They were held back by police lines from crushing close to the Hoover party, but cheered him as he was hurried into the first of a line of waiting automobiles.

Several thousand were gathered in the streets outside for another noisy welcome, in which Smith cries were mingled. The way to the hotel had been policed but few persons were waiting along the street.

Hoover will be in touch with the latest aspect of the New York state situation at breakfast tomorrow morning. If he gets into the White house he probably will continue the Coolidge breakfast conference habit. For tomorrow morning he has invited among others, General Harbord, James Francis Burke, William Nelson Cromwell, Richard W. LaFrance, Herbert N. Strauss, Tilson, Senator Moses, Jeremiah Milbank, his assistant, and George Akerson.

Breakfast Conference. After breakfast Hoover will meet a number of groups of foreign born voters. The various national groups will be met separately and will thank Hoover for his part in the European relief work.

During the afternoon a number of delegations from independent organizations working for Hoover will call upon him. The largest will be the Hoover-Curtis Theatrical league and the Republican Service league. Editors of New York papers will also be received. These receptions will conclude about 5 o'clock, and Mr. Hoover will then dine privately and rest before going to Madison Square Garden.—World-Herald.

MARRIED AT COURT HOUSE From Tuesday's Daily—Yesterday at the court house occurred the marriage of two of the popular and well known young people of Pacific Junction, Miss Ann Garges and Mr. Roland Lloyd Moore. The young people motored to this city accompanied by Mrs. J. T. Hickson and Mrs. W. L. Calentine, relatives of the bride and who witnessed the ceremony. The marriage lines were read by County Judge A. H. Duxbury in his usual impressive manner.

RICHARD L. METCALFE
Nebraska's Choice for
U. S. Senator

"He is an ideal champion for the toiling masses in this state and nation because he is one of them. It has been easy for him to express their view of life because that has been his outlook. When he pleads the cause of the man who tills the soil, it is in behalf of a cause to which he has devoted his splendid talents for many years."

A Sacred Public Trust

"A sacred public trust" aptly defines the duties of your County Judge

WHEN you answer "the summons of death," the disposition of all your property comes under the jurisdiction of the County Judge. It is he you must trust to guard and protect the interests and welfare of your loved ones. You have a personal interest in the election of a County Judge who has had actual legal training and experience in the practice of probate law, who is incorruptible, fearless, and yet whose "heart beats in human sympathy," and who will extend every kindness, courtesy and thoughtful consideration to your dependent family when they appear in the County Court to settle your estate, and who will protect their property interests according to law.

Upon this basis, I respectfully and earnestly ask for your vote at the coming election.

ELMER J. BURKETT, REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS

will support Herbert Hoover as President and not annoy him, and thus our District will have an active, affirmative part in the affairs of government. Read this comment:

"Senator Burkett, Republican Candidate for Congress, makes no apologies for the fact that he introduced bills and made speeches when he was in Congress. Over at the Burr picnic his opponent said that speeches and introduction of bills was a useless extravagance. When Senator Burkett came to reply, he said that he had always believed that the needs and ideals of his District ought to be advocated and fought for on the floor of Congress, and that he had introduced a good many bills and made a good many speeches in the past and would do so in the future. He referred to his speech for free lumber, for rural free delivery, irrigation, more liberal pensions to soldiers, educational and agricultural bills all as worth while.

"He stated that a good many of the bills that he had introduced have become law, such as the Postal Savings Bank bill, the Boiler Inspection bill, Free Lumber, Teaching of Agriculture in Normal Schools, Pension bills and others, and that if the people elected him, he would be found in the future fighting for their interests and their needs, just as he had done in the past."
