Death of Morgan Waybright Occurs at Los Angeles

Well Known Resident of Cass County for Many Years—Native of Virginia and a Confederate

From Monday's Daily—
The message was received here this morning of the death last evening at Los Angeles, California, of Morgan Waybright, for many years a resident of this city and who has for the past few years made his home at Los Angeles.

Mr. Waybright was a native of Virginia and when a youth was enlisted in the southern army at the outbreak of the civil war, being captured in one of the early engagements of the army of Northern Virginia and was held as a prisoner of war for several years, being released at the close of war and returning to his old home in Virginia where he was married to Miss Elizabeth Brantner. The family to avoid the troubles and privations of the day after the war came west and in 1866 arrived at Plattsmouth where they made their home for many years and left here some ten years ago for the west where they have since resided. In the last few months Mr. Waybright has been in falling health and his recovery was given up some time ago as the progress of his trouble and the old age made his condition very serious.

He is survived by the aged wife and a foster daughter, Mrs. Allen J. Beeson as well as several other nieces and nephews.

The message received here did not give the details of the arrangements of the funeral but it is expected that the last services will be held in Los Angeles and the interment made there.

YOUNG PEOPLE HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Wehrbein are now at home to their friends at the farm home of the groom's parents south of this city, following their marriage the past week at Lincoln. The wedding of Miss Julia Troop and Victor Wehrbein, which was held at the residence of the Rev. Paul Calhoun, pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Lincoln and was a very quiet affair, the only attendants being the parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. William Wehrbein.

The young people are planning on spending the winter at the Wehrbein home and later will locate on a farm of their own to make their home.

The young people are well known in this portion of Cass county and are members of some of the oldest families of the county and who have resided in this community for a great many years. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Troop of near Nehawka and where she was born and reared to womanhood, graduating from the Nehawka high school, and at the time of her marriage was a student at the University of Nebraska. The groom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. William Wehrbein and was born and reared in the community where he now makes his home. Since completing his school work at the Plattsmouth schools Mr. Wehrbein has been engaged in farming and assisting his father at the farm south of this city.

The many friends of the young people will join in their well wishes to this splendid couple for their future and happiness and welfare.

FUNERAL OF ROBERT HAWKINS

From Monday's Daily—
Yesterday afternoon the body of Robert D. Hawkins arrived in this city from Lincoln on No. 2 over the Burlington and was taken direct from the train to the Oak Hill cemetery where the interment was made. Mr. Hawkins was a son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Hawkins, former residents here and was born in this city twenty-nine years ago. He has been in poor health since childhood and has spent the greater part of his lifetime in the hospitals. The father preceded him in death several weeks ago and was also laid to rest at Oak Hill.

The funeral services were held at Lincoln on Sunday morning with the Rev. D. S. Thompson officiating, the body accompanied by the two brothers, Fred and Lester Hawkins, being entrusted at once after the service for this city for interment.

VERY HAPPY EVENT

A fine little daughter arrived on Friday evening to make happy the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Snyder south of this city. The mother and little one are doing very nicely and the occasion has brought a great deal of happiness to the parents, grandparents and other relatives. Mrs. Snyder was formerly Miss Mabel Ledgway of this city. On the happiness that has come to them, the parents will receive the best wishes of the friends for the future happiness of the little lady.

HAS NEW POSITION

From Monday's Daily—
Miss Catherine Gradoville of this city, who has been engaged as stenographer at the offices of Attorney A. J. Tidd, has accepted a position at Omaha, where she is now employed by the Cowhill Coal Co., at their offices as stenographer. Miss Gradoville is a very efficient young lady and one who is well qualified for her new work and which is a pleasing advancement in her line of work. Miss Gradoville is a graduate of the class of 1927 of the Plattsmouth high school commercial department and her many school friends are pleased to learn that she has secured so fine a position in the state metropolis.

Congressman Morehead Still Has Small Lead

With Several Precincts Yet Unreported Democratic Candidate Has 534 Lead in District

From Thursday's Daily—
Congressman John H. Morehead was hanging to the lead in the race for congressman in the first district reports this afternoon from Lincoln state, having a margin of 534 over Elmer J. Burkett, with several scattered precincts in the southern part of the district as well as a few in Lancaster county to be heard from. The total so far tabulated was Morehead, 35,834, Burkett 35,300.

The vote of Congressman Morehead in the district outside of Lincoln gave him a lead that may withstand the plurality of Mr. Burkett in Lincoln. The largest of the pluralities of Morehead being in his own county of Richardson where he received 1,600 in Otoe county, 315 in Cass and 500 in Nemaha county, with the vote of Pawnee and Johnson not tabulated as to majorities.

HOLD A FINE MEETING

From Tuesday's Daily—
Last evening the regular monthly meeting of the Plattsmouth Women's club was held at the home of Mrs. L. L. Turpin and with a very large number of the members in attendance.

As this is nearing Armistice day the members joined in the singing of "America" and the Salute of the Flag was also given.

The reports of the committees and the various departments were given and showed all to be in fine shape and functioning successfully in the lines of activity.

The report of the county convention was made by the ladies that had been present and each gave the features of the convention that had impressed them most.

Mrs. Bert Coleman, delegate to the state convention reported the proceedings of the convention and which was supplemented by the views of the ten other members of the club that had attended a part of the sessions at least.

City Attorney J. A. Capwell was in attendance and gave a very interesting discussion of the manner of voting, the ballot and how the voter is required to fill out the ballot to cast a vote.

The meeting was then turned over to the legislative committee of which Mrs. John F. Gorder is the chairman and who introduced R. Foster Patterson of the city schools as the speaker of the evening and who discussed the question of the foreign relations of the United States of America with other nations of the world.

The club also decided to co-operate with the public library in education. Mrs. Ralph Petring, Mrs. Walter Reed and Mrs. Fred Schlieske as a committee to look after this work.

Under the plans of the general federation to sponsor essay contests in the English departments of the schools the local club decided to cooperate with Miss Mary Tidball in the contest on the subject of "Why I Should Vote," which will be carried on in the schools. This committee consists of Mrs. J. E. Jones, Miss Marie Kaufmann and Mrs. Ray McMaken.

The members of the club had as their suggestions as to the things that would be best for the community in way of civic movements and projects and a great deal of interest was shown and many vital subjects brought up for discussion. The largest item of civic improvement was that of erecting cabins at the tourist park.

PURCHASES NEW CARS

From Tuesday's Daily—
Frank Parkening of near Weeping Water accompanied by his brother John, were in the city today where they spent a short time enroute to Omaha where John secured a new Ford and Frank also secured a new Ford type of the Ford. While in the city Mr. Frank Parkening stopped at the Journal to renew his subscription for the ensuing year.

Death Summons Loved Lady of This Community

Mrs. Joseph F. Hadraba Called by Death After Very Serious Illness for Past Ten Days.

From Tuesday's Daily—
The community was sorrow stricken this morning when the message was received announcing the death last night at the Clarkson hospital at Omaha of Mrs. Joseph Hadraba, loved and esteemed lady of this community and whose going comes as a heart breaking blow to the husband and children who are bereft of the tender love and care of their loved one.

Taken ill a week ago Saturday with a cerebral hemorrhage, the condition of Mrs. Hadraba has been very critical since that time and little encouragement was given the members of the family that the loved one would be spared to them and as the days came and passed the hope that had been entertained of her recovery faded as the patient gradually continued to sink and death finally came to snap the thread of life.

It was in this community that the deceased lady was born, where her marriage occurred and where her happy home has been until the shadow of separation came to darken the home and to bring sorrow to all of the family and the hundreds of friends in the community.

Frances Janda, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Janda, was born in Plattsmouth forty-two years ago, reared to womanhood in this community and was married here to Joseph F. Hadraba twenty-two years ago. Her lifetime has been one of devotion to her home and family and in the assistance and help that she could offer to the circle of friends that she had known and loved. Her lifetime has been quietly spent with her greatest ambition, the care of her family and her devotion and faith in her church.

There is left to mourn the passing of this loved lady, the sorrowing husband and two sons, Ted Hadraba, now attending the Northwestern university at Chicago, Robert, Mary Ann, Edward and Frances, the last four all at home. The aged parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Janda of Dewesse, Nebraska, also survive.

There are five sisters and three brothers also left to mourn the passing of this splendid lady, all but one residing near Dewesse and Lawrence, Nebraska, they being Mrs. Ann Hlavac, Albert, John and George Janda, Mrs. Julia Sklia, Mrs. Rose Muzik, Mrs. Lillian Mazour and Mrs. Mary Wooster of this city and who has been with the sister at the hospital.

MEETS WITH ACCIDENT

From Tuesday's Daily—
C. F. Creeley, 513 North 22nd street, a former resident of this city, was injured in Omaha yesterday afternoon when he stepped from the path of an auto at 24th and Dodge streets only to walk into the way of another car and was knocked down and seriously injured.

Mr. Creeley suffered a fractured skull and internal injuries, but the doctors who examined him at the Nicholas Senn hospital to which place he was taken, expect him to live.

The unfortunate man first walked into the rear fender of a car driven by Morris Bricker, and stepping out of the way into the direct path of a car driven by Carl Krogh.

Both autoists were arrested on charges of reckless driving and later released on bonds of $1,000 each. Mr. Creeley came to Omaha two years ago from Tekamah, Nebraska, and has been employed in Omaha by a grain company since that time, his wife and daughter, Effie, reside in this city and a son, Frank Creeley lives at Falls City.

CAR IS WRECKED

From Tuesday's Daily—
Yesterday afternoon while Mr. and Mrs. John Long and the mother of Mrs. Long were driving from this city to their home near La Platte, they were victims of an auto accident on the hill near the Glen Valley home. The car ran into the loose gravel along the highway and as the result was overturned, the car having one wheel and the top smashed in the accident. The members of the party were able to extricate themselves from the wreckage of the Ford touring car and were not seriously injured beyond being shaken up and bruised to some extent. The car was so badly damaged that it will require some work to place it back in condition for travel.

VERY HAPPY OCCASION

From Monday's Daily—
The home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Furry, in this city, was made very happy the past week by the arrival there on Thursday afternoon of a fine seven and a half pound girl. The little lady and the mother are both doing nicely and the occasion has brought a great deal of happiness to all members of the family.

MRS. C. L. HERGER ILL

From Tuesday's Daily—
Mrs. C. L. Herger, one of the best known residents of this city has for the past several days been quite poorly and a part of the time has been confined to her bed, but is now reported as feeling a little better but still far from well and making it necessary for her to receive medical treatment. The condition of the grandmother has made it necessary for her grandson, Carl Renner to give up his duties at Kansas City and return here to assist in looking after the care of the grandmother.

Zeppelin Stow-away Was Born in This City

Clarence Terhune, Now a Sensation in Europe by His Feat, Was Once a Resident Here.

While many cities have claimed the residence of Clarence Terhune, nineteen year old boy, who was the first stowaway in the trans-Atlantic flight of an air ship, Plattsmouth has the added distinction of having been the birthplace of this youth who is now the center of interest in Germany, where he is a real hero and also the recipient of a great deal of newspaper advertising.

When the family lived here some eighteen years ago, the father of Clarence Terhune, was engaged as a barber in the Hotel Riley shop now owned by Edward Fullerton, and it was while the family was making their home here that the boy was born. The grandfather of Clarence, Jerome or "Jerry" Terhune, lived in the west portion of the city in the place now occupied by Ivan Taylor and where the grandfather ran a small truck farm during the time of his residence in this community.

Shortly after the birth of Clarence the family left this city, the grandfather going to Mantle, Arkansas, where he lived for a number of years, later returning to Nebraska and locating at Falls City, where the widow, Mrs. Jerome Terhune is still living and where she was located by newspaper men a few days ago. The father of Clarence, the grandfather going to Mantle, Arkansas, where he lived for a number of years, later returning to Nebraska and locating at Falls City, where the widow, Mrs. Jerome Terhune is still living and where she was located by newspaper men a few days ago.

The extreme tender age at which Clarence Terhune was removed from this city did not fix him very clearly in the minds of the old time residents here, but the family name was familiar and not being a real common name attracted the attention of William Schmidtman, local harness and leather goods dealer, and who wrote to the grandmother at Falls City and ascertained that he was correct and that the family had been residents here and that the boy stowaway, who is now in the public eye had first glimpsed the light of day in this city.

This St. Louis youth who was able to sneak into the mail room of the Graf Zeppelin while at the hangar at Lakehurst, New Jersey, and remain hidden until the great air ship was well at sea, has drawn the attention of the world to him and on reaching Germany was perhaps the most outstanding figure in the public eye of all of the ship's occupants, save that of Dr. Eckener, the commander of the zeppelin.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

From Monday's Daily—
Saturday was the sixth birthday anniversary of little Miss Marilyn Wilcox and in honor of the occasion her mother, Mrs. Edward Wilcox entertained a large group of the little friends of Marilyn at a most pleasant afternoon party.

The time was spent in games of all kinds and at which a great deal of pleasure was derived and the time passed most enjoyably in games and contests of all kinds and in which the little folks entered with the utmost pleasure.

At a suitable hour the members of the party were invited to the dining room where the center piece of the table was the handsome birthday cake with its glowing candles denoting the years of life of the little guest of honor.

In entertaining and serving Mrs. Wilcox was assisted by three of her sisters Mrs. Elmer Hallstrom of Avoca, Mrs. Joe Sindelar of Omaha and Mrs. Wayne Propst of Tecumseh.

ENTERTAINS AT BRIDGE

From Monday's Daily—
Mrs. George K. Petring was hostess on Saturday afternoon at a very charming bridge party at her attractive home on high school hill. There were seven tables of bridge and in the playing the first prize was awarded to Mrs. J. A. Griffin, the second prize to William Schmidtman, Sr., and the consolation prize by Mrs. M. D. Brown.

During the afternoon Mrs. Petring assisted by Mrs. Ralph Petring, served a very dainty and delicious two-course luncheon.

Scout Training Work Closes in Fine Spirit

Members of Executive Committee and Courtmasters Given Instruction in Their Work

From Tuesday's Daily—
Last evening at the high school gym was held the sixth and the last of the series of instructions in the work of scouting for the scoutmasters and members of the executive committee of the Plattsmouth and Murray Scout troops, under the direction of Carlton Hyde, area scoutmaster.

Mr. Hyde has had charge of the work of the instruction and on his visits here has been accompanied by members of the Nebraska City troops who have been used in the exemplification of the active Scout work which has proved most instructive to the Plattsmouth committee and the leaders of the Scout troops.

There has been a slight change made in the methods of the Scout work and in the new program of activities C. L. Sloan, local scoutmaster has been named as assistant deputy executive under the direction of Mr. Hyde.

There are three troops of the Scouts in the city here and one troop at Murray, troop No. 1 of this city with Roy Perkins as Scoutmaster and Hammond Sharp as assistant, this troop being sponsored by the Methodist church. Troop 2 will be under the direction of Ray Larson as scoutmaster and J. A. Capwell and Wilbur Hall as assistants and is sponsored by the American Legion. Troop 3 has Warren Taylor as scoutmaster and Robert Kelly as assistant. This troop is sponsored by the Rotary club of the city.

Each group sponsoring the troops will have a committee in addition to the scoutmaster who will have charge of the direction of the troop and look after its welfare. Each troop will strive to raise their troop to the full strength of thirty-two members.

Following the close of the instruction the members of the party were invited by T. H. Pollock to be the guests of the local executive committee and adjourning to the home economics department of the school found dainty refreshments of pumpkin pie and whipped cream, doughnuts and coffee awaiting them, the refreshments being arranged by Mrs. George Mann and Mrs. Robert Bestor and who were assisted in serving by Robert Mann and Robert Bestor.

The members of the party, some sixteen were seated at the long table which was decorated with the garden flowers.

T. H. Pollock presided and gave a short talk on the future of Scouting and introduced Carlton Hyde T. K. Watts and Scout Robert Golden of Nebraska City who gave short talks.

The Murray scouts who are districted with the Plattsmouth scouts were well represented at the meeting.

Those attending were Carlton Hyde, T. K. Watts, Robert Golden, Nebraska City; O. A. Davis, Stephen Beckner, Ludwig Hallas, Murray; T. H. Pollock, C. L. Sloan, E. H. Wescott, R. J. Larson, Hammond Sharp, Roy Perkins, Robert Kelly, L. O. Minor, Wilbur Hall, Warren Taylor.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT MEETS

From Tuesday's Daily—
The music department of the Plattsmouth Women's club met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. James T. Begley with a very fine program arranged by the leader, Mrs. William Woolcott. The topic of the meeting was that of Franz Schubert, the 100th anniversary of whose death is observed for the week of November 19th.

Records were given of some of the greatest of Schubert's works, "Serenade," "Ave Marie," "Unfinished Symphony" and "Who is Sylvia."

Mrs. Woolcott gave a very fine talk on the life of Schubert and the life of this great composer.

A program was also given broadcast from the university of Nebraska by Theodore Beers.

The music department will hold a musical tea on Saturday, December 1st at a place to be designated later.

A concert by the pupils of the various music teachers of the city will also be sponsored by this department.

ENTERTAINS AT BRIDGE

From Tuesday's Daily—
Yesterday afternoon Mrs. James G. Mauzy was hostess at a very pleasant bridge party given in honor of Mrs. Gertrude Morgan, who, with her mother, Mrs. D. C. Morgan, is soon to leave for California where they will spend the winter.

The home was very bright and attractive with the decorations of the bittersweet and fall flowers and made a very attractive setting for the pleasant event.

HOOVER BREAKS RECORD

From Wednesday's Daily—
The latest reports on the national election indicates that Herbert Hoover will smash all records on his electoral vote by receiving the votes of forty states with 444 electoral votes with Smith assured of 69 votes and probably Massachusetts 18 votes of a total of 87. The states carried by Smith were Mississippi, Arkansas, Alabama, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Georgia, Louisiana and probably Massachusetts. The popular majority of Hoover is 4,000,000, or less than that of Coolidge over Davis in 1924.

Judge Begley Re-Elected by Huge Majority

Total Vote Will Give Judge Close to 10,000 in the District Against His Opponent.

From Wednesday's Daily—
In the storm of the ballots cast yesterday Judge James T. Begley, who has held the office of judge of the second judicial district since 1912, proved himself a real race horse and in the face of the returns that were available today will have a lead of 10,000 votes in the three counties of Cass, Otoe and Sarpy, comprising the district.

The Judge had the distinction of sweeping every precinct in the district and as the office was non-partisan received the votes of friends in both political parties by the thousands.

In Cass county the lead was large, the vote being Begley, 5,143 and Tidd, 1,622.

In Otoe county the complete vote stood, Begley 5,295 and Tidd 1,634, with every precinct registering a majority for the present judge.

The vote in Sarpy county was not entirely completed but in this old home county of Judge Begley he had a great majority as a testimonial of the old friends, 3,690 being the total so far of the Begley vote against 469 for Tidd.

JUDGE DUXBURY RE-ELECTED

From Wednesday's Daily—
County Judge A. H. Duxbury, who is just completing his first term in the county election by a fine majority that will reach close to 2,000 when all votes are tabulated, it was estimated at the court house today.

The heavy vote that was polled in the primary by the opponent of Judge Duxbury, M. S. Briggs, had led many to predict a very close race in the general election, but the contest was soon decisively settled as the first returns commenced to come in from all sections of the county.

The office being non-partisan caused a very large flow of voters of both parties to the standard of Judge Duxbury, and his showing in all parts of the county was most pleasing to the Judge who was able to retire early last evening with the assurance on the returns of the result.

The vote in the county on the county judgeship was as follows: Duxbury, 4,387, Briggs, 2,425.

The election of Judge Duxbury is especially pleasing to the Judge as an endorsement of his services in the past four years of his first term and especially so, as he is one of the youngest members of the judiciary in the state.

CALL FOR EXTRA BALLOTS

From Wednesday's Daily—
The heavy vote cast yesterday over the state and nation was reflected in this county where the supply of ballots allotted to Louisville precinct commenced to dwindle in the afternoon to a point where it seemed that some of the voters of that locality would have to go shy of voting.

The fact that the ballot supply was gradually being used up caused a call to be made on County Clerk George R. Sayles, who gathered up what ballots could be spared in this city and hastened out to relieve the threatened shortage in the weapons for the voters.

The number of ballots furnished each precinct is based on the number of votes cast at the last election and which is the only basis on which the clerk can work in determining the supply. The unexpected increase in the vote at Louisville, due to the large number moving in there with the cement interests and also the general turnout of the voters made the demand much heavier. However George came to the rescue and saved the day for the voters.

FILES SUIT TO QUIET TITLE

From Tuesday's Daily—
An action has been filed in the district court in which Magdalene Bartels, et al is the plaintiff and Hans H. Staben, et al the defendants. The action is a case wherein the plaintiff seeks to have titled to real estate quieted in them and against the defendants.

Cass County Joins in Big Landslide to G. O. P.

Majorities of From 2,200 to 750 Recorded in County—Morehead Lone Demo Winner.

From Wednesday's Daily—
The republican landslide victory over the nation found reflection in the returns from Cass county where the republican ticket was victorious with one lone exception, Congressman John H. Morehead, democrat, emerging from the flood of the G. O. P. ballots with a majority of 315 over Elmer J. Burkett.

Herbert Hoover polled a large vote in all precincts and a total of 4,921 in the county as against 2,719 for Governor Smith, giving him a lead of over 2,000 in the presidential race.

The governorship in Cass county showed a startling reversal of former years when Charles W. Bryan had been a strong favorite in the county, as Arthur J. Weaver, the republican candidate received 4,385 against 3,313 for Mr. Bryan, a majority of a little over 1,000 for Weaver.

In the congressional race Morehead was in the lead in the county with 3,934 against 3,626 for Burkett and brought the only bright spot in the local election to the democratic cohorts as the returns rolled in.

In the senatorial race Senator R. B. Howell maintained the stride with the remainder of the republican state ticket and received 4,615 against 2,869 for Richard L. Metcalfe, the democratic candidate.

The race for attorney general, thought to be one of the close battles of the campaign in the state resulted in Soranson, the republican candidate receiving a good majority in the county, his vote being 4,318 against 3,072 for John Lawler, the democratic candidate.

The only local office to be filled was that of commissioner from the first district and where George L. Farley received 4,123 against 3,344 for J. G. Melsinger, the democratic candidate for the office.

GIRLS TAKE DEPARTURE

From Wednesday's Daily—
For the past week Sheriff and Mrs. Bert Reed have had the care of Viola Simpson and Irene Jones, two Minnesota young women who were stranded here when their traveling companion, a young man whose acquaintance they had made at their home town, was apprehended here for the theft of an auto from Hartley, Iowa. The party was without funds when reaching here and which led to their application for aid and the result was that the man was arrested for the theft of the car.

The young women had no part in the taking of the car and were unaware of the fact that it was a stolen car until the arrest of their acquaintance here, but in their financial condition they were unable to leave the city and were cared for by Mr. and Mrs. Reed, who have sympathized with the unfortunate condition of the girls.

The Women's club and several ladies were interested in the plight of the girls and donations were secured, the Women's club giving $10, the Red Cross $10, the fremen $5 and private subscription of $5 and which enabled the young ladies to leave this morning for their home in Minnesota.

Before leaving the two young ladies requested that their appreciation might be expressed to all those who had assisted them.

VISITING HOME FOLKS

From Wednesday's Daily—
Carl R. Cole and bride of Brule Nebraska, are visiting with relatives and friends in this vicinity, enroute from California, where they have been enjoying their honeymoon.

Since their marriage in September they have been touring the mountain states, visiting many points of interest, and spending the greater part of their time in California.

Returning by the way of the Grand Canyon, in Colorado, Colorado Springs and Denver, they came to Plattsmouth for a short visit here, where Mr. Cole resided about nine years ago.

Mr. Cole states that he prefers wheat farming in Keith county, to the mixed farming of this portion of Nebraska, and in his estimation the climate there far exceeds that of Cass county and he, with his recent bride will reside at his farm home and he will continue his activities at wheat farming.

While his many friends had anticipated that he would decide to re-establish his home here, they extend to him their heartiest congratulations in his new found happiness, and best wishes for their future welfare.

Mrs. S. S. Gooding and Mrs. Martha Baumeister departed this morning for Lincoln where they will spend the day visiting with friends and looking after some matters of business.
