BEWARE OF THIS FELLOW All That Glitters Is Not Gold

The man above with the big checked vest is the symbol of the wildcat stock salesman, who would make you believe that money invested in his oil stock or gold bricks will bring you millions.

Unfortunately, too many have already experienced heavy losses from such investments.

When you want to make an investment, we will be glad to advise you without charge.

Earl Lancaster

Murray, Nebraska

and wife, has been suffering from an attack of lumbago, which is causing her much suffering.

Otto Wohlfarth, of Plattsmouth, representing the Plattsmouth Motor Co., of that place, was looking after some business matters for the company in this vicinity.

Henry Heebner has been assisting Alf Gansemer at the elevator on account of the rush in the delivering of corn. Mrs. Gansemer was also assisting in the weighing.

Fred Ahrens was a visitor in Murray, getting some lumber to enlarge his crib, as his corn is expected to make as much as seven thousand bushels for this year's crop.

L. G. Pihyon, of near Nehawka, was a visitor in Murray on last Monday, stopping on his return home from Plattsmouth to look after some trading and to greet his friends.

Messrs. George E. Nickles and W. G. Boedecker were over to Plattsmouth on last Monday night, where they went to attend a meeting and initiation of the Royal Arch Masons.

Albert Wolfe, the barber at the Brendel shop, took a day off on last Monday and with the wife and their daughter, Miss Gladys, were visiting at Omaha, driving up in their car.

C. N. Perry and family, of University Place were visiting for the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Spangler and other relatives, as well as at the home of Mrs. Glen Perry.

George Schultz, of Omaha, a friend of Earl Lancaster, came down on last Tuesday and they enjoyed a hunt along the river, without losing a shot, but they had a good, healthy walk just the same.

Mr. and Mrs. John Frans departed early last Monday morning for Burwell, Nebraska, where they will visit with relatives and later will go on to Haxton, Colorado, where they will visit other relatives.

W. G. Boedecker, through Searl S. Davis purchased the 60 acre farm which has been owned by Carl Keil, and which adjoins land which he already owned and makes a valuable addition to his farm.

The Missouri Pacific is installing a bridge over Rock Creek that will be one of the most up-to-date of any on their lines, as it is being built of steel and concrete and will be most substantial when done.

John Wiles was in from the farm after some lumber to enlarge the cribs at the place as the crop is slightly larger than was expected. John reports the wife as suffering from an attack of the flu.

George Nickles was looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth on last Monday and on Tuesday with the folks went to Omaha, where they were visiting with friends and also looking after some business matters.

Lester Gansemer and family and Mrs. Bessie Bourne departed early Wednesday morning for McCook, at which place they will spend Thanksgiving with relatives. They are making the trip out and back in their auto.

Frank Mracek is a hustler. He made a trip to Omaha last Tuesday and then jumped into the work of delivering corn to the elevator from the sheller in the country and was hustling as long as the day light remained.

Mrs. C. D. Spangler gave a very pleasant party in honor of Mrs. Everett E. Spangler, at which a large number of their friends were present and the occasion was made one of much gladness by the very pleasant time that was made for the guest of honor.

Harry and Lois McManus departed for Falls City on Wednesday evening and spent Thanksgiving day with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McManus, ate turkey and enjoyed the day nicely and will be back on the job at the drug store Friday morning.

Oscar Shrader and family and Mont Shrader and family were in Murray last Monday, visiting with their father, Robert Shrader, who is kept to his home with a severe attack of rheumatism.

Mrs. Georgia Creamer was also visiting him on last Tuesday, she being a sister.

J. A. Worlick and wife departed early last Saturday morning for Waucoma Springs, Kansas, where they were accompanied by Mrs. Herman Shumacher, Mrs. Worlick's mother, who is taking treatment for her health there. Mr. and Mrs. Worlick returned home Sunday evening.

Verner Lundberg, postmaster at Nehawka, was a visitor in Murray on Tuesday and a guest of B. H. Nelson, who is his uncle, they visiting and also looking after some business matters. Mr. Lundberg was accompanied by C. W. Burton, of Nehawka, who was also looking after some business.

Want to Keep the Church Many people of Murray and the vicinity east of town are much interested in retaining the Lewiston church, which is being proposed by the Methodist conference to sell on last Monday, but which was not done over the protests of the people of that vicinity. Many were over to Plattsmouth on Monday morning to object to the disposition of the edifice.

Maintaining Much Interest The meetings which are being held at the Christian church are creating much interest and many people are out to enjoy the excellent discourses which Rev. W. A. Taylor has been delivering and the very fine messages which he has been bringing to the people who have been attending the meetings. Remember, there will be services on the coming Sunday evening and all are cordially invited to be present.

Mrs. Stribling Declares Bird is Hatchet Man

Negro Brought From Penitentiary Denies Slays—Hurried to Iowa Jail for Keeping

"He's the man!" Thus cried Mrs. Harold Stribling, chopper victim, when Jake Bird, suspect, was taken to her room in Lord Lister hospital Tuesday for the second time.

He was taken from the hospital under a heavy guard and immediately taken to Council Bluffs. From there he was to be taken at once to an Iowa prison.

When Bird came into the room Mrs. Stribling looked at him and said:

"You know I know that you're the man."

Bird replied, "Lady, I don't even know what you are talking about."

"Yes," said Mrs. Stribling, raising her right hand, "I raise my hand, he's the man."

Then she said to Bird: "Why don't you confess and tell the truth about it?"

Bird answered, turning to Shotwell, "Mr. Shotwell, I'm innocent."

Dr. Aaron McMillon, of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said after the interview that the association is convinced Bird is innocent, and will do its utmost to defend him.

Bird was to be rushed at once to an Iowa prison, Deputy Attorney Nickerson of Council Bluffs said: "What prison Bird will be taken to was kept a close secret by all officers. He had agreed, however, to waive extradition and will be whisked out of Omaha at once, Nickerson said.

Bird was taken to Mrs. Harold Stribling's room at the Lord Lister hospital a few minutes before 4 o'clock today.

"There was never any question about the identification," County Attorney Northrup of Council Bluffs said, when Bird was brought to the hospital from Lincoln. He added that Sunday Mrs. Stribling told him: "If I was on my dying bed, I would say that he was the man."

300 Outside.

About three hundred persons were at the hospital when Bird arrived. Omaha police and deputies, armed, were present to prevent violence. The mob, however, was orderly, showing only great curiosity to have a look at Bird.

The suspect was kept waiting five minutes in the hospital lobby, while officers talked to Mrs. Stribling, and she prepared to see him.

Then he was led in, accompanied by Sheriff McDonald of Douglas county, Detective Inspector Ben Danbaum, Sheriff Lainsen, Detective Chief Arnold and Deputy County Attorney Dickason of Council Bluffs.

Proceeding the deputy sheriffs who were bringing Bird, County Attorney Northrup and Sheriff Lainsen of Council Bluffs reached the hospital at 2:40. They had left Lincoln about 10 minutes before the car bringing Bird.

Squad Patrols Walks. As officials waited at the Lord Lister hospital for the arrival of Jake Bird, chopper suspect, a police squad including Detectives Sutton, Murphy and McCabe and Emergency Driver Sherwood patrolled the sidewalks near the hospital to prevent the assembling of crowds. There was no sign of any unusual gathering.

H. J. Pinkett, lawyer, and C. C. Galloway, editor of a colored weekly, representatives of the committee of colored men formed to assist authorities in their search for the chopper, and Dr. A. M. McMillen, Negro physician, were also awaiting Bird's arrival.

A. V. Shotwell, attorney, one of the group at the hospital, declared that he was still convinced of Bird's innocence and that so long as he held that belief he would defend him against any charges which might be brought.

MARKETING TO BE STUDIED Chicago, Nov. 26.—Co-operation marketing for farmers will present the chief problems of the tenth annual meeting of the American Farm Bureau federation here, Dec. 12, M. S. Winder, executive secretary, announced today.

"The co-operative movement is not new," he said. "Of late, however, farmers have been earnestly directing their attention to this method of marketing in the realization that by cutting out uneconomical steps in our food distributing system it affords them a hopeful opportunity to obtain a larger proportion of the consumer's dollar."

The United States department of agriculture will assist officially at the meeting and consult with farm leaders.

TWO RAILROAD MEN KILLED

Martinsburg, W. Va., Nov. 25.—The engineer and fireman of the National limited of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad were killed, when the train sideswiped a derailed coal car between Martinsburg and Harpers Ferry, W. Va. The accident occurred shortly before 10 o'clock tonight.

The engineer, George W. Fraley of Baltimore, and the fireman, O. E. Everett of Washington, were killed when the engine overturned after striking the coal car. The coal car was part of a train which was derailed, almost as the limited entered the same section of trackage and the engine of the fast train smashed into the overturned car.

Baggage-master Hupps of Cumberland, Mr., suffered a broken arm, and several passengers were shaken up by the force of the collision.

SANTA'S GOLDEN RULE CLUB

All boys and girls asked to join. There are no fees—only your good will and desire to help another.

Here's the idea. Santa Claus needs a little help to take care of all the extra boys and girls he has on his list this year and he is asking his many friends in Plattsmouth to join this Golden Rule Club. Gather up all the toys and playthings you have about the house that you can spare and take them down to Mr. Christ's Furniture store. Santa has made arrangements with the city schools Manual Training Department to take these toys, repair them and repaint them and fix them up in good shape for Santa to give out to these extra boys and girls on Christmas eve.

Also if you have any sweaters, or coats, or dresses or suits that you have outgrown send them down to Christ's store, as Santa has a great many calls for such articles. They must be clean and in fairly good shape. If they need some buttons or some little repair, the Domestic Science Department of the city schools have very generously agreed to take care of that.

So there you are! Look up in the attic or in the store-room and bring out all the things you thing would help Santa to make some boy or girl happy and take them down to Mr. Christ's Store right away so they can be put in readiness for Santa by Christmas Eve. Thus you will become a member of Santa's Golden Rule Club.

DRAWSTIFF FINE

From Monday's Daily.— This afternoon August Wind, a young man who has been engaged in shucking corn in the vicinity of Elmwood was here to appear in court to answer to the charge of driving a car while intoxicated and also for possession of intoxicating liquor. The young man entered a plea of guilty to the charge and was given a fine of $110 and costs on the two counts, the total amount being $128 to appease the feelings of outraged justice.

SHOWS NO IMPROVEMENT

From Wednesday's Daily.— The reports from the Methodist hospital at Omaha received by the family here, state that little Miss Helen Perry, who has been at the hospital for the past ten days taking treatment, shows very little improvement. The condition of the patient was not as good yesterday as it has been and the attending physicians seem unable to fully determine the exact cause of the illness.
