MYNARD COMMUNITY CLUB

The Mynard Community Club held its annual business meeting on Friday evening, Nov. 30. After a discussion of various plans for the future year, the election of officers was held.

Ruel Sack was elected president, Mrs. Roy O. Cole, vice-president, Mrs. C. C. Barnard, secretary, E. H. Spangler, treasurer. A vote of thanks and appreciation for their faithful work was given to the officers of last year by the club members. These officers were W. F. Nolte, president, Mrs. C. C. Barnard, vice-president, Mrs. Fred Druecker, secretary and W. T. Richardson, treasurer. Mr. Nolte expressed his gratitude for the splendid co-operation which he had received from the various members, especially the program committees of which there are two, consisting of three members on each committee.

Also, he added a few words of appreciation to the members of the cast for the play "Safety First," which was given this summer, and which cleared $100 thus practically putting the club out of debt. However, there are a number of additions to their community hall which they must have to really complete it. So they planned their giving a market in Plattsmouth sometime next month.

Homers Spangler gave a very good report of the pig club but Chas. Wiles who was to have given the report for the calf club was unable to be present. At the close of the business meeting a short program was given. There were two readings. The first was Longfellow's poem, "The Village Blacksmith," by Chas. C. Barnard. Preceding this reading Mr. Nolte gave a few interesting remarks about the poem and its subject. Then Margaret Ann Pitz read a short poem, "Inventory," which was especially appropriate to this occasion. The last number was a couple of piano duets by Mrs. Roy O. Cole and Mrs. Elbert Wiles. Supper was then served by the men of the club and the sandwiches, pickles, cookies and coffee were enjoyed by all. The four new officers appointed their committees for the following year and they are hoping that the coming programs will be as interesting as in the past. This completes their first year as a community club and they are being well satisfied that a club of this sort is headed in every progressive neighborhood.

Saturday Night

Receive Stork Visit.

The stork made a visit at the University hospital at Omaha, where it bestowed a very fine young man on Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Reeves, and the reports from the hospital is that the mother and young man are both doing well, while Curley goes on working and smiling for he cannot whistle for the wrinkles in his face. His many friends are congratulating him on the happy event.

Celebrate the Event.

December as well as being the day in which congress convenes has a different meaning for Alvo G. Long and Albert Wheeler, who were forty-nine on last Tuesday not making them forty-niners at that, and also Pat Campbell and Herman Richter were thirty-seven on the same day. You know these boys and sure they had a time, and why not, they will never be forty-nine and thirty-seven again.

Christmas Sweets

One of the "sweetest" meetings of the season was held at the home of Mrs. James Hills, Tuesday, December 4th.

"Christmas Candies" was the general topic and there were ten different kinds of candy made and sampled and many good ideas and suggestions given.

There were four new members and one visitor at the meeting, which was certainly a very interesting one and one of much value to all.

The next meeting is to be held on January 31st, at Mrs. Meisinger's, at which meeting Miss Jessie Baldwin will meet with the club.

Evening worship at 8:00 p. m. Sermon theme, "The Greatness of God."

Strange as it may seem, when the mind stops growing, the head begins to swell.

Try the satisfaction of religion. Come to church!

For a mental and spiritual tonic, try going to church.

It is a poor religion that is never strong except when the owner is sick.

The foursquare man is the only one who is well rounded.

Yes, your influence counts. If you are staying out of church, you are teaching others to do the same, and your influence counts against the best interests of the community.

A cordial invitation to all to attend these services.

WEEPING WATER

L. J. Lane and wife were enjoying a visit with their son, L. R. Lane and wife and assisted in discussing a very palatable roast duck on Thanksgiving day.

Mr. W. Binger of the Binger Lumber & Coal Co. was called to Plattsmouth for a short time one day last week, where he had some business matters to look after.

Arthur Jones and wife were enjoying a very fine Thanksgiving dinner at their home and where they were joined by Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Gorshy, who are also relatives of Mrs. Vanderberg.

C. F. Reihart of Louisville was a visitor in Weeping Water for a short time on last Tuesday morning, driving over in his car, and at the same time visiting with some of his friends in Weeping Water.

Carl A. Price, representing the Eagle Oil Co., was in Weeping Water, on last Tuesday bringing a load of gas over for the L. R. Lane filling station, and also looking after some business matters.

A. R. Dowler, salesman for the Philpot Chevrolet company was a business visitor in Avoca for a short time on last Tuesday morning and during the afternoon was looking after some business matters in Nehawka.

Floyd M. Cole, who is a good farmer and also a good road man, was putting in his time on the roads, getting them in condition for winter and was caught with some thirty acres of corn still in the field, when the snow came and is now waiting for the snow to go so he can get at the corn.

Ernest Boyle and wife of Omaha, who are relatives of Frank H. Baldwin, were visiting for the evening on last Monday and departed early Tuesday for Chicago where they will engage in the management of an oil station for the Sinclair Oil company. There were guests with Mr. Baldwin and daughter, Miss Frances, while here.

Rasmus Lauritzen, Jr., who has been so severely ill with an attack of typhoid fever the past month or more, was reported as being some improved during the first of the week. The many friends of this popular gentleman will be pleased to know of his improvement, however slight, and are hoping that he may soon be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hoffman of Plattsmouth, who have been visiting in Weeping Water for the past ten days, guests at the home of their son, Oscar Hoffman, and family visiting for over Thanksgiving, returned to their home in the county seat on last Tuesday afternoon and were driven over to their home in the car of the son, who also had some business matters to look after as well.

Quite a bit of excitement was caused at the home of Clarence Akeson on last Tuesday, when the house caught fire, and it was with much difficulty and dint of hard work by Mr. and Mrs. Akeson and the neighbors that the fire was extinguished before the building was burned. As it was, much damage was done to the building and some to the contents, but they were able to save the house and much of the property.

James and Cullen Lee, of Franklinton, Louisiana, who have for some time past been engaged in picking corn at the Cyrus Livingston home northeast of Weeping Water, on account of the snow covering the ground and much down corn, concluded they would return to their home in the south, and accordingly on last Tuesday left for their home. Mr. Livingston still has many acres of corn to pick, but on account of much of it being down, cannot get it out until the snow shall have gone off.

Make Change in Business.

Coming from a deliberation of some time, on last Tuesday morning was consummated a trade whereby Ralph Keckler became the owner of the P. A. Birsch filling station at the corner of Main and Randolph streets and Mr. Birsch at the same time transferred the name of the farm which Mr. Keckler has had for some time. In this exchange it looks like both parties have received property which will make them some money, and provide an easier position for Mr. Keckler who has put in many hard years of labor on the farm.

Wins First Place.

The Nebraska Stock Judging, and the membership of which are all residents of Cass county, and who are Wm. Brandt of Nehawka, Harold Wolfe of Elmwood and Ivan Nolte of Eagle, won the fifth out of an entry of twenty states and were pitted against some of the best stock judges of the nation. This at the National Stock show which is being held in Chicago and to which County Agent L. R. Snipes and this team were in attendance. This is very gratifying to the people of this county, and especially to the schools which these young men attended. Mrs. Norris, who is in the leader of the 4-H club of the vicinity southeast of Weeping Water and Messers Wayne and Clifford Domingo, are also there to learn more about the problems which come to the poultry man from all angles.

Watson Norris, living but a few miles from Weeping Water, and one of the hustling young corn growers of this state won the championship not only of Cass county but of the state, when he was able to grow on five acres, three hundred bushels of very good corn, and this made him the state champion for 4-H club work. He was attending the National Stock show with the others from Cass county during its session. They are all expecting to be home on the coming Saturday.

Annual Meet Next Tuesday.

The Cass County Farm Bureau will hold their annual gathering at the Liberty theatre building on the coming Tuesday afternoon, December 11th.

This will be a very interesting meeting and will be attended by delegates from all over the county and will be one which will be of much interest to the farmers of this county, who are the most intelligent and well qualified husbandmen.
