Carl Wessel completed his corn picking on last Tuesday, New Years, and was pleased to have the harvest done.

Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Barriet were visiting and looking after some business matters in Nebraska on New Years afternoon.

Miss Martha Carmony of Lincoln was a visitor for a few days at the home of C. E. Heebner, spending the New Years there.

A number of the golf fans were down to Nebraska City on last Sunday where they were enjoying the game for a time.

Raymond C. Polard was a visitor in Plattsmouth on last Monday where he was called to look after some business matters for a short time.

Martin Ross and family were over to Weeping Water on New Years day and where they were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rough.

Albert Wolfe was a visitor at home for last Sunday, and returned to his work at Murray on last Monday morning being taken by his daughter, Miss Gladys.

W. H. Porter of Union was a business caller in Nehawka on New Years day and also was a visitor at the home of his daughter Mrs. John Chrisweisser for a short time.

Nehawka and Louisville high school basketball teams will contest for the supremacy at the Nehawka gym on Friday of this week. This will be an interesting game.

On New Years day Mrs. John W. Murdock who had been feeling quite well before was taken suddenly ill and a physician had to be called.

Chauncey Schopp with the family departed about a week since in their car for the Pacific coast where they will expect to spend the remainder of the winter in the warmer climate.

After a vacation extending over two weeks, school started again on last Monday and continued through the New Year as they had lost some time on account of sickness a few weeks since.

Henry Schwartz and family and E. O. Hadley and family were enjoying a New Years party at the studio of Earl E. May at Shenandoah, where a most entertaining program was presented.

Uncle Nicholas Opp, who has been in quite poor health for many weeks, is at this time feeling much improved and well pleased at the changed condition of his health, and likewise are his many friends.

Tommy Mason who did not have to carry the mail on last Tuesday, New Years day, went to Omaha where he was visiting with his friends and also with his little niece, who is growing into a big girl now.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Thomas of Lincoln were visiting for a short time in Nehawka and attending the meeting of the directors of the Nehawka bank, as well as visiting with their many friends in Nehawka.

C. E. Heebner and daughter, Miss Ima, and son, Granville and wife, were enjoying a very pleasant visit on last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Westlake near Eagle, they driving out in their car for the occasion.

Mrs. Albert Wolfe was taken with a severe and acute attack of tonsillitis on last Tuesday morning but prompt and heroic treatment diverted the baleful effect of the disease and Mrs. Wolfe was feeling better in the evening.

John G. Wunderlich and wife, Zacheriah W. Shrader and wife and Mrs. Adaline Taylor the latter of Plattsmouth who is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Z. W. Shrader, were enjoying a very sumptuous dinner on last Sunday where a big fat goose was the center piece at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Shrader. They sure all had an excellent time.

The board of directors of the Nehawka bank were meeting at the bank building on the afternoon of New Years day when they were looking after some important business matters. This bank has been doing an excellent business due much to the excellent policy and the wise conduct of the business by those having the management of the bank in hand.

Oscar Kimlon and niece, of Louisville, the former father of Harold Kimlon, recently purchased a new Buick car and wishing to try the wagon out came to Nehawka and taking Harold and family went to Beckenridge, where they visited for a week at their old time home, and returned early this week. They all enjoyed a very pleasant visit while away.

Dr. A. R. Kintner and the wife have been visiting for a number of days with the many contents here, they having a vacation from the doctors work at the Mayo hospital at Rochester, Minn. They were given a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Steffens on last Monday evening in the shape of a watch meeting or a new years every party.

On Tuesday they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Chapman.

The Bridge Completed.

The workmen having in charge the construction of the new bridge over the Weeping Water south of Nehawka have completed their work and the structure is now ready for the grading of the approaches which will make possible the using of the bridge for traffic. A contractor accompanied by the county engineers, F. H. Gorder and C. F. Harris, were in Nehawka early this week looking over the matter of having the grading done.

Still Very Ill.

Mrs. W. O. Troop who has been in a hospital at Omaha for a number of weeks, and who underwent an operation at the Immanuel hospital a few days since is reported as being in a very serious condition. Blood transfusion was required and her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Wehrlein, gave freely of their life fluid for the loved mother. The many friends of Mrs. Troop are wishing that she may soon be showing good improvement and soon be able to return to her home and family.

Mrs. Troop is reported as showing good improvement at this time.

Will Spend Month in West.

Henry Wessell and wife are at this time preparing to depart early the coming week for San Diego, where they will visit for a number of weeks at the home of their daughter, J. W. Miller and husband who make their home on the coast. Mr. and Mrs. Wessell are expecting to be in San Diego in time to see the United States fleet composed of some ninety vessels, and who will depart on January 15th for Panama, by way of this calls to mind a trip away along during the late fifties, when two Nehawka pioneers walked across the isthmus, carrying with them some four thousand dollars worth of gold nuggets, besides their guns for protection. The distance is 28 miles and the trip which was through tangled underbrush over steep and rocky hills and through unmarked wilderness, required nearly a week to make the trip. These two gentlemen

Old Time Resident.
Agnes McBride was born July 5, 1844, at Corydon, Ind., and departed this life Dec. 21, 1928, at her home in Nehawka at the age of 84 years, five months and thirteen days.

At the age of 14 years she was converted to a saving faith in the Lord Jesus Christ at the United Brethren church in Corydon, Ind., and has been a faithful member of our communion since that time, having been a member of the Nehawka church about 40 years.

She was married to Thomas A. Reynolds, Nov. 29, 1866, at Corydon, Ind. To this union eight children were born, three having died in childhood. About the year 1888 they came to Nehawka to live. Mr. Reynolds preceded Mrs. Reynolds in death by about 30 years.

During the years Mrs. Reynolds has been a faithful mother, not only to her own children but to three grandchildren as well who have shared her home from childhood, and a kind and much loved neighbor, always willing to help in time of need. She was, as long as she was able, active in the work of the church and in her home the men of God, who were leading in that work, were always welcome.

Those left to mourn the loss of this loving mother and sister are George Reynold of Union, Mattie Vanine of Arapahoe, Otille Beuerbacher of Estes Park, Colo., Emma Chandler of Grand Island, Neb., and Ivan G. Reynolds of Los Angeles, California, Anna Trotter of Douglas, Neb. Three grandchildren to whom she has been a faithful mother are Lova Thomas, Palmyra, Neb., and Ivan and Harold R. of Nehawka. Also one sister, Mrs. Pittman of York and two brothers, Charles of Elmwood and George of Lincoln, and a number of grandchildren and great grandchildren and a host of friends.

When we think of the place of mother in the home or in the community we think of one who is willing to sacrifice for the benefit of others, and nothing comes so near being like the love that prompted God to redeem the world at the sacrifice of His only and beloved Son as the faithful devotion of a true mother for her loved ones.

Who can find a virtuous woman?
for her price is far above rubies.

She is sought after as she is yet slight and giveth meat to her household, and a portion to her maids.

She stretcheth out her hand to the poor, yea she reacheth forth her hand to the needy.

She is not afraid of the snow for her household, for they are clothed with scarlet strength and honor are her clothing.

The funeral was conducted from the United Brethren church of Nehawka and was conducted by the Rev. W. A. Taylor of Union and Rev. H. D. Knoblock of Nehawka, the interment being made at the beautiful Mt. Pleasant cemetery northeast of Nehawka. The pall bearers being selected from this excellent woman's grandsons and were: Cyrus Trotter, Ivan Reynolds, Harold Reynolds, Thomas Reynolds, Milton Chandler and Frank Trotter.

We are looking forward to Jan 13th as the day on which our Evangelistic campaign will start under the direction of Rev. F. W. McKain and his wife, Mrs. McKain, and Rev. McKain is a preacher that you will like to hear. Miss McKain will have charge of the singing. We are fortunate to secure the services of these gifted and consecrated workers for our meeting. They will be here Monday Jan. 14 and begin services that night at 7:30 at the church. Each night at 7:30 this week and next you will hear the church bell ring as a signal for all praying people of our community to lift their hearts to God in prayer asking that we be found faithful and that souls may be saved in our meeting.

WEEPING WATER

Wm. Dunn was a business visitor in both Plattsmouth and Omaha one day last week, making the trip in his auto.

Harry O'Brien of near Cedar Creek was a visitor in Weeping Water for a short time on New Year's day and was looking after some business matters.

Martin Ross and family of near Nehawka were visiting for the New Years at the home of Arthur Rough, where all enjoyed a very pleasant time.

Many people of Weeping Water were over to Wabash on last Tuesday afternoon where they were in attendance at the funeral of the late Grandpa Squires.

Frank Little was a visitor in the county seat last Tuesday, making a New Years call on Dr. O. C. Maddox of Plattsmouth, where Mr. Little went to have a treatment for his health.

Mrs. John Cole and his little one returned from Omaha where they had been spending a week or more since the coming of the little babe. John was over to bring the wife and little one home.

On January 1, 1929, James M. Teegarden celebrated the passing of his 67th anniversary of his birth, he being born on January 1st, 1861, and has made his home in Weeping Water for many years and is honored and respected by every inhabitant of the hustling city.

Thomas Akesson and Wm. Otte celebrated New Year's ay by shelling and delivering corn to the Marshall elevator in Weeping Water. Many of the farmers having completed their corn picking are now looking towards the selling and delivering of the same.

Uncle Alfonso M. Cole now well above the eighty year mark, and a hustler all his life, was taken with an attack of the flu a few days since and is battling with the malady, and with the host of friends of this excellent man we are hoping he will win in the struggle for returning health.

V. J. Vesely of Bennett recently purchased the stock which was being owned by the Johnson Brothers, and has placed C. H. George in charge of the place, the latter formally opening the place on January 2nd, and has the stock very appealing arranged and is making some very low prices on the best goods possible to place in stock. It looks like this store should do a good business, as Weeping Water is an excellent town and with a large surrounding of successful farmers.

S. E. Johnson and wife, who are well and very favorably known as excellent cafe people have leased the restaurant of Donald Philpot, and were placing the room in the best of condition for New Year's day and on January 2nd opened the place as one of the first class eating houses in the west, and in one of the very best cities in eastern Nebraska, Weeping Water. We are sure Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will make a success of this business for they have the knowledge and the tact to properly conduct the business.

A number of the people in and about Manly were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith of Weeping Water, where all kept vigils for the departing of the old year and the arrival of the new. Of course not all the time was given to the watching of the clock, for they played cards, had good things to eat, and a general good time, and when the old year had flown and the new one come they departed for their several homes voting Mr. and Mrs. Smith excellent entertainers. There were present for the occasion Oscar Dowler and wife, Herman Rauth and wife of Manly, Frank Taylor and wife of Alvo, A. R. Dowler and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Jess Smith of Weeping Water, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Heebner of Manly.

Entertained for the New Year.
Mr. and Mrs. James M. Teegarden entertained for the New Year's day, and had as their guests, their daughter, Mrs. E. G. Shekley, her husband and their son, and at the same time Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Shekley, parents of Mr. E. G. Shekley, all of Lincoln, and Roy and Elmer Pjorman of Minneapolis, who are visiting at Lincoln. The day was most pleasantly enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Teegarden, and a most delightful New Years dinner served by Mrs. Teegarden who is an accomplished cook.

Enjoy Visit Sunday.
Arthur Rough and family were enjoying a visit at the home of the brother of Mr. Rough, John Rough and family of Tekamah, where a number of the family were gathered for a very pleasant visit. There were there besides Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rough, of Weeping Water, Martin Ross and family, Stewart J. Rough, and family of Nehawka, Guy Lake and family and George Taylor and family of near Wabash, J. J. Donegan and family of Havelock and Wm. Hoplin of Tekamah.

Visiting Relatives Here.
Mrs. H. E. Richards, and son Dwight, of Houston, Texas, arrived in Weeping Water on last Sunday evening, and will visit with Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Richards for a week, and enjoy the northern atmosphere and climate. Dwight drove the car from Houston to Beatrice in a little over two days, where they visited for a time and later came on to Weeping Water. Houston is a little over a thousand miles from Weeping Water.

Spending Holidays Here.
Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Marshall were enjoying the holidays by having as their guests, their daughter, Mrs. Dr. E. Klein and husband of Denver, and also their son Alva Marshall and family of Fort Lupton, Colorado. They have been here for some time, and are departing for their home in the west on Friday of this week.

GIVES CHRISTMAS PRESENT
E. M. Ruby, one of the well known residents of Weeping Water was in the city Wednesday and while here was a caller at the Journal and ordered the semi-weekly edition of the paper sent to his son, Bernard Ruby at Shenandoah, Iowa, a Christmas present from the parents. Bernard is a member of the Ruby orchestra, popular entertainers from radio station KMA at Shenandoah and will keep in touch with the old friends in Cass county through the medium of the Journal.

MET WITH MRS. THORNTON
The Poverty Point Woman's club met at the home of Mrs. C. M. Thornton on Dec. 19, 1928. Having been postponed on account of the bad roads.

Miss Jesse Baldwin Ass't County Extension Agent demonstrated the art of making 10 different kinds of candy.

At noon a delicious dinner was served by the hostess, Mrs. C. M. Thornton.

Samples of the candies were enjoyed by those present. The balance was taken home for Christmas festivities.

GREENWOOD

John Gumdinger is nursing a very sore arm caused by a large boil which has taken a pre-emption claim thereon.

Mrs. E. A. Landon was visiting with relatives in Ashland for the day last Friday, making the trip over in the bus.

Rex Peters and wife are enjoying a bag of English walnuts which was sent to them recently by a sister, who is in California.

M. Jumper, Jess Dildine and the Nightingale boys shelled and delivered corn to the Greenwood elevators during the past week.

Pete Peterson and the family were enjoying a visit with relatives in Lincoln for Christmas day, they driving over to the big town in their car.

The Peters Grain company shipped another car of sacked corn to the sheep feeders at Greybull, Wyoming, during the latter portion of last week.

Mrs. R. E. Matthews has been visiting for the past week at the home of her mother, Mrs. Belle Wilson, of Powhattan, Kansas, where they are enjoying the mid-winter holidays.

Walter Lovel was over to Weeping Water for Christmas and a few days thereafter, enjoying the time at the home of W. H. Ash and family, where he made his home for many years.

C. D. Fulmer last week completed the picking of his corn and sure he was wearing a smile that would not rub off. Well, it had just been Christmas as well and he had a right to smile.

Alvin Adams shelled and delivered to the Farmers Elevator in Greenwood on last Friday some two thousand bushels of the yellow cereal, and which goes to enrich this portion of Cass county.

A. M. Newsbham and John Fox were shelling and delivering corn to the elevators in Greenwood on last Friday, they finding the roads very fine for the delivery and the price fair, which induced the marketing.

Mrs. Rex Peters entertained the General Kensington club on last week at her home, a most enjoyable time being had by the members of the club and invited guests, who were loud in their praise of Mrs. Peters as an entertainer.

Reports from where O. F. Peters and wife are spending the winter in the west is that the water is warm and but little cold weather, though it is rather damp at times. They will not expect to return to Nebraska until near June the coming year.

At the home of George Bucknell, both he and the good wife have been wrestling with the flu for the past week, leaving Mr. A. W. White to look after the business at the store, making him pretty busy, but he would much rather work than have the flu.

Clyde Newkirk, who assisted in the completion of the gathering of the corn at the home of Art Reese, with his son Raymond are picking corn at the home of L. M. Mowery and are hustling it out there. The weather has been very nice for picking during the past week.

Ernest Laughlin has been assisting at the Greenwood State Bank for a few weeks, he having just graduated from a business school in Lincoln and desiring some actual experience in this line. He could not have selected a better institution in which to gain the needed experience.

Last week the Coleman family in and around Greenwood held their annual family reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Landon and at which there was a large and very enjoyable gathering, with good things to eat and all happy. There were thirty-two present to enjoy the occasion.

John Weatherlogg and family, of Bloomfield, where he is at the head of the public schools, are visiting here for the holidays, as are also Dr. and Mrs. Purdey, of Gordon. Mrs. Purdey was formerly Miss Dorothy Birdsall, and in company with Mr. and Mrs. Birdsall were visiting in Lincoln on last Friday.

The auditor of the Farmers Grain company of Greenwood was here and went over the books of the company and found them in excellent condition, placing his O. K. thereon. The stockholders will hold their annual meeting on January 8th, when all members of the company are requested to be in attendance.

During the latter portion of last week Walter Palling and son, Merrill, each shipped a car load of seed corn, the same going to Chicago and which brought a very nice premium over the market price for commercial corn. This is fine for it gives this portion of the country the credit for raising better corn than elsewhere.

The matter of getting the last of the corn out of the fields is looking better at this time, many having finished, while others are hustling very rapidly. Leo Peters had some five teams in the field last week and reports the best progress of the season. Omar Yardley reports that he has some three thousand bushels yet in the field, but with plenty of time to pick it before spring. He, however, has a number of teams and all hustling to get the corn out.

Wanted To Buy Dead Animals.
I am in the market for hides of horses and cattle, and will buy fallen animals for their hides. Phone 2263.
—F. J. Kelley, Greenwood, Neb.

Enjoy Family Reunion
Mr. and Mrs. Rex Peters were over to Murdock on Thursday of last week, where they went to enjoy a gathering of the family of Mrs. Peters at the home of her parents, Henry Gakemeier and wife, all the family being present with the exception of brother, W. Gakemeier and family of Chicago. Mrs. J. D. Wolters and family of Arlington were present, as well as John, Gust and Herman Gakemeier of near Murdock and Miss Wilamena Gakemeier of Murdock. Needless to say a most enjoyable time was had by everyone.

Greenwood Transfer Line
We do a general business—make trips regularly to Omaha on Monday and Thursday, also to Lincoln Tuesday and Friday. Pick up loads on these trips. Full loads at any time.
FRED HOFFMAN.

Made a Happy Christmas
On last Thursday, two days after the Christmas tide, a very happy event occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lobley. When the stork brought a very happy blue-eyed baby girl to their home. All concerned are getting along nicely and you should see that smile which Raymond wears, it will not rub off.

ON "BOSS" COMMITTEE
Representative Troy L. Davis of Cass county, one of the veterans of the state legislature, has been named as a member of the committee on committees, a very selection of the various committees of the house. Mr. Davis was the chairman of the education committee of the last legislature, a committee that has charge of the needs of the state university and normal schools, and it is thought that the Cass county man will probably be named for the same position this session.

In the senate W. B. Banning, of Union, one of the oldest members of that body in service and a democrat, is expected to be the minority leader in the upper house by virtue of his seniority. The advice and assistance of Senator Banning is much sought by the senate and his position has been recognized by the majority leaders as one of the outstanding senators.

FOR SALE
Buff Orpington cockerels $2 each. Liberty Wiles, Phone 3521, Plattsmouth, Nebr.
