GOOD BYE TO 1928

---:0:---

It has gone with its pain and its pleasure; We can bid it no longer to wait.

Time closes in soft pedaled measure On the Old Year nineteen twenty-eight.

Though many have cause to regret it And gladly would try it again,

The most of us found as we met it. The joys that through life will remain.

It has shared all our virtues and sinnings, Our losses, vexations and tears. But it also has smiled on our wnnings,

Dispelling our doubts and our fears. It was gone with its roses and thistles;

We have written it line upon line. We'll drown our regrets in the whistles That welcome nineteen
