CHAS. ATTEBERRY Union, Nebr.

Dewey True who has been farming east of Union has rented a place near Murray and will farm the Mrs. Dovie Asch place.

Carl Shaveley recently accepted a position working in a filling station at Rockport, Mo., writes that he is liking his work there very much.

Uncle Joseph Lidgett living near Riverview, east of Union is reported as being very poorly and has been kept to his home for a number of days.

Charles Meade has been assisting in the picking of corn at the home of E. Rathle and is materially assisting in getting this gentlemen's crop in the crib.

Last Monday morning Clifton B. Smith and wife, Justin Anderson and A. L. Becker all went to Nebraska City where they had some dental work to have done.

Senator W. B. Banning who was over to Lincoln last week with the legislature was a visitor at home for over Sunday and returned to Lincoln early on last Monday.

J. B. Roddy just made the sale of a farm to a gentleman of Union, of a piece of land which he has owned in the eastern portion of the state and for which he received a good price.

Harold Frans who has been making his home near Alhambra, California, where he is engaged in barbering, arrived in Union last Sunday and is visiting with the father, Harry M. Frans.

Mrs. W. O. Troop who is at the Immanuel hospital where she is receiving treatment following an operation which she underwent a short time since, is reported as showing good improvement at this time.

Miss Mary Chase who was kept from her school on account of the east of Union, but who has been very poorly at his home for the past several weeks, while he is receiving the very best medical attention and nursing, having the wife and a graduate nurse, still remains very poorly, and it putting up a very fine fight for the overcoming of the malady which has been keeping him to the home.

James F. Wilson who has been kept to his home for some time with an acute attack of bronchitis has shown much improvement of late and was able to be down town on last Monday afternoon and says he is feeling much better.

Vance and Stirling Harris, looking into the future on last Friday shelled and delivered a quantity of their corn crop getting it in just before the coming of the snow storm and are feeling very well pleased over the fruitless delivery.

Last Friday Harold James who has been troubled for some time with hernia was taken to Omaha where he underwent an operation for the correction of his trouble. The operation was a very successful one, and since he has been getting along very nicely. Robert James, his father and Wm. James, his uncle were over to Omaha last Sunday and found the young man getting along nicely.

Harry M. Frans one of the very finest of gentlemen, making his home he completed is a matter of conjecture, although it is certain to come in the Hoover administration. In times past it has taken from nine months to more than a year to write new tariff laws, but republican leaders are agreed that only a small proportion of the items will need to be changed now and are emphatic in correcting the impression that a widespread general revision is contemplated.

On this basis Chairman Hawley, of the ways and means committee, believed he will have a new bill ready by the middle of April. Some democrats, however, have warned against haste in preparation of the measure, declaring it would lead to unscientific law.

The hearings tomorrow will open on the first schedule in the 1922 act, which will form the foundation for the readjustment. This schedule, upon which more than sixty witnesses have requested to be heard, embraces chemicals, oils and paints. Three days have been set aside for this schedule before the second, including earths, earthenware and glassware, is tackled Jan. 10 and 11. The remaining thirteen sections, including the free list, will be considered in the order in which they appear in existing law.

The schedules and dates on which they will be considered follow:

Chemicals, oil and paints, Jan. 7, 8, 9.

Earths, earthenware, and glassware, Jan. 10, 11.

Metals and metal manufactures, Jan. 14, 15, 16.

Wood and wood manufactures, Jan. 17, 18.

Sugar, molasses, and their manufactures, Jan. 21, 22.

Tobacco, and tobacco manufactures, Jan. 23.

Agricultural products and provisions, Jan. 24, 25, 28.

Spirits, wines, and other beverages, Jan. 29.

Cotton and cotton manufactures, Jan. 30, 31, Feb. 1.

Flax, hemp, jute, and their manufactures, Feb. 4, 5.

Wool and wool manufactures, Feb. 6, 7, 8.

Silk and silk goods, Feb. 11, 12.

Papers and books, Feb. 13, 14.

Sundries, Feb. 15, 18, 19.

Free list, Feb. 20, 21, 22.

Administrative and miscellaneous, Feb. 25.—State Journal.

WURZBACH MAY GAIN SEAT

Austin, Tex., Jan. 8.—The right of Judge Augustus J. McCloskey of San Antonio to a certificate of election as congressman from the Fourteenth Texas district was in doubt again today when an alleged error in the Guadalupe county returns was found. On the face of the latest correct returns, if they are adopted, Congressman Harry Wurzbach of Seguin would be elected by ninety-eight votes, it was said.

Discovery of the mistake was stated to have been reported to the Texas election commissioners by County Judge J. B. Williams of Guadalupe county. It was stated that in certifying his figures the judge had transposed the votes, which probably should have been: Wurzbach, 2,806; McCloskey, 2,081. The difference, 725 votes, was said to be well more than enough to wipe out the 627 vote victory previously accorded McCloskey.

It doesn't make it any easier to be told that it is good for us to get back to coarse common food after a diet of richness and daintiness thru the holidays. If anything, it makes it harder. One of the best things about letting go all holts and gorging ourselves through the festive season is the knowledge that it probably isn't very good for us.

Hearings on Tariff Opened in Congress Today

Ways and Means Committee to Start on the Task of Revision—May Last Months.

Washington, Jan. 6.—The stupendous legislative task of readjusting the nation's tariff structure will get under way tomorrow when the house ways and means committee opens hearings on the more than 10,000 items that make up the 1922 act at present in effect. When the job will

WEEPING WATER

Herman Luetchens, living northwest of Weeping Water, shelled his corn, having the same to the elevator at Wabash.

Eugene Colbert and wife from near Wabash, were visiting and looking after some business matters in Weeping Water on last Tuesday afternoon.

L. T. Bosworth of Wabash was a business visitor in Weeping Water on Tuesday of this week and was also meeting with his many friends in the hustling city in the center of the county.

The Weeping Water Cash Store received a car load of flour on last Monday, which they had unloaded at the store and are well pleased with the business which is coming to their place of business.

R. J. Lane was a business visitor in Council Bluffs, Iowa, and Omaha on last Monday, making the trip via his auto, and on the following day was called to Lincoln to look after some business as well.

O. T. Leyda of Lincoln was a visitor for a short time in Weeping Water on last Tuesday, and visited with his many friends here while on his way to Louisville, where he went to look after some business matters.

W. L. Munson, who has been farming on what is known as the Brandt place, will begin soon to move his effects to the Forest place east of the Chilson school northeast of Weeping Water where he will farm the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Troy L. Davis, the representative of Cass county in the legislature, write that they are nicely quartered in the Metropolitan Apartments of Lincoln, and would be pleased to have friends in Weeping Water when in town, call on them.

Uncle Henry Hubbard who is past his 92nd year, has been having a tussle with the flu, but in the past two weeks, he is getting better at this time and is feeling much better, notwithstanding he still has a severe cough, but is getting over that with each succeeding day.

A. H. Humble, who is employed with the Missouri Pacific headquarters in Omaha was a visitor at home last Sunday and also remaining over for the New Year holiday. Mr. Humble is liking the work in Omaha well and finds that it is much better than conducting a station in the country.

Wm. Jamison with a force of workmen began the harvesting of the ice crop and will in a short time have all that is needed for the county and those who store their ice, and of the very best, for the lake where the cutting is done is supplied with an abundance of the very best of spring water.

N. L. Grubbs, the village blacksmith, who some time since purchased the shop which was formerly occupied by John E. Johnson, says that business is good, and that he has been compelled to forego the pleasure of looking after the business on account of a siege of the flu, but at this time he is feeling some better and is working as much as he is able.

Frank H. Baldwin the blacksmith, who fought the dreaded disease, the flu, for so long had to finally give up to the malady, and was so he could not look after the business which came to his place of business, and had to have the shop closed for a number of days, and even when he did return to work was hardly able to look after the work. However he is gaining with every day and will soon be himself again.

Spencer J. Marshall who is engaged in the shoe and boot business, says the year 1928 was a good year, and while it went along rather tratis and in many instances was a weather market, made good in the end and came within 179 dollars of equaling the year 1927, which was considered a very good year. One only has to keep the best goods, sell them at a fair price and treat the people right and business will come and stay as well.

Miss Margaret Meier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Meier who is teaching music at the consolidated school at LeRoy, Iowa, was a visitor at home for the holidays, and on her return to her work in the Iowa town was taken over by her father, who drove in their car nearly two hundred miles. Mr. Meier is loud in his praise for the little town that maintains a so large a consolidated school with thirty-six sections, and of the finely equipped school building which they have.

Last Monday while it was cold J. H. Henegar noticed that the hog house where the hogs were sleeping was about covered with snow and that the hogs were liable to suffocate, and hopping out with a shovel wroked like a Trojan and cleared the snow away, thus saving the hogs. During the work he however, had the misfortune to frost a number of his fingers, and observing the same he immediately secured some snow and drew the frost out of the fingers. However they were rather sore the following day.

the installation of the officers of the I. O. O. F. subordinate lodges and the Rebekah assemblies of this district with the installing officers of the two teams. Alex Patterson and Ora Johnson were over to Nehawka on last Tuesday evening, where they met with the two lodges of that city and installed the officers of each, following which they were refreshed with a most delightful supper which was served by the members of the Rebekah assembly of Nehawka, and the teams on their return were loud in the praise of the sisters of the Nehawka lodge for their entertainment.

Stars Have Merry Time. The members of the Order of Eastern Star of Weeping Water met at the Masonic hall on last Tuesday evening where they enjoyed the evening most pleasantly.

There was besides the program, which was the installation of the newly elected officers into their respective positions, a very worth while program as well, and this was followed by a banquet which went to the spot, like none other could, because of the excellent cooks among the order who had prepared and served the banquet, which is always a part of the installation of the officers of this order. Those to be given the positions of trust and honor were: Mrs. Alice Cole, W. M.; O. E. Powers, W. P.; Viva Jones, A. M.; C. E. Pool, A. L.; Mable Jamison, C. M.; Amanda Marshall, A. C.

Enjoyed an Excellent Year. On last Tuesday, January 8th at the bank building the stock holders and directors of the First National bank of Weeping Water, now the only National bank in Cass county, held their annual meeting and went over the reports of the officers, which they O. K'd and with the conclusion declared their customary dividend, which showed that the stockholders had earned a very nice profit on their stock. This was due to the excellent manner in which the officers having the management of the affairs in hand, handled the business of the bank. This institution with the Nebraska State bank make two strong financial institutions of a hustling good city.

Died at Byres, Colo. Robert William, the four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Zell Van Oberbuck, died of pneumonia late last week and was brought by the sorrowing parents to Weeping Water, where the funeral was held at the Christian church of this city, the services being conducted by the Rev. George Morey, pastor of the First Methodist church of this place. The interment was made in the beautiful Oakland cemetery of Weeping Water. Mrs. Anna Van Oberbuck was formerly Miss Anna Bates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bates, living south of Weeping Water.

Hears Brother Very Sick. On last Tuesday morning Harry Doty received a telegram from the home of his brother, Charles Doty, 59, of Oklahoma City, Okla., telling of the very serious illness of the brother and asking that Harry come. He immediately departed for the south to be with his brother and render what assistance in this his hour of struggle for the mastery of the disease. It is hoped that Harry shall arrive that he will find the brother in better health and that he soon may be well again.

Will Soon Move to Town. Charles Ward, who has lived northeast of Weeping Water for many years and who is loved and honored by all who know him, will in the near future move to Weeping Water to reside. Mr. Ward has recently purchased the property which was formerly the home of C. B. Barkhurst, and will make this their home. Mr. Ward, who has farmed for many years, has concluded that he is entitled to a position which does not require so much hard labor as the farm affords, and will sell goods over the county. Mr. Ward who has so many friends and who has mingled with the people for so many years should make good in this new occupation.

LOWER RATES FOR CABLES

New York, Jan. 8.—The Western Union Telegraph company announces that effective Jan. 14 its fifty-word night letter service will be extended overseas to its offices in London, Liverpool, Birmingham, Bristol, Bradford, Manchester, New Castle-on-Tyne, Southampton, Dundee, Edinburgh, Glasgow and Belfast. This cable night letter will supplement the week-end cable letter and the regular cable letter and is 2 cents per word cheaper than the latter. For example, fifty words may be sent to the points mentioned for $3.50. The new service will be extended to all points in Great Britain and Ireland as soon as the necessary arrangements can be made with the British authorities. It will do away with the expense incidental to coding and decoding messages and will provide the greater freedom of expression in cablegrams which plain language gives.

JOHNSON'S STOCK DEAL MAKES Him $58,000,000 POORER

New York, Jan. 5.—Statistical sharp in Wall street figure that Eldridge R. Johnson, who two years ago sold his controlling interest in the Victor Talking Machine Co. to bankers for $28,175,000, is poorer today by $58,739,396 than he would have been had he held on to all his stock. Yesterday it was announced that Victor would be merged with the Radio Corporation of America. It was computed that, as a result of the exchange of Radio shares for Victor stock that to be accomplished soon, Johnson's 79 per cent interest in Victor would be worth $56,914,396—based on current market values.

Johnson, in December, 1926, sold 245,000 of the $60,000 Victor common shares then outstanding to Speyer & Co. and J. & W. Seligman & Co. for slightly more than $21,000,000.

A New York woman is asking for a divorce because her husband refuses to fire his stenographer. Maybe there's a reason on his side, however. The girl may be able to spell.
