Dr. Von Schulte Heard at Happy

Weather and Murray Guests Attend the Meeting

From Thursday's Dally-The January meeting of the Happy

Hundred had to face the handicap is resting easily and standing the ing the month of April is a Spring Dietz in which the parties were rid- ing at Fifth and Main street which last evening of the snow and rain of enforced confinement with fortitude Trade Exhibit and Style Show to be ing, was struck by a passenger train was badly damaged as the result of go on account of her health. the early part of the day and the cold but it will be some time before he and biting wind of last evening and can resume his usual activities. despits this fact a very fine crowd was in attendance and all who braved the storm were more than delighted with the fine talk and the excellent spirit shown by all of the members of the party in making it a real get together.

The supper was held at the Fellowship room of the First Presbyterian church and the ladies of the church had arranged a very fine menu and which was splendidly Helen Virginia Secured Prize for style show will be held in conjuncserved and added to the great enjoyment of the event.

The speakers table was graced by cartons of the new Casco butter and a small truck full of the butter as well as a miniture cow decorated the table of the speaker.

The song fest was led by Frank gave his talents in the way of drawing out the blushing and shy singers of the Happy Hundred and with the fact that the Rotary song books had

Searl Davis had hied himself to he did in his very clever manner and brought a great deal of humor into ery is located. his work but failed in his attempts to induce Jess Warga and Bill Kieck

Honoring the visitors of the evening Toastmaster Bailey called upon Charles A. Patterson of Arapahoe and W. G. Boedeker and George Nickles to stand and receive the greetings of their friends.

Dr. Henry W. Von Schulte, dean of the Creighton university college of medicine for the past eleven years, for nineteen years in the Columbia of New England, was the main presented by the Jess F. Warga store. speaker of the evening very cleverly introduced by Mr. Bailey.

The subject taken by Dr. Von Schulte was that of "The American City" and in which the organization of the city, its effect on the residents, on the home life and the educational and religious phases of life awarded to Joe Sykora of south of teacher and scholar.

Two types of the city life was taken, that of the early New England village where the company was formed of the men of the community, the land purchased or acquired, the property divided to give each a G. Kieck has spent a great deal of home, a liberal plot of ground, the time and the amount of postage paid meeting house provided for and a by the county in the past year in plot of ground, the Common, so call- the collection of bad checks has been ed by reason of being the community large-so large that the office in the property and here life was lived future will follow strictly the law easily, the man to toil and be inde- in these kind of cases and while appendent, the duties of the meeting prehending the parties on complaints and worship strict and stern. All will leave the recovery of the amount life radiated from the Common and of the checks where the law has giving the Plattsmouth amusementthe meeting place and here old age placed it, in the nature of a civil found peace and quietude but against action by the parties holding the which the spirit of youth rebelled checks. and moved elsewhere to see life in its more strenuous phases. Dr. Von ture of 1923 allowed the parties Schulte well stated that a community | charged to pay over the amount of from which youth had flown was the check and escape prosecution, dead and this had led to the sub- but this was changed by the legismerging of this village life altho lature of 1927 so that the offense many of the characteristics were was made punishable with a fine and borne out in other settlements of the sentence and the recovery of the

that of the early settlement of New party holding the check through a York where the streets were arranged | civil action. in the gridiron plan as against the common of New England, where the Kieck has recovered from -2,500 to very laying out of the city was for $3,000 in checks and which has volve the greatest skill of the camcommercial development and where in time commerce and business actin time commerce ivities had driven farther and county attorney and this has now farther the residential sections and ceased as far as the county is con- ture." did not make for the permanancy of cerned. Where complaint is made the home or the abode of the family. the matter will be handled but the The large city called the resident of office will not be a collection agency the country by reason of better edu- and the party or parties making the cational opportunities, of amuse- check may be punished but there ments and life on a broader scale will be no collection made as that but unless the city could give a will be left as the law intended-a greater expansion of the educational life or the development of the religious phase of life the man or woman was better to have remained in the countryside where life was more intimate among the people and gave more of the opportunities of living life as it was intended to be by the

The invocation and the benediction was offered by Rev. H. G. Mc Clusky of the First Presbyterian sale at Journal office, 50c each. ent.

SUFFERS BROKEN LEG

From Thursday's Dally-Tom Patterson, aged 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Patterson, is confined Hundred Supper broken leg which he sustained coasting on North Fourth street Tuesday evening. Tom was coasting and as he came down on a bob sled and as he came down Fine Crowd Present Despite Cold the hill a car came across the intersection and in trying to avoid this car as well as two others parked nearby, the sled was run into the curb and the left leg of the little lad was caught between the sled and the curb and fractured. The patient

pany Announces

Name and Slogan-Other Prizes Given.

From Thursday's Dally-

The officers of the Cass County Creamery & Produce Co., of this city who in conjunction with the Chamber of Commerce and Plattsmouth Cloidt as Hugh Wallace again was prevented from reaching here to add ing day of the creamery on December to the fun and the local vocalist of the creamery on December 27th, have announced the awards made for they arious events.

The special prize of $10 for the songs made the singing more vigorous.

the creamery products, was won by Miss Helen Virginia Price of this of the great war and the creamery products, was won by It will probably be of either three or tuned to the spirit of battle, a revo-The members of the supper party had the pleasure of hearing the men's glee club directed by Mrs. E. H. Wescott and which gave two fine numbers and proved that this organization.

Miss Helen Virginia Price of this four days' duration.

Another matter taken up at last night's meeting was the setting of a date for holding the initiation of several new members of the local post. The work members of the local post. the Mouth." The slogan prize of $5 also goes to Miss Price. The creamtion is going to be a real factor in the musical life of the community. Searl Davis had hied himself to Lincoln to attend the organized agri-cultural meeting and Superintendent P. E. Bailey was called upon to get as master of ceremonies and which designation of the mouth of the post degree staff, under direction of rolled a large number of the business > cream on the opening day was Frank Fadden, "Fat" Bucknell and others fitted in nicely in the fire fighting Bros. hardware store.

> can of cream to the new creamery and smoker and invited the Green-was C. D. Geary and who received the wood boys to come over and exhibit prize awarded by Kreehler Bros. prize awarded by Kroehler Bros. their ability for the benefit of the period they have continued on the hardware store.

For the greatest amount of cream and butterfat brought to this city hawka was given the prize which was Wills and a hospitality committee department calls for. For the one coming the longest distance with cream William Senf funds have been rather depleted by tificates and issued the life member- last tributes of love and respect to the the estate of Earl R. Travis, deceased, tificates and issued the life memberof near Avoca was awarded the prize dance reverses, a special committee ship rewards to the following veterwhich was given by the Plattsmouth

Implement Co. The most unique means of delivering the cream to the creamery was was given the prize donated by the firm of Bestor & Swatek.

QUITS COLLECTION BUSINESS

The office of County Attorney W.

The law enacted by the legislaamount claimed due on the face of The second type of the city was checks must be recovered by the

In the past year the office of Mr. proven expensive for the county as matter of civil action.

TAKEN TO HOSPITAL

From Thursday's Dany-Mrs. Virginia Aylard of this city Tiekotter of this city and the first patriotic body erecting the flag pole Mrs. Carl Reese of Hugo, the mother Glen Perry farm and the Ford badly is at the Methodist hospital in Om- grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur on Wintersteen hill making the site and brother, Mrs. Eva Reese and Guy damaged. aha, where she is to be operated on N. Sullivan, parents of Mrs. Tiekot- of the flag presentation to Co. A of Reese of Bovina, Colorado, the son, The car of Mr. Sampson was overtoday as the result of a trouble that ter and it is needless to say the little the First Nebraska in June, 1861, Jack Reese of Omaha, the sister, Mrs. turned, the axel bent and the radi- American Express Co., in this city has caused her a great deal of an- one has received a royal welcome. noyance in the past and which it is hoped the operation will correct. Mrs. Clarence Forbes, mother of Mrs.

Aylard, and Mrs. Benedict were in Omaha today to visit with the pati-

Legion will Sponsor Spring

Newest Co-operative Entertainment Feature will be Held Around the Middle of April.

held at the Legion community build- of the Burlington. ing. The show will be sponsored by In the trial of the case here a ver-placed back in the former attractive the American Legion and/participat- dict was given in favor of the deed in by Plattsmouth business houses fendant railroad company. and Omaha and Lincoln wholesalers. It is something distinctly new and ruling that the occupants of an auto ed only by the fine work of the fire different in entertainment lines for a do not exercise due precaution unless own of this size, being patterned they warn the driver of the approach-Special Prizes building and similar shows held in the larger cities of the country, but building and similar shows held in for all trains or other dangers.

> tion with the showings of the various display and demonstration booths, door awards given nightly and other entertaining features provided. Instead of the usual 50 cent admission charge for like shows in the cities, a very nominal charge of 10 or 15 cents will be made, attendants Large Number of Firemen to Go on sharing in the distribution of sample articles of merchandise that will be worth the admission charge. The American Legion post at its monthly meeting last night took the From Friday's Darlyname for the butter produced at the initial steps to put the show over and tentatively set the second week in Bierl of west of the city and whose of the live-wire Greenwood Legionprize was donated by the Kroehler naires. A delegation of Plattsmouth new candidates here. Commander Lugsch named a feed composed of W. R. Holly, Silent Cal and James Doyle. As post treasury fire department has received the cer- young man were present to pay their was taken up the final settlement of was also named to look after the col- ans of the fire department for their lection of funds for providing the wherewithal for the feed.

dance Wednesday night, January 30, H. G. Soennichsen, B. A. Rosencrans, was given a very learned an impressive presentation by this gifted and buggy to deliver the goods and the Legion will sponsor before the M. D. Brown, Emil J. Weyrich, D. ward.

> fan system in the back furnace room lef. was discussed at the meeting as a building.

HAS REAL PICTURES

From Thursday's Dany-

Griffin is the manager, has set a fast pace in the movie business and is loving public an opportunity of see- From Thursday's Daflying first release pictures as soon and ing at the Omaha theatres.

tonight's presentation, "White Shad- passed to her last reward. ows of the South Seas" is being offerera men and daring of the actors. Shadows" have missed a real pic-

FINE LITTLE DAUGHTER

this city, the little one and the J. Janda. mother doing nicely and the occasion bringing the greatest happiness to Herman. The little one is the ninth grandchild of Mrs. Herman your brief.

CASE IS REMANDED Bank Building From Thursday's Dally-The case of Lorenz Leiner vs. the Chicago, Burlington, & Quincy railroad which was carried on appeal Trade Exhibit by the plaintiff to the state supreme court, has been reversed, and remanded back to this city for trial in the district court. This case grew out of the accident on the Oreapolis crossing of the Burlington on Sunday, August 16th, 1925, in which James Edwards and Elof Johnson were instally kill-The newest thing in entertainment ed, C. L. Dietz and Mr. Leiner sev- From Friday's Davylines promised for Plattsmouth dur-erely injured, when the car of Mv.

comprising most of these lines grouped into one massive exhibit. The Firemen Receive Certificates for Service to City

Inactive List After More Than Five Years Service.

A number of years ago, just following the close of the great war

Platte, where the home of the cream- Col. Phil Hall, commander of the men and those employed in the busi-Greenwood post and his worthy crew ness section to become members of The youngest person bringing in of assistants, including "Doc" Mc- the department and they have since forces of the city. The time has come when the larger post members recently were guests of part of those enrolled by Mr. Schnei-The person bringing in the first the Greenwood post at an initiation der are ready to lay aside the tasks job and still will grow restless when the fire siren sounds, but are entitled by law to enjoy a rest and allow young man, were held on Tuesday committee composed of Henry Soen- others to do the hard work and sacri- afternoon at the St. Luke's Episcopal Frank Schlichtemeier of near Ne- nichsen, Harold Erickson and Bob fice that being a member of the fire church in this city and many of the fice that being a member of the fire old time friends of the family and arrival of Lent on February 13th. K.Ebersole, E. A. Fricke, John Bauer, The installation of a circulating Albert Cotner, J. V. Hatt, Frank Det-

These firemen have served without step toward greater fuel economy pay and by their efforts have saved prompt and efficient action and in presided at the organ. carry the deepest appreciation of the at the church the body was borne to poor health, had resigned his position city and its people for what they the Oak Hill cemetery for the inter- of court reporter for the second have contributed to the community ment, the pall bearers being from judical district in 1920 and had

DEATH OF AGED LADY

Last evening at 7:40 occurred the in several cases before their show- death of Mrs. Josephine Janda, widow the A. F. & A. M., Mr. Reese hav- gation that failed to ever reveal any of the late Anton Janda, and a resi-In the last few weeks, Mr. Griffin dent of Plattsmouth for the past Hugo, Colorado. W. A. Robertson, has brought some real pictures to the thirty-six years. The aged lady had local theatre, "Submarine," "Masks been ill for some time and since the of the Devil" being shown here at the death of the husband has made her same time as in Omaha. This week, home with her daughter, Mrs. Tone vice at the cemetery the male quartet resignation in 1920. starting Tuesday and ending with J. Janda and at whose home she

Mrs. Janda was aged eighty years, the World in Omaha. This is a real and was born in Bohemia, where her picture and one of the greatest in- younger years were spent, later comscenes shown are stupendous and in- made her home and for the past thir- at Hugo, Colorado, on January 4, mouth. Following the death of her her in death also.

There is surviving this splendid lady three daughters, Mrs. Tone J. Janda of this city, Mrs. Joseph Janda tend the last services were: Mrs. of Omaha, Miss Josie Koumal of Yesterday a fine little daughter Aurora, and one son, Frank Koumal, Edward McMaken and son, Carl, Mrs. was born to Mr. and Mrs. Herman whose residence is unknown. There C. L. Scott and granddaughter, Dor- From Friday's Daliy-C. Tiekotter at the family home in is also remaining one step-son. Tone

ERECTED FLAG POLE

Law Brief Printing? Sure, the Republic has carried out a great deal Hugo.

is Redecorated Following Fire

Plattsmouth State Bank Building Again Placed in Best of Condition After Bad Fire

shape and very little trace can be The reversal is made in that the destroy the building and was checkdepartment and citizens.

in part after the exclusive auto, food, ing danger and keep a close outlook lower floor of the building has been renainted and re-decorated and now bears no trace that fire was every a threat to the building as the fire itself did not penetrate into this portion of the building.

The directors room and consulation room at the rear of the building where the fire was located has also been re-arranged, the burned sections of the walls replaced and the interior of the room repainted and attractive a place as it was before

The second floor of the building was damaged largely by smoke and this has been removed entirely by having all of the offices and the halls repainted and decorated making it as good as new. The stairs leading from the Fifth street entrance of the building have been covered with battleship linaleum.

The law offices of William A Robertson and Joseph A. Capwell on the second floor of the building has not only been redecorated but the attorneys have gone even farther and fine new linoleum rugs have been Capwell having a fine black and gray pleasant place for the handling of the located in one, of the most logical Robertson a rug in tones of gray and the bank. The building is one of the eer as an ideal spot for bridge conoccupied by Miss Estelle Geis, the most modern of vaults, safes and ways systems both east and west and rug is in the tones of gray and green safety devices to protect again rob- north and south. and makes a very attroctive setting bery. for the offices.

FUNERAL OF CARL REESE

From Thursday's Dally-

The funeral services of the late Carl Reese, former Plattsmouth fund from $8,000 to $10,000. old time friends of the family and From Friday's Dally-Secretary Claude C. Smith of the schol day associates of the departed In the county court today there spendid services in the past: E. C. copal burial service was celebrated ing for the allowance of his report Harris, Robert M. Walling A. H. by Father Stanley Jones of St. Mar- and his discharge as administrator. It was decided to hold a big feature Duxbury, Fred Lugsch, F. M. Bestor, tin's church of Omaha and who gave This is one of the mysteries that that had been called to the last re- the county court of Cass county as composed of Frank A. Cloidt, R. C. June 20, 1921 when he left the hotel hymns, "Abide With Me," and "Now bers of the family and friends for and more satisfactory heating of the the city from many bad fires by the Day Is O'er." Mrs. J. M. Roberts several years, no word was ever re-

Maken, Edwin Fricke and Fred Arant on a visit and it was not until he held by Plattsmouth lodge No. 6 of appearance and started the investiing been a member of the lodge at trace of Mr. Travis or his fate. past worshipful master conducted the 1908 to 1912 under his father, the school hill and with a very pleasing services at the grave, assisted by late Harvey D. Travis and under number of the members in attenmembers of the order. At the ser- Judge Begley from 1912 until his dance. gave two numbers, "Jesus Savior Pilot Me" and "Rock of Ages."

The deceased was born on July 1929, at 8:30 p. m.

Mr. Reese left the wife, one son. Colorado, and one sister, Mrs. C. W. Baylor of Akron, Ohio.

Those from out of the city to at-Etta Bonner of North Platte, Mrs. othy of Sheridan, Wyoming, Mrs.

manent marking of this historic spot. | read, and they sure do get results. | out his identity being known. | looking after the express business.

Mrs. Alice Weinheimer of Peoria, Illinois, sister of Mrs. Frank S Brinkman of near this city, Mrs Henry J. Miller of Alvo and the late Mrs. J. H. Becker of this city bassed away a few days ago at her home. The deceased lady was sevenfrequent visitor here with the rela- H. A. Schneider of This City Reives and known to a large group of the friends in this community and who will learn with the greatest regret of her death. The funeral was From Friday's Datlyheld at Pekin, Illinois and Mrs. The Plattsmouth Bridge Co. held Brinkman was in attendance at the their annual meeting at Omaha yesservices, Mrs. Miller being unable to

Farmers State Bank Holds Its

Present Officers Are Re-Elected and the company. Report of Year Shows a Very Pleasing Result.

From Friday's Daily-

The annual meeting of the Farmers State bank of the city was held on Thursday at the bank and the varnished and in a few days the directors of the bank were well pleasfurnishings will be placed in the ed with the showing for the year com and making it as bright and which has shown a gradual increase in the business of this substantial institution.

The annual election of the officers of the bank resulted in all of the present officers being re-elected to their positions as follows:

President-T. H. Pollock. Vice-President-Charles A. Pat

Cashier-R. F. Patterson. Asst. Cashier-James K. Pollock. The board of directors named consists of T. H. Pollock, C. A. Patterson, J. K. Pollock and Edward Donat. The bank in the past year has had Bridge Co., is very pleasing and this their building remodeled and made structure is the second bridge to be into one of the most attractive bank- started and well under way over the flooring while in the private office business affairs of the bank, both and waiting room of the office of Mr. for the employes and the patrons of been highly recommended by engintans has been placed and in the room latest type and equipped with the struction and connecting large high-

The bank has at the present time on the report for December 31st.

$587,385.14 in deposits. The stockholders at the meeting voted to increase the surplus fund two thousand dollars, raising the

SETTLING UP ESTATE

The beautiful and impressive Epis- Nebraska City, administrator, pray-the church's blessing on the son has traced itself over the records of the trip, on account of three of the During the service a male quartet City, in 1921 was never seen after Cook, R. W. Knorr and E. H. Wes- where he was staying and altho a cott gave two of the old and loved thorough search was made by mem-ceived of his fate. At the conclusion of the services Mr. Travis, who has been in rather the old school friends and relatives, spent the time in resting and atbeing Henry Soennichsen, Henry Mc- tempting to regain his health and Maken, Ray McMaken, Milton Mc- had gone to Kansas City, supposedly had been absent for several days that At the cemetery the services were the family here learned of the dis-

After the disappearance of Mr. Travis probate action was started in Jones, acting parish priest and who the county court and Mr. Abbott opened the meeting with the devoted simultaneous with its showing at eight months and twenty-one days, 30, 1891 and has spent the greater named as administrator as well as ions and presided over the sessions. part of his youth in this city, lo- guardian of the two minor children The officers of the past year were cating in the west a number of years of the disappeared man. The estate re-elected. Mrs. R. F. Patterson, terest and the photographic work and ing to America, where she has since ago and where he died at the hospital has passed the seven year limit of president; Mrs. James T. Begley, the law on which the supposition of vice-president; Mrs. R. W. Clement, death is made and now is being secretary and Mrs. George K. Petring, closed up as several of the insurance treasurer, as a recognition of their ceased was married twenty years ago mother, Mrs. Eva Reese, one bro-carried policies have made settle- ization. to Anton Janda, who has preceded ther, Guy H. Reese, both of Bovina, ments with the estate. Mr. Abbott The delegates elected to the dio-

HAS CAR OVERTURNED

Last evening about 6 o'clock when Grace Kenney, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Art Sampson, well known young Arant, Mrs. C. B. Tungate, Mrs. Mar- farmer of near Murray was going great deal to the intreest of the tin and daughters, Gladys, Hazel and home, driving a Ford coupe, he was meeting. son, Cecil, of Omaha. The members struck by a large Graham-Paige se-The W. R. C. of this city was the of the family here were the wife, dan a short distance south of the

Plattsmouth Bridge Company Hold Meeting

Elected President-Company Has Bridge Under Way

terday and the members of the company had the pleasure of knowing that at the second meeting of the corporation the bridge over the Misscuri river that they are backing was in the process of erection and with the expectation that it would be in ervice by next fall. There was no change made in Annual Meeting the officers of the company with the exception that Lawrence Brinker of Omaha was named as an additional member of the board of directors of The officers named were as fol-

President-H. A. Schneider. Vice-President-R. A. Laussler Secretary-Glen H. Venrick. Treasurer-John W. Towle.

Direcors-James T. Begley, Lawrence Brinker, H. A. Schneider, John W. Towle, Glen H. Venrick, R. A. Laussler, Carl E. Vogel. The company is now busy, with the construction of the new $700,000 bridge over the Missouri river at this place, the Union Bridge & Construction Co., of Kansas City, contractors, being engaged in the work of edecting the piles for the bridge and the Plattsmouth Bridge Co., have also let the contract for the steel work to the Omaha Steel Co., and who will follow up with their part of the contract as soon as the piers are placed and the work approved.

The success of promoting the bridge made by the Plattsmouth places on the river and one that has

EAGLES HOLD INITIATION

From Friday's Daily-At the regular meeting of the local Eagles last evening, three of Plattsmouth's fine young men were initiated into the order. Plattsmouth aerie was assisted in the ritualistic work by the Omaha officers present. putting on the stately ceremony in most impressive manner. The state aerie was represented in the personage of Frank A. Mathews, state secretary, who delivered a brief resume of Eagledom to the new members in his genial way.

Nebraska City aerie, which had and drill teams were unable to make officers being confined to their beds with influenza. About forty-three of the local brothers were in attendance, and these,

with the Omaha delegation, made a very fine showing-particularly so at the free lunch of coffee and sandwiches prepared by, it is safe to say, the best cooks in the order. Watch the paper for particulars concerning the free boxing exhibition to be sponsored by the Eagles in #### the public is cordially invited. WOMEN'S AUXILIARY MEETS

the very near future, and to which

From Friday's Daily-

The Women's Auxiliary of the St Mr. Travis was court reporter from of Mrs. George K. Petring on high

> The ladies had the pleasure of having with them Father Stanley having kept the payments on the cese council at Omaha January 21st policies up over the seven year per- to 25th were: Mrs. R. F. Patterson. Mrs. R. W. Clement, Mrs. L. L. Turpin. The alternates named were Mrs. Henry Herold, Mrs. F. L. Cummins, and Miss Dora Fricke. At the conclusion of the afternoon delicious refreshments that added a

STILL ON SICK LIST

the Journal has been informed. This C. W. Baylor of Akron, Ohio, the ator badly bent up and damaged, so who was ill for several weeks with auxiliary of the Grand Army of the father-in-law, Joe W. Hunter, of much that the car had to be hauled the flu, has again been taken sick in for repairs and Mr. Sampson made and compelled to remain at home and the return home in another car. attempt to shake off the effects of The party that ran into the car of the illness. In the enforced absence Your ad in the Journal will be Mr. Sampson made his escape with- of Mr. Burrows Paul Henderson is