

The Plattsmouth Journal

VOL. NO. XLIV

PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, JAN. 17, 1929.

NO. 100

Young Tailor Has Close Call from Fatality

Max Novinsky Falls From Roof of One Story Building to Ice Pavement of Alleyway

From Monday's Daily— Mrs. Edward Rummel of near Myrand, is at the Immanuel hospital at Omaha where she was operated on Friday for tumor, a very severe operation and which the patient stood in fine shape and while still very ill seems to be showing as much progress as could be hoped for.

UNDERGOES OPERATION

From Monday's Daily— Mrs. Edward Rummel of near Myrand, is at the Immanuel hospital at Omaha where she was operated on Friday for tumor, a very severe operation and which the patient stood in fine shape and while still very ill seems to be showing as much progress as could be hoped for.

Commissioners Set Cost of Running the County

Estimates of Expense and Necessary Appropriations Cared for at Annual Meeting of Board

From Tuesday's Daily— The county commissioners at their annual meeting took up a number of matters in connection with the operation of the county government and making the appropriations and estimates for the year as well as fixing the prices to be paid for road work.

Benton High Wins Game Here Saturday Night

Visitors From Missouri Able to Nose Out Victory by Small Margin Over the Platters.

From Monday's Daily— Those who attended the basketball game between the Benton high of St. Joseph, Missouri, and the local high school team, had the opportunity of enjoying one of the closest games of the season and one in which the Platters' last minute rally was almost good and had the shooting eye of the local team working on the free throws they would have easily laid away the game, as the score of 15 to 11 was a small margin.

SNOW STOPS TRAVEL

From Wednesday's Daily— With the continuous snowfall and the icy conditions of many of the streets and roads in this section there is a decided stacking up of the auto travel and only those who find it necessary are braving the wintery conditions of the highways.

Platters Drop Close Game to North High

With a Score of 17 to 14 Vikings Secure Revenge for Past Defeats—Local Second Win.

From Wednesday's Daily— The blue and white of the Plattsmouth high school trailed at the losing end of another close basketball game last evening when Coach Jackson and his force of Vikings swept down from the North high and took revenge for the defeats that the Platters of past years had inflicted upon them. The score at the final whistle was 17 to 14 for the visitors.

MRS. REED DOING FINE

From Tuesday's Daily— The many friends over Cass county of Mrs. Bert Reed will be very much pleased to learn that this estimable lady now is well on the highway to complete recovery from the effects of the stroke that she sustained several weeks ago.

Safe Coasting Places Needed for Young Folks

Coasting Down Hills Into Midst of Heavy Auto Traffic Is One Filled With Real Menace

From Wednesday's Daily— Facing one of the old fashioned winters when the first time in several years the youngsters can have the opportunity of enjoying coasting on the sleds has arrived at Christmas time, there is coming to the fore a pressing question of where and under what circumstances the boys and girls can have the opportunity of enjoying coasting.

Churchmen Raise New Objections to 13-Month Year

Would Interfere With Sabbath, Jews and Seventh Day Adventists Argue

Washington—Objection to the Eastman simplified calendar which provides for a 13-month year, was made before the House Foreign Affairs Committee on religious grounds. The new calendar would interrupt the continuity of the Sabbath.

Corn and Hog Day to be Big Feature Here

Meeting at the Court House on February 5th Will Be Attraction for Farmers

The corn and hog day to be featured in this city at the court house on Tuesday, February 5th, promises to be one of the big features of the farm program of the county and will bring here many of the experts in the farming lines from all parts of the county and state.

Platters Drop Close Game to North High

With a Score of 17 to 14 Vikings Secure Revenge for Past Defeats—Local Second Win.

From Wednesday's Daily— The blue and white of the Plattsmouth high school trailed at the losing end of another close basketball game last evening when Coach Jackson and his force of Vikings swept down from the North high and took revenge for the defeats that the Platters of past years had inflicted upon them. The score at the final whistle was 17 to 14 for the visitors.

SMALL AUTO ACCIDENT

Sunday morning while Rev. H. L. Grassmuck, pastor of the First Christian church of this city, with Mrs. S. Briggs, were motoring to Murray for the Sunday services at that place they were victims of a small auto accident.

The Grassmuck car was just coming over the hill south of the Glen Perry farm when it was struck by a Ford sedan parked in the road in such a position that it was impossible to get the Grassmuck car past the parked car without a collision. The back portion of the car, fenders and running board of the Grassmuck car was damaged more or less. Members of the auto party were showered with the flying glass and Mr. Briggs suffered a slight cut on one cheek.

ENJOY FINE TIME

Despite the wintery conditions prevailing last evening a fine crowd was out to enjoy the card party staged by the local court of the Catholic Daughters of America at the K. of C. hall.

In the bridge contests the ladies prizes Mrs. Hervey was first and Mrs. Fluke second, while in the gents prize W. D. McCrary won the first and E. H. Scullion second. The high five prizes were won by A. G. Bach and F. W. Dalton in the gents honors and Mrs. A. G. Bach and Mrs. Dalton in the ladies.

HAS CLOSE CALL

From Wednesday's Daily— Last evening while John Glaze was motoring home from Omaha he had a very close call from a serious if not fatal accident at the railroad crossing near Port Crook where the King of Trails highway crosses the Missouri Pacific and Burlington tracks.

There was a freight on the Burlington that was pulling through at the time that Mr. Glaze drove up and owing to the slippery condition of the road he was unable to hold his car and the car swung around on the ice so that a part of the car was thrown against the side of the moving train and which started to drag the car along but after a few feet the car was shoved away by the moving train and Mr. Glaze and the car both escaped serious injury.

SURPRISED ON BIRTHDAY

Adam Meisinger, one of the genial and popular residents of Cedar Creek was given a very pleasant surprise on Saturday evening, January 12th at his home when the members of the family gathered to make the event one of the greatest happiness and to make the passing of the sixtieth milestone a real event for the guest of honor.

Mr. Meisinger came here when a boy of six years of age with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Meisinger, from Tazewell county, Illinois, in the year 1875, and has spent fifty-four years in Nebraska and is one of the most highly esteemed residents of his home community. In 1894 Mr. Meisinger was married to Miss Katie Thierolf and their wedded life has been happily spent in the vicinity of Cedar Creek and where their family of three sons have grown up, married and are now settled near the old home and where they can enjoy life with the parents.

ASKS TO QUIET REAL ESTATE

From Wednesday's Daily— This morning in the office of the clerk of the district court an action was filed in which Andrew P. Sturm is the plaintiff and Rose and George L. Sheldon defendants. In the petition of the plaintiff filed by his attorneys M. S. Briggs and Charles L. Graves, it is alleged that the plaintiff filed in an action in the district court filed suit in which it was asked that judgment be rendered in favor of a plaintiff and against the defendant George L. Sheldon for a note and that real estate of the defendant be held for the satisfying of the amount of the judgment. That under the judgment sale was made of the real estate and sheriff's deed made by E. P. Stewart to the plaintiff. It is further claimed that there was filed deeds made by the defendant Rose Sheldon of the date of 1919 and which was filed in Cass county after the date of the judgment and sheriff's deed. It is asked that these deeds made by Rose Sheldon be set aside and the property be quieted in the plaintiff.

ATTEND MEN'S MEETING

From Tuesday's Daily— This morning a group of the men of the First Presbyterian church motored to Omaha where they will attend the meeting that is to be held today at the First Presbyterian church in that city. General Moderator Hugh K. Walker, of Los Angeles will be the principal speaker at the meeting and is making stops at several of the Nebraska towns. Among those attending from the church here were T. H. Pollock, Rev. H. G. McClusky, George L. Farley, Frank A. Cloldt, L. D. Hiatt and L. O. Minor.

MARRIED AT PARSONAGE

From Monday's Daily— Yesterday at the parsonage of the First Methodist church occurred the marriage of Charles W. Robinson, Louisville young man, and Miss Elsie Mae Bowman, of Lincoln. The young people motored to this city and securing the necessary permission of the county court for the issuance of the marriage license hastened to the parsonage where the marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. H. E. Sotter, pastor of the church and the happy event witnessed by C. C. Westcott and Judge A. H. Duxbury.

MRS. ADAMS POORLY

From Tuesday's Daily— For the past several days Mrs. W. T. Adams has been confined to her home suffering from an attack of bronchitis that has made her condition very annoying and kept the patient confined to her bed the greater part of the time. Mrs. Adams seems to be somewhat better today but is still far from well. The family and friends are hopeful that the patient may soon rally and be definitely on the highway to recovery.

ELKS HAVE A FINE TIME

Last evening Plattsmouth lodge No. 729 of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks held one of the most interesting meetings of the lodge since a very fine time was filled with the greatest of interest to all of the members.

The event was the occasion of the official visit of District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler Blaine Venter of Falls City, who made the inspection of the lodge and was well pleased with the manner in which the affairs of the order are handled by the present efficient officers. As guests of the Plattsmouth lodge there were also present Frank E. Green, past exalted ruler and secretary of Lincoln lodge No. 59, E. S. Wolfenbarger, touring knight, and H. N. Loosbrock, inner guard of Lincoln lodge. The Lincoln visitors assisted in the initiation of the candidates of the local lodge. Following the lodge session short talks were made by the visitors and Mr. Green, for many years a resident here and who gave a very fine tribute to Plattsmouth and the local Elks lodge and was delighted with the opportunity of meeting many of the old time friends here.

SECONDS WIN GAME

From Monday's Daily— In the preliminary game Saturday in which the Louisville high school and the Plattsmouth reserves staged a hot battle, the Plattsmouth team came in with a one sided victory of 23 to 5.

LLOYD DELES DERNIER DIES

The many friends over Cass county of the family of Mr. and Mrs. William Deles Dernier of Elmwood, who report to learn of the death of their third son, Lloyd Deles Dernier, which occurred suddenly Saturday at the home.

CARD OF THANKS

We take this method of expressing to the many kind friends and neighbors our heart felt appreciation of the acts of kindness, and words of sympathy, given us at the time of our bereavement, also to those who took part in the funeral services and for the beautiful floral remembrances. E. J. Kruger, Nebraska; Edward Jr. and wife, Unadilla; Ralph Kruger, Unadilla.

RETURNS FROM SAD MISSION

Mrs. George Weyer of this city returned home Sunday from Lincoln where she was called a few days ago by the illness and death of her cousin, Mrs. D. A. Parks. The deceased was a bride of two weeks and was suddenly taken ill on Friday with an acute attack of appendicitis and hurried to the St. Elizabeth's hospital where she died shortly after reaching there and before Mrs. Weyer could reach her side.

SUFFERS INJURED FOOT

From Monday's Daily— Leonard Lutz, well known local high school student, while playing basketball this morning in the physical education period at the school had the misfortune to have one of the toes of the left foot broken and as the result the young man is finding the travel very painful with the one flat tire.

RETURNS FROM SAD MISSION

Mrs. George Weyer of this city returned home Sunday from Lincoln where she was called a few days ago by the illness and death of her cousin, Mrs. D. A. Parks. The deceased was a bride of two weeks and was suddenly taken ill on Friday with an acute attack of appendicitis and hurried to the St. Elizabeth's hospital where she died shortly after reaching there and before Mrs. Weyer could reach her side.

RETURNS FROM WISCONSIN

From Wednesday's Daily— This morning Miss Ruth Lindsay, music supervisor of the Plattsmouth city schools returned from her home at Lodi, Wisconsin, where she had been since the Christmas holidays. Miss Lindsay returned to her home for the holidays and while there was taken with the flu and was unable to resume her school activities until this time. The many friends of Miss Lindsay here are pleased to learn that she has so far recovered that she is able to resume her work in the music department in which she has been so efficient.

AGED LADY POORLY

Mrs. Katherine Kriksky, one of the aged ladies residing in the west portion of the city is reported as being quite poorly at her home for the past few days and her condition has grown such as to give but little hopes of her recovery and while all that is possible for the care of the patient is being done, the hopes of her recovery is very slight.

RETURNS FROM SAD MISSION

Mrs. George Weyer of this city returned home Sunday from Lincoln where she was called a few days ago by the illness and death of her cousin, Mrs. D. A. Parks. The deceased was a bride of two weeks and was suddenly taken ill on Friday with an acute attack of appendicitis and hurried to the St. Elizabeth's hospital where she died shortly after reaching there and before Mrs. Weyer could reach her side.

RETURNS FROM WISCONSIN

From Wednesday's Daily— This morning Miss Ruth Lindsay, music supervisor of the Plattsmouth city schools returned from her home at Lodi, Wisconsin, where she had been since the Christmas holidays. Miss Lindsay returned to her home for the holidays and while there was taken with the flu and was unable to resume her school activities until this time. The many friends of Miss Lindsay here are pleased to learn that she has so far recovered that she is able to resume her work in the music department in which she has been so efficient.

AGED LADY POORLY

Mrs. Katherine Kriksky, one of the aged ladies residing in the west portion of the city is reported as being quite poorly at her home for the past few days and her condition has grown such as to give but little hopes of her recovery and while all that is possible for the care of the patient is being done, the hopes of her recovery is very slight.

INVESTMENTS FOR WOMEN

As a feature of the Halsey, Stuart & Co., radio program over the National Broadcasting system on Thursday night, Mrs. John F. Lippel, president of the general federation of Women's clubs, discussed investments for women. The topic of the talk of Mrs. Lippel will be "Women's New Importance as an Investor—in Money, Time and Leisure."

RETURNS FROM SAD MISSION

Mrs. George Weyer of this city returned home Sunday from Lincoln where she was called a few days ago by the illness and death of her cousin, Mrs. D. A. Parks. The deceased was a bride of two weeks and was suddenly taken ill on Friday with an acute attack of appendicitis and hurried to the St. Elizabeth's hospital where she died shortly after reaching there and before Mrs. Weyer could reach her side.

RETURNS FROM WISCONSIN

From Wednesday's Daily— This morning Miss Ruth Lindsay, music supervisor of the Plattsmouth city schools returned from her home at Lodi, Wisconsin, where she had been since the Christmas holidays. Miss Lindsay returned to her home for the holidays and while there was taken with the flu and was unable to resume her school activities until this time. The many friends of Miss Lindsay here are pleased to learn that she has so far recovered that she is able to resume her work in the music department in which she has been so efficient.

AGED LADY POORLY

Mrs. Katherine Kriksky, one of the aged ladies residing in the west portion of the city is reported as being quite poorly at her home for the past few days and her condition has grown such as to give but little hopes of her recovery and while all that is possible for the care of the patient is being done, the hopes of her recovery is very slight.