WEEPING WATER

Anton Cerny, the new jeweler, has been having a tussle with the flu for the past four weeks, but is at last feeling some better, and is hoping that he will soon be in his usual good health.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Johnson who recently returned to Weeping Water and embarked in the restaurant business report a very satisfactory business with many former customers and many new ones.

Peter Miller, sr., and his son Peter Miller, jr., were over to Plattsmouth one evening the latter portion of the week, where they were visiting at the home of James Miller, a son and brother of the two gentlemen.

Charles Joyce who is in an hospital at Omaha where he is receiving treatment for one of his eyes which is very sore is reported as being just about the same, with no perceptible improvement but still holding his own.

County Agent L. R. Snipes was a visitor in Eagle on last Monday and at Alvo on Tuesday, where he was looking after the checking up of the books of the farm organizations, and which he is finding as being in good condition.

Miss Agnes Rough who has been spending some of her days in Omaha where she had been visiting and looking after some business matters as well, returned home late last week, and is at the store again ready for service to her clientele.

County Agent L. R. Snipes has purchased one of the latest Ford touring cars which is also known as the tudor sedan, which he will use for the family and with the good wife will drive, this week getting it through the Cole Motor company.

W. L. Hobson, funeral director was called to southeast of Ayova on last Tuesday where he officiated at a funeral of a person named Weaver. Mr. Hobson receives many calls from over Cass and the adjoining counties due to the excellent work which he does.

Mrs. Wm Spangler has been feeling rather poorly for some time past, with a combination of flu, which she was attacked and crydema which has been giving this good woman considerable trouble, but she is reported as being much improved during the past few days.

Mrs. G. R. Binger was a visitor in Lincoln on last Monday where she went to be present at an operation which her daughter, Miss Lella Binger underwent. The operation was a very serious one and seemed very severe notwithstanding the physicians and surgeons pronounced it a very successful one.

Frank H. Badlwin, the blacksmith stepping out of the house at his home a few days since chanced to step on a strip of ice caused by the dripping eaves, when his feet slipped out and he was precipitated on his face, the nose getting the brunt of a very solidly frozen snow drift which loosened the skin, and left a very sore nose.

Mr. G. R. Binger who is administrator of the estate of his father, the same being in Saline county, accompanied by his son, Ralph, drove over to Crete, their former home on last Tuesday, to look after some business matters regarding the estate. During their absence Mrs. Binger was looking after business at the lumber yard.

Mrs. Torrence W. Fleming, received word from her brother, Mr. Reese Hutchins who has been making his home at Arriba, Colorado, of his ill health, he having been attacked with kidney stones and becoming very ill was compelled to go to an hospital for treatment and an operation, and was taken to an hospital in Denver where following his operation he is getting along only fairly well. Mr. Hutchins who has many friends in and about Weeping Water, who are hoping that their friend may soon be well again.

W. C. T. U. Enjoy Meeting The members of the W. C. T. U. of Weeping Water which comprise a large membership met on last Monday with Mrs. George A. Morey, where a very worth while program was given and a most enjoyable afternoon had, which was made the more pleasant by the delightful luncheon which was served by Mrs. Morey assisted by Mrs. Lettice mother of Mrs. G. R. Binger, and with Mrs. Morey proved most accomplished entertainers.

Will Hold Sale Soon. Ralph Keckler who some time ago acquired the Birch filling station and which he is to take charge of on February 1st, has arranged to have a sale on January 23rd, which will allow time to get the business settled incident therewith, and be ready to care for the new business by the first of the month. We are hoping for Mr. Keckler, abundant success, and we know if he puts as much work and energy into the oil business as is required to in the farming operation he will sure succeed.

John Little Home Again It will be remembered that several weeks since while attempting to enter a barn of one of his neighbors where he and the neighbors sons were shooting pigeons, and catching his gun in a crack, it was discharged wounding Johnnie quite badly, so that he had to be taken to a hospital at Omaha, where it was feared that he would have to suffer the loss of one of his hands, but with good surgical attendance and the best of nursing, it was possible to save the hand which it was feared would have to be amputated. Johnnie was able to return home last Sunday and is getting along nicely at this time, and with prospects of having a portion of his hands able to work with.

Returns to Southern Home. Dwight C. Richards and mother, Mrs. Harriet E. Richards, who have been visiting in Weeping Water for some ten days, the guests of brother and son Mr. H. L. Richards the hardware man and his wife, and where they all enjoyed the stay very much, departed a few days since for their home at Houston, Texas, driving and will stop at Auburn where they will visit for a few days before returning to their home in the south.

Instituting Bulk Oil Station. The Consumers Oil station which is taking over the Handy Oil station, which has been conducted by L. R. Lane, is at this time instituting a bulk oil station where they can unload a car of gasoline, and will in the near future begin distributing of bulk gasoline and oil and will supply filling stations, this making a very important industry for the bustling city of Weeping Water. H. L. Richards is doing the installation of the tanks and piping. Mr. Richards and his assistants are well qualified to look after the installation.

Business Changed Hands. The Chevrolet Sales company which has been in the hands of Donald Philpot for some time past, and who has also operated the garage, changed hands on last Tuesday evening, when Mr. Philpot disposed of his business to A. R. Dowler and Edward Dowler who takes over the sales agency of the Chevrolet agency. Mr. Philpot has done an excellent business and is accepting a position with the General Motors Co. as salesman on the road, and is therefore disposing of the business in Weeping Water.

Mr. A. R. Dowler has been a salesman for the Chevrolet cars for Mr. Philpot for some time past and is well acquainted with this car, and an excellent salesman, as well as a clever gentleman. Mr. Dowler was with the Cole Motor company before coming to the Philpot garage and is well qualified as to his knowledge of cars and experience to care for the business. Edward Dowler was associated with his brother A. R. Dowler in the garage and auto business at Union for a number of years. One cannot find a more genial and capable man in this line or any other as to that.

We are predicting for the new firm abundant success.
