You can laugh at the sheriff

FARMER JOHN has one of the largest farms in his county. And there are folks living today who remember Farmer John as a poor farmhand.

Farmer John saw his old boss lose his home one day because his crops failed and he had no money with which to forestall the sheriff.

Farmer John saved his money, and soon had enough to make a down payment. He bought the farm, but he did not stop saving. He was one of the bank's regular depositors.

Now Farmer John can laugh at the sheriff. If the crop is poor, he has saved for the emergency. If his buildings or equipment need repairs, he has the money saved to do the work.

very much, departed on last Friday for their home in the east, and the first day they were able to get as far as Columbia, Missouri, which is over 400 miles from here, where they stopped for the night, expecting to make the remaining distance the following day.

Arthur Kahlar, of Omaha, and his son, Bobbie, accompanied by a sister of Mr. Kahlar, Miss Emma Kahlar, were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mutz, where a most enjoyable day was had. The ladies visited at the home while the gentlemen were out enjoying the chase, and a number of rabbits were bagged, that were taken home by Mr. Kahlar.

Miss Orpha Baker, who makes her home in Omaha, was a visitor in Murray last Saturday, coming to see her uncle, Jacob Parr, of Lebanon, Indiana, and at the same time visit her father, A. L. Baker, who makes his home in Lincoln, but who was also here, and both had an excellent visit with Mr. Parr. Mr. Baker's first wife, the mother of Miss Orpha, was a sister of Mr. Parr and the late Mrs. Josephine Brendel. They also visited with their relatives while in Murray.

Card of Thanks

We wish to express the feeling of heartfelt gratitude to the host of kind friends and neighbors for their aid and sympathy to us in the hour of our bereavement, to those who sent the beautiful flowers and for the persons who assisted in the last services. Their kindness will always be a pleasant memory.—Mr. and Mrs. John T. Porter and Family.

Finds Business Good

Lee A. Weber, who recently came to Murray, and engaged in the restaurant business, having engaged in the business in the Scott building and having the assistance of Orville Todd, is finding business very fine. Mr. Weber, who sure knows his business, is bending every effort to please the customers and is receiving a very good patronage. Drop in and see him, when you are hungry and he will feed you right and treat you the best.

Hire New Minister

The congregation of the Christian church of Murray, during this week secured the services of a minister for the church, the Rev. H. L. Grassmuck, who will hold services on every Lord's day at the church, and in the evening will preach at Plattsmouth. As the parsonage in Murray is rented, he will continue to reside in Plattsmouth where the church has an excellent parsonage, and where he is at present residing.

Elevator Meeting Adjourned

The call for the meeting of the stockholders of the Farmers Elevator company of Murray, was to have been on Monday, January 14th, and when the meeting had been convened, and it was found not representative, that is, there was not a good attendance, the meeting was called to order, and adjournment taken until February 2, which comes on Saturday, when they will convene again, and look after the business for which the meeting of last Monday was called.

Ladies Aid Will Meet

The Ladies Aid of the Christian church have arranged to meet for an all day session at the parlors of the church, which will be held on February 6th, and at which time there will be a very entertaining program rendered, which will be in charge of the program committee, while the hostesses will be Mesdames Henry C. Long, W. L. Seybolt and J. F. Brendel.

The officers elected for the coming term are board of managers, A. G. Long, T. J. Brendel and W. L. Seybolt, who also composed the auditing committee; Dr. J. F. Brendel, clerk; J. A. Davis, banker, and T. J. Brendel, auditor.

Funeral of Ansel Porter

The funeral services of the late Ansel Porter, popular Murray man, was held Sunday at the First Christian church here and the last rites were very largely attended by the friends of the young man and his family. The wealth of floral remembrances spoke silently of the esteem in which the departed young man had been held in his home community.

Rev. W. A. Taylor, of Union, conducted the services and paid a very fine tribute to the departed young man and words of comfort to the members of the family circle who have been bereft of the associations of the son and brother.

At the services Bertha Lancaster and Leora Ferris acted as the flower girls.

Following the church services the body was borne to the Mt. Pleasant cemetery where it was laid to the last long rest. The pall bearers were cousins, all of the vicinity of Union, they being George and Wesley Coppenhaver, Clyde Porter, Carl Shanely, Arden Rulman, Charles Swan.

The large number of friends of this excellent young man who braved the zero weather to attend his funeral bore mute testimony of the high regard in which he was held by all who knew him, and the entire community is sharing in the grief felt over the loss of Ansel and extends sympathy to the family in their bereavement.

Undergoes Operation

Mrs. J. R. Hill who has been in very poor health for some time past on account of being troubled with gall stones, was taken to Omaha on last Monday morning where she entered the Methodist hospital to undergo an operation for the removal of the source of trouble. It is hoped that she will find relief and will soon be able to return to her home in the best of health.
