Young People are Wedded Last Evening

Miss Elsie Barr of This City Weds Mr. Arthur Shrader of Omaha at Presbyterian Manse

From Thursday's Danv-

A very quiet and impressive cerening at 8 o'clock at the Presbyterian manse of Miss Elsie Barr of this city The marriage lines were rear by Plattsmouth Rev. Harry G. McClusky, paster of the First Presbyterian church and in joining the lives of the two happy young people the impressive ring service was celebrated.

The bride was most charming in a gown of blue silk crepe, made with full skirt and overlaid with ecru slippers completed the costume. Miss Barr were a corsage of resebuds and

The bride was attended by her cousin. Miss Edith Elledge, who wore a very attractive dress of the light shades of blue georgette and with a corsage of the sweet peas. The groom was attended by Noel

Herman of Omaha as best man and both of the gentlemen wore the conventional dark suits. Preceeding the wedding the members of the bridal party were entertained at the home of the bride's parents where a most delicious repast was arranged and enjoyed by the immediate family of the bride and groom. The decorations were in the delicate hues of the sweet peas and the centerpiece of the table a large and handsome wedding cake.
