Elevator Meeting Postponed.

The second attempt to the holding of the annual stock holders meeting of the Murray Farmers Elevator meeting was had on last Saturday, February 2nd, but circumstances again intervened and the meeting was not held. The elevator is at this time filled with grain and with a scarcity of cars for shipment the grain could not be shipped so as to know exactly how much there was of it and not enough room in the elevator that it could be shifted, and thus weighed the meeting was indefinitely postponed subject to a notice and when the circumstances are such as will warrant the meeting will be held.

Propose a Better Murra.

George E. Nickles who is a hustler for his own home town, has in mind the securing of two improvements for the town a new high school which will have capacity for teaching twelve grades and a new and large community building. He would like also to build an apartment house which is certain would be filled to capacity and bring good returns. Mr. Nickles would like to have the cooperation of all whom he can get, but expects to do all he can for the accomplishment of the object in view anyway.

Shot By a Hunter.

While James Horchar the son of L. C. Horchar was in the timber cutting wood a hunter who was pursuing a festive rabbit, taking him shot at the cottentail, and not knowing that there was any one in range, shot Mr. Horchar, two shots taking effect one near each eye, one of the shots can be felt while the other has lodged so deeply that it cannot be felt. James eyes are both black one above the eye and the other below. He is however getting along as well as could be looked for under the circumstances.

Are Very Sick

Mrs. Jennie Jenkins and her nephews Mr. Green Piggot have been quite ill at her home for the past three weeks. On last Sunday her son George Jenkins of Lyons arrived for a few days visit with the mother and to look after her as she was very sick. He remained for a few days and saw that she had a nurse and one to do the housework, before he returned to his home in the north. He met many of his old time friends while here.

Making Many Tools.

Murray has a workman who is equal to many in the larger cities, as well as being superior to the majority of people who are engaged in the blacksmith business. The institution in Murray is conducted by Michluskey and Son, who have during the times when they are not otherwise engaged been making tools, and we inspected a number of boxes of the completed tools which are composed of chisels and punches as well as other small tools and they are superior to the ones which are obtained from the manufactures in large cities. When you want anything in this line call on the institution and see the excellence of the work they are turning out. They have also just completed a number
