An infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wessell has been quite ill with pneumonia, but at this time is reported as being slightly better.

Walter Wunderlich of the Nehawka bank was over to Weeping Water on last Tuesday morning where he was called to look after some business.

Three of the little ones of Rev. and Mrs. H. D. Knoblock are reported as being sick with pneumonia. They, however, are getting the best of care and medical attention and are doing nicely.

Albert Wolfe, who is employed at the Brendel barber shop at Murray, was a visitor at home for the week end last week, remaining for the funeral of the late Morris Pollard, which occurred on last Monday.

James M. Palmer and M. G. Kime were at Nebraska City on last Tuesday afternoon and visited while there with Mr. E. A. Kirkpatrick, who is convalescing at the hospital since his operation there early this week.

Mrs. C. W. Snyder who has been at the hospital at Nebraska City is still at the institution and showing improvement and her friends are hoping that she may soon be able to return to her home here well again.

R. C. Pollard and wife were visiting with friends in Lincoln on last Sunday and this just following the drifting of the snow made the road very bad to travel and had much hard work to get through the drifts.

Peter Opp who has been making his home in Omaha for some time past, came to Union to attend the funeral of his brother, Jacob Opp, and also came on to Nehawka where he will visit for a time at the home of his son, John Opp.

Uncle Joseph Shrader residing northwest of Nehawka is still confined to his bed, and while everything is being done in the way of good nursing and medical attention, he does not seem to show the improvement desired.

Mrs. A. B. Taylor who is spending the winter with her sister, Mrs. Z. W. Shrader, and who has been very sick for some time past is reported as being somewhat improved and hopes are entertained of her continued improvement.

A. R. Dowler of the Dowler Brothers of Weeping Water, and dealers in the celebrated Chevrolet cars and trucks was in Nehawka on last Tuesday afternoon, looking after business in their line and meeting their many friends here.

The pall bearers who bore the remains of the late Morris Pollard at the funeral and burial were Messrs. Frank P. Sheldon, Raymond C. Pollard, Henry M. Pollard, Hall Pollard and Orin Pollard, all relatives of the one who had passed.

The quartette who rendered music at the funeral of the late Morris Pollard, consisted of D. R. Franks, and Wm. Reynolds of Union; and Albert Anderson and Paul Schlichtemeier of Nehawka. They sang as members of the Masonic lodge of which the deceased was also a member.

Reports from the hospital where Mrs. Henry Ross is receiving treatment since her having undergone an operation for the removal of pus from her lungs, is that she is making good progress towards recovery and the hopes are entertained that she will in a short time be able to return to her home.

Harry Knabe received his sow Defender Lass, which he has at Brooklyn, Iowa, back on last Tuesday evening. This sow was on exhibition at that place, and is one of the most wonderful of breeding sows. She held the grand champion award for this line of hogs in Nebraska in 1928, and is a truly wonderful hog.

Ralph Lindsay shelled and delivered some four thousand bushels of corn to the Farmers Elevator of Nehawka during the past week, getting the yellow cereal out of the way of the spring work, which is coming on very rapidly, notwithstanding the fact that we think the cold weather is holding over for a long time.

Clarence Hanson was a visitor in Omaha on last Saturday where he was looking after some business matters and getting some materials and parts for the completion of the new garage which is fast assuming a completed form. This business house, when completed, will make a very fine place for Clarence to do business in.

A letter from Henry Wessell and wife, who are visiting at this time in California and who have spent several weeks with their daughter in that section, say they will in a short time return home. They will, however, stop on their way for a visit with relatives at Ft. Rawlins, and will expect to arrive at home about March 1st.

A large number of the many friends of Morris Pollard were over on last Monday in attendance at the funeral of that excellent gentleman. They came to pay their last tribute of respect to the memory of one whom they had loved and desired to honor for the quiet, upright life which he had led, and the many good acts which he had done.

George Hanson left his car standing near the hospital at Omaha last Tuesday while he was visiting with his friend, James Pollard, and the iron steed becoming restless, backed, and as it gained momentum went dashing forward, striking a curb created some injury to the car, but was not injured so that it could not make the trip home.

On last Friday Messrs. Glen White-man and R. D. Taylor were over to Avoca, Iowa, where they went to take a load of hogs which Harry Knabe had sold to parties at that place and which were to be delivered. The boys took scoops with them so as to be armed should they find the roads very bad. They however got thru all right, making the delivery in good condition.

George Hanson was a visitor in Omaha on last Tuesday and visited while there James J. Pollard, who was able to be placed in a chair and wheeled out in the visitors room, and is now feeling some better, which is good news for his many friends in Nehawka. Mrs. Pollard is well on the way to good health again and was able to leave the hospital and is at the home of some friends in Omaha.

Nelson Berger is having quite a bit of grief with one of his wrists on account of an infection which appeared about a week since, but as he has taken heroic action with the member it is showing considerable improvement. He was at Omaha on last Tuesday and consulted a specialist and received X-ray treatment and then returned to have the member cared for by Dr. Barritt, working in co-operation with the specialist. Dr. Barritt is kept very busy these days and is meeting with excellent success as a practitioner.

Jacob Opp dies at Omaha

Jacob Opp, seventy-eight years of age and born in Germany, but has been a resident of Cass county for the past more than forty years, but during the past five or six years has resided with a daughter who has been teaching in Omaha, died at that place on last Monday. Mr. Opp was for a time a resident of near Union, where he was united in marriage to a Miss Erwin, who survives the husband, as well as a number of children, they being three daughters and two sons, John and Mark. Following his residence near here he resided in Avoca for nearly forty years, where he was a barber and jeweler and with his declining health and that of his wife, who was unfortunate in losing her sight, they went to Omaha to make their home.

The funeral was held at Union and the burial there where an infant child was buried some time since.

Rev. W. A. Taylor of the Baptist church of Union went to Omaha and officiated at the funeral services, and laid his friend of many years away.

Glen White-man Changes Work

Glen White-man who has been associated with the Lundberg garage for many years last week accepted another class of work, this time an out of doors line of work, and is driving a truck for C. D. St. John and R. D. Taylor. Mr. St. John has not been in the best of health owing to the very close application to his work, he having to continually remain at the mill, the securing of Mr. White-man for the driving of the truck, will allow Mr. Taylor time to be at the mill a portion of the time and thus permit Mr. St. John an opportunity to get some needed rest, and recuperate his health.

Mr. Kirkpatrick Doing Nicely

Mr. E. A. Kirkpatrick, who has been a resident of Nehawka for many years and has been not in the very best of health, was troubled with an acute strangulated hernia, which required an operation at the hospital at Nebraska City where he was taken. He is reported as being better during the past few days, though he was very serious for a while. His many friends are hoping that this excellent gentleman will in a short time be able to return to his home in good health.

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our appreciation of the words of sympathy and acts of kindness shown us at the time of the death of our loved one. Also to the quartet and those who assisted at the funeral and for the beautiful floral remembrances.—Mrs. Ruth B. Pollard and Family.

Card of Thanks

In this manner I wish to thank most sincerely the members of Sunny Side club, Ladies Aid and the other friends and neighbors for the beautiful flowers and letters which were such a comfort to me during my illness.—Mrs. J. R. Hill.

Funeral Services of Morris Pollard Held at Nehawka

Long Time Resident of Cass County Is Laid to the Last Long Rest Near Old Home

Morris Dexter Pollard was born September 18, 1856 in Winslow County, Vermont and passed away at the St. Mary's hospital, Nebraska City, Nebraska, Friday, February 8, 1929 at 10:45 a. m. at the age of 72 years, 4 months, and 24 days.

He came to Nebraska in 1878 and resided at Nehawka the greater part of the time until his health has been ailing for two years, but was able to visit his old home, and brothers and sisters this past summer. He was one of a family of 12 children, 10 of whom lived to maturity.

He served faithfully for years as Secretary of the Modern Woodmen Lodge of Nehawka until ill health forced him to give up these duties. He entered in Euclid Lodge No. 97 Masons of Weeping Water Nov. 20th, 1893, was passed Dec. 4, 1893, and raised May 1, 1894. He became a Charter member of Nehawka Lodge No. 248, July 29, 1900. He was made a member of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Lincoln Consistory No. 2, and became a Noble of the Mystic Shrine of Sesostris Temple, Lincoln, Nebraska.

He leaves to mourn his passing, three brothers and two sisters, namely Will and James Pollard, Chester, Vermont; Julian A. Pollard, Springfield, Mass.; Mrs. Lillian Harlow and Miss C. Geneva Pollard, Chester, Vermont; also a sister-in-law, Mrs. Ruth B. Pollard of Nehawka, a number of nephews and nieces and a host of friends.

The funeral was conducted at 3:00 p. m. Monday, from the Methodist church by Rev. W. A. Taylor of Union, with the A. F. & A. M. of Nehawka in charge. The music was furnished by a Masonic Male Quartette composed of Ray Franks and Wm. Reynolds, Union Albert Anderson and Paul Schlichtemeier, Nehawka, who sang "Nearer, My God To Thee," "Beautiful Isle," and "Face to Face."

The pallbearers were: Frank Sheldon, Raymond Pollard, Henry Pollard, Orin Pollard, Merritt Pollard, and Hall Pollard, all relatives of the deceased. Interment was made in the Mount Pleasant cemetery north of Nehawka beside his brother, Malcolm H. Pollard.

Bert Jamison was a visitor in Avoca on last Monday, where he was called to look after some matters regarding the sale of the Buick auto.

Mrs. Anna Miller and son, Vernor were over to Union on last Sunday, where they were in attendance at the funeral of the late Harry M. Franks.

Robert Jamison, 14, the son of Wm. Jamison, was quite ill with an attack of tonsillitis, but is reported as being some better at this time.

O. T. Leyda of Lincoln, who sells good over Cass county was a visitor and was looking after some business of Weeping Water and vicinity on last Tuesday.

Mrs. George Sheesley and children of near Avoca, were visiting in Weeping Water on last Sunday, they being guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Compton.

Mr. and Mrs. James Miller were over to Union on last Friday and was persuaded to loan his Universal to a snow bank, who kept the boat very securely until Doc called for it on last Tuesday.

At the home of Stirling Hayes three of the children are reported as being down with the chicken pox, but are getting along nicely at this time, owing to excellent nursing and medical attention.

Marion Spangler, son of Peter Spangler, last week purchased a very fine Buick sedan, through the agency of Henry Crocker, who is a resident of Wahoo, and through the representative here, Bert Jamison.

H. K. Prince, the insurance agent who has been hustling over the county for several weeks and writing much life insurance was looking after some business matters in Weeping Water on last Tuesday.

County Agent L. R. Snipes and Mr. Hoffert of Lincoln were over to Mynard on last Monday, where they were holding a demonstration on grape pruning at the home of Edward Spangler, just east of town.

Mrs. Avoca this week where she was caring for Mrs. Frank Greenrod, and a very deminutive daughter who came early this week. Both the mother and daughter are doing nicely.

Last Sunday G. R. Berger of the Berger Lumber company, accompanied by his son, Ralph, were over to Wilber, where they were visiting with friends and relatives for a few hours, they driving over in their auto.

Fred Linville has been feeling quite poorly for the past few days, but is making a very nice recovery, the wrong medicine which added much to his being ill at ease. It is hoped he will soon be in his usual health again.

Mrs. Harris and Cruikshank, Hazel Pool and Genie Hobson were all over to Lincoln on last Tuesday, where they were visiting with friends and at the same time looking after some shopping. They drove over in their auto.

A. H. Humble, who is with the Missouri Pacific at the general office at Omaha, was over for one Sunday at the home in Weeping Water, and returned to his work in the big city early Monday morning, going via Union and the main line.

Jack Philpot added to his equipment for farm transportation, he is looking after the most economical and at the same time most dependable, and has added to his fleet of farm wagons and autos, a new Chevrolet truck, which he purchased from the Dowler Brothers.

Mrs. Fred Burch entertained on last Wednesday the members of the Nickerbocker club, at her home and had four tables occupied by the ladies as they played bridge. A most enjoyable time was had, and the clever hostess served a delightful luncheon which added greatly to the enjoyment of the pleasant afternoon.

The Dowler Brothers last week sold one of the elegant laundria sedan Chevrolets, to George W. Blessing, the publisher of the Elmwood Leader-Echo, and George is liking the new wagon fine. Mr. Blessing was over to Weeping Water on last Tuesday looking after some business and also meeting a number of his many friends here.

The severe cold weather has induced many of the farmers and hog breeders to look after the better shelter of the small pigs, for the lack of care for the little pigs, especially when it is severely cold, loses many of the litters. Many are building hog houses and thus protecting the herds from the liability of loss when the pigs are small.

Mrs. F. H. Gorder and Miss Jessie Baldwin were over to Plattsmouth on last Monday, where they were meeting with Miss Alpha Peterson, county superintendent of schools and were arranging for the educational exhibit at the county fair the coming fall. The report is that there will be an excellent exhibit of the work of the schools.

Fred Schaeffer living a few miles east of Elmwood, and a half mile north of the O Street road was the purchaser of a new Chevrolet truck last week, getting the wagon from the Dowler Brothers. In the selection of a truck which will do the work and be economical at the same time, and that can be depended upon, Mr. Schaeffer exercised good judgment.

James H. Miller and the family of Plattsmouth, were visiting in Weeping Water and were guests at the home of Mr. Miller's father, Peter Miller, sr., for the day. Mr. James Miller reports that he has accepted a position with the Ford Motor company in their assembling plant at Omaha, where he will paint the cars which have been marred in shipping. He will have a very good position with the company.

Henry Mogson who has been having some trouble with his tonsils for some time past, was over to Lincoln early this week where he had the offending tonsils removed by Dr. J. W. Thomas, and since he has been getting along very nicely. Dr. Thomas has the reputation of being an excellent surgeon, and is making success, not alone of the removal of tonsils, but many other more important operations.

Aged Lady Passes.

Mrs. Angaline Snider, who has made her home in Weeping Water for the past forty years, and who has been very sick for the past several weeks, owing to her advanced age, passed away on last Monday night, at her late home here. Mrs. Snider was born in Missouri, June 23, 1850, and was at the time of her death 78 years, 7 months and 18 days of age. The husband preceded her death some seven or eight years ago. Since the time of his death she has made her home with her son Lemuel Snider. The funeral was held from her late home on last Wednesday and the interment made at the Weeping Water cemetery.

Pioneer Woman Called.

Mrs. Maria Louise Mullen passed away at her home in Weeping Water on last Monday evening, after a lingering illness, and of which she suffered a great deal. She had made her home with her son, George Mullen, since the death of the father some seven years ago. The son had made a good living for the mother, as he could and which was duly appreciated by the mother.

She was a widow of a veteran of the civil war and was receiving a pension, which assisted in the living of her and her son. The funeral was held on last Tuesday and interment made at the city cemetery. Mrs. Mullen affiliated with the Methodist church, the funeral being preached by the minister of the Methodist church.

Lincoln's Birthday Anniversary.

Last Tuesday was the anniversary of the birth of one of the very best presidents America has ever had, and in commemoration the business men of Weeping Water had placed in front of their buildings the American flag, which was very becoming to them and the city. Also some of the business houses were closed for the day.

Means Another School Teacher

Mrs. Madeline Lloyd Ranney and Mark Wiles on last Saturday entertained a large number of their friends at a miscellaneous shower which was given in honor of Miss Stacey, one of the instructors in the Weeping Water schools, who early the coming week is to wed a ranchman from the western portion of the state, and will change from teaching school to looking after a home of her own in the west. Miss Stacey lived in Lincoln, where the wedding will occur.

Will Hunt Wolves Sunday.

The wolves have been making themselves a nuisance to the farmers of Cass county, and have been raiding some of the chicken roosts, and also attack small pigs, and to deal with them as the circumstance requires, Frank E. Doty, living east of Weeping Water, organized a hunting party, that will on the coming Sunday endeavor to eradicate some of the pests.

Twenty-five square miles has been selected, and this will be beat over every foot of the ground and an attempt made to get all of the critters in the area. The bounds are along the O street highway from Mrs. Mat Meyers farm to that of C. W. Flaichman's some five miles east, thence north to the Oberlin church near the home of W. O. Troop, thence west to the Ed Schreier farm five miles west, and thence south to O street to the point of beginning. Wm. Jourgesson will be the captain of the south line. Walter Wunderlich will look after the arrangement of the east line, and John Hanson will captain the north line, while Frank E. Doty will look after the west side. The hunt will start promptly at one o'clock p. m., and nothing but shot guns will be used.

The Senior Class Play.

The senior class of the Weeping Water high school on last night at the Philpot hall, gave a very clever presentation of the play entitled "The Return of Hi Jinks." The class has been making preparations for the
