J. A. Scotten and Fred L. Hild were building a hog house for W. L. Seybolt.

Lee A. Weber was a visitor in Tubor, Iowa, over the week end, where he was visiting with the family.

W. O. Troop last week purchased a very fine team of mules at the sale which was held by Chris C. Murray.

John Farris was called to Nebraska City on last Saturday, where he had some business matters to look after.

Wm. Spooner and son, Charles, were looking after some business matters in Omaha for the day last Saturday.

John L. Chilton, of Chetalpepec, Missouri, arrived in Murray, and has been visiting here for a short time with friends.

James E. Gruber has been assisting the Murray Transfer company with their work, being the driver of one of their trucks.

Mrs. Jennie Jenkins, who has been very poorly for some time, is still kept to her bed, but is considered as being slightly improved.

W. F. Nolte has received another car load of sweet clover seed, which he will dispose of to those who are needing this seed to sow.

Lee Farris, of near Union, was visiting and also looking after some business matters in Murray for a short time on last Saturday.

Chris Beal, who has been very sick for several weeks past, remains unable to get out of the bed and house, but is slightly better at this writing.

J. A. Scotten was building an "A" type hog house for the lumber yard, which places one at the disposal of the yard when wanted by someone in a hurry.

The teachers of the Nehawka public schools gave very pretty Valentine parties for their students last week, which were greatly enjoyed by them all.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mutts were over to the county seat on last Saturday, they driving in their auto and visiting with friends and looking after some business.

Wilbur Hewitt was a visitor at his home in Plattsmouth for over the week end and returned to work in the Wayne Lewis barber shop on the early morning train.

Robert R. Nickles and daughter, Miss Bertha, and Mrs. Wm. Spooner were visiting with friends and also doing some shopping in the county seat on last Saturday.

Van Allen and brother have been trimming and topping the trees in the yard of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Nickles, which makes a very changed appearance of the place.

Walter Reed and family, of Omaha, were guests at the home of the parents of Mrs. Reed, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Reynolds, south of Murray, for the day last Sunday.

Louis Schumaker, living near Nehawka, was a business visitor in Murray on last Monday and was accompanied by Sanford Homan, they driving over in their car.

John H. Buck, the blacksmith of Murdock, was a visitor in Murray for a short time last Sunday, driving over in his car and found some very bad roads between the two places.

Albert Wolfe, who wields the razor at the T. J. Brendel barber shop, was spending the week end at his home in Nehawka and returned Monday afternoon to take up his work again.

The Rev. H. L. Grassmuck and wife were visiting in Murray on last Friday and were calling on the members of the Christian church, of which Rev. Grassmuck is the pastor.

The Murray Transfer company, with Frank Mrasek in charge, was taking two loads of hogs to the South Omaha market on last Monday for G. D. Boedeker and E. J. Boedeker.

L. J. Halles and wife and Mrs. G. L. Taylor were over to Omaha on last Tuesday, where they were visiting with friends for the day, they driving over to the big town in the car of Mr. Halles.

Virgil Arnold was a visitor in Murray on last Monday, coming for a load of coal, which he hauled to his home in Plattsmouth, as he was able to get the coal at a less price than in the county seat.

J. D. Wurdeman and wife, of Leigh drove over to Murray on last Sunday and were visiting for the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Nickles, Mrs. Wurdeman being a sister of Mr. Nickles.

George Troop and Neil Prince were over to Nebraska City last week, where they were enjoying a visit and attending a Valentine party which was given by their friend, Miss Imogene Saunders.

The chorus of the Christian church will meet with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Seybolt on Friday of this week to rehearse for the musical presentation which the congregation will give at the church on Easter day.

Van Allen was a visitor for the day on last Sunday at the home of some of his friends at his former Iowa home at Sidney, and returned home late Sunday evening, after having enjoyed a pleasant day.

Herschel Jones, who has heretofore been in the employ of Harry G. Todd, and who has been visiting at Plattsmouth, Mo., for some time, returned to Murray and will again enter the employ of Mr. Todd.

Mrs. Gertrude Carper and son, Lucian and daughter, Daline and her brother, Gust Nelson, were visiting in Murray and were guests at the home of Harry Nelson and family for the evening on last Friday.

Vac Mickluskey and Son have prepared a case for the tools which they have been making and with more than a hundred of them displayed in the new case, it makes a very pretty sight, especially to one who is a lover of expert workmanship.

Chester Spooner and wife were over to Dan Anderson's on last Friday, where they were in attendance at the reception of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Meisinger, who were united in marriage one day last week. There was a large crowd and a very good time.

A. D. Bakke installed an all-electric radio at the Berger hotel, which is giving eminent satisfaction. The new machine does away with all battery troubles and makes the service very much less, as there are not batteries to maintain and the circuit on the electric light bill is negligible.

Postmaster James W. Holmes, of Plattsmouth, has been making some improvements and alterations in his building in Murray in the way of building a stairway on the inside, so that Mr. and Mrs. Allen and the family can better utilize the building, which they use for a cream station and a residence.

M. G. Churchill and wife were over to Bethany on Tuesday of this week, where they were in attendance at the funeral of the late John W. Thomson, a brother-in-law, who passed away at his late home in that city early Sunday morning and was buried on Tuesday of this week. The deceased was 83 years of age and formerly resided near Murray.

Mrs. I. M. Davis, of Lincoln, mother of Mrs. E. W. Millburn, departed last week for Alva, Oklahoma, where her father was very sick. Mrs. Davis arrived three hours before the passing of this former Cass county man, George W. Young, who was for many terms county commissioner of Cass county. An account of his life will be found elsewhere in this paper.

Bud Nickles and wife, who are making their home at Stockton, California, are liking living there fine, and will be loath to leave when the time comes for Bud to complete his course with the tractor instructions, which he is taking in the west. They are not at this time decided whether they will continue to make their home in the coast, or return to the east.

Harry Nelson and family were over to the home of Mrs. Nelson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Johnson, a short distance from Nehawka, on last Sunday, where they assisted in making a party at the home, and were also greeted by Hennings Johnson and family, of Nehawka, and Arthur H. Gehrs and family of near Waverly, and where all enjoyed the visit very much.

Kingsley Shepherdson, who has been making his home at Seattle, where he has resided for some years past, but who formerly resided in Murray and vicinity, was visiting here with relatives and friends for the past few weeks, being a guest of his sisters, Mrs. James R. Hill, residing southwest of Murray, Mrs. Glen Valley, of Plattsmouth, and Mrs. V. D. Parish, of Elmwood.

The discourse which was delivered here last Sunday by the Rev. H. L. Grassmuck was one of the very best and considered by those who heard it as a master discourse, and which was thoroughly gone into. The subject was "Fishing," and treated of the calling of Peter and James and John, those three disciples who were fishermen by vocation, and whom Christ promised to make fishers of men.

Farmers Work!

There comes every Spring a rush of work, when it is difficult to get your job done. . . . Better get your work in now, which you know you will have to have, and thus avoid disappointment and delay when the rush starts. We are now sharpening Lays, Shovels, etc., and doing much Spring work.

Hold Fine Meeting.

The Riverview Community club held a most delightful meeting on Monday afternoon at the pleasant country home of Mrs. Geo. Meisinger south of the city.

The extremely cold weather and bad roads prevented many of the members from attending altho ten members and one visitor braved the elements. The business meeting was in charge of the president, Mrs. H. L. Gayer, while the lesson was in charge of the project leader, Mrs. Albert Wheeler and Mrs. John Kettle.

The memory song for the month "In the Gloaming," and "America" were sung in chorus. Elaborate plans for the program on achievement day were formed and each member given a definite part as her share in the work.

The business of the day being completed, our hostess served a very dainty and delicious luncheon, to which all did ample justice.

Valentine Party.

On Friday evening, the schoolhouse in Dist. No. 5 was the scene of a large gathering of people for a Valentine party sponsored by the Riverview Community club.

The room being one of the neatest in the county, presented a very fine appearance with its Valentine decorations adding a lovely touch of color.

The evening was spent in playing various games and contests appropriate to the occasion. At a very late hour a sumptuous lunch was served, cafeteria style, by the committee in charge who proved that the confidence of the president was not misplaced.

In fact, the lunch was so generous that there were cakes to spare, which John Pearsley, genial friend of the club, obligingly auctioned to the highest bidder, thereby adding a neat sum to the club's treasury. Earl E. May of Shenandoah, Iowa, generously furnished some of his delicious coffee for the occasion and all who had the opportunity to sample it, voted it very good coffee.

When the wee small hours began to draw near, the jolly crowd wended their way homeward.

Hold Birthday Party.

The Lewiston aid society held their meeting on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Nickles, the society joining in the observance of the birthdays of several of their members. The members who had birthdays falling in February were Carl Parks, Mrs. Fred Campbell and
