Raising Streams Make Auto Travel

South as Well as All Travel Forced to Use Detour

From Thursday's Dally-

The big and little Pappio creeks Mrs. Maude which start in Douglas county and wind all through Sarpy county to empty into the Missouri river northeast of La Platte, is one of the streams that is now reaching flood tide and making things interesting for those who have necessity of cross-days with the warming weather con-ing this active little stream. For the past forty-eight hours a battle has been maintained at the bridge over the Papplo on the K. of T. highway to keep the stream open and the ice moving off down the creek and with many gorges forming in the south part of Cass wounty and Loren Almy.

The Cotner bus in making the night trip back to this city had to rendered travel far from pleasant.

spread to almost a mile wide at dren were born and raised. places and at the highway bridge it off from the north and south.

The water flowing over the highover the Papillion-Port Crook road 8 a. m., March 3, 1929. last night and several autos were rescued from the water rushing some family of Ithaca; Karl and Earl and identity of the faith and doctrines fou foot deep over the highway.

BOUND OVER FOR TRIAL

From Thursday's Daily-Lybyer, in which the defendant was land Gazette. charged with having stolen chickens of the value of $25 from the farm of Charles Garrison at Union, was heard. The question of identification of the man arrested here was largeon midnight Monday, and also as being the same party arrested at the Missouri Pacfic station here early Cass county, a very extensive land by the local officers. There was no testimony offered by the defense and the only questions raised by Attorney J. A. Cap- the past several months from cancer carpenters in this localitf and as well for the defense was whether or and was brought to a Lincoln hos- sisted in the building of some of the not the chickens had been stolen as pital for treatment for several months first houses and buildings in this they had not been removed from the but was later moved to 1919 South city. Forty years ago Mr. Joiner re-Garrison place, also that the iden- 28th street, Lincoln, and where he moved to Nebraska City and made his tification of the prisoner as the man sought had not been convincing.

dence the court held that the show- Whitman of Los Angeles, Calif., Mrs. ing made warranted the finding that Paul Thuresson of Riverside, Calif., both of the wives preceding him in with interest were due at a bank there had been a crime committed and Mrs. Tom Hord of Central City, death. and there was reasonable cause to six sons, Albert E., and John D., of The deceased was grandfather of believe the prisoner was the man and Alvo, Charles T., and Joe M., of Lin-William and Dick Joiner of Nebrasaccordingly the defendant was bound coln, Oris Q., of Utica, and George ka City, both well known in Plattsover to the district court for trial at J. Jr., of Valparaiso. There are six mouth and vicinity. the March term and the bond fixed brothers, three sisters, sixteen grandat $1,000, the trial by jury to deter-mine the innocence or guilt of the Funeral services were held at 3:30 accused man.

NEW ARRIVALS HERE

From Thursday's Daily-

A fine little daughter has come to gladden the home of Mr. and Mrs. From Thursday's Dallyborn to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kuchera conscious since the accident and the and is a very fine and attractive operation it is hoped will result in little lady and the source of a great his regaining consciousness and deal of pride to the members of the which may permit of his recovery, all kinds of legal blanks for sale at family circle.

ENJOY CARD PARTY

From Thursday's Dally-Last evening Miss Wilma Schiessl was hostess at her home on North Fourteenth street to a group of the Very Difficult young lady friends at a very pleasant card party and which all enjoyed to the utmost. The evening passed very delightfully in cards and in the Busses Operating Over R. of T. From various games Miss Ann Smetana Rev. Father George Agius Has Work been noticable owing to the ground and the proved the most successful, while Miss Eleanor McCarty was awarded the second prize. At a suitable hours the hostess served very dainty and delicious reably grow worse in the next few sky and Wilma Schiessl.

Eikenbary, Old Resident, Dies

Her Son, in Lincoln; Interment at Ashland.

held at noon Tuesday at Alba Brown's trine in its integrity. chapel, and the body was then "He classifies tradition as written make a detour over the Sarpy hills brought to Ashland to the home of or oral; dogmatic or disciplinary; in order to reach this city as the her sister, Mrs. Frank Deck, where universal or local; obligatory or ad-Papple was raising from the ice gro- further services were held. Rev. High visory; constitutional or inhesive and ges and spreading out over the sur- was in charge of the services. Miss divine or ecclesiastical. Divine or roundin country in a manner that Edith Mays, of Wahoo, sang two dominical tradition relates to matters solos. The pall bearers were George of faith, while ecclesiastical or apos-Reports received here last night Newsham, Glen Livingston, Edwin tolic tradition is concerned with dsstated that the Weeping Water creek Vance, Earl Livingston, John Kisner, cipline. In explaining the scope of

was also starting to raise and Mary Maude, second daughter of very clear interpretation of the docthreatening to raise over the high- Richard and Priscilla Marks, was trine of apostolic succession and the way at Union and being a flood tide born near Linnsville, Ia., Dec. 17th, necessity of accepting this universally along the entire course of the creek. 1872. While young, she moved with before one can prove or disprove The breaking of a dyke on the the family to Plattsmouth, Nebr. Af- tradition. When difference of opinion Pappio west of Fort Crook caused ter residing there several years, they exists as to tradition it signifies that the water to spread over the low- moved on a farm near Memphis and on such points the ultimate truth has lands in that section and water rose some years later returned to Platts- not yet been revealed. at midnight to almost reach the mouth, where Miss Marks met H. E. "Universal tradition is of course Missouri Pacific railroad tracks and Eikenbary, only son of J. C. and Dora more acceptable than local tradition was within a foot of the building Eikenbary. They were united in mar- and is a necessary attribute of univeroccupied by the postoffice at Fort riage Jan. 9, 1895 in Plattsmouth sal faith. Unity of faith depends on and established a home near that the living and continuous authority The residents on the farms in the city. Three years later, with her hus- of the church and this is tradition low lands along the Pappio valley band and one son, she returned to as supplementary to the Scriptures was three-quarters of a mile wide and her home was always open to her natural means-by church histories, and the flood water rushing along friends. Her husband passed away general councils, writings of the on both sides of the bridge cutting Dec. 8. 1918. She and the children fathers, Liturgies, monuments of years, then moved to Lincoln, where ture, crypts, epitaphs, catacombs in way was from three to four foot she made her home until called to all of which are to be found evideep and water was also flowing her heavenly home on Sunday about dences of the first Christians and wives, Lincoln; one daughter, Pearl, of the first church with that of the from Thursday's Dafly-of La Mars, Ia.; three grand children, present day. the preliminary hearing in the case who sympathize with her children in portance in matters doctrinal."

of the State of Nebraska vs. Henry the loss of their loving mtoher.—Ash-

DEATH OF PROMINENT MAN

Tuesday morning. Other testimony owner and also an active leader for 6, 1829 in the state of Pennsylvania. was given as to the ownership of the many years in the democratic party, and came west to the state of Iowa chickens and the arrests made here Mr. Foreman has been well known in in the early fifties where he made all parts of the county.

passed away.

After the conclusion of the evi- wife are three daughters, Mrs. G. H. with his daughter. Monday afternoon at the Alvo Methodist church with burial in Alvo

UNDERGOES OPERATION

Last evening a little daughter was fracture. Mr. Bartek has been un- hearing. altho his case is very serious.

Local Priest Author of Work

That Has Attracted Much Attention Among All Creeds

There are very few of the residents to take the detour. The small rivers and creeks over freshments. Those who enjoyed the of this city aware of the fact that the state are on the spring raise event were Plorence Thacker, Marie there is an author of one of the best the service to Omaha yesterday in and making the matter of travel over | Horn, Elizabeth Nolting, Dora Soen- known works on religious matters, a the fact of the very bad condition of the highways that have bridges over nichsen, Anna Sanders, Helen Smet- resident of this community, this be- the highway. these stream a matter of consider- ana, Christine Soennichsen, Eleanor ing Father George Agius, D. D., J. able difficulty and which will prob- McCarty, Ann Smetana, Mary Slatin- C. D., pastor of the St. John's Roman Catholic church.

Father Agius some years ago prepared a work on "Tradition and the Church," a work that has been published at Boston and has attracted much attention among the students of religion and all faiths and creeds.

"A review of this work, taken from the Boston Transcript, one of the largest daily papers of the country Plattsmouth Chamber of Commerce devoted to study and review of the Aids in Gravel Work With best of literature, gives the following Death Occurred Sunday at Home of review of this work on the christian faith and its traditions:

"Dr. Agius presents here an able and scholarly exposition of the place of tradition in the development of Mrs. Maude M. Eikenbary, 57, the church. His tenet is that Christ and causing the flood waters to raise died at 7:45 Sunday morning at the has established agencies and authorback of these gorges. Formation of home of her son, Earl, at 2930 E ities other than the Scriptures, to a gorge southeast of the bridge yes- street, Lincoln. She had not been in preserve, explain and propagate His terday afternoon caused water to good health for a couple of weeks doctrines, and that this agency and reach the bridge and made necessary but her condition was not considered authority is tradition. Tradition, the order to detour all travel to the serious. Her death was due to heart therefore, may be said to be the guarantee the sum of $2,250, which trouble. Short funeral services were means of preserving Christian doc-divine tradition, Dr. Agius gives a were compelled to leave their homes the home of her girlhood near Mem- which cannot of themselves achieve and go to higher ground as the water phis, where the three younger chil- unity of faith. In every century of the history of the church. Tradiition She had a very sociable disposition has been manifest through supercontinued to live on the farm two Christian art such as painting, sculpwhich contain in one way or another. She leaves three sons, Elmer and the word of God and manifest the one brother, O. D. Marks, of Spring- "Dr. Agius has made an earnest field: two sisters, Mrs. Rose Fleck, effort to make clear to Catholics and Oskaloosa, Ia., Mrs. Pearl Deck of Protestants alike the teachings of the This morning in the county court Ashland; also many warm friends church on this doctrine of vital im-

DEATH OF AGED MAN

Bennett Joiner, who lacked but hands of a receiver. two days of reaching the century The residents of the west portion mark in the journey of life, died on of Cass county have been called up- Monday at the home of his daughter, acting as the agent of H. H. Soenly made on the testimony of Officer on to mourn the passing of an old Mrs. Florence Carry at Newton, Iowa. nichsen, did by virtue of his employ-Dave Pickrel and Paul Sitzman, who and loved resident in the calling of The aged man had been ill but a ment as such agent receive and take identified him as the man seen here George P. Foreman to the last long short time and heretofore has been into his possession a valuable securin very good health for one of his ity, a promissory note of the amount Long identified with the history of advanced years.

his home near Newton for a number Mr. Foreman, who was seventy- of years and then came to Platts three years of age has been ill for mouth where he was one of the early maker of the note, H. M. Soennichsen. home there for a great many years Mr. Joiner was twice married,

The funeral of Mr. Joiner was held Wednesday afternoon at Newton with burial at that place.

PLEADS NOT GUILTY

From Friday's Datty-This morning George O. Dovey

was arraigned in the countt court on the complaint filed yesterday with the intent to defraud the said George Iske, the little lady being Last evening at the St. Catherine's against him. The defendant entered H. M. Soennichsen. born here at the home of the grand- hospital in Omaha, Henry Bartek, a plea of not guilty to the charges parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Tulene. one of the members of the auto party preferred and the hearing of the The mother and little one are doing injured there on Monday night, was case was set for Saturday, March nicely and Warren is wearing his operated on, the attending physicians 23rd. The defendant was released honors very fitting for such a happy deciding on this in an effort to re- on a bond of $1,000, for his appear- city, is at Chicago where she was to Rev. Wichmann, Mr. Cloidt and known young farmers of near Cedar lieve presscure caused by the skull ance in court at the preliminary called by the illness of her mother, those who so kindly assisted at the fracture. Mr. Bartek has been unhearing.

Journal office.

ROADS ARE OPEN

From Friday's Dally-

Plattsmouth

The travel between this city and Omaha which was broken yesterday by the high water over the Pappio on the Church bottoms, was resumed last evening and travelers are not getting through bottoms, was resumed last evening without a great deal of difficulty altho the softening of the road has coming out of the ground and the snow melting. The bus lines are now operating on the K, of T, highway as usual and not being compeled

The Cotner bus line maintained

Commissioners Approve Gravel Petition Filed

Aids in Gravel Work With Pledge to Assist in Cost

From Thursday's Dany-

This afternoon the last barrier be tween the successful culmination of the graveling program in Plattsmouth precinct was removed when the members of the Plattsmouth Chamber of Commerce pledged the assistance of the local civic body and the financial aid necessary to amount was necessary over the amount that could be raised by taxation for the purpose of graveling.

The program outlined was for four mill levy for the precinct but brother, Kenneth Ferris, both of the Railroad avenue, south side. the law and it was necessary to set dark suits. the levy at three mills and the came through to help out the pro- was served by Mrs. Reinackle who and when taken to the hospital there the efforts of the few seekers after gram with the guarantee to the was assisted by her daughter-in-law, was very little hope given the family natural beauty is overshadowed by county that the sum in excess of Mrs. William Lindner. that raised by the levy would be sioners to go ahead and approve the the county. will take its place with the other munity and is numbered among the failed until death came to his re- grass seed will make many an ungravel extension.

Charges are Filed Against Former Banker

O. Dovey, Former Cashier of First National Bank

This morning complaint was filed success. by County Attorney W. G. Kieck against George O. Dovey, forme cashier of the First National bank of this city, which has been in the hands of a receiver since December 13, 1926, when the bank directors voted to close the doors of the bank and place the institution in the

The complaint filed charges that of $3,000, made of the date of No-Bennett Joiner was born March vember 21, 1926, and signed by the name of H. M. Soennichsen. The complaint alleges in the first count use and embezzle said valuable security without the consent of the Count two of the complaint alleges that the defendant as bailee, did unlawfully convert the said note to his own use. Count three of the complaint filed alleges that the defendant, George O. Surviving Mr. Foreman besides his until he removed to Newton to reside Dovey, did represent to the maker of the note, H. M. Soennichsen, that his two notes of the value of $2,500 in Omaha, that he would have to give the defendant a new note for $3,000 and which would be used to pay the notes due in the Omana bank, and the balance of the money of H. M. Soennichsen at the First which was sold to divide the estate case is very serious. would be credited to the account National bank of Plattsmouth. The among the heirs of the deceased. third count that the defendant kept the note and later endorsed and de- city. The farm was purchased by livered the same to Allie Adams for William Rummel who gave $8,100 kind friends and neighbor our deephis own indebtedness, that the de- for the 100 acres. fendant made these representations

VISITING AT CHICAGO

Deeds, Mortgages, Contracts and li kinds of legal blanks for sale at could possibly be expected under the circumstances.

Pretty Farm Home Wedding

Miss Grace Lindner and Mr. Clair Ferris Joined in the Bonds of Wedlock Wednesday.

On Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Reinackle, two miles northeast of Murray, was the scene of a very charming home wedding and which where. marked the joining of the lives and hearts of Miss Grace Lindner and Mr. Clair Ferris, both well known and popular young people of that section of the county.

The parlor where the happy event took place was arranged in a very artistic manner with the decorations f the red roses and the greenry of he ferns that made a fitting setting for the happy occasion.

Preceding the entry of the bridal party Mrs. J. C. Stewart of Murray ounded the notes of the "Brida! "horus" from "Lohenghrin," and to their stations before Rev. J. C. Stewart, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Murray, who read the marriage lines. The beautiful and impressive ring service was used in the

The bride was most charming in a grown of blue chiffon, the hose and slippers matching the gown. The bride was attended by her sisgette, trimmed in lace. The groom was attended by this could not be carried out under gentlemen wearing the conventional Following the wedding ceremony a

There were some twenty of the relforthcoming to provide the precinct's atives and close friends of the young permanent cripple as the result of There are many of these places, nalf of the fifty-fifty gravel proposi- people present to witness the cere- the hip injury.

mony and among these was Ben Beck-This removes the only delay and man, grandfather of the bride, and gained consciousness for a short time is what the committee will urge, the will permit the board of commis- one of the old and loved residents of but later lapsed into a coma and his planting of flowers, keeping down resolution and petition and which The bride is a daughter of Mrs. lous and last evening the hopes of at the homes and showing the genwas done at the session of the board L. E. Reinackle and was born and the recovery of the unfortunate man eral spirit of pride in the city. this afternoon and now this precinct reared to womanhood in this com- was abandoned and he gradually A few cents worth of flower and live wire communities of the county gifted musicians of this section of lief. that have secured their part of the the county, having for a number of William Hirz was the eldest son of and beauty to the eye, a restful sight years served as instructor in piano Mr. and Mrs. John F. Hirz, promin- to those who may live nearby and a and violin at Murray and Platts- ent residents of this county, and was splendid showing of city beautifying mouth.

has spent his lifetime in this com- years and where the decreased grew tee and see that every aid is given munity and is numbered among the to manhood. He was married to Miss in making the city a real garden of industrious and active young farmers Cora Meisinger, daughter of Mr. and beauty in the summer season.

their home in the future on the 1913. Since their marriage Mr. and farm four miles southwest of Murray Mrs. Hirz have largely made their From Friday's Dally-Three Complaints Filed Against Geo. and where they will start housekeeping at once.

future may bring them happiness and Bauer garage.

SURPRISED ON BIRTHDAY

From Friday's Daily-Last evening a group of the friends of Edward Gobelman, well known a visit, one brother, Fred Hirz of young man of this city, gave him a most pleasant surprise on the occasion of his birthday anniversary at the home in the south part of on December 6, 1926, the defendant the city. The friends came in as a real surprise on the unsuspecting the funeral services and will require The inauguration parade provoked a guest of honor and made the occasion several days to make the trip from share of amusement for all of the one that he will long remember very delightfully.

The evening was spent in cards and a general good time and at an appropriate hour the members of the party enjoyed the delicious refreshwas as beautiful as toothsome.

Those who enjoyed the occasion serious shape. were: Mr. and Mrs. William Kief and Mrs. Con Lynch, Mr. and Mrs.

PURCHASES KOUKAL FARM

From Friday's Dany-

under the partition suit of the farm the next twenty-four hours may owned by the late John Koukal and bring some change for the better, the complaint further alleges in the The farm consisted of 100 acres located a few miles northwest of this

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to take this means of thanking the many kind friends and dren. neighbors for their assistance and Mrs. B. F. Goodman of west of this sympathy in the hour of sorrow, also Phone your news to No. 6.

FUNERAL OF MR. HARTWICK

From Thursday's Dally-The funeral services of the late Andrew Hartwick were held on Wed-, nesday afternoon at the Sattler Near Murray funeral home on Vine street and attended by a number of the old time friends and associates of the de-

Rev. O. G. Wichmann, pastor of the St. Paul's Evangelical church and who gave words of comfort to the bereaved wife and the many friends. During the services Frank A. Cloidt gave two vocal numbers, "Face to committee of the Chamber of Com-Face" and "Beautiful Isle of Some-

The burial was at the Oak Hill of the organization, headed by L. D. cemetery west of the city and the Hiatt, which has as its objective the pall bearers were selected from beautifying of the city as a whole among the old friends.

William Hirz Dies as Result

and Crushed Hip Prove Fatal to Plattsmouth Man.

From Thursday's Danycurred the death of William Hirz, every part of the city can be made well known Plattsmouth man, one of most attractive. the victims of the auto accident on It has been most unfortunate that ter. Miss Christine Reinackle, who Monday night at Omaha, in which the avenues that form the chief artery wore a frock of flesh colored geor- he and Henry Bartek were so badly over which travel passes through this injured when their car crashed into city has some of the most unsightly a street car at Jefferson street and spots in the whole city and some that tures of the skull, a broken left leg some places located along these aveand also had the left hip badly nues as well however, and including very dainty and delicious luncheon crushed as the result of the accident the great Masonic Home grounds, but that the patient would be able to re- neglect of others and the maintaincover and in any event would be a ing of unsightly spots.

born July 29, 1890 at the farm home to those who may be passing through. The groom is a son of Mrs. Ada west of this city where the parents Let every citizen and property Ferris of Murray and like the bride made their home for a great many owner get in line with the commit-Mrs. G. G. Meisinger, prominent resi-Mr. and Mrs. Ferris are to make dents of the county, on December 4, of Mr. Hirz, the widow, two daugh- members. ters and two sons, Leola, Alice Jane, Hirz, who are now in California on enjoy the social time arranged.

Hirz of Long Beach, California. ments made as yet, as the parents dates, Miss Baird becoming the winand sister are expected to come for ner in "the race to the White House." the west coast.

REMAINS ABOUT THE SAME

The reports at the St. Catherine's with places set for thirty guests. A ments that the members of the party hospital at Omaha today state that most delicious two-course luncheon that the defendant did convert to his had brought with them and which Henry Bartek, Plattsmouth man, who was served. was featured by the birthday cake is suffering from the effects of his The evening closed with an "inbaked by Mrs. Con Lynch and which injuries received in the auto accident auguration bawl," sides being led by at Omaha Monday night, is still in Frank Cloidt and Lynn Minor and > and sons, Arthur and Franklyn, Mr. scious since the accident and while sult being that one side gained the an operation as performed Wednes- decision of the new president. Lester Burrows, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. day night to try and secure relief The event was very cleverly ar-Meisinger, P. A. McCrary, Mr. and from a supposed brain concussion, the ranged and everyone present enjoyed Mrs. John E. Schutz. Mrs. Clara patient has failed to rouse and re- the occasion to the utmost. mains in the coma that he has been in since being brought to the hos-

The case is one in which the outcome is very doubtful and while the This morning the sale was held attending physicians are hopeful that

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express to the many est appreciation of their words of sympathy and acts of kindness in our vanced age made necessary his retireloss of the dear father, George Brinklow. Also for the beautiful flowers and the persons taking part of age and was well known in Plattsin the funeral services .- The Chil-

Earl Meisinger, one of the well Creek was here for a rew hours and one son, residing at Fremont and a while in the city was a caller at daughter who makes her home at

Phone your news to the Journal. Glenwood cemetery.

Move to Make Best of All Our Natural Beauty

The services were in charge of Sub-Committee of the Civics Committee of Chamber of Commerce to Push Work in City.

There has been appointed a submerce, acting in conjunction with and assisted by the civic committee and the bringing out of every natural advantage that the city possesses as well as the cultivation of the artistic and making the community attractive to the visitor. Nature has been lavish in its gifts to this community in the setting of the city amid the tree clad hills. of Auto Wreck with long stretches of avenues leading through the city, but in a great many cases these great advantages and natural beauty spots have been which the wedding party advanced to severe Skull Fractures, Broken Leg neglected and in many cases the neghas made unsightly spots. The committee will have the task of building up a civic consciousness among the residents of the city, a This morning at 5:30 at the St. pride in their community and in their Catherine's hospital at Omaha, oc- homes so that by very little effort are very badly neglected. Mr. Hirz had suffered two frac- There are a number of very hand-vacant lots or plots of ground that On Tuesday evening Mr. Hirz re- can be made more attractive and this condition continued to be very ser- grass and weeds along the roadways, sightly place to be an object of charm

HOLD CHOIR PARTY

home on the farm and this has been Last evening the Fellowship room the chief occupation of Mr. Hirz un- of the Presbyterian church was the The many friends over the county til the last few years when he has scene of very pleasant gathering when will join in their well wishes to this resided here and was engaged at the Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Goos and Rev. estimable couple and trust that the time of his death in working at the and Mrs. H. G. McClusky entertained the members of the choir as well There is left to mourn the passing as the husbands and wives of the

The first part of the evening was Richard and William, Jr., as well as occupied with the regular rehearsal the parents, Mr. and Mrs. John F. and then the members proceeded to

The entertainment afforded feathis city and one sister, Miss Lena tured "Inauguration" and "in the election" Miss Ruth Lindsay and There has been no funeral arrange- Miss Estelle Baird were the candijolly party.

The members were then invited to the tables which were beautifully decorated in patriotic colors and place cards bearing out this note and

Mr. Bartek has remained uncon- parody of well known songs, the re-

DEATH OF CHARLES KROON

From Friday's Dally-

Word was received here this morning of the death at his home at Pacific Junction today of Charles Kroon, one of the pioneer residents of that place and a veteran of the Burlington. Mr. Kroon came to Pacific Junction in the early seventles when the Burlington extended its line west to the Missouri river and was in the employe of the railroad there up until a few years ago when his adment from active service.

The deceased was eighty-four years mouth where he has been a frequent visitor and the news of his death comes with great regret to the many

Mr. Kroon is survived by the wife,

The date of the funeral services has not been definitely decided upon but the interment will be made at the