Enjoyed Splendid Evening

The ladies of the Greenwood General Kensington entertained their husbands and friends at a gathering at the L O. O. F. hall, where the entertaining game of 500 was the theme of the evening. All enjoyed the card games, and particularly delightful George Bucknell.

Will Grow Good Porkers

A number of the young men of Greenwood and vicinity are organized to compete with themselves and A. Squire and his son. Bert Squire with the world in growing good hogs. They have called themselves B. Jake Wyatt of Newton, Luther the Greenwood Industrial boys and Squire and Wyatt have signed full met last Saturday, March 2nd, to perfect their organization. The following were elected officers: Austin Kyles, president (and a good one at that); Ralph Meyers, vice president (and no better selection could have been made). In selecting a secretary, they were indeed fortunate in that they were able to secure Everett Reese. Their yell leader is to be George Rouse, a young man who is stock. surely well qualified for this position. When it came to picking some one to write the news of the organization. they selected Millard Anderson, and he will keep the doings of the new club before the public thru the medium of the press. They will embark in the growing of good pigs and hogs -a project in which they should attain the greatest success.
