Omaha Car Found Burned Near Oreapolis

Owner of Car From Omaha Makes Find of Burned Car and Reports to the Sheriff

From Monday's Daily—
Yesterday Sheriff Bert Reed was notified by Mart Lorig, 2418 N. street, South Omaha, that the Chrysler sedan belonging to Mr. Lorig had been burned along the highway west of the K. of T. highway and south of the Oreapolis elevator, this being the first intimation that the local authorities had of the fact that there was a car destroyed by fire.

The car was a complete wreck and nothing was left of the woodwork of the car or the upholstery, it being reduced to a mass of wreckage by the fire.

The owner of the car stated that he had missed the car on Friday night and had notified the Omaha police department, but no word was sent to this city and the first learned here of either the theft of the car or the burning was the report made here by the owner.

Mr. Lorig states that he had started out with a companion Sunday to see if they could locate the car and that they had searched along each side road from Fort Crook on south and finally locating the wreckage near Oreapolis.

Residents of that vicinity reported that they had seen a fire on Friday night but thought nothing of the matter supposing that someone was engaged in burning off the debris on a field prior to the plowing and accordingly no report was made of the fire.

This is the third fire of this kind that has occurred along the Platte bottom, a car having been burned in the immediate vicinity of where the last car was found while last year a car was burned on the side road north and west of the rifle range near Swallow hill.

On Saturday afternoon the office of Judge A. H. Duxbury was the scene of a very pleasant wedding when Miss Esther Puls of this city and Clyde O'Brien of Omaha were joined in the bonds of wedlock by the genial and accommodating county judge. The wedding was very quiet and the bridal couple were attended by Miss Margaret Puls, sister of the bride.

The newly weds returned to Omaha yesterday and where they will make their future home in that city and where the groom is employed.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Puls and was born and reared in this county and has made her home here and at Murray since her childhood. Bridge Draws Large Crowds of Sightseers

Cars From This Section of Nebraska and Iowa Carry Visitors to Scene of Activity

From Monday's Daily—
The site of the new wagon and auto bridge over the Missouri river at this point was the mecca of a very large number of sightseers Sunday when hundreds of the residents of eastern Nebraska and western Iowa were here to view the work on the structure and the busy workmen who are laboring in bringing the structure to a completion and which will mean an important link in the means of travel through Nebraska and Iowa with the large and modern bridge in service as is expected by the late fall.

The day was one that made traveling a real pleasure and all day long the cars were passing to and from the bridge, many from Omaha enjoying the trip here and after watching the bridge workmen and then going on across the river on the ferry and thence up the Iowa side of the bridge to Council Bluffs and back home.

The Plattsmouth bridge is one that is attracting the attention of everyone in this section to the country as it is one of the most logical places for a river crossing and will make a great part of the highway system from the east to the west and a very ready means of reaching Omaha and Lincoln from the east and a convenient cut over the K. of T. north and south highway.

BOYS RECEIVE A LECTURE

From Monday's Daily—
This morning Judge Charles L. Graves, who is the supreme court of the city and the presiding police judge, had before him informally a group of the boys of near this city, and while no complaint was filed against any of the boys, a lecture by the court on the evils of stopping and making remarks at and to young women of the community.

It is claimed that the boys riding along in a car and drew up to the curb on several occasions and this was done at girls who were passing and evidently had made a mistake in the parties they hailed as a complaint was made of the matter and the result was that the police served notice to come in and talk the matter over with the judge.

The court gave the boys a good lecture and handed out advice to both the boys and girls as to their conduct and the necessity for the stopping of any further "cracks" made at the girls along the highway and they all adjourned feeling that it had been an occasion of good to all concerned.

"WHEN THE COWS COME HOME"

From Tuesday's Daily—
This morning Fred Hafke, well known farmer and dairy man of this county had a real experience while driving his truck along North Fifth street and which furnished some stir and excitement for a few moments in the vicinity of the Plattsmouth State bank.

As Fred came rolling along Fifth street with his truck loaded with four of the gentle eyed bovines the endgate of the truck became loosened and dropped out and as the truck stopped at the Fifth street intersection the bovines proceeded to hop out of the truck and start on the way to adventure on the main drag of the city. The truck driver with the assistance of others started to round up the cattle and with many a snort and bellow of defiance the cows started eastward evidently heading for the old home stable.

MAS NIFTY OFFICE

County Judge A. H. Duxbury has one of the most attractive offices in the court house as the result of the spring housecleaning that the court has been conducting and now the private office has a neat and attractive Congoleum rug on the floor and a large modern flat top desk replacing the old type roll desk that has been in the office for years. The large table that was in the office for many years has been vanished and now gives the Judge a real pleasant office and one that has a great deal more room.

Unique Features of the Trade Show

Displays, Demonstrations and Distributions Coupled with Style Show, April 24 to 27.

Stickers are making their appearance on car windshields announcing the forthcoming Merchants' Trade Exposition and Style Show, to be held at the Community building on April 24th to 27th, inclusive.

This show, patterned after the larger cities' food, building and similar exhibits, will differ from them in this one respect, namely, all lines will be represented. The grocer will have a booth adjoining that of the hardware merchant and just beyond may be found the auto dealer, the clothier, photographer, or ladies ready-to-wear dealer.

The number of booth reservations is well over the score mark and the available space in the large 58x88 assembly hall is practically taken. No reservation is being made to other than local dealers.

Each dealer pays only a $2 rental charge on the lumber, and must decorate his own booth. He can display, demonstrate, distribute or offer for sale any articles of merchandise in his line.

Legion members will construct the booths, commencing the latter part of next week.

The wholesale houses are responding splendidly in providing their single items, probably a furniture suite, while on other night it may comprise cases of canned goods and other similar items, with half a dozen or more lucky drawees.

The door admission charge will be but 10 cents, and the samples distributed at the various booths will be worth more than the admission cost, to say nothing of the door prizes, nightly entertainment, etc.

On Thursday and Friday nights, in addition to other entertainment, there will be held the style show feature, comprising models of both ladies' and gentlemen's wearing apparel. Local dealers are working out details of this feature and will have the assistance of the wholesalers in putting it over bigger than ever before.

The back furnace and coal rooms are being cleaned up and will serve as dressing rooms, where the various changes will be made and the models step into the improvised stage to pass in review down the long runway extending out into the building. All the local dealers in men's and women's wearing apparel will participate in this year's style show.

A booster trip into the Plattsmouth trade territory, with the Legion boys' band accompanying, a few days before the opening of the show will serve to stimulate interest over a wide territory and should result in drawing people here from a distance of many miles.

As things are shaping up now, there is every indication that the Plattsmouth show will equal in attractiveness the Greater Lincoln Exposition put on last month at the University of Nebraska coliseum and which was attended by thousands of spectators during the week it was held.

The complete list of merchants who have engaged booth space, is as follows:

P. Thierolf, C. E. Wescott's Sons, McFarland Studio, Iowa-Nebraska Power Co., J. F. Wraga, hardware, Bestor & Swatek, Fred Lugsch, Maury Drug Co., Fire Oil Co., Platt Motor Co., Metzger Shoe Co., Weyrich & Hadraba, J. W. Crabbill, Red & White, H. M. Soennichsen Co., Christ Furniture Co., E. A. Wurl, Lorenz Bros., Service Chevrolet Co., Popular Variety Store, I. G. A. Grocery, Black & White, F. R. Gobelman.

DEATH OF FORMER RESIDENT

From Monday's Daily—
The death of Albert Schwartz, Jr., aged 28, occurred yesterday at Omaha following an illness of some duration, the passing of this former Plattsmouth young man bringing a great deal of sorrow to the old time friends here where the family made their home for a great many years. Several years ago the Schwartz family removed to Omaha and where Albert was married and at the time of his death the family resided at 424 So. 32nd street. For some time the condition of Mr. Schwartz has been such as to give but little hope of his recovery.

The deceased is survived by the widow, Mrs. Sophia Schwartz and one son, Joseph, as well as the aged parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schwartz, one brother, John Schwartz, of Omaha, and two sisters, Mrs. Henry F. Lutz of Plattsmouth and Mrs. Arthur Byers of Glenwood.

In their sorrow the members of the family will have the deep sympathy of the many old friends in this community.

DRIVER LOSES WAY

From Monday's Daily—
Saturday evening the police were called out to the vicinity of the Bach South Park store where a stranger driving a car with an Omaha number was stranded and was unable to tell where he was going and why. The man gave the name of Thomas Erwin and stated that he had met two ladies in South Omaha and after being in their company for some time a few drinks were partaken of and the party started out on a sightseeing trip and as they were looking for interesting places came on to Plattsmouth. Here the two ladies "itched" the boy friend and returned to Omaha where the atmosphere is more moist and lively. Lelst had started to drive around and had made his way out Lincoln avenue and became lost and found it necessary to call for help. This one was brought on into the city and made an overnight guest at the city free hotel and later arranged a cash bond for his release and the hearing of the case was set for Tuesday afternoon at the hour of two o'clock before Judge Graves.

Same Stone, 55, newspaper vendor on the northeast corner of Thirteenth and O streets, Lincoln, and former Plattsmouth man, and Kenneth Erwin, 16-year-old newspaper, are in St. Elizabeth's hospital, Lincoln, as the result of an automobile accident at 10:25 Saturday morning. The two were injured, according to police, when Mrs. E. H. Barbour lost control of the car she was driving and ran over the sidewalk, into a lamp post, which was broken off, and knocking over the box on which Stone was sitting.

Plattsmouth-Omaha Highway on Paving List

Part of K. of T. Highway as Well as Stretch of D. L. D. and Lincoln Highway to Have Paving

From Tuesday's Daily—
The state highway between Omaha and Plattsmouth, the Lincoln highway from Ames to Columbus, and the D-L-D between Omaha and Lincoln will be among the first roads to be paved with state funds under the new gas tax law. State Engineer Cochran indicated in an address at Columbus Monday at a conference of good roads boosters of cities along the highway from Omaha to Kearney.

Cochran predicted that work on these projects will be started this year and completed by the end of next year. He said he could not definitely state as to which stretches will be first paved or when, as tentative schedules have not been made. Local dealers are working out details of this feature and will have the assistance of the wholesalers in putting it over bigger than ever before.

The Lincoln highway between Ames and Columbus could not be completed this year even if funds were available as a new grade must first be established between Ames and North Bend, he stated. The new grade will be finished this year. Other work to be done includes relocation of a part of the D-L-D route between Lincoln and Omaha.

Cochran said that the program for the paving of 104 miles, as proposed by the Omaha chamber of commerce, could not be entirely adopted this year. Highway department estimates show that only enough funds will be available for the paving of fifty-six miles in 1929, the engineer announced.

After this year, Cochran said, the state probably will be able to pave about 100 miles a year. "We will not contract for more pavement at any one time than we have funds to pay for," he asserted.

Bills now pending in the legislature which would authorize counties to vote bonds to pave state highways within their boundaries were endorsed in a resolution adopted at the meeting.

OPEN BASEBALL SEASON

From Monday's Daily—
Yesterday afternoon the members of the Plattsmouth Ramblers, an organization of the local youthful devotees of the great national pastime of baseball, under the pilotage of R. Herold, journeyed up to Omaha where they played with the California Street Merchants on the recreation grounds of the Central high school.

The result of the game was a score of 7 to 6 for the Calliformers in a hard fought battle and in which R. Herold who did the tossing for Plattsmouth struck out sixteen of the Omaha players while Dinwiddie, the Omaha pitcher whiffed eight of the locals. The California Merchants were captained by Poisson Herold, who also officiated at first-base for his team.

The receiving for the Plattsmouth team was by Ralph Mason and who caught a very good game.

PROMINENT CITIZEN ILL

The many friends over Cass county of John Kopp, long time resident of Louisville will regret to learn that Mr. Kopp is in very serious condition at the hospital at Omaha. Mr. Kopp was taken to the hospital some time ago when it was found that his health was failing very rapidly and it was found that his strength and general condition was so weak that an operation would not be undertaken until he was in better shape. Blood transfusions have been undertaken in the last few days and yesterday his son, Harvey Kopp, Louisville banker, was at Omaha and gave blood for the father in the hope of getting him in stronger shape so that some permanent relief might be secured for the aged father.

Former Resident Here is Injured at Lincoln

Sam Stone Struck by Car While Selling Papers on Lincoln Street Saturday Morning

Same Stone, 55, newspaper vendor on the northeast corner of Thirteenth and O streets, Lincoln, and former Plattsmouth man, and Kenneth Erwin, 16-year-old newspaper, are in St. Elizabeth's hospital, Lincoln, as the result of an automobile accident at 10:25 Saturday morning. The two were injured, according to police, when Mrs. E. H. Barbour lost control of the car she was driving and ran over the sidewalk, into a lamp post, which was broken off, and knocking over the box on which Stone was sitting.

The injured were taken to the hospital in Spahn and Schnells' ambulance, Dr. W. H. Slattery, who attended them, said at 2 o'clock that Stone probably had suffered a concussion of the brain, that he was suffering from general injuries in the chest, and injuries to the left hip and right knee. Erwin had had contusions on the right leg, a sprained back, and bruises on other parts of the body, Dr. Slattery stated.

Stone fell on the back of his head, Dr. Slattery said, when the box on which he was sitting was upset. The car driven by Mrs. Barbour then passed over his right leg and his artificial left leg. Stone lives at 425 South Twenty-seventh street.

According to the police report of the accident, Mrs. Barbour, who lives at 1727 B street, became confused and reared her engine as she approached the light at Thirteenth and O streets. She was going north on Thirteenth street.

She swung her car east on O street after scraping fenders with another car, then swerved back to the east and ran up over the sidewalk. Officer Beals who reported the accident said, She crossed the sidewalk going towards Thirteenth street and ran into an electric light pole knocking it through the side windows of a car owned by I. E. Berkson, 144 South Eleventh street, which was parked on the east side of Thirteenth street, just off O street.

The Erwin boy who was standing near Stone was caught by the bumper of Mrs. Barbour's car and shoved against the running board of the Berkson car before Mrs. Barbour succeeded in bringing her machine to a stop.

Mr. Stone suffered the loss of his left leg several years ago and his right leg has been affected by the trouble to such an extent that it has made Mr. Stone partially incapacitated and he has followed the selling of newspapers for a living since the time of his loss of the left leg.

The injured man is a brother-in-law of Lester Burrows of this city and was an unaware of the accident until today.

DOING MUCH ROAD WORK

Over in Mills county, Iowa, there is a very extensive system of road work being taken up to make primary highway No. 34 all ready for paving and also joining up a number of other towns with this roadway. This is very interesting to the Cass county people where the coming summer will see several large gravel projects under way and the good roads in Iowa will be found a convenience to the travelers who will pass this way when the new wagon and auto bridge is completed this fall. The tying up of towns in Mills county as well as our own with the main highways makes a very fine road system for these two counties.

The finishing touches on No. 34 will include very little grading as this was done at some cost and expense several years ago. However the road will be changed slightly at one place. Just west of the subway under the C. B. & Q. railway tracks at Glenwood, the curve will be widened and the roadway will run south almost to the door of the R. L. Hale farm house, then straight through the subway. The curve to the east will also be enlarged to make the way more safe.

Five culverts will be built in the road between the four corners north of Malvern and Hastings, but no other change will be made on No. 34. No. 41 down to Malvern will be brought up to grade.

The paving program in the county will probably start at Tabor and continue northward to the county farm. The No. 41 east and No. 41 to Malvern. This program, however, has not been definitely named but indications point to such a plan.

SHERIFF HAS A CHASE

From Wednesday's Daily—
Last evening Sheriff Bert Reed was notified that there was an automobile on the highway south of this city that seemed to have been drinking and taking a greater part of the road. The sheriff ran the faithful Buck out onto the highway and after driving several miles south overtook the party complained of—and believe it or no—the driver of the car had the steering gear of his car damaged and was trying to reach home with the damaged car and this accounted for the manner of driving and so Bert had a trip for nothing.

Officers Called to Weeping Water by Fuss

Family Disagreement Causes Hurry Up Call to Settle Domestic Battle—Grab Some Beer

From Wednesday's Daily—
Last evening Deputy Sheriff Rex Young and Constable Tom Srobooda were called to the usually peaceful city of Weeping Water where a small sized family riot was reported to be in progress.

The officers on their arrival found that a husband and wife were engaged in the attempt to settle some domestic problems and which waxed as strong and warm as the social warfare at Washington and the participants of the battle were unable to reach a decision until the officers arrived.

After the conference of the law it was decided to have the husband brought on to this city and placed in jail to await the filing of any information that might be desired. The officers also spotted what might later have been some real home brew by taking possession of an gallon of the working malt and hops and which it was claimed was just about ready to bottle. This was also brought here and will be held pending the filing of some complaint in the case or the filing of the alcoholic contents of the "near beer."

BETTER HOMES WEEK

Better Homes week will be observed in Plattsmouth April 21-27. Locally Better Homes week will be sponsored by the Woman's club. Mrs. Erle Teppell, chairman, who was appointed president of the committee. More than 5000 communities will join in calling attention to the many devices and methods for lightening the burdens of home-making.

In many communities well planned homes are within the reach of families of "modest incomes." The programs include lectures, debates and discussion with demonstration of labor-saving devices.

In Washington, D. C. is a house which was built under the auspices of the general federation of Women's clubs and is a duplicate of the John Howard Payne home which was the inspiration for writing "Home Sweet Home." It was dedicated by President Harding as part of the Better Homes campaign of 1923. Later it was presented to the Girl Scouts and now services as a training center for Girl Scout leaders.

The local committee has not yet completed its plans but hopes to have something interesting and helpful arranged for celebrating this national week observance.

DISTRICT COURT STARTS

From Tuesday's Daily—
This morning the April term of the district court opened at the court house with the first case called for trial being that of the Bank of Commerce of Louisville vs. Tillie McCarty. This is an action seeking recovery on a note and which is contested by the defendant, the widow of the maker of the original note.

The jury was impaneled shortly after the opening of court and as the case is from Louisville the Plattsmouth members of the panel and those from the eastern section of the county were largely called onto the jury as being less acquainted with the parties to the suit or the issues raised.

The term of court has no criminal cases for trial so far as the chicken stealing case has been closed with the pleading of guilty by the parties on Saturday and their sentence. The case of the State of Nebraska vs. Wheeler has been set for hearing on next Tuesday unless the issues in the case are settled by the parties interested.

IN SPRING CLEANUP

The interior of the Weyrich & Hadraba drug store is being made very attractive by the use of paint and paper and placed in the best of shape for the summer season. The ceiling is being painted in the light grey that adds to the lightness of the interior and new wash paper will be added to make the business house of Joe and Emil fresh and spring-like in appearance.

George Schmader is going through a real intensive workout and local boxers are helping in the training and getting the fighter in the pink of condition for the go on Monday. George Graves of Peru, George Sedlacek and others have been assisting in the workout and at present time Dick March is the sparring partner of Schmader and assisting in getting him rounded up nicely for the big fight. From Tuesday's Daily—
The announcement has been received here by relatives and friends of the birth of a fine little daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Norris Cummins, now living at Columbus Georgia. The family now comprises two children, a fine little son and the little daughter and makes a very happy family circle.
