MYNARD U. B. CHURCH

Sunday school 10:00 a. m.
Sermon 11:00 a. m.

The Easter musical program, which was postponed on account of rainy weather, was given last Sunday evening and was interesting and inspiring. The anthems by the choir opening with "Hosannas to the Highest" and closing with "Rock of Ages" which included a mixed quartette, was very beautiful and well rendered. The solo parts were taken as follows: soprano, Miss Lois Keefer, Mrs. Sherman Cole; alto, Mrs. Bernard, Mrs. C. L. Wiles; tenor, Raymond Cook; base, Glen Wetenkamp. Interspersed through the program, were solos, trios and duets, the parts being taken by the above named singers.

Two numbers were especially beautiful "Open the Gates," by Miss Keefer and "One There Is," by Mr. Cook and Mrs. Bernard. Two instrumental trios by Mrs. Sherman Cole, cello, Willis Cole, violin and Mrs. Roy Cole piano and a flute solo by Mrs. Elbert Wiles were appreciated by all.

The program was under the direction of Mrs. Roy Cole and the choir was assisted by local talent in the community. It is fine when our people find time to render their services to the Creator in these beautiful songs.

G. B. WEAVER,
Pastor.

Dogs Must be Tagged or be Made Target

City Council Urges a More Vigorous Warfare on Stray Canines Who Are Tagless

A warfare more fierce and intense than that in Mexico or China is about to be launched in this city when the canine of the city goes into effect. There will be no quarter given and the boom of the artillery may be looked for in the next few days, the bad weather giving the dogs a new lease on life as the rain has made it too bad for even a dog to be out, let alone the trailers of the canine.

The council at their meeting Monday night proposed the "big push" against the dogs, large numbers of whom are roaming over the hills and dales of the city tagless and many ownerless. Members of the council protested that they had purchased tags for their dogs and City Clerk Thomas even has a tag decorating the thoroughbred he possesses and the council proposes that all who have the canine pets procure the tags or be ready to face the loss of the animals.

To make the warfare good it was suggested that in addition to the firing squad of police armed with rifles that the city import if necessary dog catchers from Omaha and make the warfare one that all will long remember as the year of the big hunt. While the police have officiated at the passing out of a great many of the dogs in the past few weeks they will redouble the efforts and increase the mortality rate.
