Mr. J. W. Berger and the family of Dale Topfiff and Ivan De Les Dier were all called to Omaha on last Saturday on account of the extremely critical condition of Mrs. Max Berger following her operation at the hospital.

The Nelson Hardware company last week sold a windmill and a pump to Harry G. Todd, which was taken on last Monday by Mr. Todd and Ben Noell, to Weatherby, Mo. near where Mr. Todd has a farm where they installed both the windmill and the pump.

Albert Wolfe of Nehawka was a visitor in Murray early last Monday where he was guest at the home of T. J. Brendel and in company with Mr. and Mrs. Brendel were visiting in Oakdale for the day, where they were called to look after some business matters.

Harry L. Browne of Weeping Water who is a representative of the Rawleigh company for the east half of Cass county, suffered a breaking of the crankshaft of his car, and had it brought to Murray for repairs. He made no mistake in the bringing of it to the Murray garage.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Douglas with their son, J. P. Jr., were enjoying a visit for the week end at the home of Little Sioux, Iowa, they driving over to the Iowa town where they enjoyed a visit for the day at the home of the daughter of Mrs. Douglas, Mrs. Robert Williams, formerly Miss Merrybird Ashton.

Little Harriet Milburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Milburn, who has been taking music with Mrs. J. M. Roberts of Plattsmouth was one of the number who were selected to render the program, at the recital on last Thursday, the children accompanied by Mrs. Milburn, were given the county seat, where Harriet gave her number on the program and was applauded highly for her excellent rendition of the number.

Christian Church to Be Decorated

The ladies of the Christian church have arranged to have the church building decorated on the inside, and as well they will have a new floor placed in the edifice. Mr. Ralph Kennedy and Fred L. Hill will do the work of placing the new floor in the building, which insures it will be done properly. The decorating will be a two tone work, and with the border stenciled. The decorating is to be done by Wayne Lewis and Wilbur Hewitt, they to receive one hundred and two dollars as stipulated in the contract.

Opens New Office Here

As related in last week's Journal, Dr. G. L. Taylor has discontinued his membership with the clinic and research department of the Geo. H. Lee company and is giving his full time to his private practice as the Murray Veterinarian.

"Doc" has opened a newly equipped office on Main street, next to the Lewis and Hewitt barber shop, and with a phone booth at his home and office will appreciate all calls from both old and new patrons. For those not on the Murray exchange, he advises he will pay the toll calls for a visit if necessary.

Just about everyone in Murray knows that for the past two years Dr. Taylor has been holding clinics and lecturing on diseases of animals over the middle, central and eastern states. This work gave him the opportunity of examining and studying hundreds of diseased animals and this experience should be of value when your stock are in need of the services of a Veterinarian, so just give "Doc" a ring, and he will be "Johnny-on-the-Spot," ready to give you the benefit of his extensive experience.

Mrs. Berger Reported Better

Mrs. J. W. Berger who some time since went to Omaha where she consulted a specialist, and also underwent on last Thursday an operation, for the restoration of her health, it being a very delicate operation, and following the same her condition was considered extremely critical for some time.

On last Saturday the folks were all called on account of the very critical condition, as grave fears were entertained as to her recovery.

On last Sunday evening when Mr. Berger returned home the condition of the patient was considered as being some improved. The many friends of this excellent woman are hoping that she may soon be able to be home again soon.

Has House Furnished.

It is rumored that one of the very popular bachelor young business men of Murray has a house secured and furnished which in a very short time will be the home of himself and a winsome bride, who are soon to occupy the place. That is nice, and this makes one more happy and prosperous family for the bustling city of Murray. You need not ask who it is, just wait and see.

Hold Interesting Meeting.

The Murray Study club held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Nellie Long on Thursday, April 18th. The president opened the meeting at 2:15 o'clock and quite a spirited business session was held. This was the time for election of officers and having had such a wonderful year of work under the present officers, no one seemed to want to take their places. But after much jangling they elected a new set of officers, and we are hoping the club will not be sorry for their action.

After the business was dispensed with, the meeting was turned over to the leader, Mrs. Dick Pitman. The discussions were few, owing to the absence of so many of her helpers. Although we had some helpful talks along the line of "Better Living in Nebraska," Mrs. Taylor gave two splendid piano selections, and the Misses Katherine and Margaret Long gave a duet, which was very much enjoyed.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Long and her assistants, Mrs. Lucy Sporer, Mrs. Martin Sporer. They carried out the club colors in their refreshments, also in the home decorations, which were very pretty.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Marie Milburn, May 16th. Leader, Mrs. Harry Todd. Subject, "Nebraska's Distinguished Capitol."

What About That Community Bldg.

We have talked about a community building for some time and still we have done nothing, we have been getting along with using one or the other of the churches, which is placing a burden on them which all of the community should bear.

Murray and the community can well afford a place where the people can get together.

Lewiston, with a small number of people who are situated near that place, as compared with what are near and in Murray, have a community building, and why not Murray? Let us get a move on ourselves and do something definite about the matter. Manifest your interest in this laudable community enterprise, by saying how much you are willing to give, and leave the amount and your name at the Murray State bank, and this will make the matter take a definite start.—A Booster for the Building.

FARM BUREAU NOTES

Copy for this Department furnished by County Agent

Farmers Union Meeting.

The quarterly Farmers Union meeting was held in the town of Louisville and a large crowd was present. A. A. Lindell, County President presided but the speaker from Omaha, Mr. McQuarty, unfortunately could not be there. Music was furnished by the Farmers Union band which was unusually good. The following numbers made up a very interesting program. "Sally and Si at the Circus" by Orland Stollman and Florence Wegener, "Carolina Moon" by Ruth Stollman, "Honeycomb Bliss" by Allen Ragoss and Elsworth Stollman, "Fussy old Maids from Gyrus" by Irwa Geffer, Gladys Shellhorn, Genevieve Cole, "Grandfather's Clock" by Irene and Dorothy Reister, Reading by Mrs. L. R. Snipes, "Photographers Troubles" by Bornemeter Sisters of Elmwood.

Recreational Meetings.

Mr. Gaines and Mr. Thomas from the extension service conducted a recreational meeting at Murdock and Nehawka on Tuesday and Wednesday, April 26 and 27. About 60 people gathered to receive instruction on community games. All entered in the games and felt that it was a day well spent.

Teach Children Caution Rather Than Fear.

Forty-five women gathered to discuss the place of fear in child training, with Miss Saunders, from the University of Nebraska. There are two distinct types of fear—objective and subjective. The objective fears are things which can be seen or heard as animals, lightning, high places. The subjective fears are based on feelings and attitudes and are much harder to account for and to handle. Fear is a driving force in human conduct, consequently we should teach children to be cautious rather than fearful.

Achievement Programs.

The Glendale and Willing Workers clubs held their local achievement programs the past week. A few of the clubs have had to postpone their local achievement on account of sickness, but these clubs will appear on the county program.

Feeders Day.

Cass County had a large delegation at Feeders Day. Parr Young of Nehawka won a ten pound roast for winning the intelligence test.

Medals For Barberry Bushes.

Pupils of the Glendale school near Louisville were the first in Nebraska to receive a medal for finding and reporting the accurate location of common barberry bushes.

A. F. Thiel, in charge of barberry eradication in the state, presiding at the school last Friday evening at a community gathering. The boys and girls located a hedge containing fifty bushes. Their teacher, Miss Elizabeth Tritsch had taught them to identify barberries in agriculture class. The Cass county superintendent of schools, Miss Alpha Peterson, had urged all her teachers to help rid the state of barberries.

Any boys or girls who think they have found bushes in this county should take twigs to their teachers or to the county agent's office. If the bushes are barberries, steps will be taken immediately to get the medal.

Stained Alfalfa Seed.

Farmers who seed in alfalfa seed had better buy some other kind about which they know the history and real origin.

Seeing red in the seed, and then being shy of those bags, will avoid seeing red about two years later when the stand from such seed would be lost from winter killing.

Alfalfa seed with 10 per cent of the seeds stained red or orange red grew in some climate that was more mild than Nebraska's climate. Plants from such seed will not stand the ordinary Nebraska winter. They are said to be unhardy, and it is thought that much of the winter killing in recent years has been due to this unhardy seed.

The U. S. Government officials stain the seed. They do it as a protection for farmers and honest seedsmen who are cooperating in an attempt to furnish the trade with the best seed to plant.

Seed with one per cent stained violet is Canadian seed, and suitable for Nebraska planting. Since it grew in Canada, it must be hardy. Nebraska common alfalfa seed is known as a hardy variety also, especially that which comes from the western and northern part of the state.

This is alfalfa seed sowing season. Farmers are asked by their own organization, the Nebraska Crop Growers Association, to buy seed which they know is hardy or about which they know the complete story. Bargain price seed is almost always unhardy or weedy seed.—L. R. Snipes, County Extension Agent, Jessie H. Baldwin, Assistant County Extension Agent.

PHILATHEA CLASS MEETS

From Wednesday's Daily—Last evening the members of the Philathea class of the Methodist church enjoyed a very fine social meeting at the home of Mrs. Hallie B. Perry and with a very large number of the members in attendance. In the entertaining Mrs. Perry was assisted by Mrs. H. E. Sortor, Mrs. J. T. Marshall, Mrs. W. A. Wells and Miss Jessie Robertson.

The program of contests and games arranged by Mrs. Sortor was the source of an unending spirit of enjoyment for the entire evening and in the contests Miss Jessie Robertson, Mrs. Bert Coleman and Miss Mamie Persinger were the prize winners.

The ladies are planning a picnic in the latter part of May and in which they are inviting the Y. M. B. C. to participate and enjoy.

At the close of the evening delicious refreshments of angel food cake and strawberries were served by the hostesses and which added very much to the enjoyment of the event.

Increase Production!

This is the season to increase your cream production by milking more cows. There will soon be plenty of grass and cream can be produced much cheaper in summer than in winter.

If you will figure what it costs to produce cream as compared with other farm products you will be surprised at the value of this important commodity.

Bring or ship your cream to the creamery and receive the highest cash market price. We are always glad to see you.
