

The New International Truck

will OUT-PULL, OUT-CLIMB and OUT-PERFORM all Others of Similar Rating

¶ We have a new truck here at our place that is entirely different from any other light truck on the market—it has SIX speeds forward and two reverse. And the difference shows up mighty plain when you run up against steep grades, plowed ground, deep sand, soft meadows, ditches, snow, etc. The SIX-SPEED SPECIAL is ahead of the others, because it is built to go ahead on just the kind of work that folks around here have to do.

¶ It is an ideal truck for the farm, and it fills the bill with merchants, too. Anybody who has to haul loads over good roads and bad will like the SIX-SPEED SPECIAL.

¶ We are demonstrating it every day, so don't feel backward about asking us to show you what this truck will do. It backs up everything we say about it—and its low price will surprise you.

Thirty-Nine Dead, Over 200 Injured in Two Tornadoes

Thirty-three Killed in South Georgia and Six in South Carolina; Property Damage High.

Atlanta, Ga., April 25.—Two tornadoes that swept south Georgia and South Carolina today and tonight, dipping at intervals, caused a death list of 39, injured two hundred or more persons and left property damage running into many thousands of dollars.

Striking first in Georgia, the twister wrecked scores of houses in a half dozen towns and in rural sections, then skipped into South Carolina, striking in three places there. A second tornado tonight struck in Georgia sending the list of dead and injured mounting.

Of the dead 33 were in Georgia and six in South Carolina, as follows: Cochran, Ga., 17 dead, more than one hundred injured.

Metter, Ga. (Candler county), 12 dead, 20 or more injured.

Dexter, Ga. (Dodge county), three dead, 40 injured.

Rentz, Ga., one dead, several injured.

Pelzer, S. C., two dead, an undetermined number injured.

Anderson, S. C., four dead, more than 20 injured, three probably fatally.

Hundreds Homeless. In addition to the dead and injured, several hundred persons in the two states were made homeless by the tornadoes that wrecked scores of dwellings in the two states. Damage to growing crops will run high.

The first twister, this afternoon reports came from the stricken area, but it was the same one that struck near Pelzer. The second tornado struck Georgia tonight about one hundred miles east of the path of the earlier one, wrecking half a dozen houses in Metter and a score or more in rural sections of Candler, killing 12 persons and injuring more than a score of others.

Check of the extent of the damage was difficult tonight as communication lines were down and only meager reports came from the stricken area, but Cochran, where the twister struck the edge of the town, suffered the heaviest loss.

The identified dead at Cochran: Alvin McDaniel, 15. Infant child of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mullis. Eddie Williams, 55, Negro. Henrietta Williams, Negro. John Eubanks, 65, was killed near Enoree, S. C. Three Negroes were killed in Anderson county.—World-Herald.

WILL 'STARBLE' NATION

Jacksonville, Fla., April 25.—Francis L. Poor, in announcing today that he had telegraphed to Washington his resignation as assistant district attorney for Florida, promised a statement which "would create nationwide attention."

He intimated he referred to the indictment, revealed recently, of Representative Michaelson (Ill) on a liquor charge violation.

Tornadoes Sweep Through Sarpy County

Vicinity of Papillion, Portal and Millard Are Ravaged by Small Twister

From Thursday's Daily—The eastern section of Nebraska had the first severe storms of the summer season yesterday afternoon when a small tornado struck near David City about 3 o'clock and later the storm moved eastward and did considerable damage in sections of Sarpy and Douglas counties, but the storm passed Papillion and Omaha without doing serious damage.

The banks of clouds pretending the approach of the tornado were visible from Louisville, for some miles west of this city, and caused some alarm there for a time but passed to the north between Springfield and Papillion. This city was stirred by the report late in the afternoon that the storm had visited Louisville but this was found to be untrue and quieted the fears for our sister city and its people.

A tornado struck west of Ulysses, in Butler county, about 3 o'clock and traveled north east until it had passed between David City and Brainard. Much property damage resulted. Early reports indicated only one had been hurt.

Two men were slightly injured and many farm buildings were destroyed by the twister which tore a path several miles long about a mile west of Papillion late in the afternoon.

Miss Margaret Schobert, living about three miles west of Papillion and who teaches school about three miles east of the town, was driving home and saw the storm approaching. She stopped her car and lay down in the ditch beside the road.

Just behind her came Charles R. Sprague, farmer of north of Springfield, with another man. They passed Miss Schobert and drove squarely into the storm's path. Their car was hurled into the ditch by the wind and Sprague was slightly injured about the head, while his companion suffered minor hurts.

Charles J. Seibold, farmer, one and one-half miles southwest of Papillion, was in his haymow when a hired man warned him of the storm's approach. Seibold and his family took refuge in a cave and escaped injury, but a big barn, hog house and chicken house were destroyed and the chimney was torn off the residence. Most of the buildings destroyed were new.

On the farm occupied by Lee Blodgett, near Portal, all the buildings except the house were destroyed, and that was badly damaged. The family found safety in the cave. Of a fine drive of tall evergreen trees several hundred feet long, only three trees were left standing.

The Pappio creek was reported running bank full at Papillion at 7 o'clock Wednesday night, and carrying considerable debris, indicating heavy rain upstream with possible further unreported damage.

There was little rain at Papillion, and no wind damage, but many of the residents, able to see the storm to the west and to hear its roar, fled to their caves.

Jesse Howe, farmer living near David City, was the only known casualty in Butler county. He was hurt, however, after the storm, by a fall among debris. He was taken to a David City hospital.

The Butler county tornado extended for 10 miles, but struck no towns. It started two and a half miles north of Ulysses and the first damage was three miles southeast of David City, where the farm home and buildings of H. E. Porter were completely demolished. Trees two feet thick were uprooted and carried more than a half mile.

Damage was done at the Joseph Bley farm. His home was sliced in two and half the house carried off. At both places, residents found refuge in basements.

Working toward Fremont, the twister demolished all farm buildings of Joseph Rolenc. The Ed Stearns farm nearby also was struck, but not damaged so badly.

The storm did not strike in Seward, but school children there were dismissed before 3 p. m. when telephone officials warned of the approaching cloud. The funnel shaped cloud could be seen clearly at Seward.

Residents in west Omaha watched a funnel shaped cloud in the south-west for 15 minutes late Wednesday afternoon. Shingles were dropped from the air around the home of T. J. Davey, Seventy-eighth and Lake streets.

weather was as near a cloudburst as had been seen there for nine years, with a total of more than two inches during a short time in the evening. Bottom lands south of Sidney were under two feet of water Wednesday.

SUIT TO REINSTATE AS SORORITY MEMBERS

Des Moines.—An original notice seeking injunction against the officers of Phi Mu sorority to prevent their suspension from membership was filed in district court by Ethel Brittain Blakeley, Helen Brittain and Grace Brittain. The notice says the girls seek a writ of mandamus to compel the officers to reinstate them as members of Zeta chapter at Drake university. The original note also asks that the officers be enjoined from further interference with their membership.

that there's no sentiment in business, but we have found since we began to celebrate our 50th anniversary, that cold reserve retires and the warmth and spontaneity of the heart comes to the front. Anniversaries are sentimental affairs. With delight and charm they revive the events and memories of the past. They stimulate and intensify our concern for the present. They challenge and inspire us with hopes and ambitions for the future. . . . So it is with this 50th Anniversary of the House of Wescott—clothing headquarters for Plattsmouth and much of Cass county, for the last half century. Many friends have visited our booth at the Trade Exposition and signed our unique Register. Some of them, now touched with gray, bought their first long pant suit of us. Many incidents have been recalled that touch our hearts and make us just a bit proud that we are the sons of such a worthy sire. . . . As our Anniversary Year progresses, from time to time, we intend to give in this space some of these incidents. If you have known this store in the past, we hope you will find occasion to register so we can put you on the "Honor List." Come in and see us for old times sake.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Haswell and children, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Richards and daughter, Joyce, and Mr. William Richards spent Sunday at the John Sweeney home. Mrs. Hiram Hunter and daughter, Ethel were Sunday afternoon visitors.

Ruth Carnice spent a short vacation at the Jacob Carnice home. She was here from Wednesday to Sunday evening. She teaches school near Memphis and school was dismissed while the building was fumigated as some of her pupils had been ill with scarlet fever.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Long went to Lincoln Wednesday evening to attend a banquet given by the school of agriculture at the State University. Following the banquet the graduation exercises of the school of agriculture were held. Mrs. Long's sister, Miss Alice Sturzeneger, was one of the graduates.

The Poverty Point Woman's club put on their achievement day program at the Poverty Point school house Monday evening. They were assisted by two other clubs of the vicinity, the College Hill and Glendale clubs and the three clubs put on the play, "How the Story Grew." The presentation on Monday evening was really given in practice as it will be given at the Achievement Day program at Weeping Water the coming week. At the Monday evening entertainment there were also several musical numbers and several readings given, as well as some interesting talks. Miss Jessie Baldwin assistant county agent, gave a musical reading and Mrs. Henry Smith county chairman, gave an interesting talk. Mrs. Grabow, president of the Poverty Point club, reviewed the work that the club had been doing the past year and what had been accomplished during the year. Readings were given by Mrs. Henry Stander and Miss Joan Ross and Little Jack Ross gave a musical reading. The Poverty Point orchestra played two musical numbers and Miss Joan Ross gave a violin solo, accompanied by her sister, Isabelle. Doris Oliver and Doris Grabow gave a musical reading together, "Reuben and Rachel," and Mrs. Lawrence Melsinger also gave readings. The entertainment was full of interest for all who were present. Refreshments were served following the program consisting of four kinds of sandwiches that the club members had learned to make the past year, cakes and coffee.

HOLD BIRTHDAY PARTY

The Methodist Sunday school of Union held their April birthday party in the church last Tuesday night. About two hundred people were present to enjoy the occasion. This is the largest number present at any party yet, and we were glad to see so many. We hope our next party in May will be as well attended.

The program was in charge of Miss Wilson, Mrs. Garrett, Miss Moon and Miss Chase, all teachers in the public school. The program was very well arranged and children from each room had part. The children gave some very good numbers which showed unusual talent. The glee club girls gave the closing numbers of the program which were very entertaining to all.

After the program the refreshment committee took charge and ice cream, cake and coffee were served to all present.

A number were present whose birthdays come in April. These people enjoyed a lovely birthday cake.

The next program will be mostly Mother's day numbers. The public

GERMOZONE

BIG SAMPLE FOR YOU

the LIFE SAVER For Chicks!

We consider Germozone the greatest remedy made for diarrhoeas and bowel troubles in baby chicks. We are so anxious to have every poultry raiser in our community try Germozone, that for a limited time we are offering a 40c bottle for 10c. One to a family. Bring the attached coupon.

No matter how carefully you clean up each day, danger of digestive disorders and bowel troubles are always present. Drinking water and utensils are so easily contaminated, food particles escape your notice and become moldy, droppings and disease germs are carried into the feed troughs on the chicks' feet.

Take no chances. Germozone purifies the drinking water and, even more important, it kills disease germs, and guards against infection, in crop, stomach and intestines.

Don't worry about the incurable diseases. They are rare, and sanitation internally and externally is the most you can do. The big things with chicks is your protection against the troubles that are so likely to come.

A teaspoonful of Germozone in a quart of drinking water three times a week—such a simple, inexpensive little care! Yet what a difference it makes to the chicks—and to you!

"Best First Try for Sick Chickens"

For more than 30 years Germozone has been the great remedy for nasal, crop and bowel disorders. It acts quickly against the germs and poisons, and helps to heal the affected membranes lining.

There is nothing else just like Germozone. It is especially valuable in case of sour crop, simple diarrhoeas, limber necks, ptomaine poisoning, chilling, musty foods, colds, canker, swollen head, and as an aid in repairing the damage done by worms and by coccidiosis.

BRING THIS COUPON

Don't lose your chicks. Get started with Germozone now. Bring the coupon and 10c and get this 40-cent bottle; also a free copy of the 1929 Lee Way Book, a 64 page text book on Diseases of Poultry and Stock. Your bottle is here. Come and get it NOW.

I will try Germozone which you so highly recommend. Give me the 40c bottle for 10c, as per your trial offer.
