

Greenwood Department!

Prepared in the Interest of the People of Greenwood and Surrounding Vicinity

Edward Stradley who has been in the western portion of the state for some time where he has been looking after the interests of the Minneapolis Threshing Machine Co., arrived in Greenwood last Saturday and spent a number of days here, and was on last Wednesday taken to Auburn where Edward had to look after the checking up of a couple of combines at that place, thence he went to Falls City, and Wichita, respectively where he had work for the company. Following this he departed for Oklahoma and Texas where he was looking after matter for the company for which he is working. J. V. Stradley, the father, drove Edward to Auburn, in the new Chevrolet sedan which Mr. Stradley recently purchased from Theodore Carnes and which he is liking very well.

Watson Howard, who has been raising and breeding a very fine quality of white Leghorns and for which he has always found a very nice demand, has not been able to supply the call for eggs, and will in the future endeavor to have a number more of layers in order to supply the demand for eggs.

Fred Hoffman was over to Omaha on last Tuesday with a load of very fine cattle for the very best, which he has always found a very nice demand, and which is very good. Mr. Findley well knows the art of producing good cattle for the market, when good care and good feed, coupled with good cattle can bring them.

Gust McNurlin, who has been staying in Omaha for some time past, and was visiting in Iowa for a time, arrived in Greenwood early last week and spent the week here. He was relating a visit with him and some friends made last Sunday to Plattsmouth, where they picniced for the afternoon at the site of the big bridge which is being constructed over the Missouri river at that place. Mr. McNurlin expressed astonishment at the magnitude of the structure, saying it was well worthy of a trip a long ways to view. He will expect to spend some six weeks in Plattsmouth this summer and will picnic along the banks of this historic stream.

Gust McNurlin who has been in not the best of health will expect soon to go to Marion, South Dakota, where he is expecting to take treatment of a doctor there, before he shall go on his summer outing, early in July.

Robert E. Matthews, the garage man has been enjoying a very fine visit from his father, R. E. Matthews, Sr., of Paola, Kansas, who was spending the major portion of last week with the son and family, returning to his home in the Sunflower state on last Monday.

Theo. Carnes received a car load of the celebrated Chevrolet autos, and unloaded them on arrival. He immediately disposed of one to Mr. J. V. Stradley, who received a four door sedan and the last word in the line of motor car magnificence.

The friendship, love and truth club of Greenwood, the active element of the Daughters of Rebeckah, when it comes to doing work in the line with fraternalism, met on last Thursday afternoon at the I. O. O. F. hall, where they looked after the business matters which they had in hand and following this they enjoyed a social hour with good eats.

John Hanson who has been looking after some business matters in Lincoln for some time past, and where he has been employed, returned home early this week.

Caught Many Fish

Jack Wymer was out to one of the little lakes left when the Salt Creek was straightened and found the fish ready for the hook, and says he was able to secure some sixty-five and many running to over a pound. He says he is not a member of the Isak Walton League and catches the fish that want to be caught, for he can use them on the table.

Band Will Play

The Greenwood band is in good trim for the concerts and any other work in the music line which may come this way and will give their first public concert on the coming Wednesday, May 22nd, on the streets of Greenwood. Be sure and listen in on this excellent entertainment, and be a booster for the band and for all the activities of the hustling city of Greenwood.

Greenwood Transfer Line

We do a general business—make trips regularly to Omaha on Monday and Thursday, also to Lincoln Tuesday and Friday. Pick up loads on these trips. Full loads at any time. FRED HOFFMAN.

The class of 1929 of the Greenwood high school who are soon to go out into the world for real experience, accompanied by one of the teachers, Miss Clarke, went with three autos to Omaha on last Wednesday, where they enjoyed investigation of the real workings of the making of a hustling city, one of the great achievements of the world, in the way of business enterprises and city government. They visited many of the important industries of the city and were well pleased with the day which they spent.

Shoes that Wear

A. W. Hudson has just added a line of WEARUWELL shoes which are guaranteed in every way as being the very best. Drop in and see them. No trouble to show and explain them. A. W. HUDSON.

Boys Visit at Louisville

The boys of the I. O. O. F. visited at Louisville on last Monday evening where they enjoyed the session of the Odd Fellows when five were given the understanding of the mysteries of the third degree. Twenty three of the members from the Greenwood lodge were present, and in all over eighty were in attendance, with many from over the county and state.

Son Doing Nicely

Clifford Ballenger, son of John Ballenger of Greenwood, and who is a business man of Gretna, where he has been troubled with appendicitis for some time, the severity of the malady being such that it was advisable to undergo an operation. On last Tuesday morning the son was operated upon for relief, and following it was thought to be getting on nicely and the father who was present returned to his home in Greenwood in session last evening, through some misunderstanding he was called to Omaha and hastened to the bedside of the son, arriving at midnight only to find the son doing nicely. He returned to Greenwood early Wednesday morning. Reports from the hospital are that the patient is recovering nicely.

Attend Grand Chapter

The grand chapter of the Order of Eastern Star of the state of Nebraska was in session last evening, and there were gathered many members and delegates from over the state. Among those who attended from Greenwood, were Worthy Matron Mrs. A. W. Hudson, and Past Matron Mrs. G. W. Holt, who visited on last Tuesday and Wednesday, while also Past Worthy Matron Mrs. E. A. Landon and Past Worthy Patron E. A. Landon were visiting on Wednesday evening.

Ladies Kensington Meets

The Greenwood Ladies Kensington met last Thursday afternoon with Mrs. P. E. Clymer, the ladies had much work on hand which they promptly dispatched and looked after what ever was on hand, after which they also enjoyed a most pleasant hour in the grocer's store, who served a very nice luncheon.

Little Child Dies

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hurlbut, who has been so very ill with scarlet fever, and who has been nursed so tenderly and every care taken that she might overcome the dread disease died at their home on last Tuesday, with scarlet fever. The little daughter was about a year and a half old, and a most lovable little girl. The sorrowing parents have the sympathy of their host of friends in this their hour of sorrow. There is much scarlet fever in Greenwood at this time.

Alumni Eat and Talk

The alumni of the Greenwood high school met last Saturday night at the basement of the Methodist church where they enjoyed their annual banquet for it has become a regular feature of the graduates of this school. The banquet was served by the Ladies Guild, and this goes to say it was all that could be expected and was surely enjoyed by all the members in attendance.

Brooder House Burns

Last Wednesday the brooder house at the home of Mrs. George Nickols was burned. It contained two hundred and eighty chicks. The fire started from a coal oil brooder stove and the other buildings were saved by the wind from the opposite direction. This is quite a loss, but Mrs. Nickols considers herself lucky that the loss was not greater.

Entertain Greenwood Friends

Mr. and Mrs. Goodhart Vant entertained a group of Greenwood people at their new home in Gretna Tuesday evening. Five Hundred provided the evening's entertainment. Dewey Heady won first prize and Mrs. E. L. McDonald won the booby prize. At a late hours refreshments were served.

Alma Rubens is Placed in Insanity Ward

After Attack Made on Nurse and Threatening to Commit Suicide—Wields Butcher Knife

Los Angeles, May 16.—Alma Rubens, film actress, was removed to the city psychopathic ward today by deputy sheriffs after they had called to her home by her mother, Mrs. Theresa Rubens, who said her daughter had attacked her nurse and threatened to commit suicide.

The officers were kept at bay at the Rubens home by the actress for three hours, they said.

Miss Rubens armed with a butcher knife, appeared on the porch and threatened to stab the officers if they approached.

The deputies secreted themselves in bushes about the home and after a long wait the actress appeared on the porch again and was overpowered.

En route to the hospital Miss Rubens attempted to escape, but she was strapped up and rendered harmless.

Mrs. Rubens later signed a complaint for removal of her daughter to the Southern California State Hospital for the Insane at Patton, Cal., and within a short time the actress was en route to the institution by automobile.

The actress recently was released from a state narcotic hospital at Spadra, Cal., where she had been committed by her relatives for addiction to narcotics.—World-Herald.

Mrs. Tully is Grand Matron

Ellen M. Fetterman, Lincoln, Grand Conductress of the Order of Eastern Star

Omaha, Neb., May 16.—Mrs. Bessie A. Tully of Hastings was chosen worthy grand matron of the Nebraska grand chapter of the Order of Eastern Star in elections which were held here today.

Mrs. Tully, who has been associate grand matron for the past year, succeeds Mrs. Stella Thorson of Wahoo. George Oshkosh is the new worthy grand patron, succeeding Edwin C. Yont of Brock.

The fifty-fifth annual session, to be held the second week in May of 1930, was awarded to Hastings by a ballot vote.

Six other officers elected by the session are: Mrs. Nan Martin of Omaha, associate grand matron; Rainsford O. Brownell of Schuyler, associate grand patron; Rose M. Owens of Omaha, re-elected grand secretary; Mrs. Bessie M. Mickey of Osceola, grand treasurer; Mrs. Ellen M. Fetterman of Lincoln, grand conductress, and Mrs. Louise C. Mantor of Sidney, associate grand conductress.

LONG WINS FIGHT TO REMAIN GOVERNOR
Baton Rouge, May 16.—Governor Huey P. Long Thursday "beat" impeachment proceedings pending against him. Following a meeting at which 15 senators are said to have refused to vote to remove the youthful governor "No matter what evidence be produced," the leaders of the senate agreed to adjourn the trial sine die.

State Divided Up for Census

Eleven Districts Created With Supervisor for Each—Appointments to Be Made by G. O. P.

According to information just received in Lincoln from Congressman John H. Murchhead, the date for taking the federal census has not yet been definitely fixed. It may begin November 1, 1930. Nebraska may begin November 1, 1929, January 1 or May 1, 1930. Nebraska has been divided into eleven districts, each of which will have a supervisor, who must reside in the city named as headquarters for that district. Each of these supervisors will receive from $1,500 to $2,500, according to the population of the district and the work required.

The enumerators must reside in the district where their work is to be done. They will be employed in cities for about two weeks and in rural communities for a month. They will be paid on a per capita basis and according to the work required and it is stated those who are diligent should make from $5 to $8 per day. Supervisors will be allowed at least one assistant each and such clerical work as is necessary.

The supervisors and enumerators will be selected through the republican organizations, national, state and county.

Easier Tariff Adjustments are Proposed

Manufacturers' Association Urges Plan to Avoid Turbulent General Change

Washington—A comprehensive program designed to institute a more stable and permanent method of tariff adjustment than the existing practice has been laid before Congress by John E. Edgerton, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, on behalf of that organization.

Seven specific recommendations are contained in the association's plan. These proposals, according to Mr. Edgerton, have nothing to do with raising or lowering any particular rate, but are designed primarily to bring about a less disturbing scheme of tariff administration—a plan for determining rate adjustments without turbulent general revisions.

It is the purpose of the manufacturers' associations to increase the effectiveness of the Tariff Commission and widen presidential powers, so that Congress can set up a more effective agency to carry out its tariff enactments.

Secretary Cochran Fears That Proposal Would Increase Cost of Gravel.

The state department of public works is preparing to contest the application of Nebraska railroads for changes in shipping rates on gravel. Secretary Roy Cochran said Thursday. The railway commission is to hold a hearing on the application May 21.

The highway department's principal objection to the proposed change is that it will tend to reduce competition among the pit owners by giving certain owners an advantage over others when bidding on projects.

Under the present arrangements, where one railroad owns a spur to a gravel pit and the main haul is to be done over another road the latter absorbs the switching charge and the purchaser pays freight only on the distance between the switching point to the destination.

The railroads propose to discontinue the practice of absorbing the switching charge, which averages approximately $6.30 a car, and ask that they be permitted to make two direct line haul charges, from the pit to the switching point and from there to the destination, with the switching charge of 20 cents a ton in addition. Each pit would be made a station for rate making purposes.

The public works department contends that such an arrangement would give not only a distance advantage to certain pit owners, but would in other instances enable some pit owners to take advantage of the extra switching charge which others would have to consider if their pits did not happen to be on the railroad making the main haul. This difference of 20 cents a ton would hinder competition, the department contends.

The minimum rate on gravel is 30 cents a ton with the switching charge absorbed by the railroad making the main haul. The addition of the extra twenty cents for switching charges would increase the cost of gravel to the state approximately one-third, Cochran contends.

STATE'S DEPUTY GAME WARDENS GO TO 'SCHOOL'

Lincoln, May 16.—Deputy state game wardens of Nebraska went back "to school" Thursday for a few hours.

Assembled in the office of Frank O'Connell, chief warden, 14 deputies were given the former's interpretation of the new game laws which were incorporated in legislation which revamped the administrative details.

Incidentally, the 14 wardens were measured for their new uniforms which they will wear at all times while on duty, another new provision of the law.

The following, all holdovers from the old regime, were sworn in under the new game and forestation commission, their terms of office to be controlled solely by their conduct: C. E. Hasbinger, Schuyler; C. A. Gray, Norfolk; Wallace Walter, Atkinson; B. H. Lashmuth, Ord; C. A. Fackler, Creighton; S. E. Ling, Harvard; E. Sinner, Culbertson; L. H. J. Cunningham, Bridgeport; L. H. Beckwith, Gordon; Frank Defry, Omaha; Dewey Grace, Valentine; William Lytle, York; C. C. Herling, Falls City; C. C. Rankin, Kearney.

RULES PENSION IS TAX EXEMPT

Lincoln, May 16.—Questions continue to pour in on the office of Attorney General Sorensen in connection with the intangible tax law administration.

Thursday he ruled that judgments under the employers' liability act is not taxable, and that pension income is also exempt until it reaches the pensioner.

In a communication to Tax Commissioner Scott, Mr. Sorensen also ruled that alimony, in monthly allowances, is not assessable as a judgment.

MICHIGAN GOVERNOR VETOES DEATH BILL

Lansing, Mich., May 16.—Gov. Fred W. Green Thursday vetoed the death penalty bill within 60 seconds after it was placed on his desk. The bill required the death penalty be inflicted on every person convicted of first degree murder, regardless of sex, age or circumstances.

Norris Hits at Lenroot; Senate Vote Delayed

Nebraskan Recalls Appearance of Appointee as Attorney for Power Firm

Washington, D. C., May 16.—The senate failed to reach a decision today on the nomination of Irvine Lenroot, former Wisconsin senator, to be a member of the court of customs appeals, and will resume consideration of it tomorrow.

Senator Norris (rep., Neb.) opposing confirmation, led the three-hour senate discussion. He recalled the appearance of the former senator as attorney for power interests before the senate interstate commerce committee in opposition to a resolution of Senator Walsh (dem., Mont.) for an investigation of power companies.

Recalls Oil Case.
The Nebraska senator also complained of the attitude shown by Lenroot as chairman of the senate lands committee at the time the committee began its inquiry into the leasing of Teapot Dome to Harry Sinclair.

He recalled that Lenroot, as chairman of the committee, had called on Albert B. Fall, former secretary of interior, before the latter testified before the committee, and that Lenroot told the senate judiciary committee that he called on Mr. Fall merely to arrange for his appearance before the lands committee.

Refuse Open Hearings.
After Senator Norris had discussed the nominations for some time, a motion was made to open the senate doors for public consideration of the nomination. The presiding officer ruled this required a two-thirds vote, but a majority was not mustered for it. It lost, 28 to 34.

A motion then was made to make public the roll call by which the senate refused to go into open session. That motion is pending for a vote after the senate convenes tomorrow.

Leaders are hopeful of getting a final vote on the nominations tomorrow, and friends are confident of confirmation of the former senator.—World-Herald.

NEW TYPE OF LAKE PIRATE

Windsor, Ontario.—A new type of pirate has appeared on the great lakes, using high powered speed boats along the shores of Lake St. Clair and causing losses of hundreds of dollars daily to fishermen. Fishermen have threatened to arm themselves to protect their nets. The provincial police say they are not equipped to cope with the marauders.

FAIRBURY PASTOR TO TOUR PALESTINE

Fairbury, May 16.—The Rev. E. M. Kendall, pastor of the Methodist church here, left Wednesday for New York preparatory to sailing for Palestine and other points of Biblical interest where he will spend the next three months. The Rev. W. D. Hamilton will conduct services during the Rev. Kendall's absence.
