Between Havelock and Waverly, $1.62 per square yard.

East of Columbus, $1.60 per square yard.

Will Hold Back on Sand-Gravel Loading Order

Rail Commission Announces Effective Date Beyond Current Business Season.

Members of the Nebraska State Railway commission, in conference at the close of the hearing upon the application of the carriers to cancel the absorption privileges on switched movements of sand, gravel and crushed rock, moving to connecting lines, agreed that any conclusions which may be reached, and any order entered in the matter, will not affect the seasonal movement of sand and gravel during the current year.

The commission has in mind the fact that there will be an unusual movement of sand and gravel in connection with the road building program of the state highway department during the present year. It was recognized that such order as might be entered in the matter might affect bidding upon road gravel contracts.

Accordingly, the carriers, that all miners and operators of sand and gravel pits as to the effect on costs of doing business and on prices of sand and gravel, as well as upon the field of competition, should the application be granted. The railroads desire to abandon the rule that requires the company with the line haul to absorb the switching charge it must pay the originating road located on the pit.

It was argued on their behalf that the absorption charge is actually repaid in the freight rate, and therefore, they making the two line rate from the pit to market would not appreciably raise the cost of transportation. The other side said it meant an addition of a cent a hundred in the principal marketing zone.

Years of service in MODEL T FORDS

THE Model T was so strongly and sturdily built that it is still rendering reliable, economical service to motorists in every section of the country. Millions of these cars can be put in shape for two, three and five more years of use at very small cost.

So that you may have this work done economically and satisfactorily, the Ford Motor Company is still devoting a considerable section of its plants to the manufacture of Model T parts. It will continue to do so as long as they are needed by Model T owners. The following list gives the approximate labor charges for reconditioning the Model T Ford:—

Engine
Tune motor (including replacement of commutator case, brush and vibrator points if necessary)	$1.00
Grind valves and clean carbon	$3.75 to 4.00

'27 Grain Law is Argued in State Court

Act Permits Completion of Transactions Without Meeting Exchange Weigh Rules

Lincoln, May 23.—The constitutional challenge to the grain marketing law passed by the 1927 legislature was argued in the supreme court Thursday by Attorney General Sorenson and lawyers representing the Omaha Grain exchange.

The litigation is a continuance of the injunction suit filed in Lancaster district court by the grain exchange to prevent the attorney general from enforcing the law. The lower court sustained the state's demurrer and the grain exchange appealed to the supreme court.

Exchange Fights Law. The act contemplates permitting the buyers and sellers of grain completing their transactions, if they so desired, without complying with weighing rules of the exchange.

Under exchange rules, all grain passing through it must be weighed, for which a service charge of 1/2-cent a bushel is made. The shipment is immediately diverted.

The principal argument challenging the constitutionality of the law involves a discrepancy between the title of the act and its contents, according to Fred A. Wright and Kenneth L. Waldon, counsel for the exchange.

Aids Local Buyers. They pointed out that the exchange is maintained only for the purpose facilitating grain marketing and that such charges as are made for services are to pay the cost of maintenance only.

Because of the strict compliance with inspection and weighing rules, the Omaha terms on grain shipments are recognized and accepted throughout the country. Speaking of the huge volume of business conducted through the exchange, Walton declared that last year it totaled more than $77,000,000.

The amount of grain immediately diverted for shipment, he asserted, is less than 10 per cent of the total passing through the exchange. Ninety per cent of the grain is sold to markets in other states and for foreign export.

Advocates of the law, at the time it was passed, asserted that it would benefit local buyers who wish to purchase from certain producers who have a certain quality product to offer. They also contended that instances occurred when in the weighing process the grain became mixed and its quality lowered.

Such buyers expressed themselves as willing to accept shippers' weights

In order to get quality grain and by being forced to comply with the change's weighing rules were forced to pay unnecessary weighing charge.—Omaha Bee-News.
