Death Calls Pioneer Resident Sunday

Mrs. Thomas A. Sullivan Called to Rest at the Ripe Age of 89 Years—A Loved Lady

Mrs. Sullivan one of our very earliest settlers in Cass county, passed away at 8:40 in her residence 803 Pearl street, Plattsmouth, Nebraska, Sunday morning, June 30th 1929.

Mrs. Sullivan was born December 29th, 1839, daughter of Jonathan and Elizabeth Burger Murray, being of Scotch, Irish, English and German parentage, who were stary pioneers of Tennessee, afterwards came to the blue grass region of Kentucky, moving later to Monticane county, Missouri in 1833 where Mrs. Sullivan was born. In her early childhood they moved to Waubesa, Iowa and with her parents came to Rock Bluff, Nebraska, which was the main trading post in the year of 1854.

The trading at that time was carried on chiefly with the Otoe Indians who were settled here. Her children recall her telling about this tribe, stating they were a very peaceful people, but would frighten the children by looking in the windows instead of coming to the door in making their visits. Mrs. Sullivan has lived the remainder of her life in this community.

Mrs. Sullivan's mother was a Miss Elizabeth Burger whose ancestors came to Pennsylvania in the 15th century, her grandfather lived to the age of 104 and entered the American Revolution at the age of 13 years and remained until the close. Mrs. Sullivan being a daughter of the American Revolution, repeated many statements she heard her grandfather repeat, as to the hardships at that time—the principal one was the dreadful hunger of the soldiers—their mother in carding, spinning, how to weave and etc. They made their town linens and singhams, in fact all domestic apparel.

Mrs. Sullivan survived the pioneer days and was a woman of remarkable vitality, she was a lover of the soil which kept her close to her great Creator all of her life. She was also in her early days a good horsewoman loving to ride and drive spirited horses and drove them as late as her seventies. The death of her husband in 1905, has lived in Plattsmouth where she has had her garden and flowers which she so thoroughly enjoyed until the end.

Miss Mary J. Murray was married to Thomas A. Sullivan, who was a merchant of Ottawa, Canada, previous to the outbreak of California and crossed the plains at that time in covered wagons, both Mr. Ambrose and James Patterson of this city being in the party. At his return stopped at Rock Bluffs, where he met and married Mary J. Murray January 26, 1862.

Mrs. Sullivan was the mother of seven children of which three survive, as follows: Mrs. John Spangler, Morville, Iowa; Mrs. M. E. Phillipson, Chicago and Arthur N. Sullivan of this community.

Mrs. Sullivan was the oldest daughter in a family of thirteen children which there are but two sisters survive, Mrs. A. B. Taylor, Plattsmouth, and Mrs. Z. W. Shrader of Nehawka.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Saturday was the birthday anniversary of one of the highly esteemed residents of this community, Mrs. Christina Rummel, who observed her eighty fourth anniversary here at the home of her son, William Rummel and family, with whom she has made her home for a number of years. Mrs. Rummel is one of the old time residents of Cass county, coming here in November 1865, with her husband, the late Peter Rummel, and they pre-empted a homestead near this city and have resided here in this community over a period of sixty-four years. Mrs. Rummel is a daughter of a son and Mary Valery and was born in Pike county, Ohio, on June 29, 1845, and was married there on March 22, 1864, to Peter Rummel, the young pioneers migrating in the fall of the following year to Cass county, Nebraska. The husband passed away in March, 1885, and left the rearing of the family and the conduct of the farm to the wife and sons, then young lads in their teens. Of the family there were four sons, one of whom, George F., has passed on and the remaining sons, Jacob and Edward, City, William and Edward Rummel, residing in and near this city.

In honor of the occasion of the birthday of this splendid lady, affectionately known over this part of Cass county as Grandma Rummel, she received a very handsome birthday cake and the aged guest of honor had the pleasure of having a number of old friends in for the day and evening. Mrs. Rummel is a sister of C. F. Valery, one of the well known residents of the city.

Your ad in the Journal will be read, and they sure do get results.

VISITS WITH OLD CITIZEN

Sunday James K. Pollock of this city motored to Brownville and Peru where he spent the day in that very attractive section of Nebraska, and on his stay at Peru he had the pleasure of meeting Col. Thomas J. Majors, one of the oldest pioneer residents of the eastern part of the state and a member of the state normal school board. Mr. Majors was an old friend of the older families in this locality and the Pollock family were among these and it is needless to say that the opportunity of the visit was much appreciated by Mr. Pollock. Col. Majors has just passed his eighty-second birthday and is very alert and active and able to take care of his daily business and retain the great interest in the school affairs of the state. Col. Majors wished Mr. Pollock to extend his well wishes to the Plattsmouth friends.

Young Man is Killed at Louisville Saturday

Walter J. Armbrust, Suffocated When Falling Into Bin of Crushed Rock Saturday.

Late Saturday afternoon Walter J. Armbrust, 22, Lincoln, Kansas, an employe of the Ash Grove Cement Co., at their plant at Louisville, was killed when he slipped and fell into a large bin of crushed rock and was suffocated beneath the finer rock that was swept in on top of him.

The young man, who was employed as a laborer at the cement plant was engaged in pushing down crushed rock into a chute and in some manner unknown had apparently slipped and fallen into the stream of crushed rock and being unable to extricate himself had been suffocated by the smaller stream of rock and dust that was poured into the chute leading to the storage tanks in the plant.

The fact of the death of the young man was not ascertained for some little time as none of the other workmen at the plant noticed that he was missing. As soon as the fact of the accident was learned the fellow workmen rescued the body from the mass of rock but not until death had come to him.

The young man came only recently to Louisville and had not been working at the plant for any great length of time.

The body of Armbrust will be taken to Bloomfield, Nebraska, where members of his family are residing and where the funeral services will be held on Wednesday afternoon.

WRECKED NEAR MURRAY

Yesterday afternoon while Renner Spidell, Louis and John Wondra were motoring to Murray to enjoy the water of the swimming pool, they were victims of an auto accident that very badly damaged the car of Spidell and also cut and bruised up the victims of the accident to a greater or less degree. The young men were just turning west near the McCarty & White oil station on the K. T. highway onto the Red Ball highway to go west to the bathing beach, when the attention of Mr. Spidell was detracted from the steering wheel and in an instant the car had crashed into a fence and wrecked itself. The car was turned over and the top being down all three of the occupants of the roadster were thrown out onto the graveled road. As the result of the accident John Wondra had a bad cut caused by the rough gravel, inflicted on the left knee and small cuts on the hand while Louie Wondra received a bad bruise of the forehead and Spidell was also suffering from slight lacerations caused by the gravel on the face and hands. The car was badly wrecked but was finally moved from the scene of the accident to a garage for repairs.

Athletics Win Season Opener Here Sunday

By Score of 6 to 1 the Locals Tramp on Omaha Team of Auto Body Builders

From Monday's Daily—The first baseball game of the season in this city was staged yesterday afternoon at the baseball park east of the Burlington station when the Athletics of this city proceeded to do things to the players representing the Omaha Standard Auto Bodies Co., of Omaha, a team that is playing in one of the Council Bluffs leagues and has not as yet met defeat.

The score at the final was 6 to 1 for the Plattsmouth Athletics and while the error column of the locals loomed large there were none of a costly nature and succeeding plays wiped out all danger from the wobblers.

The hitting of Joe Krejci and John Svoboda featured the game as each of these had three safe ones to their credit, including a homer for "Big Joe" and a double for John. For the local team William Harvey Mason was sent to the mound and safely held the visitors to five bingles, three of which in the opener accounted for their tally. With the strenuous work of the day the veteran ball player took a rest in the seventh and was succeeded by Joe McCarthy who held the visitors scoreless altho they were threatening in the seventh and ninth, but baulked spoiling any chance that might have been for the victory of the auto makers.

In the opener Anderson, the visiting hurler, nabbed the grounders of Herold and Louie Svoboda for outs and then John Svoboda and Joe Krejci singled but without result as George Sedlacek was out on a liner to Anderson. For the visitors Mortison opened with a blow to short center and was followed by Madegan, with a hot one over third that Herold tried to stop but it was useless and in this Mortison was nabbed on a grounder in front of Sedlacek, the runner at third. Madegan scored on the hit of Miller to center.

For the Athletics there was nothing stirring until in the third frame when John Svoboda, with two out, hit safely through short and was at first base figuring interest when suddenly Joe Krejci bent against one of the slants of Anderson and with the result that the ball was sent over the center field fence for a one way ride and right away Plattsmouth had two scores and took the lead from which were never displaced during the game.

The sixth wrecked the hopes of the Bluffs leaguers for victory when the Athletics added two more tallies, J. Svoboda opening with a double to center and followed by Joe Krejci who singled and advanced Svoboda to third. Anderson then passed Sedlacek and the bases were filled. Frank Krejci was struck out but Alex Schlacke came through with the needed poke, a fly to right that was gathered in to retire the batter but on the throw in Svoboda was safe at home and on a wild heave Krejci also came over for the second run. White Anderson was trying to retire Rich Herold, Sedlacek scored on a wild pitch and closed the scoring.

The last of the scores was in the eighth inning when Joe Krejci received a wild heave of Anderson on base and was given a free trip to first and then Anderson let the hot one of Sedlacek get away from him. Joe was at second and George at the initial sack. Frank Krejci placed one to short that Schoeberger failed to handle safely and as the result Joe tallied at the same station. The following is the tabulated score:

Plattsmouth Girl Married at Historic Church

Miss Frances Ghrist Married at "The Little Church in the Vale" at Nashua, Iowa.

Sunday morning at 9:30 at the historic "Little Church in the Vale" at Nashua, Iowa, occurred the marriage of one of the charming and popular young ladies of this city, Miss Frances Ghrist to Mr. Glenn O. O. Starkey of Des Moines, Iowa.

This church is one of the most famous in the nation and was immortalized in the beautiful song, "The Church in the Wildwood," written by Rev. Pitts, pastor of the church in 1862 which song has been one of the favorites of the nation since that time. The church is sought by young people from all parts of the nation for their marriage ceremonies and it requires much effort to secure an hour for the ceremonies so many are the requests for the use of the church. One of the beautiful and old customs of the church is that the bride immediately after the ceremony ring the bell of the church in honor of the marriage.

The marriage lines of the Ghrist-Starkey wedding were read by the Rev. J. L. McCorsion, pastor of the church.

The bride was most attractive in a gown of white satin with overdress of pointed lace and carried a bouquet of the Bride roses. The groom wore the conventional dark suit.

The ceremony was witnessed by the relatives of the contracting parties, the family of the bride motoring from this city for the happy event.

The wedding is the culmination of a romance of university days when both of the young people were students at Drake university and their acquaintance there developed into a deeper feeling that has led to the very happy event.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Ghrist of Plattsmouth and has spent her girlhood largely in this city where she was graduated from the local high school in the class of 1928. The bride has been very active in the social circles of the city and in the work of the Methodist church of which she is a member. LEFT PARK IN FINE SHAPE

The Bernard Shows, during the time while the trucking company was hauling their wagons from the Tourist park early Sunday morning, detailed one of their workmen to "police" the grounds, gathering up all refuse, paper, etc. and burning it. As a result, when the last wagon was pulled off the lot, the tracks of the caterpillar tractor presented about the only visible evidence that there had been a week or unusual activity there. The American Legion is arranging to have the ground dragged which will not only smooth up the tracks left by the heavy tractor, but get the lot in better shape than it has been any time this summer.

INJURED IN WRECK

In the many auto mixups that marked the past Sunday, Emmett Rice, wife and little son had a very narrow escape from fatal injuries when the Dodge touring car in which they were driving was overturned on the road leading to the Gouchenour island southeast of this city.

The Rice family had started to drive to the island to enjoy a short outing and had just commenced the descent of a very steep hill road that leads to the bottom land and the island and when in a very narrow place in the road met the car driven by Walter Gouchenour coming up the hill and Mr. Rice turned out to permit the two cars to pass and had evidently driven to the extreme edge of the narrow road and in an instant the car was overturned and the occupants caught under the wrecked car. Mr. Rice had two ribs fractured and was very badly bruised while Mrs. Rice had the nail on one toe torn off in the accident. The little son of the couple escaped without injury.
