World War Chaplain Gives Wilson Answer

Denounces Church Leader's Criticism of Men Who Fought in France; Says Charges Untrue.

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 15.—Rev. Gustav Stearns of Milwaukee, senior chaplain of the Thirty-second division during the world war, who was cited for gallantry by General Pershing and known in the northwest as the "soldiers' pastor," tonight sent the following letter to Dr. Clarence True Wilson of Washington, D. C., in answer to Dr. Wilson's speech at Lincoln yesterday:

"My Dear Mr. Wilson: A dispatch from Lincoln, Neb., quotes you as making the following accusations with reference to the American soldiers who returned to the United States from France: 'Our boys came back with European ideals of Sunday, as against the American Sabbath, and with lewd conceptions of social life never before advocated on American soil.'

Calls Charges "Unfortunate." "As one who has much more experience with 'our boys' both before, during and after the war, than you have had, I consider it my duty in all kindness and modesty to correct your statement and say that it is most unfortunate and most unjust.

"We cannot aid the cause of peace and good will by attack the character and reputation of the boys who were for a time compelled to wear the uniform of soldiers, especially when we make statements which are absolutely untrue.

"Unfair and unjust statements, like the one which you are quoted as having made, have driven many of our war veterans away from our churches and I do not believe that Jesus Christ wanted us to drive young men, soldiers or any other young men, away from our churches.

Appeals to "Fair Minded." "Fifty Sundays a year I preach to my congregation here in Milwaukee, and two Sundays each year preach to soldiers. I have done this for 14 years except during the world war, when I preached to soldiers every Sunday for 22 months, 15 months of which was overseas. I have never preached to more God-fearing audiences in my life, or men with a greater faith in Christ, than were the men who served overseas, whose character and reputation you have seen fit to attack.

"I shall let the fair-minded American church people decide for themselves which of us is in a position to say with reference to soldiers. We speak the things we do know and testify to the things we have seen."—World-Herald.

VOLCANO IS IN ERUPTION

Fort-De-France, Martinique — A rain of volcanic ash from Mont Pelee fell Tuesday afternoon on the town of Saint Pierre and Morne Rouge. This manifestation of activity caused increased evacuation by the population of Saint Pierre, Morne Rouge and Precher but the countryside continued calm.

No such disastrous eruption was expected as that of 1902 when 40,000 persons were estimated to have perished. The present disturbance began with a slight eruption of smoke and gas Monday evening and Tuesday morning a crater 150 feet wide was reported to have opened on the Saint Pierre side of the volcano. The governor proceeded at once to Saint Pierre to take charge of relief matters should they prove necessary.

Stuart Egenberger, who is this year starting his year in the study of medicine by attending the University of Nebraska medical college at Omaha, was here for a short time today visiting with his relatives and friends.

Sky Riders to Tour Nebraska Again in 1930

Over 62,000 at Airports for First Argosy; Mileage Is Set at 25,000 Miles.

Plans for another all-Nebraska air tour in 1930 are already being considered by W. A. Ellis and Ivan L. Gaddis, Omaha chamber of commerce officials.

Meanwhile, the success of the first tour, completed Saturday, is being told in figures. Approximate figures of the attendance at the airports where the air argosy dropped down, make a total of 62,000.

This includes 15 cities. Only a few ships visited Auburn on the first day of the tour, but they reported a great attendance of enthusiastic flying followers.

Hastings Crowd Largest. The greatest crowd was at Hastings the last stop. At this point the Hastings officials estimated 8,000 persons thronged the field.

The second greatest crowd was at Neosho, where 7,000 greeted the tour. At North Platte the crowd was estimated at 6,000, while at Grand Island and McCook 5,000 appeared.

Lincoln, Fremont and Kearney sent 4,000 out to the airports, while York, Falls City, Auburn, and Columbus drew 3,000 each.

Broken Bow, the smallest town the tour visited, drew a crowd of approximately 2,500. This attendance from a town of 3,200 population.

During the afternoon between 500 and 600 Broken Bowites clambered aboard the various passenger planes and viewed their city from the air. 2,500 at Holdrege.

Holdrege turned out to the extent of 2,500 persons, while Beatrice, a last-minute stop, drew 1,000. Passenger flying figures give an impressive idea of Nebraska's "air-mindedness."

Broken Bow headed the list. Here are the figures at other towns: North Platte, 300; McCook, 400; Norfolk, 350; York, 200; Grand Island, 200; Kearney, 200; Columbus, 250; Lincoln, 100; Fremont, 100; Beatrice, 50; Falls City, 300; Holdrege, 150; and Hastings, 400. The total is 3,650 passengers, an approximate figure.

During the flight the combined mileage of the ships was approximately 25,000 miles, or the distance around the earth.

Only 11 accidents, one serious, was reported. The majority were broken landing gears, wings, motor trouble and forced landings.

Officials of the tour declare it to have been an unqualified success. Its purpose was to give impetus to the air movement in Nebraska, and they point to the figures to prove its effectiveness.

Your new car will be worth more a year from now if it's an EIGHT!

Every month it becomes more obvious —motorists want the sweep of power, the smoothness, the thrilling acceleration — and the distinction — of the Eight. Admittedly America's finest cars are Eights.

In eight key states new car registrations for the first six months of this year showed a 90 per cent increase in Eights above $1000 — while Sixes above $1000 decreased 16 per cent.

Studebaker offers three great lines of Eights that hold more American stock car records for speed and stamina than all other makes combined, including the greatest record in transportation — 30,000 miles in 26,326 consecutive minutes.

Eights of brilliant performance — economical as the thriftiest Sixes. So supremely ahead of the times that public response already has made Studebaker the largest maker of Eights in the world.

No extra gear shifting can give a six-cylinder car the silken smoothness and flexibility of an Eight.

Why not get an Eight — a smart new Studebaker Eight? Enjoy it today and have a car that will be worth more a year from now — because Eights will then be at a premium in a used car market glutted with Sixes.

Studebaker's new low One-Profit prices have swept aside all barriers to Eight ownership. See the cars. Make comparisons. Convince yourself.

Food Preservation is a Matter of Investigation

September has been designated National Food Preservation month by prominent organizations interested in promoting health through the medium of refrigeration.

This movement is sponsored by the Bureau of Home Economics of the United States Department of Agriculture, the National Federation of Women's Clubs, the National Dairy Council, the American Institute of Refrigeration, the National Electric Light Association and numerous others.

Modern scientific investigation has definitely established the fact that in the average American home, there lies an opportunity for wide improvement in the health of the nation.

Physicians, home economists, domestic science experts, dieticians and sanitarians agree that proper diet is one of the principal aids to physical well being. For years, these experts have been preparing the gospel of the relationship of the food that we eat to the degree of health that we enjoy.

All of these discussions have assumed that proper diet includes food in good condition. Recently, a new note has crept into these discussions. It is in regard to the necessity for making certain that these food stuffs—the milk—the ingredients of the salads that are now part to every well balanced diet—the meat, fruit, eggs and butter we eat—have not deteriorated between the time they were delivered to the home and the time they are consumed.

Doctor Frederick Damrau, a distinguished physician and research worker, about two years ago, conducted an extensive investigation with the aid of engineers of the Popular Science Institute of Standards, into the domestic care of food stuffs. The results of this investigation were published in a remarkable series of articles in Popular Science Monthly by Doctor Damrau.

HOOPER HAS CONFERENCES

Madison, Va.—Cool autumn weather was nature's contribution Sunday as President Hoover and a party of guests enjoyed what may be the chief executive's final visit until next spring to his fishing retreat on the headwaters of the Rapidan river. After a quiet night in the sharp coolness of the mountains, the guests and their hosts spent the day in a variety of diversions—with hiking, horseback riding and horseshoe pitching occupying a large part of the time.

The chief executive, however, has not given relaxation full sway on the trip, and the party was not far from its way Saturday when he began a series of conferences that continued over into Sunday. Mrs. Hoover left the presidential car soon after Washington was left behind, and Chairman McNary of the senate agriculture committee, and Col. William J. Donovan, former attorney general joined Mr. Hoover.

Senator McNary's committee has summoned members of the farm board for hearings Friday to consider their confirmation and rumblings of opposition to several particularly Chairman Legee, have been heard in the senate. It has been expected that this situation would be discussed by the president with Mr. McNary during the week end.

UNPROTECTED FORESTS BIGGEST FIRE HAZARD

Washington, Sept. 15.—Complete reports of the federal forest service for 1928 show that 156,822 of the 177,362 forest fires last year occurred on unprotected areas. The damage on 389,498,960 acres of protected land was but $8,583,620, compared to a damage of $74,350,600 on 178,855,050 unprotected acres. Fire burned over but 4,428,500 acres of the protected areas, whereas it burned a total of 39,502,810 acres of unprotected forest.
