

Wonderful, Says Retired Farmer

"I often think about the money and suffering I would have saved if I had known about the Sargon treatment when my health first began to fail.

"I have certainly had my share of suffering from rheumatism. The pain was so bad at times it looked like I couldn't stand it. About a year ago, my stomach got all out of order, too, and bad spells used to keep me from my work for days at a time. I was so weak and ran down that the least little exertion would completely exhaust me. I was also badly constipated.

"Before I had finished the first bottle of Sargon I felt like a different man. I kept right on and got better every day. Now I have a fine appetite, eat anything I want and never have the slightest bit of stomach trouble. Even the rheumatic pain is gone entirely.

"I feel better and stronger than I have in years and just can't say too much for this wonderful treatment."

Nehawka

R. D. Taylor was looking after some business matters in Murray for a few hours on last Monday.

Miss Marjorie Shoppe of Plattsmouth was a visitor with her friend Miss Gladys Wolfe for a short time during last week.

Miss Edna Fry of Indianola, Iowa, was a visitor in Nehawka for a short time last Tuesday and was enjoying the visit very much.

Ernest Kropp and wife were enjoying a visit for the week end last week from Mr. and Mrs. Guy Case, who are aunt and uncle of Mr. Kropp.

R. H. Chrisweisser was looking after some business in Union on last Monday, driving over to look after some business matters for a short time.

Mrs. Albert Wolfe and daughter, Miss Gladys and Miss Margorie Shoppe were visiting with friends and also enjoying a show in Omaha last Monday.

John Opp and the family were visiting with friends and relatives in South Omaha for the afternoon last Sunday, they driving over to visit with a sister.

W. O. Troop and wife were in Plattsmouth last Saturday where they were visiting with friends and also looking after some business matters for a short time.

Earnest Ahrens and Dan Anderson were over near Cedar Creek on last Tuesday where they were in attendance at the sale which was being held by Steppet and Meisinger.

Wm. Schumaker was a visitor in Omaha for the day on last Tuesday, taking a load of stocks to the yards in South Omaha and bringing home with him a load of goods.

Albert Wolfe was a visitor in Murray for a time on last Tuesday, going to work at the T. J. Brendel barber shop as Mr. Brendel was called away for a short time on business.

J. E. Wood, the painter, was painting the building of Henry Wesol during this week and is making the same look fine. Ed knows the art and is not afraid to do his best to make the job the very best that can be.

John Mast of Emerson, where he has been making his home there for some time past, was a visitor at the home of his mother and sister, Mrs. Edward Murray, also visiting for a time with relatives near Pacific Junction.

W. O. Troop and son, Robert A. Troop were over in Omaha on last Tuesday where they were looking over the market with a view of making some purchases of feeders for their yards which are ready for a lot of good cattle to feed.

A. G. Cisney and family who have been visiting in the northern portion of Nebraska for some time, where they were guests of relatives and friends returned home last week after having enjoyed an excellent time while they were away.

Frank P. Sheldon was a visitor in Plattsmouth on last Saturday, where he met with the other two of the appraising board, C. R. Troop and O. A. Davis, who were to appraise the damage to be done by constructing a roadway through his farm.

Mrs. Robert A. Troop and daughter, who have been visiting in the west portion of the state for the past several weeks, arrived home on last Sunday morning after having enjoyed a very fine visit in the west with her parents, J. J. Lohnes and wife.

Albert Lohse who some thirty or more years ago was a resident of the vicinity of Nehawka, and worked on farms here for many of the farmers, but who has been in California for some years, arrived in Nehawka early this week and was visiting with many of his old time friends.

C. M. Chrisweisser and wife, accompanied by their son Carl, were in Omaha for the day on last Saturday where they had their son for examination, to ascertain the extent of the injuries he had received when he was in a car wreck last summer near Murray. They stopped at Plattsmouth to look after some business matters and also to visit with friends for a while on their return.

Have Fine Visit.
Stewart Rough received a message from Herbert S. Bales and son, Sheriff of Pittsfield, Vermont, who were in the west, the message being sent from Denver and asking that Mr. and Mrs. Rough meet them at the train at Linsome on last Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Rough accordingly did, the visitors coming from Nehawka, with Mr. and Mrs. Rough. The elder Bales is a cousin of Mrs. Rough and the younger a nephew. They enjoyed a wonderful visit while here and visited the entire relationship and had a very fine time. They departed for the east being on their way home, on Saturday night and stopped at Burlington, Iowa where they also have relatives. Messers and Mesdames H. J. Dane and L. R. Benson of Iowa City, drove to Burlington on last Sunday where they spent the day with the visitors who departed Sunday evening for their home in the east. They enjoyed a dinner while here, at Merritt Pollards.

Trade in Your Home Town.
A certain farmer not far from Nehawka, wanted some lumber for a wagon box, and thinking perhaps the lumberman of that town would save some money negotiated a purchase, and came home with the materials which cost $200 per thousand and when he arrived home went to the local man, which was Mr. A. P. Sturm, and found that the lumber which was but a few feet, cost to dollars less at the local yards, than here he had purchased it, and a much lesser grade of lumber at that. This particular farmer says in the future he is going to patronize the local business men, and believes that he will always get the better treatment.

Many Coming Musicians.
Under the sponsoring of the Woman's club of Nehawka, many of the young lads are inspired to become musicians and with the organizing of the Junior Orchestra of the Nehawka schools, there have many become interested in this fine art, music. There are over forty who are taking over the study of music in some of its lines and much good is being felt through the good work of the ladies.

Entertained Nehawka Friends
Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Anderson of Omaha entertained for the day on Sunday afternoon and evening, and had for their guests a number of friends and acquaintances from Plattsmouth, including as well as a number of couples of Omaha. A most delightful time was had and the day was surely enjoyed by all who were present. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson are excellent entertainers and were well up to their very best when they had as their guests the Nehawka and Omaha friends. There were there for the occasion J. H. Steffens and wife, Eugene Nutzman and wife, Messers and Mesdames, Marion Tucker, Walter J. Wunderlich, Geo. C. Sheldon, Hall Pollard, Verner Lungberg of Nehawka, and Messers and Mesdames Roy Kratz and John O. Yeiser of Omaha.

Played Golf Sunday Morning.
Vilas P. Sheldon, George Pollard of Avoca, C. W. Farnestock also of Avoca, and Walter J. Wunderlich of Nehawka were all over to Plattsmouth where they played in the early morning on the Plattsmouth Country Club golf course, and where they sure enjoyed the game. This was the beginning of a very busy day for Walter Wunderlich, for after he had returned he went to Epworth League park at Lincoln, where he attended the Sturm-Papp-Kichel family reunion, and returned in time to depart for Omaha, where he was to be present at the dinner which Alfred Anderson and wife were serving. Walter says one function on one day is enough hereafter.

IOWA CITY TIGHTENS REINS
Omaha—A report was circulated in Omaha sporting circles late Monday that three Council Bluffs horse race bookies refused to accept a flood of Omaha money for placement on a "hot horse."

Whether they turned down the bets out of sympathy with Omaha race pool operators or because Sheriff Lainsom of Council Bluffs had threatened to close up "as fast as they peel" any gambling parlor near to the Iowa side of the river, could not be learned.

Lainsom said he didn't know any betting pools had been operated in Council Bluffs.

Mayor Dahman of Omaha issued a general order to police Monday to enforce Attorney General Sorenson's mandate on race track gambling and weather pool tickets. The mayor instructed the police department to close the places named by Sorenson and keep them closed.

DISSENSION WITHIN CHURCH
Detroit—"Aimee's expense account" which included items for beauty treatments during Mrs. McPherson's evangelistic campaign here last July was "the last straw" for the congregation of Detroit Four Square Gospel Light House, Dr. Dawson McCullough, acting pastor of the Detroit temple, said Monday night.

"I am afraid some of the members did not like the size of Mrs. McPherson's expense account," Dr. McCullough said. "The items for the beauty treatment were not popular."

The congregation voted Sunday to sever connection with Mrs. McPherson's Angelus temple and to repudiate a note for $2,756 for part payment for the rental of the auditorium used in the evangelist's revival. The note was signed by Rev. George Pink, a former pastor of the church, who, church members say, failed to notify the congregation of its existence.

Sheriff Killed in Auto Race at Franklin, Nebr.

Neck Broken in Crash at County Fair; Accident Is Witnessed by 5,000.

Franklin, Sept. 23.—Clifford Garrett, sheriff of Franklin county for many years, was killed here Sunday in the 100-mile stock car race.

Five thousand spectators looked on and other contestants, thinking him only slightly hurt, continued the race.

The heroism of A. A. Black of Hastings, following Garrett, failed to save his life. Black ran his Ford into the bank to keep from hitting Garrett's body.

Thrown From Car.
Though thrown several yards from his machine, Black scrambled up and risked his life twice to get the body out of the way of other cars.

But a few minutes later, while the ambulance rushed to the fair grounds exit, Garrett expired.

His fearlessness in wars on bootleggers and other law violators had made him known throughout south-western Nebraska.

Neck Broken.
His brother, Tom, was killed under almost identical circumstances in South Dakota four years ago.

Garrett was on the second lap of the 100-mile race and was supposed to have a good chance to win. He was driving a stripped Studebaker that had already taken one contest and participated in another.

He glanced behind to watch Black and as he did so the big car crashed into the bank. He was crushed to the ground as it toppled. His neck was broken and his lung punctured by fractured ribs.

Preparing for a similar race with Garrett several months ago, Police Chief John Bramble of Hastings was involved in a highway accident that hurt four persons and killed one.—Omaha Bee-News.

Poison Fruit Bill Before the Convention
Experts at Food and Dairy Meet Urge Better Laws to Guard the Public's Health.

Lincoln, Sept. 23.—More than 100 Nebraska officials interested in guarding the health of citizens were gathered in Lincoln Monday for the National Association of Dairy, Food and Drug convention.

Kenneth F. Fee of Albany, N. Y., president, presided. The legislative committee compiled data relative to new laws which have been passed in various states.

From this it is hoped to obtain ideas for improving the dairy, food and drug laws.

Hit Poison Fruit.
Methods of preventing the sale of fruit with poisonous spray residue occupied the attention of one committee.

Conclusions of these committees will be given to the convention Wednesday.

This afternoon was to be given over to a meeting of the north-central district, which is being held in conjunction with the national conference.

O. V. McCracken, chief of the Nebraska pure foods bureau, is president of the district which comprises the states of Nebraska, Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, North and South Dakota, Minnesota and Wisconsin.

To Name Officers.
The election of new officers and the selection of a meeting place for next year was to be taken Wednesday.

H. J. McLaughlin, secretary of the Nebraska department of agriculture, will welcome the visitors Tuesday, and President Kenneth S. Fee will deliver an address.—Omaha Bee-News.

MRS. DORAN CONSIDERED
Indianapolis—Mrs. James M. Doran of Washington, wife of the federal prohibition commissioner, Monday night was regarded the probable choice by the fifty-fifth annual convention of the National Women's Christian Temperance union as director of the new department of non-alcoholic fruit products.

The purpose of the department, which was suggested in the keynote address of Mrs. Ella A. Boole of Brooklyn, N. Y., president, and subsequently authorized by the convention, is to promote the use of non-alcoholic beverages and other legal uses of fruits as a substitute for intoxicants.

Election of national officers will precede noon adjournment Tuesday.

DIVORCE ASKED FROM A FILM DIRECTOR
Los Angeles—Blanche Sweet, screen actress, Monday filed suit for divorce from her husband, Marshall A. "Mickey" Neillan, film director, listing more than twenty charges of cruelty. In addition to charging the film director with neglecting her to associate with other women, Mrs. Neillan's complaint accused him of abusing her while he was intoxicated and of frequently declaring he hated her.

Salary Man Will Profit in Big Tax Slash

Say Reduction Should Be Effective March 15; Huge Surplus in Levies Revealed.

Washington, Sept. 24.—Within a week treasury department experts will begin work on a tax reduction program providing for a slash in rates that will save the public from $200,000,000 to $300,000,000, it was learned from an official source Tuesday.

The program will be worked out along lines suggested by President Hoover, who has declared for a reduction of tax rates on earned incomes, so far as is consistent with government economy and revenues.

The president has made it plain he is anxious to relieve the tax burdens of the small salaried man as much as possible.

Cut Will Be Heavy.
While the details have not yet been worked out, the treasury is prepared to back a "substantial cut" on the basis of figures on the productivity of the 1928 act available to date, officials said.

In the treasury view the cut should be effective March 15.

Income and corporation taxes continued to pour into the treasury Tuesday up to the 22d having reached $516,568,000, a gain of $101,000,000 over the same period last year.

Officials estimated the total September collection would be $540,000,000, $100,000,000 under June.

Until the program is worked out it will not be disclosed what class of taxpayers will be beneficiaries of the reduction. However, officials were agreed first consideration would be given to cuts in the taxes of earned incomes.

Change Assured.
There has been widespread agitation to place this class of taxpayers in a more preferential position and with the amount available for tax cutting, this change in the revenue laws appeared assured.

The 1928 revenue act increased from $20,000 to $30,000 the maximum net income on which income credit is allowed. It was believed that in the proposed 1930 law the maximum would be moved higher and that the latitude of the statute pertaining to earned incomes would be broadened.—Omaha Bee-News.

CHICAGO U. PREXY'S 60 WORD SPEECH IS A HIT

Chicago, Sept. 23.—Looking scarcely older than a freshman himself, Robert Maynard Hutchins, newly elected 30-year-old president of Chicago university, welcomed 750 first-year students Monday with a 60-word speech, containing no do's or don't's. The brevity of it stunned them, and there was a pause before the stained glass windows of Mandel hall rattle with applause.

Curtiss Wants to Keep Job on Commission

Lincoln, Sept. 24.—John W. Curtiss of Geneva, chairman of the Nebraska railway commission started the political ball rolling at the state capitol Tuesday when he announced his candidacy for re-election to that body.

Prior to serving on the commission, Mr. Curtiss was its secretary for eight years, receiving appointment in July 1, to fill vacancy created when Commissioner S. G. Taylor resigned.

At the last election he was picked to complete Mr. Taylor's term.

A republican, Mr. Curtiss was graduated by the Geneva high school and the college of law at the state university. He is the only practicing attorney on the commission.

Explaining his early announcement, Mr. Curtiss declared it would afford those who are interested ample time to check his record.

"It isn't that I am not anticipating any competition," he added.

Mr. Curtiss has been a member of the state co-operative committee in the grain hearings, and he has been active in various controversies involving intra-state livestock tariffs.—Omaha Bee-News.

NEW BARGE SERVICE ON MISSISSIPPI IS SOUGHT

Baton Rouge, La., Sept. 23.—The Mississippi Valley Barge Line Co. will begin operation of a barge service between New Orleans, Cincinnati and intermediate river ports Feb. 1, 1930, if a certificate of public convenience and necessity is granted by the interstate commerce commission. A copy of the application for the certificate was received at the offices of the Louisiana public service commission Monday.

IOWAN GORED BY ENRAGED BULL

Boone, Ia., Sept. 23.—Lewis Morgan of Ogden, is recovering from a severe goring by an infuriated bull Saturday while engaged in driving cattle to Ogden from where he expected to ship them.

Without warning, the animal charged Morgan, knocking him off the horse which he was riding. He was gashed on one of his legs and badly bruised before other men assisting in driving the cattle drove the bull away.

YOUTH KILLS GUEST'S WIFE

Lexington, Sept. 23.—Mrs. Albert Posse, wife of Dr. George Posse, Lexington veterinarian, was shot and wounded fatally Sunday when an army revolver in the hands of Claude Winkler, 22, was accidentally discharged.

Winkler was exonerated by Dr. Posse, who, with his wife, had visited Winkler's apartment. Mrs. Posse also declared the shooting accidental.

Winkler was held by police on a complaint of Rev. Victor Horvis, who said the revolver had been stolen from the National Guard armory.

The bullet entered Mrs. Posse's back, and she ran screaming into the street. She was taken to a hospital and operated upon, giving premature birth to a child. The child died.

Dr. Posse was discussing a hunting trip and Winkler was demonstrating the revolver when it was discharged, the pair said.
