Pioneer Family Holds Reunion Last Sunday

Church Parlors Filled with Descendants of Late Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Lau for Occasion.

A reunion of the children and grandchildren of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Lau, highly respected pioneer citizens of Cass county, was held last Sunday at the church parlors of the Evangelical Lutheran church southwest of Louisville, of which Rev. T. Hartman is pastor. More than 75 were present to enjoy a bountiful dinner served cafeteria style.

The Ladies Aid society of the church is well supplied with dishes and everything necessary for the serving of a great many people and this made it easy and convenient to serve the fine dinner, all being seated at one time. The affair had been talked of as a picnic, but there has been considerable rain recently and the groves were deemed too wet and damp for comfort and by planning to have the reunion in the church, they could depend upon it being a success, no matter what the weather, and so it proved to be.

Grandfather Lau departed this life twelve years ago and his good wife preceded him 28 years ago. They left a large family and their descendants are all highly esteemed and are prominent in the communities where they reside. The reunion was the second one for this family, the first having been held at Omaha last year at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Emil Haas. The ages of those present last Sunday ranged from 69 years to 5 days. Fred Lau is now living on the old home farm.

The day was spent in feasting and visiting and everyone was happy to be present, each one contributing his share to make it a day of great joy and happiness and all will look forward to the next reunion, hoping that all will have good health and be able to attend.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lau, Sr., two daughters, Misses Augusta and Helena and son, Louis, of Louisville; William Lau, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Lau and daughters, Misses Anna, Ella, Selma and Elma, Fred Lau and family, William Lau, Jr., and family, William Diekmann and family, Herman Gakemeler and family, Matt Thimgahn and wife, Louis Lau and wife, all of Murdock; Mr. and Mrs. William Neumann, west of Louisville; William Lau and wife, of Louisville, Charles Lau and family, Manley; William Barbe and wife, Carl Schaezly and family, Fred Siemonet and wife, Mrs. Clarence Haas and son, Emil Haas and family, Chris Barbe and family, all of Omaha; George Kraft and family, of near Louisville; Carl Kupke and family, of Greenwood; William Wiles and family, of Cedar Creek; and from Louisville and vicinity, Mrs. T. Hartman and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Stohman and family, Miss Laura Reihart and Arnold Hell.—Louisville Courier.

New County Agent Visits Here to Boost Poultry Show

Poultry Show Will Attract Large Number of Exhibitors From Cass, Saunders and Sarpy

From Friday's Daily—Yesterday County Agent D. D. Wainscott, was over from his office at Weeping Water to look over the plans that are being made for the Tri-County Poultry show to be held in this city the middle of December, and in which he is very much interested and is assisting in making it one of the best that has been held.

This show will bring a large number of exhibitors of the fine pure bred poultry stars from the counties of Cass, Saunders and Sarpy and as this is the first time that the show has been held in this part of the three counties it should bring a great many new exhibitors from Cass and eastern Sarpy counties as well as the large chicken fanciers of the western parts of the district.

The show will be held at the American Legion building and which makes a very fine place for the showing of the fowls, with ample space and the best of lighting and heat for the big poultry show.

While here Mr. Wainscott also took occasion to view the fine herd of pure bred Guernsey cattle that have just recently been brought to this county by T. H. Pollock and which are now located on his farm east of Murray. This herd of fifty-one Guernsey cows and thoroughbred bulls represent some of the finest stock that has been brought into the county and have created a great deal of interest among the residents of the county and is a fine step forward for the dairy interests of this part of the county. The new herd has also attracted the attention of the dairy stock raisers over the state and Mr. Pollock has received many congratulatory letters on the fact of being able to secure this herd intact from the celebrated H. D. Ewer stock farm at Ashland, Wisconsin.

DETAIN GERMAN DRAMATIST

New York—Ernest Toller, German dramatist and playwright, was detained for examination by immigration authorities when he arrived Thursday from Europe on the liner Reliance. On instruction from Washington he was ordered held aboard the ship Thursday and transferred to Ellis Island Friday to go before a board of special inquiry to determine whether he is to be admitted as a visitor. Immigration officers on the Reliance offered no explanation as to why he was detained. They cautioned him not to talk.

Ten years ago he was a socialist member of the Bavarian parliament, and at that time, he admitted, he had been described in Bavaria as a revolutionist. Since then, however, he has had no political affiliations and has given 1 alibi time to writing.

"In youth all men, if they have any brains, are radical," he said, "and ten years ago I was but a youth."

Mrs. John E. Turner and daughter, Dorothy Jean, were visitors in Omaha today for a few hours attending to some matters of business.

Watch for Danger

PROVIDE a safe place for matches. Keep them away from children. Even in the best of regulated homes, fire may break out without warning. It's wise to have full protection.
