

WEEPING WATER

Miss Jessie Baldwin of the County Farm Bureau office was over to Nehawka on last Tuesday, where she was assisting in the meeting of the project leaders of the Woman's clubs of the county.

Spencer J. Marshall and John Cole were spending the most part of this week in the sand hills, where they were hunting ducks. They drove out and were expecting to remain for a good hunt until Saturday evening.

Murlin Fernbaugh, of Lincoln, and Mr. and Mrs. Elton Clapp and daughter, Katherine, of Lincoln, were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Binger on last Sunday, where all enjoyed the day most pleasantly.

Nesaley Marshall has been putting in his spare moments in the manufacture of a model aeroplane, which he will amuse himself in making the very best which he can, and as he is a good workman, it is expected that the finished product will be a good one.

J. S. Williams and daughter, Miss Vera, are at this time enjoying a visit at Bonesteel, where they resided before coming to Weeping Water, and where Mr. Williams is looking after some business and where the daughter is visiting with friends this week.

Peter H. Miller was a visitor in Plattsmouth for the day on last Sunday, where he was a guest at the home of his son, James H. Miller and family, and also enjoyed the company of Peter Miller, his son, who is also employed with the BREX in Plattsmouth.

A seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Graham was taken with a very acute attack of appendicitis and was hastened to the hospital at Omaha on last Tuesday afternoon, where an operation was performed and the little fellow is reported as resting easier. He was accompanied by the parents and Dr. Krause.

On Friday of last week, Mrs. Art Jones went over to Murdock, where she spent the remainder of the week with her mother, Mrs. Vanderberg, and was joined on Sunday by Mr. Jones, who visited for the day, they both returning home Sunday evening. They found Mrs. Vanderberg in about the same condition and far from being in the best of health.

The Cole Motor company received four new cars from Omaha last Tuesday and during the past week sold six to the following customers: Louis Hall, coupe; Mrs. Clara Gehlers, fordor town sedan; Louis Hennings, town sedan; Silas Munn, a coach; John F. Carper, tudor sedan; Homer Fleeman, standard coupe, and Peter Spangler, three window fordor sedan.

W. Earle Towle and the good wife were over to Elmwood last Monday evening, where they were attending a birthday celebration given in honor of B. I. Clements. There was a large number of the friends of Mr. Clements present with music by the band and a good time enjoyed by all. Many were the congratulations extended to this hustling citizen of Elmwood.

Walter Box, of near Elmwood, accompanied by his cousin, A. J. Lillinggreen, of Spokane, were over from Elmwood and were looking after some business matters for a short time in Weeping Water. Mr. Lillinggreen, son Ralph and daughter Thelma, and accompanied by Mrs. M. E. Holito, all of St. Peters, Washington, where they have made their home for the past twenty-four years, are making a long drive with their car, covering some five or six thousand miles. They went first to Chicago, being now enroute back home and are stopping off at numerous places along the way to call on relatives.

Slipped This Year $295.96

The Cass county fair cost to operate this year $2,643.64, the receipts being less than for former years when concessions were paying better, as this year the weather was such that the percentage propositions did not pay well. There was only one day with a real attendance and that the closing day. This accounts for the slump in receipts. The valuation of the property of the association, including monies on deposit, fixtures and supplies is given at $3,213.74 in a report just issued by the secretary.

Celebrates Ninetieth Birthday

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Tefft, the latter a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amsdel Sheldon, who reside on the O street road, and who have been there since 1882, at which time they built the large house which makes them a home and has for the past 49 years, entertained the parents at an excellent dinner last Friday in honor of the 90th birthday anniversary of Mr. Amsdel Sheldon, who was born in the state of Vermont September 27th, 1839. When he was 27 years of age, Mr. Sheldon came west and located in Otoe county, a few miles south of the present home of this estimable couple. There they farmed and made their home for sixteen years, coming to Cass county and making their home on the farm since 1882. Mr. Sheldon and Miss Celia Ellis were united in marriage at Nebraska City well over fifty years ago. The union was blessed with three children, the eldest being Mrs. Clarence E. Tefft, who entertained the parents at dinner last Friday; Miss Esther Sheldon, who remains with the parents at the farm home, and L. A. Sheldon, their only son and youngest child, who is located at Schenectady, N. Y., where he is in the employ of the General Electric company.

There were present at the reception which was tendered this excellent gentleman and his good wife and who extended congratulations and assisted in making this meeting a most enjoyable affair, the guest of honor, Amsdel Sheldon and wife, the daughter, Miss Esther C. Sheldon, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Tefft, their daughter, Esther and sons Ward and Carl Tefft and wife; F. P. Sheldon and wife, Marion Tucker, Vilas P. Sheldon and wife and their son, Vilas Sheldon, Mr. and Mrs. B. Wolph, George C. Sheldon, wife and daughter, Paul Wolfe and wife, Mrs. I. Sheldon, of Ellenberg Depot, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. Ben Olive and Conant Wolph, of Weeping Water.

Will Attend Grand Lodge

Noble Grand of the Prairie lodge of Weeping Water of the I. O. O. F., accompanied by Elmer Michelson and Alex Patterson were over to Nehawka on Monday evening, where they met with the lodge at that place and where they were assured that six of the members were intending to attend the grand lodge at Beatrice on October 16th, when the Weeping Water lodge is to exemplify the mysteries of the second degree, as the representative of the Seventh district of Nebraska. The other lodges put on work will be one at Lincoln and one at Omaha. It is the intention to have as full a representation from Cass county as possible, and it is expected that there will be fifteen or twenty from the Nehawka lodge and all the lodges in the county will be expected to furnish their quota, and if possible there will be six or eight buses chartered for the carrying of those who are intending to go. Let each lodge get a large delegation and be there for you sure will have a good time. The Weeping Water lodge is keeping up the matter of practicing their parts and will be there ready and well qualified and are expecting to put the work on better than any other lodge.

To Have Ferry on O Street

A party from Omaha is ready to place a ferry boat on the O street crossing of the Missouri river and is ready to do so as soon as there is an assurance that there will be a road from the O street east of Union to the river. They have been assured a good road will be provided by the state of Iowa, and when this is done on this side of the river, there is sure to be a large amount of travel over this short route to the east.

Getting Ready for Ak-Sar-Ben

Vincent and Francis Rehmeier are getting in readiness for the coming Ak-Sar-Ben shows, which will be held in Omaha about the last of October and the first of November. They have some excellent Chester White hogs—boars, gilts and barrows which they will place on exhibition at the show.

Held Pleasant Meeting

The ladies of the Woman's club of Weeping Water were holding a very interesting meeting on last Tuesday afternoon at the Congregational church, which was known as membership day and was a special day for the having of guests and with the excellent program and the fine seats which were served, they were surely right when they called it a tea.

Five Hundred Brothers Meet

About five hundred members of the Danish brotherhood met on last Friday at Blair, when the state convention was held there. A large and very enthusiastic delegation from Weeping Water and sure had a fine time. Anton Jorgensen was there and reported to the writer that all who were there were enjoying the meeting as well as he compliments the city of Blair on the excellent entertainment which the city furnished.

Study Courses for Parents in Homes Planned

To Include Music, Recreation and Similar Subjects as They Apply to Child

Chicago—In response to a growing eagerness of fathers and mothers to study their job professionally, the executive board of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, here, is mapping a program to assist them.

Dr. Ada H. Arlett of the University of Cincinnati, head of the bureau of parent education, will make available to the several thousand local study groups of the congress pamphlets and books which they can use as texts, said Mrs. S. N. M. Marrs, president of the congress.

There is much demand for published material, she added. The congress has urged its local units to establish "parent bookshelves," but there has been difficulty in filling them with the right volumes. Mrs. Marrs pointed out that literature is needed which will meet the need of the uneducated, as well as the cultured father and mother.

Mrs. Marrs said she expected to see a program of study developed which will be useful not only to the organized groups, but to parents who are not able to attend meetings and have the study at home. The subject matter is to cover the widest range. The congress includes in its topics for general study such subjects as music, educational legislation, humane education and recreation as they concern children. Miss Charl O. Williams, field secretary of the National Education Association, is chairman of its committee on school education.

Continued growth in membership was reported, the total now being 1,390,000. Less than a decade ago the congress counted its members at something like 200,000. A striking feature of this growth is that most of it is due to unpaid work of volunteers. The salaried staff is still not more than a dozen persons. The congress has expanded so that it now reaches into many little towns, bringing into a social circle teachers many of whom formerly felt themselves without contacts in their communities, and parents to whom were too timid to enter the portals of the public school.

LARGE FIRE AT STELLA

Stella, Neb.—An explosion of an oil stove in the restaurant of Owen Morris Monday resulted in the destruction by fire of the Morris restaurant, the telephone office and the bakery of Frank Robbins.

Unable to extinguish the blaze with the equipment of the local fire department, aid was obtained from the Falls City and Auburn departments.

The blast occurred while Morris was away from the restaurant. Robb's damage is estimated at $8,000.

The village is without telephone service but two long distance lines have been set up temporarily in another building.

Wheat Pool Pays $15,000 to Farmers

Nebraska, Wyoming Growers to Share in Melon; Plan Endorsed by Hoover's Board

A wheat melon of $15,000 is to be distributed by mail Monday to 3,000 Nebraska and Wyoming farmers. It is in the form of a dividend being paid through the Mid-West Grain Marketing association at Lincoln, and is the first dividend paid in the Nebraska Wheat pool, organized this year, and which has been endorsed by the national federal farm board.

Payment of the 10 cent dividend per bushel covers marketed shipments totaling 1,500,000 bushels since harvest time, and brings the initial payment of 85 cents to a total of 95 cents for every bushel sold through the pool. Otis Smith, association general manager, announced Sunday.

Get 10 Cents Extra More than 3,600 farmer members who have already delivered their extra 10 cents per bushel. The pool is a farmer-owned and farmer-controlled organization, the aim of which is to market wheat in an orderly manner throughout the year when there is a demand, instead of dumping it on the market during harvest time.

3,000 in Nebraska. Approximately 3,000 of the farmers in the wheat pool are Nebraskans. O move is under way to increase the acreage controlled by the pool from the present 40 per cent to 50 per cent. H. S. Arnslein, Lincoln member, said Sunday.—Bee-News.

SINGLE SHIP IN DISTRESS

Jacksonville, Fla.—Only one of the several ships affected by the West Indian hurricane remained in distress Monday night after a day in which one steamer previously unreported arrived safely in port and part of the crew of another was rescued. The ship still believed to be in trouble was the Italian steamer Salina said to be "off Manzanilla reef." It began sending out SOS calls late Saturday night.

Twenty-eight of the thirty-five aboard the Danish tank steamer Scandia, broken in three places as she was aground about forty miles south of Miami Saturday with 5,500,000 gallons of fuel oil for Denmark, were landed at Miami Monday by a coast guard patrol boat. The captain and seven members of the crew remained aboard pending the arrival of a wrecking tug. The patrol boat, Forward took five of the crew from the cutter Saukee, which first had gone to the Scandia's assistance, and later twenty-three others from the broken hull of the steamer.

The Isle of Junebu motor freight carrier, which cleared Miami a week ago for Nassau, arrived safely at the Bahamas capital Monday, having the craft with eight men and a cargo of lumber weathered the high winds without damage.

News came from Nassau today that the British tanker Potomac had founded off Andros Island Thursday. Her entire crew was saved, although the ship was broken in two by the hurricane.
