GREENWOOD

Elmer Mathis was shelling and delivering his corn to the Greenwood elevators on Kednesday afternoon of last week and getting the cribs cleared for the coming crop, which is just about ready for picking.

is promising a good yield.

Hare were the hostesses of the meeting of the F. L. T. club, when they met on last Wednesday afternoon at the I. O. O. F. hall and where all members enjoyed a very pleasant Earnest F. Smith has been very seriously ill for some time past and was not able to leave the home or bed and was receiving the best treatment and nursing. It is hoped he will soon be able to return to his work at the store.

last week, one going to a member Carnes, Paul Carnes.

Carl Hammer was delivering corn last week to the Farmer's Union elevator as was also August Johnson delivering wheat. These gentlemen were getting ready for the harvest of their corn, and cleaning out their cribs and bins for the new crop. Mr. and Mrs. E. L. McDonald, the latter who is making good improvement at this time were over to Lincoln one day last week where Mrs. McDonald had some teeth extracted which have been giving this excellent lady trouble for some time. Dewey Headley and wife and George Trunkenbolz and wife were called to Eagle last Friday and Saturday to attend the funeral of a who was a very close friend of both families while they lived in Eagle. During the past week, P. A. Sanborn has sold to the farmers surrounding Greenwood, four grain elevators for handling the crop this year, this is an indication of the corn which is being grown here this order and its objects and aims. assurance of the excellent crop of

John C. Lomeyer who was in the hospital for the past nearly a month and where he underwent an opera- and O. E. Miller were in attendance tion and has been convalescing since on last Saturday, the week at the is reported as getting along nicely meeting of the Cass County Bankers | December 28, 1922, at Greenwood, and sitting up a good portion of the Association which was held at able to return to his home here soon. | the occasion very much. The visitors John Mefford is suffering from a from Greenwood were high in their very sore hand caused by the in- praise of the very nice way in which which he received while at work, tained them. getting a very large and ugly splinter in the member. He has been compelled to desist from his labors during the intensity of the pain of the The Searle Chapen Lumber Co., erous buildings which he has to supply with building materials and just have unloaded and taken care of. Wayne Landon and wife and their little son, Harold and Mrs. E A. Landon were visiting and looking after some business matters in Lincoln last Wednesday, they driving over to the big city in their car. Henry Greer and James Greer were shelling and delivering corn to day afternoon of last week. M. R. Blood and D. C. Steck, two men who are employed by L. M. Mowery for the picking of his corn have moved to the tenement house on Mr. Mowery's place and commenced the picking of the corn crop of Mr. Mowery, which is a very good one and which looks to bid fair to make more than the average of the yields in this portion of the county.

Pullets and Cockrels.

I have from 200 to 300 leghorn also a large number of Plymouth pullets at one dollar each, also a Rock, both cockrels and pullets which large number of barred rock cock- are being taken all over the county. rels at $1.20, and pullets from 50 cents up according to size. W. H. Leesley Hatchery.

Greenwood, Neb.

Are Seeing the Northwest.

Just as it is, is the way which E. L. McDonald and H. M. Carr wanted to find the hunting near Kearney where they went to see how the pheasants are acting and so they departed late last week for a weeks stay at the home of C. D. Carrigan, who is a half brother of Mr. E. L. McDonald and at which place they made their stopping place during their stay in the west.

Selects Greenwood District Deputy. At the meeting of the Grand Assembly of the Daughters of Rebekah which met at Beatrice during the past week, Mesdames A. W. Hudson and Joseph Kyles were representatives from the Greenwood lodge and who surely enjoyed the gathering

Stock Hauling

I have a station at Greenwood for noon. The time was spent finishing an expansion of his theories of and Herbert Engelkemier.—Louis attend the meeting of the Cass coun staff of employes. Hauling by Truck service. We will up their carpet rags which they will "block" structures embodying rein- ville Courier. give special attention to your needs ness meeting it was decided to serve ished for the past thirty years to the day or night. Very careful handling banquet which will be held the first of Stock and Goods. Call Phone 40, week in November. The hostesses ser-Greenwood, or Murdock, for best of service. Your patronage appreciated.

J. JOHANSON

uty of the Rebekah Assembly (and playmate Tuesday afternoon while there could not have been a better playing a school. An inward hemselection made as she is well quali- orrhage resulted and he was taken fied to conduct the affairs of the to Lincoln to an eye specialist where office, being very familiar with the it was found to be quite serious. It looking after some business matters routine of the work which this of- is to be hoped the sight will be sev- in Omaha on last Wednesday. fice requires.

Knows the Art of Farming. We examined an ear of very fine were busy shipping corn during the past week and which was grown by day at Bethlehem church with Rev. entire of last week which taken as Herman Brunkow, and which was a J. O. Lonquist in charge. The Odd an assurance that the crop of new well filled ear, and one shows good Fellows of Greenwood had charge of corn is about ready to harvest and farming to grow such corn. He has the services at the grave in Bethle-Mr. B. A. McElwain who is mak- mate will yield sixty bushels to the ing his home with Fred Ethrege for acre, and which any year is a good the present was suffering much from | yield. It takes good farming to grow an infection of his feet during the good corn as well as this but with past week but was feeling much bat- the good farming of W. G. Renwanz ter the latter portion of the week.

Misses Nettie Clarke and Edyth Brunkow it is hard to beat the yield.

> Greenwood Transfer Line We do a general business-make trips regularly to Omaha on Monday en by local talent nad several from and Thursday, also to Lincoln Tues- University Place. Quite a number of day and Friday. Pick up loads on out of town visitors were present, these trips. Full loads at any time. FRED HOFFMAN.

Great Grand Daughter. A great granddaughter has arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Teddy Carnes, the Chevrolet deal- Frank Chimotz of Omaha, and which er, disposed of two cars during the makes a great grandfather of our honored citizen, J. J. Mefford, and of the grading crew who are build- who is sure well pleased at the ar- club on Wednesday, October 2. The ing the D. L. D. highway and the rival and the very fine condition of other going to a brother of Mr. the little lady and her mother ( who facture and uses. The project leadis granddaughter of Mr. Mefford.

Many Attend Grand Lodge. Many of the members of the I. O.

O. F. of Greenwood were in attendance at the meeting of the Grand Lodge of the order at Beatrice which has been in session from October tion. 14th to 17th inclusive. Fred Ethrege who is the representative from this lodge and accompanied by W. E. Pailing were there the most of the On Wednesday afternoon, Phillip Reese and S. S. Petersen and Ben Howard went down in the car of Mr. Reese remaining for the night session when the various teams were putting on work in the degrees. The team of the Weeping Water lodge neighbor, Miss Evelyn Wetenkamp, which is counted as one of the very best in the state was selected to put on the second degree, and all visiting members were desirious of seeing this degree demonstrated by this team, knowing full well that when they had witnessed the work they had witnessed the work they would have a better conception of the fection which followed an injury the people of Plattsmouth enter-Is Building a Unique Garage builder is at this time very busy with the construction of a garage for Alfred Anderson, which is constructed hustling all the time, with the num- making them curved and which will when the structure is completed. making a very imposing and will at now he has in addition received three the same time be one which will give be an ornament to the farm.

> Enjoyed An Excellent Time. Messrs and Mesdames Phil L. Hall

> Making Changes in House. Recently O. F. Peters had a house torn down as it was in a very delapi- tor, C. A. Park of Lincoln, His body dated condition. He had another house which was situated in another and baby daughter. the Greenwood elevators on Wednes-day afternoon of last week. place, and so had Frank Rouse with his house maving outfit move the other house to the site where the one was torn down and since having the structure moved he is having the building remodelled and put which it is to be used.

Has Many Fine Birds.

The Leesley Hatchery has been of very fine young pullets, White Leghorns of the high laying variety and These pullets are of good size and will be laying nicely in a short time the purchasers.

Will Begin North of Town.

The paving which commenced near Havelock this spring is now nearing the city limits of Greenwood and for the present will operate north of town, thus allowing the traffic to continue over the old route and also the new south of town when it is ready, until such a time as the other has been completed and the route changed through the city. Just when this will be done is not at this time known Entertains Guild.

The M. E. Guild met at the church pasement Tuesday afternoon, and the time was spent in quilting and tieing a comforter. A big crowd was in attendance, and at the close of the afternoon, Mrs. Harry Marloff and Mrs. Ed Bell served a tempting lunch of chicken sandwiches, pumpkin pie with whipped cream and cof-

King's Daughters Meet.

Mrs. Lyman Marvin was hostess to the King's Daughters Friday afterthere very nicely. Mrs. A. W. Hudson was elected as the district depeye with a stick in the hands of a

Injures Eye.

Manley News Items

Dies In Wyoming. Peter Carlson, eighty-six, died at Thursday. He drove over with his bout ready for picking. corn which was on exhibition at the Burns, Wyo., Sunday. Funeral serv-car. Both the Greenwood elevators Greenwood State bank during the ives were held at 2:30 p. m. Thurs-a field which at a conservative esti- hem cemetery. Mr. Carlson is a former resident of Greenwood, and is the father of Mrs. Alfred Hutichinson.

Annual Rally Day.

Rally day services were held at the M. E. church Sunday, with services as usual in the morning, which was followed with a dinner served cafeteria style in the dining room. At 2:30 a musical program was givsome that lived here in former years. who enjoy visiting with their old friends at these annual affairs. No services were held in the evening.

Achievement Club Meets.

The home of Mrs. C. Fulmer was ing of the Greenwood Achievement ers were Mrs. Earl Jardine and Mrs. Fred Hoffman

Everyone present seemed very interested in our lesson and altho it during the past week covered the was hard at first for us to go back to shoool day rules of keeping quiet, we soon caught the spirit of atten-

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Sadia Reese, the first Wednesday in November. Any visitors are welcome.-Mrs. Carl Hoffman, reporter.

Dies at Blair.

This community was shocked last by accident of Joseph Johnson at

Mr. Johnson was unloading a car switch engine backed into the car evening. on which he was working, throwing him beneath the car which passed over his body, killing him almost instantly.

Joseph Wessley Johnson was the on of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Johnson, and was born December 28, 1893 in Greenwood. He died October 12, 1929 it Blair, at the age of 36 years, 9 months and 14 days. He was married to Violet Lapham and to this union was born one dautime and hoping last week to be Plattsmouth and where they enjoyed ghter. Maxine, Little Maxine lived but a few days and the little baby rests in the Greenwood cemetery.

sister Minnie of Ashland, and brother | noon and where they made a very W. S. Allen, the carpenter and Omaha, Dee of Fremont and Joe of in attendance. Those to enjoy the Greenwood. Mrs. J. W. Johnson, his mother, well known to this community, died are kept hustling with orders and with a curved roof, the rafters being July 10, 1929, and her funeral was Dewey Headley, the manager, is made by the lamination of the boards held here just three months preceding her son's death.

Joseph Johnson grew to manhood in Greenwood. When but a boy he united with the Christian church. He cars of sand which he has had to Mr. Anderson excellent service, and resided here all but the last five years of his life which were spent in or near Blair.

Funeral services were held from the Christian church Monday, Octowhich he had on one of his farms ber 14, conducted by a former paswas laid beside those of his mother

The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the bereaved wife, father and relatives.

Married at Marysville. Mr. Edwin McCartney and Miss in good condition for a residence for Thelma Birdsall surprised their many friends when they announced they had been married at Marysville, Kans., on Monday, October 7 at 8 o'clock in the morning. Mr. Joe fering for sale a large number of Hamlow and Miss Bonnie Martin of Waverley accompanied them. They returned to Lincoln and the groom went on to Denver that evening where he has a position with the Burlington railroad as welder. Mrs. McCartney will continue in her work at the Adams Candy shop in Lincoln thus making them very valuable for until they can get located. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Guests at Philip Heil Home from Long Mrs. A. R. Birdsall and has lived near and in Greenwood all of her life. She was graduated from the high school with the class of '29, and has been working in Lincoln several weeks. The groom is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. James McCartney of near Waverley and has been the younger set. He has had a position with the Burlington for some

NEW DESIGNS IN BUILDING

Chicago-Inverted pyramids Frank Lloyr Wright, the architect, when one is visiting around. for four eighteen story apartment each story, will rise early in 1930. The idea, according to Wright, is point of seeing European builders in-

A complete line Dennison's Hallo-Bobby McDowell, son of Mr. and we'en Novelties at Bates Book Store.

Rudy Bergman and family were

Wm Heebner was looking after some business matters at Plattsmouth for a part of the day on last

Joseph Hughes and the family who are farming in Iowa some twenty miles east of the river near Malvern were visiting at the home of Walter Mockenhaupt for the week end, they driving over in their car and crossing the ferry at Plattsmouth.

Harry Hawes who was visiting at his old home at Clay Center, Kansas for a number of days during and over the week end last week returned home last Tuesday after having enjoyed a very fine visit, and reports that while crops are fair that they are not nearly as good as in this section.

Grover and Fred Lauretzen and ter some business matters while the fambilies were over to Omaha on | there. last Saturday, they driving over to look after some business matters and which called them there they all went over to Council Bluffs for a where. visit with George Coon, the father of the ladies.

the setting for the first lesson meet- where Paul Flemming is farming, which is adding much to the convenience of the farm and the corn lesson was on textiles- their manu- is now about ready for picking. The lumber for the structure was purchased at the Crane Curyan and Murtey Lumber company.

J. C. Rauth and son, Herman barn at the place where Herman lives with corrigated sheet steel, and is adding much to the warmth, as well as making the structure more sturdy and at the same time adding much to the appearance and making the life of the building much longer. The Royal Neighbors of America after the office.

held their regular meeting at the Woodman hall on last Wednesday and looked after the business and the eats and also arranged for a Saturday to hear of the sudden death number of the members to go to Plattsmouth where they attended the County convention of the order, and where there was a large gathering

Has Excellent Crops.

A. V. Rauth who is farming near York writes that his crops are very fair with an average of 42 bushels the barley went 52 and this he considers excellent, but this is not the best for the stork a short time since brought him a very fine girl baby which with the mother is doing very nicely and everybody happy.

Jolly Eight Give Surprise. The Jolly Eight of Weeping Water He is survived by his wife and his and Manley, gave a surprise on Mrs. father, his father's brother Lou and A. R. Dowler on last Tuesday after-Dick of California; also his mother's fine afternoon for Mrs. Dowler. The brothers. Marion, Onle and Ray of afternoon was greatly enjoyed by all occasion from Manley were Mrs. Herman Rauth and Mrs. Osear Dowler.

MANLEY Cream Station

I have taken over the Cream Station of the Omaha Cold Storage Co., and am located at my home in Manley across from the Blacksmith shop.

Highest prices paid for Cream, Produce and Eggs. Most courteous treatment to all.

Anton Auerswald Manley, Neb.

Fine Dinner for Californians

Beach Have Pleasure of Meeting Many Relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Heil entertained a number of relatives and Thursday of last week. friends at their country home east of Louisville last Sunday at a dinner in two years with his sister Mrs. Fred Mrs. Oren Spelts, of Long Beach, Cali-Hoffman, so is known to many of fornia, who have been visiting Neweeks. They drove through in their

Mrs. Spelts was formerly Miss Rose Engelkemeier, of Plattsmouth. The hostess served a fine dinner at noon and the visitors were pleased at the to near Wann last week to see a opportunity of meeting so many of glass, copper and concrete, with steel their relatives and friends upon one furnishings, have been designed by occasion as the time passes rapidly buildings to be erected on property the host and hostess and young son, out in all kinds of cornfields. of St. Marks in the Bouwerie, New Gordon Dean, those present were Mr. York. In a city where the setback is and Mrs. A. H. Engelkemier, Mr. an established architectural feature, and Mrs. Jacob Kraeger and daughthese buildings, with abutments at ter, Selma, Mr. and Mrs. Otto E. Lutz, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Meisinger and members of the American Red Cross urable event to all of the residents and their guest, Superintendent W. ball game.

Phone your news to the Journal. J. Mickle.

Alvo News

Messrs. Ralph Snaveley and Jesse Brandt were visiting with friends in Ashland on last Tuesday evening. Wm. Coatman, of Weeping Water, was over on last Wednesday and had some grinding done at the Coatman

Miss Ivy Bird, who is employed in Elmwood, was spending a few days at the home of her parents in Alvo last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Stromer were visiting with friends and looking after some business matters in Lincoln on Tuesday of last week. Mrs. Clo O. Schaeffer was a visitor in Lincoln for a short time last week and was accompanied by Mrs. G. E. Steele and her son, Gilbert. George Coatman, of Elmwood, was a visitor in Alvo for a short time on last Wednesday and was looking af-

Attorney C. D. Ganz was looking after some business matters in the after having completed the business county seat on last Wednesday, as well as having some business else-

Among those who have begun the picking of their corn are H. L. Borne-Mrs. C. M. Andrus has been hav- meier, Art Heier and W. E. Heier, ing a new crib built on the place they finding the corn in very good condition. Uncle Henry S. Ough was a visitor for over the week end at the home of Fred Weaver, at South Bend. where he and they enjoyed the visit very much.

for Grover Hill one day last week place another light coat over the and found the yield as being very streets immediately and thus keep good, averaging nearly two bushels the good condition which has been postmistress, was spending the afternoon at Lincoln on last Wednesday, R. M. Coatman, deputy, was looking permanent, as the former coating has some business matters in Omaha for two cars shipped to Alvo, and which the day last Thursday, having some matters to look after in connection railroad property, thus keeping it in with his store here.

coln for a short time last Wednes- for the railroad last week. day to look after some business matof coal near the lumber yard, when which continued until late in the ters, he driving over in his car for the occasion and Mrs. Banning accompanying him. Miss Dorothea Coatman was spend-grandparents, at Weeping Water, al- October 13, 1929, at Waverly, at the so being accompanied by Grandma age of seventy-four years nine months of corn to the acre, and oats 64 while Jane Ruby, who was visiting here and thirteen days. He was confirmfor some two weeks.

> City on last Sunday, where they were til March, 1929, when he moved visiting for the day with friends and Waverly. He lived at that city unalso looking over the city. the threshing of the grain which riage to Christina Mary Hamilton, were behind the movement and would > John D. Foreman was not feeling Hilma Roper. To this union, two the very best during the middle of children were born, Martin G. Bergit under cover for the winter. ast week on account wry neck, caus- quist, of Waverly, and Mrs. Eva for the interchange of ideas and the ed from catching cold in it and mak Heiers, of Alvo. He leaves to mourn introduction of sound and firm bankng it very inconvenient for him to his departure, his wife, two sons, a ing principles.

Ellis Mickel and Henry J. Miller

County Commissioner Fred H. Gorber of days during the past week, ooking after the matter of the graveling of the highway running north from Alvo, and which is getting pretty well along at this time.

Last Wednesday George E. Curyea and the good wife went to Lincoln, where they will make their Hal Parsell had the misfortune to get a very bad splinter in one of his hands, which caused it to become inbeen compelled to desist from workbe so painful.

the home of Mrs. Henry Bailey and found the Farmers Co-Operative besides the sociable time they had, creamery of Plattsmouth standing they looked after other matters and away up to the head in the matter arranged for delegates to attend the of productiveness and the excellence county convention at Plattsmouth on of all their products.

in Greenwood more or less the past honor of Mrs. Heil's cousins, Mr. and Rainey, a niece of Mrs. Edwards, who making of this the greatest institu- Bleachers on stage occupied by 10,braska relatives for the past three home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwards, were as well as the management of this son "Woody" do a Grange. Instead be enjoying the football game at Lin-institution to make it wonderful does a "Reigals" but wins the game to the big city in their car. W. H. Warner and W. C. Timlin and two sons of the latter were over demonstration of a new corn picker, which was being put to the test there They were well pleased with the fine work which the machine did, Besides the guests of honor and but were wondering if it would hold and which made necessary her giving Ellen Nora Meisinger, Luville Albert,

Attend Red Cross Meeting

daughter, Donna Laura and Walter society of Alvo visited Murdock, to of the Home and the members of the ty chapter of the society and where they looked after the business calling STATE ENGINEERS ARE Mr. and Mrs. R. Foster Patterson them together. There were delegates present from most of the towns of corporate it in Dutch, German and K. Beggs of the Summerfield, Kan- the county. Those present from the

CREAM and POULTRY

are the Things on the Farm which Make the Farming Pay

We are a home institution, making better prices for the farmers of Cass county for both Cream and Poultry.

Bring your Poultry to us and bring or send your Cream. We give the best of service and permanently higher prices.

FARMERS' CO-OPERATIVE

CREAMERY CO.

good condition of her streets since Wm. H. Warner was hulling clover the graveling some time since will obtained by the good work which While Mrs. Elmer Rosenow, the has already been done. The extra amount of gravel which is now being placed on the streets will be Exchange of Banking Information Is made a good foundation for this coat. Floyd Dickerson was looking after The Rock Island railroad also had they also used for placing about the

Obituary

Andrew John Bergquist was born

Regraveling the Streets

Alvo, in order to maintain the in Ljunga, Smolan, Sweden, on Deing last week at the home of her cember 25, 1854, and passed away ed in the Lutheran church in 1868. Edward Edwards and the good and in 1878 he came to America and president; Floyd Pope, Lincoln, secrewife, as well as Lyle Miller and his settled on a farm five miles southgood wife were over to Nebraska east of Waverly, where he lived un til the time of his death. On Septem-W. H. Warner, having completed ber 26, 1882, he was united in marfell to his lot in the vicinity, finish- She died in 1886. To this union there give their hearty co-operation. feil to his lot in the vicinity, finishing that of Will Meier last week, was born a son, Charles J. Berg- The regional clearing houses are not of the same nature as those in drew his outfit to Alvo and placed quist, who is now living at York. In 1888 Mr. Bergquist married Miss larger cities maintained to expedite turn around, as well as being very daughter and eight grandchildren.

John Bergquist was one of the son and Andrew Johnson.

THE FARMERS CO-

The Farmers Co-operative creamnome for the winter, as they thought ery, which has been in operation now t would be better to spend the cold for many months is with each suc- eral years. weather there than here. They will ceeding month making a larger showreturn to Alvo in the spring, how- ing of the business done, and of the sions thruout the day was spent in better market which their being here making clear the purposes and benehas made for the farmer. The insti- fits of such an organization which is tution is being conducted under the in compliance with the system envery best 'sanitary conditions thus dorsed by the American Bankers' asinsuring the very best products and sociation. ected and as a consequence he has is rapidly gaining a reputation over this and adjoining states for the exing and is trying to get the member cellence of the output. Phillip Hoffback to normal, where it will not man, the manager and Capt. H. L. Gayer, were in attendance at a con-The Royal Neighbors, of America, vention of the representatives of the were meeting on last Wednesday at different creameries of the states and

The farmers of Cass county and teaches school at Springfield, and tion of its kind in the states. It is 000 rabid fans. was spending the week end at the the part of the farming community

RETURNS TO WORK

Mrs. Ona Lawton, matron of the Nebraska Masonic Home, who has up her work for the past several weeks, was able today to resume her ston, Ed Howard, Charles Nowacek, duties at the Home. Mrs. Lawton is Hazel Harkins, Maxine Cloidt. very efficient in her work and her re-On last Tuesday a number of the turn to duty has been a most pleas-

INSPECTING BRIDGES

Lincoln, Oct. 16 .- Accompanied by Grand Island, Hershey and Ogallala. William F. Sweeney, at $25,000.

Col. Phil Hall Heads District Clearing House

Object-Four Counties Included in Region.

Nearly eighty bankers from Lancaster, Seward, Cass and Otoe coungood condition. George Kitzel was ties were sold the clearing house idea J. W. Banning was called to Lin- unloading and spreading the gravel in a conference at Lincoln on Friday night, and voted unanimously to organize the Second Nebraska Regional clearing house, the membership of which will include banks in the four counties, and then named Phil L. Hall, jr., Greenwood, president of the Nebraska Bankers association, as head of the new organization. Other officers of the new association include: S. H. Buck, Otoe, vice tary, and C. C. Carter of Seward.

L. C. Chapin, vice president of the Central National bank of Lincoln, acting on behalf of all local banks, Safeguards Earnings. "Some of the benefits to be deearly settlers, having shared the rived from this organization," Mr. were shelling and delivering their hardships of the prairies of Nebras- Hall explained, "are to increase the orn to the Rehmeyer elevator dur- ka. Funeral services were held at earning power of banks, placing them ing the afternoon last Wednesday, I p. m. Tuesday at the Waverly in a healthy condition, to guard and incidently, Mr. Miller was also Methodist church. Rev. Henry G. against unsound duplicate borrowhauling some cobs home to burn dur- Hartner, of Lincoln, officiated at the ing, to build up cash reserves and services and burial was at Waverly. surplus and to demand proper infor-The pallbearers were John Holm- mation on borrowers thru property er was a visitor in Alvo for a num- quist, Charles Holmquist, Gus Weed- statements. Also to demand ample mark, Isaac Youngberg, Leonard Ol- liquid security behind our loans for the protection of depositors, borrow> ers and the stockholders of the banks. J. M. Sorensen of Fremont, regional clearing house chairman of the OPERATIVE CREAMERY Nebraska Bankers' association, outlined the workings of the regional clearing house at Fremont which has been in successful operation for sev-

Much of the time during the ses-

HIGH SCHOOL CONVOCATION

At the convocation hour at the high school Friday morning Ira Mumm, president of the student body presided over the very interesting program.

"The Touchdown" was presented by the Dramatic Club, under direction of Miss Tidball, broadcast over especially thase who have stock in a network of Seven "Shakedowns." Charles Edwards and wife and Tol-this institution should co-operate play by play account of the game beherst Edwards and Miss Isabelle with this home institution in the tween Wahoo University and Siwash.

"Ma" and "Pa" were present to see coln last Saturday, they driving over which it is possible for it to attain. in the dying moments of battle. The cast: Announcer, George Sayles; "Pa" Chester Lund; "Ma" Helen Schultz: Old Grad, Robert Livingston; Another, Eleanor Swatek; Cheer Leader, Robert Bestor. In the cheering section were: Margaret Shellenbarger. been very poorly for several weeks Vallery, Agnes Brink, Jean Hayes, Janet Vallery, Helen Price, Gertrude Frederick Wehrbein, cheer leader, led a ten minute pep meeting in preparation for the Plattsmouth-Ashland football game.

LINCOLN INVESTMENT FIRM INCORPORATED

sas, schools, were at Lincoln today Alvo branch were Mr. and Mrs. Art J. G. Mason, state bridge engineer, corporation were filed here Tuesday Lincoln, Oct. 15 .- Articles of into enjoy the Cornhusker-Pitt foot- Dinges, Mrs. C. D. Ganz, A. B. Stro- Roy L. Cochran, state engineer, be- by the United Investment Co. of Linmer and wife, Mrs. W. C. Timlin, gan an inspection Wednesday of three coln, capitalized by its officers,

Mrs. Jennie Reuse and Mrs. Martin new bridges ever the Plaste river at Claude 8. Wilson, E Rosenberg and