Prisoner at the City Jail Hides Weapon

Fireman's Ax Is Discovered Concealed in the Bedding of Prisoner at Jail Sunday

From Monday's Dally-

Plattsmouth Motor Co. garage.

The man had been kept at the city jail pending an investigation Athletic Club as to his past and during this time he has been cared for by members of the police force who have served his meals and saw that he was not allowed to want.

Sunday morning when Chief of Police Libershal arrived at the jail and was getting ready to go after the morning repast of the prisoner In Last Moments of Game, Athletics he noticed that a fireman's ax that is used in the main part of the jail to cut kindling or mash up coal, was missing and the chief acting on a hunch, had the prisoner stand up and the chief then entered the cell and jerking up the matress on the

The prisoner refused to give any reason for the concealing of the ax. whether to try and hew his way ha through the massive stone walls with the weapon and seek freedom prisoner and his evident desire to "start something" he was removed over to the custody of Sheriff Bert Reed where he will have less opportunity for mischief.

POURED ROCK CREEK BRIDGE

pouring the new concrete bridge over Rock creek a half mile south of the Murray corner. The concrete was the needed score. mixed at the corner and hauled over most continuous stream.

to Mynard and will operate both ways of the lines gave the needed six from there filling in the gap between points and victory. the end of the paving on Chicago avequite possible the new angling road ha on next Sunday. through the Wiles farms will be let go over until next Spring on account of the new grade necessary to construct there, work on which has not From Monday's Daityyet been started.

paved this fall on the south end.

On the north, the pavement bebridge is open to travel, but is covered with dirt and very rough, while drainage creek bridge a half mile floor is being laid on this bridge. The north end pavers are unloadmiles yet to construct.

HAVE HALLOWE'EN PARTY

The home of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Dalton, on Locust street, was the scene of a very pleasant Hallowe'en party on Saturday when Master Jack Dalton entertained twenty of his!

In the award of the prizes in the circles as a boxer. skiilball game Harriett Goos and Phillip Rosencrans were the winners, in the pumpkin contest, Dorothy future. Jean Turner and Keith Miller while in the peanut contest John Tidball and Laura Mrasek were the most

Those who enjoyed the event were

TRUCK BURNS UP

From Tuesday's Daily-

Late yesterday afternoon a large six wheel Dougias truck, belonging to the Watson Bros. truck line of Nebraska City, was destroyed by fire n the detour of highway No. 75, wo miles south of Murray near the Nick Frederich farm. The truck was coming north and was loaded with consignment of empty kegs which were being returned to the owners in Omaha. The fire it is thought was caused from the exhaust of the truck and it was impossible for the The members of the city police driver to extinguish the flames. The force had an "Ax Man" to deal with truck and its contents were desover the week end in the person of troyed and only the metal parts of the stranger, Bob Strickler, who was the truck and the hoops of the kegs apprehended Friday night near the remain to tell the story of the fire.

Wins Football

Slip Over the Needed Touchdown to Win

The football team of the Plattsmouth Athletic club played their first home game of the season Suncot discovered the ax concealed day afternoon at the baseball park, winning the contest by the score of 6 to 0 from a team sent here by area executive. the Vinton Street Athletics of Oma-

The game was anybody's event for the opening three quarters of the or to lay in wait and chop up the game altho the locals threatened at on a trip to Shenandoah, Iowa. officers as they entered his cell is several times but in the critical stages of the game were unable to ent to lend their efforts toward the needed points to win.

The visitors were unable to get the occasion. Sunday to the county jail and turned away to any serious gains as the tackling of the locals was excepfrom the danger zone.

work to the Murray corner Saturday, into the enemy territory. Carl Keil, put in the greater part of yesterday former high school player, was also

As the last quarter of the game the half mile of three weeks old pav- was drawing to the close the Athing to the bridge in dump trucks and letics made a hard drive into the there poured into the forms in an al- Omaha territory when a long pass from Frank Krejci to Keil netted This completes an unbroken stretch some fifteen yards and then Koubek of paving from two miles north of tore through the Omaha opposition the Murray corner to the curve at to add some twenty yards more and bringing the ball to within striking The paving contractors are now distance of the Omaha goal. A pass moving their unloading equipment from George Sedlacek to Keil back

The Plattsmouth team is expectnue in this city to connect up with ing to play the Ak-Sar-Ben Knights the present north end, although it is at the western League park at Oma-

RETURNS FROM MINNESOTA

If this is carried over, there is ap- south of this city have just returned | derstood that it pleases the ladies to proximately three miles yet to be home from a trip to Minnesota, they have the men folks show they appredriving to Rochester, Minnesota, clate their efforts there was a very where they spent a short time and tween the LaPlatte corner and a Mrs. Klimm undergoing an examin- the favor of the ladies. I do not short distance south of the Pappio ation at the Mayo clinic as her health know who came out the winner but has not been the best of late. On I am sure all played their part herotheir trip to Rochester they motored | ically when the dinner hour arrived. by way of Council Bluffs, Denison, From a personal standpoint I consida detour into the field and over a Storm Lake, Spirit Lake and Spenser, er it a miracle that the doctor did narrow bridge is necessary at the lowa, and on the return trip they not have to come to my rescue after drove west to Yankton, South Dak- the fray was over. south of the Pappio. A new concrete ota, and thence to Sioux City and The following were present and Norfolk, Nebraska. Mrs. Klimm unanimous in wishing Mr. Potts stopped at Norfolk to attend the many happy birthdays to come: ing at Fort Crook siding and pushing meeting of the Nebraska Federation the work on north as rapidly as the of Women's clubs which was in ses- children, Dorothy, Donald and Lloyd weather will permit, with several sion at that place, for a few days, of Weeping Water; Mr. and Mrs. while Mr. Klimm came on home to Fred Grant and children, Gerald, friends of the fourth grade at school, sonage of the First Methodist church and children, Violet, Bufford, Vivian as well as the neighboring children. was the scene of a very pretty and and Buel of Elmwood; Mr. and Mrs. The home was very artistically ar- quiet wedding when Miss Maude Walter Little and son, Lawrence and ranged for the event with the color- Auxier of Falls City was united in daughters. Blanch and Bulah of ful orange and black of the Hallo- marriage to Don Sailors of this city. Weeping Water; Mr. J. C. Curl, we'en season being used in many at- The wedding was witnessed by Mrs. tractive and novel ways and which Raymer, sister of the groom and the was carried out in the table decora- members of the pastor's family. The Nina and Nova, Weeping Water; Mr. tions and the refreshments. The marriage lines were read by the Rev. and Mrs. E. Miller, Nebraska City; young people had a very fine time in H. E. Sortor, pastor of the church. the games that had been arranged. The groom is well known here where and which included the favorite Hal- he has made his home for the past lowe'en pastimes and at which a several months, coming here from great deal of merriment was enjoy- Falls City and he has had a very prominent part in the local sporting to make their home in this city in the acquaintances, as well as making plant of the Plattsmouth Motor Co.,

YOUNG PEOPLE ARE WEDDED

visit many interesting cities.

MARRIED AT COURT HOUSE

On Saturday afternoon County Phillip Rosencrans, Keith Miller, Judge A. H. Duxbury was called upon the friends from outside points, Dr. cealed it in the matress of his cot Laura Mrasek, Marion Olson, Cather- to join in the bonds of wedlock Clyde ine Shellenbarger, Warren Lillie, Hatcher and Miss Hazel Bare, both John Tidball, Marjovie Ann Tidball, of Plate who motored here from their Mrs. M. J. Sutchiff of Omaha and discovered that would connect the John Tidball, Marjorie Ann Tidball, of Blair, who motored here from their Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Lawman of Min- man with any crime and he was ac-Shirley Keck, Dorothy Jean Turner, home for the happy event and at the neapolis being here for the day. The cordingly released. The man was ap-Harriett Goos, Corbin Davis, John conclusion of the ceremony, perform- members of the party were dinner parently not responsible mentally and ed in the usual impressive manner by guests at the Soennichsen home and In the entertaining and serving, Judge Duxbury, the young people de- enjoyed very much the opportunity fact by the authorities. Mrs. Dalton was assisted by Mrs. Ed- parted for their home in the north of enjoying the many points of inportion of the state.

Nemaha Area Boy Scouts in Court of Honor

Event Held at Camp Wilson at Nebraska City Sunday

The court of honor of the Nemaha rea of the Boy Scouts of America was beld Sunday at Arbor Lodge at Nebraska and attended by some 500 committees over the area to witness the conferring of the merit badges and advancements on the members of the Scouts.

From this city two car loads of the Scouts and members of the executive committee were in attendance J. A. Capwell and L. O. Minor serving as the pilots of the party and Game Sunday accompanied by E. H. Wescott of the local executive committee. In the local executive committee. In the group of Scouts going were Alton Rolland, Robert Mann, Kenneth Armstrong, Orvil Speltz, Ordell Hennings, Herbert Minor, Francis Liber-shal and Maynard McCleary.

The ceremonies were held at the Arbor Lodge park and Dan Hill of Nebraska City, one of the leading figures in the scouting circles of that city presided with the ceremonies Nehawka on Monday night, was arbeing directed by Cecil Hurtzberger,

In the awards of merits Rolland Aulton of this city was given a merit a plea of guilty to the charge. in cycling in recognition of his having rode his bicycle some sixty miles The Nebraska City band was pres-

Eagle Scout on Vilas Sheldon of Ne- which created the drivers license. tionally good on the defense and the hawka and Harold Fields of Nebras-Omaha aggregation was forced to ka City was one of the most imprespunt repeatedly to remove the ball sive of the events of the day and the the law became operative on Octo-For the Plattsmouth Athletics, President Pate of the Peru State Nor- that the law takes to keep off the was finally dragged from the ditch cities of Omaha, Plattsmouth, Te- bers of the club in witty and clever Frank Koubek, halfback of the team mal and the mothers of the boys were highway all drunken and reckless and bore on his person a great deal kamah, Missouri Valley, Council original verses and which pro The paving force operating south was the most consistent ground gain- invited to shore the honors by pin- drivers who are a menace to them- of the rich Nebraska soil. It was Bluffs, Glenwood and Tabor, with much merriment.

assisted in making the awards.

SURPRISE DINNER

On the morning of Sunday, October 27th, the most casual observer pasing the home of Asa Potts near Plattsmouth would have noticed that something out of the ordinary was taking place there.

It was the anniversary of Mr. Pott's fiftieth birthday and a large group of his neighbors, friends and relatives had gathered there to help him celebrate the event. He was somewhat surprised when returning from Murray at noen to The day being an ideal one for such an occasion the birthday dinner was served out on the lawn and the writer believes that he has never seen a more glorious display of culinary art. It reminded one of a state Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Klimm from fair exhibit. As we have always unspirited contest to see who could win

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Sudduth and look after the farm. The trip was Harold, Helen and Bobby of Elmone that enabled them to enjoy a wood: Mr. John Pearsley, Plattsgreat deal of the country and to mouth; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Mead and daughters, Evelyn, Lois and Florabel of Murray; Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hardaway of Wabash; Mr. and Mrs. Elvie Hatcliff and son, Donald, Weeping On Saturday afternoon the par- Water; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Phillips Union; Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Walker and son,, Nolen and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Baker and children. Hazel and Elbert of Plattsmouth; Mr. and Mrs. James Baker, Weeping Water: Lannie Potts, Fair Play, Missouri.

In addition to the above list Mr. Pott's family brought the total up to fifty-four. All had a fine time Mr. and Mrs. Sailors will continue talking over old times and renewing rested last Friday night near the new ones .- Contributed.

VISITS HERE OVER SUNDAY

terest in the city.

WEIGHT FIGURING EXPERT

A. B. Smith of this city, one of the veteran carpenters is very skillful in making his calculations in his trade and as the result of his skill in being able to figure out the capacity of a given space, has received three forty forty-nine pound sack of Omar flour. Mr. Smith was Number From This City Attend given the second prize by the Omar company of Omaha for his skill in figuring out the weight of the flour in th thirty-four car train of flour sent by the Omar company to the eastern markets nad on which train was the carload consigned to A. G. Bach of this city and Mr. Smith by scouts and members of executive his skill was able to figure very closely the exact weight of the flour.

Court Revokes the License of a Drunken Driver

Judge Duxbury Gives Thirty Days in Jail to Man Who Created Disturbance Near Nehawka

From Wednesday's Daily-This morning Frank Varner, the man who created so much excitement at the Ed Murray farm near raigned in the county court on the charge of operating an auto while in a state of intoxication, entering

Judge Duxbury after hearing the plea and the recital of the facts in the case gave as the penalty a thirty day term in the county jail and also ordered that the prisoner turn over With the warlike attitude of the penetrate the Omaha defense for the success of the interesting ceremonies his drivers license to Sheriff Bert and a very large number enjoyed Reed that it might be sent in to the state department of public works discovered Varner himself in the London first heard it in March of short business session Dr. Livingston The conferring of the grade of for cancellation under the new law ditch and in his condition being un- 1743. Its first great performance called upon Mrs. William Baird to been revoked in this county since be down but not out, but in this of two hundred and seventy-five were fine program which was opened by a speech of presentation was made by ber 1st and it is one of the means poses out on his feet. The man to the chorus of 1000 voices from the Ann responded for one of the memof this city, having completed their er while George Sedlacek, the other halfback also made smaller gains young lads.

The paving force operating south er while George Sedlacek, the other ning the decorations on the fortunate selves as well as the traveling public.

work and was on his way to Okla- him to the barn to repose, first homa when he ran into trouble near searching the man for matches and the Murray farm when he was un- securing what was thought to be all able to drive the car on account of of the firemaking material that ranged by Charles Jinnens, the mubeing intoxicated.

Awards Made in Young Citizens Contest Here find such a large group awaiting him. Vilas Sheldon of Nehawka and Miss Florence Shogren of Louisville are Chosen.

Nebraska Young Citizen's contest protect his property from the unwelwhich was held Saturday at the discounty in the conaest which is a keeping. part of the diamond jubilee to be held in Omaha early in November named as the representatives from Cass county, Miss Florence Shogren, of Louisville, as the young lady, and Vilas Sheldon, of Nehawka, as the young man.

The committee that had charge of the selecting of the representatives school hill in the opening session of named Miss Hazel Baier, of Avoca, the chapter for the fall and winter and Murle Wells, of Greenwood, as season and despite the unfavorable the alternates from this county at weather conditions that prevailed From Tuesday's Dafly-

The committee that conducted the Superintendent Swingle, Nehawka; that the chapter will strive for in Superintendent Adee, Eagle, Super- their work. intendent Nabcock, of Avoca, Miss Weeping Water, physical training, physician, and Miss McNairm, Om- local chapter but at this time are for the occasion. aha, nurse.

well in the mental tests made by the keep in constant touch with the af | tumes of the little folks made a very committee, but in the physical tests the students from the rural schools showed much better with the exception of Mr. Sheldon of the Nehawka and all eligible ladies in the city high school.

MAN IS RELEASED

From Wednesday's Daily-

The stranger, Bob Strickler, arand held here for several days under investigation, has been released from the custody of Sheriff Bert Reed, in whose care the man was placed Mon-Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Soennichsen day after the discovery was made Read the Journal Want-Ads.

his strange actions is ascribed to this

Cornshucker Brings Grief to Farmer

Stranger Given Shelter for Night at Ed Murray Farm Starts Fire in Barn While Drunk

From Tuesday's Daily-Last night at 10 o'clock Sheriff Bert Reed was called to the Ed Murray farm in the vicinity of Nehawka where a stranger, the worse for the effects of intoxicants had caused a great deal of excitement and had set fire to the barn on the Murray

On the arrival of the sheriff he found the man who gave the name of Ed Varner, in the custody of the Murray family to prevent the man damaging himself or the property on ng south on the road near the Murray place and ran his car into the ditch and the members of the family there had very kindly assisted in getting his car out of the ditch and the man started on his way southward where he stated he had a job of corn shucking awaiting him. A few moments later after the man and the car had progressed a quarter of a mile he again got the car into the ditch and this time the Murray family decided to let it remain as the man was apparently too much under the influence of liquor to make his way in the car on the wet and muddy roads. The members of the Murray family were gathered in the house a short time later when they heard cries from In conferring the merit badges Mr. Varner stated to the court that sleep in the barn until he had reach and awards E. H. Wescott of this city his home was in Virginia and that he covered sufficiently to go on his way

It seems that Varner was travel-

The fire starting was the last blow The Cass county division of the that Mr. Murray could stand and to of Christianity, and amounts in es- local club and in which the speaker come caller he summoned the shertrict court room, to select the young iff and the man was brought on into man and woman to represent Cass this city to be locked up for safe

HOLD OPENING MEETING

From Tuesday's Dally-Yesterday afternoon the Fontenelle chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution met at the home of Mrs. E. H. Wescott on high the state-wide event to be held in there was a very pleasing number of the members in attendance.

The ladies discussed the plans for tendent R. E. Bailey, Plattsmouth, home being covered in the program party.

residents at different places and who All of the contestants showed up under the new arrangements will of all kinds and the fanciful cos-fairs of the local organization. It was also decided to press the the enjoyment of the games of this membership campaign for the season witching season. will be approached in the new campaign to be started at once.

At the close of the afternoon dainty and delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

ACCEPTS NEW POSITION

Miss Frances Heinrich, who was for a number of years engaged in the H. M. Soennichsen grocery store, has accepted a position in the store of A. G. Bach and is now numbered among the clerking force at that place. The Soennichsen store being consolidated with the Black & White made necessary a change in the force and Miss Henrich has secured her new position with Mr. Bach at the Main street store.

The merchant who advertises regslack business period.

AID A GOOD CAUSE

The Nebraska Children's Home society is one of the outstanding organizations in Nebraska. In 1928, 440 children were taken care of, many placed in good homes. This Home is supported entirely by voluntary gilfts. The people of Plattsmouth and vicinity are being make donations of eggs, potatoes, apples, any and all kinds of winter vegetables and fruit. Leave your gifts at the Wells grocery store up to and including Saturday night.-Signed: Dr. R. P. Westover, president; Rex Young, vice-president; Mrs. William Baird, secretary-treasurer; Miss Alpha Peterson, Mrs. J. E. Wiles, local board.

The Messiah' to be a Great

Schools Tells of the Forthcoming Production.

presented under the direction of Pro- of the evening while the centerpiece fessor Logan, dean of music of the of the table around which the mem-Omaha University, at the Omaha City bers of the party gathered, was a Auditorium on December 16th is most handsome bouquet of the chrysanrepresentative of all the works of its themums. class. Not in opera, nor in fact in The meeting was opened by Dr. any other form of music, does one J. S. Livingston of the Rotary club composition stand out head and who found that there was anshoulders above its fellows as does club membership, the seventh

The first regular performance of the "Messiah" took place at noon on top rank of the fifty-six clubs of the road and going out with lanterns Tuesday, April 13, 1742 in Dublin. the nineteenth district. After the able to extricate himself, he prov- came in 1874 in Westminister Abbey preside as the chairman, and the This is the first license that has ing the old saying that a man may -the large orchestra and a chorus Rotary Anns then presented their case he was, to all intents and pur- the wonder of the day. Compare this very clever roll call in which each the case was to allow the man to presentation in Omaha on December upon to give the impressions of the

The text of the "Messiah" is the purposes and in her pleasant and had been in the west doing farm and accordingly Mr. Murray took literal words of the Holy Scriptures clever manner gave a most enterand was selected from the old and taining few moments of remarks. new testaments and admirably ar-Varner possessed, but which later sical score being written by Handel in a very able address on the suband discovered that Varner had foretelling of the Messiah by the someway held a match and proceeded prophets, the celestial announcement the aims and purposes of the Interto build a fire in the feedway of the heralding this birth, and the recep- national Rotary and showed a deep barn in the straw that was liberal- tion of the "tidings of great joy" by study and interest in the world wide ly scattered over this part of the the shepherds of their vigil. The sec- work that this organization is doing barn, and had the fire gone on for ond part begins with Christ's actual and which they have planned for a very few moments more it would appearance upon earth as the Re-the future. have gained such headway that it deemer and Savior of mankind, treats | Clever and original witticisims on would have been impossible to check of his passion, death, and exaltation, the members of the Rotary was given and would probably burned the barn, and of the spread and establishment by Mrs. F. I. Rea in the reading of horses and the man that started the of the Gospel in the land. The third an unpublished edition of "The part makes declaration of the truths Wheel," the official organ of the sence to a "Credo," subscribing to gave some unknown history of the the existence of Christ the Redemer, Rotary membership that kept the "the resurrection of the body and the auditors in repeated gales of laughlife everlasting," in the justice which ter. eternal happiness.

contribute 135 voices to this chorus Ann, was heard in a delightful solo is something to be proud of. It is leader for the trace as the song That Plattsmouth has the talen to hoped that a very large number will leader for the Anns in their jingling avail themselves of the opportunity to hear the "Messiah" when it is one that embraced very ably given in Omaha.

ENTERTAINS FRIENDS

Last evening the home of County topic that she had been assigned Treasurer and Mrs. John E. Turner and while along the lines of a humwas the scene of a very happy gath- orous type, was one that all apprecontest and passed on the various en- the year and which include a gen- ering of little folks who were the ciated to the utmost and closed an tries, comprised Miss Alpha Peterson, eral program of defense, the consti- guests of little Miss Dorothy Jean, exceptionally able and well arrangcounty superintendent, and Superin- tution, the government and the at a very delightful Hallowe'en ed program.

The home had been arranged in wended their way homeward they keeping with the spirit of the season | felt that the task of the future pro-The chapter also decided on means and the witching decorations of the gram committees was to be hard in-Kemp, Greenwood, B. E. Woodward, of keeping their non-resident mem- witches, black cats and the orange deed if they are to anyways equal Plattsmouth, Carlton G. Albright, bers in touch with the activities of and black of the Hallowe'en colors the efforts of the ladies. the local chapter, there being quite through the decorative plan of the Dr. J. S. Livingston, Plattsmouth, a number who are members of the home made a very charming setting

The evening was spent in games striking feature as they disported in In the games Miss Helen Farley assisted in planning the many clever and enjoyable events. In the entertaining and serving of the dainty refreshments Mrs. Turner was assisted by Miss Helen | work. Miss Martens will preside over the time visiting in the vicinity of cess and which every member of the new bridge and where the boys the organizations deeply appreciate. tainment in watching the work on St. John's Altar society, Mrs. Henry the structure and also in the fine Starkjohn, president Sewing Circle. ularly the year round, knows of no picnic lunch that they had brought with them.

CLASS HAS PICNIC

Rotary Anns Entertain for the Rotarians

given an opportunity this week to Fifth Meeting of Month Featured by the Ladies Providing a Snappy and Clever Program

From Wednesday's Daily-

Last evening the Fellowship room of the First Presbyterian church was the scene of a very happy gathering of the members of the Plattsmouth club of the International Rotary and their Anns, the meeting being conducted by the Rotary Anns in a exceptionally clever manner and setting a record of cleverness and with that the members of Rotary will have much difficulty in surpassing.

The dinner which featured the evening was arranged and served by Musical Treat the members of the Q. Z. society of the church and was a most tempting repast in every way and most charm-B. E. Woodward of the Plattsmouth ingly served. The settings of the room were in keeping with the Hallowe'en season, in all parts of the rooms the pumpkins, black cats and other symbols of the Hallowe'en sea-Handel's "Messiah," which is to be son added to the colorful features straight hundred per center and which places the local club at the

Mrs. J. S. Livingston was called president's wife of Rotary and its ing was supplied by Mrs. A. S. Ghrist proved a mistake. A short time later, hearing a disturbance in the barn, Mr. Murray and family hurried out and discovered that Veryante and exceptional discovered that Veryante and family hurried out and discovered that Veryante and family hurried out for the first part includes the discovered that Veryante and family hurried out for the first part includes the final treat to all for the first part includes the final treat to all for the first part includes the final treat to all for the first part includes the final treat to all for the first part includes the final treat to all for the first part includes the final treat to all for the first part includes the final treat to all for the first part includes the final treat to all for the first part includes the final treat to all final treat tr of the party as Mrs. Ghrist reviewed nothing can divert, and the surety of | A meeting is not complete without music and in this Mrs. E. H. Wescott, popular local vocalist and presented ideas in "The Ojcets of the Rotary Ann," given by Mrs. H. G. McClusky, whose aptness as a speaker is well known and who in this subject was at her best in the

As the members of the Rotary

WILL ADDRESS TEACHERS

take part in the meetings of district No. 2 of the Nebraska State Teacher's association which opens its sessions at Omaha on Thursday and continues over Friday and Saturday, will be Miss Amelia Martens, one of the best known teachers in the Plattsmouth grade schools and who has been unusually successful in her Farley and Miss Opal Turner of Elm- the section of the meetings devoted to supervision.

CARD OF THANKS

L. O. Minor, who is the teacher. The members of the St. John's of the boys' class in the intermediate Altar society and the sewing circle department of the First Presbyterian wish to take this opportunity of church Sunday school, on Saturday thanking the general public for their gathered the members of his class generous patronage at the St. John's together and gave them the treat of bazaar as well as the chicken supa fine hike to the Missouri river, per and dance. The aid of the pubwhere the members of the party spent lic has made the affair a great sucfound an unfailing source of enter- - Mrs. Joseph Libershal, president

Phone your news to the Journal.