Dinner and bazaar at the Christian church Thanksgiving day.

Professional business on last Monday called Dr. G. H. Gilmore to Omaha, where he and son, John, drove in their auto.

Thelma Rhoden was a guest for the day on last Sunday of her friend, Miss Bertha Lancaster, the two young ladies enjoying the visit very much.

Eat your Thanksgiving dinner in Murray at the church. 50 cents. Thanksgiving dinner will be served for 50 cents. No supper to be served.

Cris Bell living east of Murray and south of the Kenosha town site former years, is reported as being very seriously ill at his home at this time.

Mrs. Robert Shrader who has been suffering very much from an aching tooth was over to Plattsmouth Tuesday of this week and had the offending member removed.

Last Saturday when J. V. Pittman was sawing wood for his home, W. C. Allen and son went over and assisted, and then in turn Mr. Pittman came over and sawed up the wood pile of Mr. Allen, with the power saw.

Mr. and Mrs. Gussie Brubacher and their little one were enjoying a visit for the day and a very fine dinner at the home of the parents of Mr. Brubacher on last Sunday, they driving over to the county seat for the occasion.

Valley Michlusky was a visitor in Omaha, and was accompanied by his son who is attending school here, spending the week end there and returning here in time for Vac to take up his labors and the son to return to school.

The newly organized band of the soldiers of the Murray school has secured the use of the M. W. A. Hall at that place for their place to practice, and George E. Nickles has donated one thousand pounds of coal for heating the place.

Harry McManus, and sister Lois, received on last Saturday the sad news of the passing of Mr. McDermott, the father of the wife of their brother, Mr. James McManus, of Atchison, where he has been ill for some time. Mr. McDermott was eighty-one years old and was making his home with his daughter at the time of his death. The death occurring on last Saturday, the funeral being held on Monday, Miss Lois McManus went down to Atchison to render what aid and sympathy she could in this hour of grief.

He is cordially invited to attend and enjoy this festival.

Strike Gusher in Kansas.
James H. Browne and wife of Omaha were visiting for the day in Murray on last Sunday and were well pleased over the good news that near their farm and also the farm of Mrs. E. M. Steiner, some six miles west of Ness City, Kansas, people who were drilling for oil, struck a vein, which threw the oil far into the air, and is belching fourth crude oil at the rate of two hundred barrels per day. With this spouting well so close to their home they are feeling pretty good over the good news. Their friends here and elsewhere are also rejoicing with them. The company sinking the well has begun the erection of a five thousand barrel tank to contain the oil.

The Thanksgiving dinner will be held at the Christian church on Thursday. Come.

Young Guards are Made the Object of Jibes

Caustic Remarks Hurlled at Group by Harrison of Mississippi; Allen Calls Off Dinner.

Washington—The movement of the "young guard" in the ranks of the senate republicans marked time Monday under caustic jibes from the democratic side by Senator Harrison of Mississippi.

A dinner planned for Monday night by Senator Allen of Kansas, to the group of twenty-four republican regulars who bolted the party leadership last week to block an adjournment of the special session, was called off.

Senator Moses as chairman of the republican senatorial campaign committee, answered the letter of Senator Metcalf, of Rhode Island, one of the "Young guard," who proposed that Moses be instructed not to go into any state unless requested by the republican senatorial candidate. Neither Senator Moses nor Senator Metcalf's office would make public this letter.

Referring to the republican regular bolters as the "young Turks" and "junior leaguers," Senator Harrison said "it was only after we drove this group of warriors who style themselves 'Turks' back into their seats, so that you had a minority here, that you deserted the senator from Utah, Mr. Smoot, and the senator from Washington, Mr. Jones, and you said 'let us get out from under.'"

Words Are Exchanged.
"You thought you could see in the country the disfavor of this bill, the recommendations that have been proposed; you know you would receive the castigation of the constituents who had so recently sent you here," he then put up this stool pigeon, so to speak, and said: "Oh, we are against the old guard. We will form a new group, and we will run this body." How?

Adverting to the objections to Senator Moses as chairman of the republican senatorial campaign committee, Senator Harrison said that Senator Metcalf, who asked the committee to curb Moses, "has a sore toe."

Harrison said that Metcalf "is a little angry because his republican colleagues set him aside as chairman of the republican senatorial campaign committee and elevated the distinguished senator from New Hampshire to that place; and now he forms a group to put out the senator from New Hampshire."

EDUCATORS IN CONFERENCE

Chicago—Eighteen educators meeting as a committee of the national education association, Monday discussed methods of dealing with the "jumping off places" in school life, places, they explained, where students are most likely to drop their studies.

"The 'jump off' years," according to C. R. Reed, superintendent of schools of Minneapolis, are those between the eighth grade and high school, and between the end of high school and the start of college.

Reapportionment of school funds to cover all phases of educational work, was also considered.

Among those attending is John A. Sexton, superintendent of schools of Pasadena.

'Santa Claus' Bandit Lynched in Eastland

Taken from Jail Following Wounding of Deputy Sheriff Tom Jones; Scores in Crowd.

Eastland, Tex., Nov. 19.—Furious over his attempted jail break yesterday in which he dangerously wounded Deputy Sheriff Tom Jones, a mob of two hundred men tonight lynched Marshall Ratliff, "Santa Claus bandit" of the Cisco bank robbery in 1927.

Ratliff was hanged from a telegraph pole cable after the jailer had been captured and his keys taken. The bandit's naked body was strung up by a new grass rope, as nearly one thousand people looked on.

On the first attempt to hang Ratliff, who was here pending a sanity hearing which had delayed temporarily his death in the electric chair, the rope broke, and the mob waited for about 15 minutes while a new rope was obtained.

Mumbles Something.
Someone in the crowd yelled: "Maybe he wants to talk." The hanged man eased their pressure and Ratliff was lowered to the ground a second time.

"Do you want to talk?" they asked him.

"Yes," the doomed man gasped, pulling the rope free. "I've got something I want to say."

Again they waited, while Ratliff stood looking into the faces about him. He mumbled something, unintelligible. He was pulled up and left dangling.

Thousand Around Jail.
About a thousand people gathered around the jail tonight, but the lynching party consisted of only about 150 or two hundred men. The leaders slipped into a side door of the jail, and attempted to get authorities to give them the bandit.

When refused the men overpowered Jailer Gilbert and took his keys. Then they made their way upstairs to Ratliff's cell.

Ratliff was dragged down the stairs and down the street about two hundred yards, to the business section of Eastland.

The plan had at first been to take him to the public square but the crowd, apparently impatient, decided to stop at the cable.—World-Herald.

The two pilots, Frank Dorbrandt and Carl Ben Eielson, were engaged in attempts to rescue those aboard the Nanuk and the Stovropol. Dorbrandt was reported to have landed at Teller, Alaska, a week ago. Paris, Nov. 18.—China has warned the world that unless the treaty powers give up their special privileges in China the new Chinese government may be forced to withdraw from foreigners their right of residence.

Resuming the offensive for the removal of extra-territorial rights, a Chinese delegate Monday told the international conference on the treatment of foreigners that special privileges enjoyed by foreigners were incompatible with China's conception of its national dignity.

Pioneer Called to Rest.

Miss Mary E. Bates was born January 1867 at Eight Mile Grove, then new, now long since no town, but which is still recalled by many of the people who lived here then some sixty-two years ago. In this then a new country she spent her childhood and attended the very sparse schools of the young country and state when she was sixteen years of age she was united in marriage with Calbet T. Noel, they farming for many years and later moving to Weeping Water where they resided until the husband died some six years ago. The union of this couple were blessed with the following children, Ben Noel of Murray, John Noel of Colorado; Edward of Lincoln; Thomas of Weeping Water; Mrs. Clara Cherry of California; Orville Noel of Murray; Lena, now Mrs. Lester Wunderlich of Omaha; Robert Noel of Hastings. Mrs. Noel has been in the best of health for the past fifteen years but was only confined to her bed for the past eight weeks, during which this she suffered much from the illness. She early united with the Menonite church and remained a faithful and devoted member until the end. The funeral was held in Weeping Water last Wednesday and the pioneer who did so much for this county and state was laid to rest at Greenwood cemetery in Weeping Water.

Enjoyed Birthday Reception.

Last Sunday chance to be the date of the birthday anniversary of Miss Bertha Lancaster and with a number of her young friends they enjoyed the occasion very much. There were there for the occasion, James Horchar, Dan Horchar and family, Albert and Carl Scutter who are visiting here from Missouri, Miss Bessie Royer, Curtice Ferris, Miss Rene Hatcher and Robert E. Hanson. A most pleasant evening was enjoyed.

Made Good Record.

Curtis Farris made an exceptionally good record last Friday in picking corn, gathering during the day 127 bushels of the grain and scooped his loads at that.

Road Open to Union.

The span of seven miles of concrete road between the Murray corner and the Union corner was formally opened to the public on last Saturday night. This has been a source of much trouble for people would slip in on the road and travel it before it was ready. However, it has apparently not in any way injured the road, but is now open for the public. The stretch of road from Murray corner to the north end of the pavement so far will be kept closed for two weeks yet. The weather is somewhat cooler and it takes it longer to ripen, and get in condition to be used without danger to injury to it. It is the intention of the people in charge of this stretch to see that it is not traveled until it is right for use. The pavement extends to a point just north of the Perry home and from there is graded to the corner east of Myrard and thence through Myrard to the Myron Wiles school, thence north to the Fred Kehne corner, then east and again north to the Platte river bridge and will when the road is opened north of Murray be used for the through detour, which will be December 1st.

Acknowledges Reply.

Acknowledging that he had replied to Senator Metcalf, Senator Moses said: "I do not conduct my correspondence with senators thru the newspapers."

Moses said the Rhode Island senator had made public his letter to him in Rhode Island newspapers before he had received it.

Members of the "young guard" movement again reiterated that no revolt against the titular head of the republican party in the senate was intended. Senator Allen, who breakfasted at the white house, insisted the movement was "entirely devoid of personalities and without the personal equation." He had invited Senator Jones of Washington, the acting republican leader, against whom the "young guard" voted on adjournment, to the dinner he had planned and Jones had accepted.

Says Chests Swollen.

Declaring that the chests of some of the members had swelled about four inches by the publicity they were receiving, Senator Harrison said the table of tariff exhibits in the rear of the chamber should contain a tape measure "so that we might measure the enlarging chest expansions of certain senators of the new group as they come in in the morning."

Senator Norris then picked up a tape measure from the table and said, "I hope the senator will not misrepresent this store in any respect."—State Journal.
