Red Cross Roll Call.

Sixty-three answered the roll call. Gain of five over last year. We hope there will be others who will join next year. It is just a little hard for us to feel the need of giving a dollar to be a member of this worthy organization, living as we do in this land of plenty and free from disasters, but we must not forget some of this $1 helps to aid and cheer our world war veterans. Red Cross workers in 68 government hospitals assisted 30,000 disabled veterans and their families monthly. In this service and work for the disabled men in army and navy a total of $3,030,000 was expended. The American Legion, Legion Auxiliary, are active workers and the president of the Chamber of Commerce Wm. Butterworth, of U. S. urged the support of the business men of the country. So let us all be ready when next Armistice day starts the roll call.

Union Woman's Club.

The Union Woman's Club and the Extension club held their annual Xmas Party at the home of Mrs. P. F. Rihn last Tuesday afternoon, December 3rd. There were forty ladies present to enjoy one of the most delightful parties of the season. All business was first taken care of with the president presiding, and it was decided that the club would send a Christmas box of food and clothing to the Children's Home in Omaha. Meeting was then given over to the leader of the afternoon program, Mrs. L. H. Upton. She had prepared a most interesting program, which included readings on how Christmas was observed in different countries all over the world. Also some instructive thoughts were given by Mrs. C. B. Smith on the origin of Christmas music. Services of the Christmas carols were sung by Miss Gussie Robb and Mrs. C. B. Smith. The guests were then asked to inspect a huge snow ball which was resting peacefully on the dining room table, and to their surprise, they found it full of gifts. Each lady took her turn at pulling out a package. Much merriment was displayed as the packages were opened. Then last, but not least, came the refreshments. The hostess, with her assistants served a most delicious lunch in which every one present did their full duty. The guests departed, thanking Mrs. Rihn for the happy time they had all enjoyed.

OMAHA WOMAN FREED OF STABBING BLAME

Omaha—A coroner's jury here late Tuesday decided that Mrs. Panora Abariotes was justified in stabbing to death Charles Henos, sweet shop proprietor, when he attempted to attack her in her home Monday.

The jury's decision carried with it complete exoneration of Mrs. Abariotes who told police following the killing that she had stabbed her husband's "best friend" when he attempted to attack her in the absence of her husband. The slaying, the jury verdict read, was in self defense.

"I think the only way you can explain this is that Charles was temporarily insane," Steve Abariotes, husband of the exonerated woman, stated following the verdict. "He was my best friend and frequently at my home. He was of a nervous temperament and it is possible that he became suddenly insane."

Abariotes was in Plattsmouth at the time of the stabbing, but rushed to his wife's assistance immediately upon receipt of news of the knife tragedy.

Asked for U. S. Public Buildings

Postoffice for Four Nebraska Cities Included in Construction Plans—Much Work in Capital

Washington, D. C., Dec. 3.—Congress was asked to authorize expenditure of 215 million dollars for construction of postoffices and other federal buildings in cities throughout the country and especially in the national capital, in a bill introduced today by Chairman Elliott of the house public buildings committee.

This would bring the total authorized fund to be expended in the government's building program to 463 thousand dollars. Elliott estimated this to be sufficient to take care of a large portion of the proposed construction of department buildings in the District of Columbia. He also estimated that the bill would provide for the construction of 20 thousand dollars or more annually that are not at present equipped with suitable buildings.

In addition it is expected also to care for the needs of the towns with postal receipts between 10 thousand dollars and 20 thousand dollars where sites already have been obtained.

The Elliott bill would divide the authorization so that 115 thousand dollars be expended within the District of Columbia and the remaining 100 thousand dollars would be allotted to outside cities.

A similar bill was introduced in the senate by Chairman Keyes of the senate public buildings committee.

Chairman Elliott said the following cities, omitted in the allocation of the 148 thousand dollar authorization, were among those to be considered in apportioning the new authorization, if it were approved.

Philo Vance on Mystery Killing

Famous Sleuth Pitted Against Array of Misleading Facts and Contradictory Clues.

ODELL MARGARET, 184 West 7th Street, Sept. 10. Murderer: Strangled about 11 p. m. Apartment ransacked. Jewelry stolen. Body found by Amy Gibson, maid.
"Here, in a few commonplace words, is the bleak, unadorned statement of one of the most astonishing crimes in the police annals of this country—a crime so contradictory, so baffling, so ingenious, so unique that, for many days, the best minds of the district attorney's office were completely at a loss as to even a method of approach."

That is the introduction S. S. Van Dine, famous author of detective stories, gives "The Canary Murder Case."
Margaret Odell, known as "The Canary," Broadway's most coldly ambitious showgirl gold-digger, is found strangled to death in her apartment. Philo Vance, whimsical society man, who has gained fame as an amateur detective, is brought in on the case. "Who Murdered the Canary?" Was it Mannix, the fat broker who loved The Canary until she threatened to show his letters to his wife? Was it Spotswoode who feared for his son in the grasp of the scheming woman? Was it Lindquist, the half-insane doctor, mad with love of her? Was it Clatterer whose political career she menaced?

"It's none of them!" says Heath, the detective, and he arrests Alys LaFosse of the Canary chorus and her sweetheart, Jimmy Spotswoode, son of Vance's best friend. Alys lived next door to The Canary and Jimmy had quarreled with Alys and let himself into The Canary's power.
"It's one of them!" says Heath. "Another man was locked in the closet and saw the murder. Find him and he'll tell you who the murderer is!"
But only the body of the eye-witness is found—he, too, has been strangled! With the case thus complicated, Vance works to save his friend's son. He learns not only who did the murder but how the murderer got in and out of The Canary's locked apartment; why The Canary's voice was heard screaming through the closed door; why the mysterious man hid in the closet and what was the powerful motive for the sensational crime.
This picture will be shown at the Parmele theatre on Friday and Saturday nights.

Passing of Well Known Former Murdock Man

Edward Dehning Buried in Family Lot at Emanuel Evangelical Cemetery—Age 41.

Edward Daniel Dehning, son of Christopher and Anna Dehning, was born May 13th, 1888, at Omaha, Nebraska, and passed away very suddenly on November 25, 1929, at Detroit, Michigan, age 41 years, 6 months and 12 days.

In his youth, the deceased attended the Mason public school in Omaha and also attended the Sunday school of the First Evangelical church. In his infancy, he was consecrated to God in holy baptism, and grew to manhood in a Christian home.

When 18 years of age, he secured a good paying position with the Midland Glass & Paint company, in Omaha, and learned the trade of a plate glass setter. During the World war, he enlisted in the army and worked for two years in the shipyards of the U. S. Navy at San Francisco, Calif. After the cessation of the war, he again found employment with his former employer and worked for the above said firm until the spring of 1925, when he departed for Detroit, Mich., at which place he faithfully worked at his trade.

The departed was known to all as a friend and counted his friends by his acquaintances. He became afflicted with pleurisy and three days prior to his death had a severe attack of acute heart trouble which brought about his demise.

He leaves to mourn his death, one brother, Gustav Dehning, Omaha; two sisters, Mrs. Bertha Schliefer, Louisville, and Mrs. Helen R. Jones, Omaha.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon, December 1st, at the Emanuel Evangelical church, four miles northeast of Murdock, conducted by Rev. H. R. Knosp. The ladies quartette sang, "We're Going Down the Valley, One by One," "There is No Disappointment in Heaven" and "Abide with Me."

VERNON'S FATE IS IN DOUBT

Oklahoma City—A decision as to whether Tom Vernon, arrested at Pawnee, Okla., Sunday, should be extradited to California to face charges of robbing a Southern Pacific passenger train or should be turned over to officers of Wyoming where he is wanted for robbing a Union Pacific passenger train was held in abeyance Tuesday by Governor Holloway.

Thomas J. Higgins, Los Angeles deputy sheriff, arrived at the capital Tuesday seeking to return Vernon to California. The prisoner, he said, had given him a full confession of the California robbery and had waived extraditions to California. Wyoming officers Monday advised Governor Holloway that Governor Emerson was rushing extradition papers here. They requested that Vernon for a hearing. Vernon steadfastly has denied the Wyoming robbery. It will be necessary to hear arguments of both states before decided to whom Vernon will be released, Baxter Taylor, attorney for Governor Holloway, said.
