Now a Shareholder

John Holmes, living just over the line in Otoe county and the owner of a Ford car and a Fordson tractor, bought from the Nehawka Farmers Oil Company during eight months Oils, Gasoline and Greases to the amount of $179.60. With the closing of the year 1929, the books of the company showed he was entitled to a sales dividend of $17.96. At his request he was issued a share of stock (Value $15) and was paid the additional sum of $2.96. He is now a member of the company and feels that the purchase of his supplies from them was a good investment.

Nehawka Farmers Oil Company

R. C. POLLARD, Manager

Nehawka, Nebraska

Elmer Philpot and Harold Philpot, shelled and delivered corn to the Farmers Elevator in Nehawka on last Monday.

Robert Troop purchased a new Model A Standard Coupe, Ford, which he is liking nicely, and which will serve him very nicely.

John S. Chappell and wife of near Cedar Creek were visiting and looking after some business matters in Nehawka for the day on last Monday.

Victor Planket who has been working for some time past for W. O. Troop, moved last week to the place where Earl Troop was formerly farming.

W. A. Hicks and son, John, were out hunting last Monday evening, and were looking for coon, but were to be satisfied by the capture of an Opossum.

Eans Stoll who has been quite ill for some time at his home and has been cared for by Mrs. Stoll is reported as being much improved at this time.

Albert Anderson and family were over to Weeping Water on Tuesday afternoon of this week where Mrs. Anderson was getting some dental work done.

Frank P. Sheldon and Marion Tucker were over to Plattsmouth on last Monday, they being called there to look after some business matters for a short time.

Little Jackie Yeiser of Omaha has been quite ill for some time and grandmother Mrs. A. F. Sturm is there caring for him with the assistance of a nurse.

The family of W. O. Troop were over to Plattsmouth on last Sunday night where they attended a very fine talkie, "Welcome Danger," a presentation by Harold Lloyd.

Dr. Davis E. Wynegar was a visitor last week at Tobias, where he went to visit with his friend, Dr. C. A. Blattspeller, and where Dr. Wynegar practiced before coming to Nehawka.

Herbert Kuntz who recently purchased the blacksmith shop of T. E. Fulton, arrived early this week and has taken over the shop and is doing past, is reported as getting along nicely at this time and has the assurance of the house physician at the hospital that he can be allowed to return to his home in a short time. This is good news to many friends of Mr. Theile, who are anxious that he may soon return to his home entirely cured.

Visiting Friends Here.
For the past three weeks Mrs. C. W. Stone was at Farley, Iowa, where she was nursing her daughter, Mrs. L. E. August, and a grandson, Lloyd Eugene August, who recently arrived. All have been doing nicely and Mrs. Stone and daughter as well as the grandson, Lloyd Eugene August, arrived in Union on last Sunday evening and where they were met by grandfather C. W. Stone, who brought them to Nehawka where Mrs. August and son, who was three weeks of age at the time of his arrival here, will visit for several weeks.

Again in Business.
Frank Robb who has been conducting the amusement parlor, has also been badly afflicted with rheumatism, and has been so bad a great portion of the time that he was compelled to forego the operation of the business and the business was taken over by Nels Anderson, who owns the place. Mr. Robb will endeavor to receive treatment and try to have the troubles arising from the rheumatism eradicated. Mr. Anderson who is well known and who has conducted the business before, is well and favorably known and will, we are certain, conduct an excellent place, and free from what he so often found in a business of this kind.

Sells Good Mules.
Oscar Shrader is a lover of a good team, whether they be mules or horses, and picks up a good critter whenever he can. He has acquired a very fine span of mules recently and when Harry G. Todd came along he was very proud to show the mules which are very fine ones, to Mr. Todd, and was given a ride behind the span. After returning to the Shrader home, Mr. Todd asked Oscar what he would like to do with the team.

George Hanson shipped to the South Omaha market on last Monday, two very fine car loads of cattle and on Tuesday accompanied by W. O. Troop, he was on the market to see the stock disposed of.

Peter Opp, who has been with his son, John Opp, for several weeks, departed on last Tuesday morning for Omaha, where he will spend a few weeks at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. T. Lloyd, of that place.

Mrs. Wm. Troop was a visitor in Plattsmouth on Wednesday afternoon where she went to attend the lecture given in the Presbyterian church, known as the "Copperhead" the scene laid in the south during the civil war.

W. O. Troop and son, Robert Troop, Jr., were over to Nebraska City on last Saturday where they attended a horse and mule sale which was held there and where Mr. W. O. Troop purchased a very fine span of mules.

Albert Alfred, who is operating the cream station in the Norris building, is also carrying a stock of confectionary and cigars and affords a very cozy place for spending an hour or so. He is enjoying a fine trade at this time.

Elmer Philpot and the family were over to Weeping Water on last Sunday where they were enjoying a gathering in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Philpot, and in commemoration of the passing of the 83rd birthday of Mr. Charles Philpot.

Mr. and Mrs. grandfather and grandmother, A. F. Sturm are rejoicing over the arrival of a very fine granddaughter at the hospital at Omaha, where her mother, Mrs. John O. Yeiser and the little daughter are getting along very nicely.

One of the large trees which has graced the home of Z. W. Shrader and cast cooling shade over his home, during the hot days, but which also kept the street damp and produced so often a mussy stretch of roadway, was cut down by the street commissioner.

Norman C. De Les Dener of near Union, was a visitor in Nehawka on last Monday as well as looking after some business, and was accompanied by Harry Rough, a son of John Rough of Takama, who is visiting at Union, and also at Nehawka with his uncle, N. C. De Les Dener and Stewart J. Rough.

Henry Theile, who has been at the hospital in Omaha for some time

Thinking to keep them for his own use, replying and placed the price so high that he thought they were safe and would not be bought, said: "It will take $450 to buy that team." As soon as the sound of his voice had died down, Mr. Todd was busy writing out a check for the team, which he considered cheap at the price, and so did Mr. Shrader, when it was too late.

ENLARGE DEPARTMENTS

The H. M. Soennichsen Co., are enlarging their departments that handles the women's and children's wash frocks, making this line one of the largest in the city.

In anticipation of a big season for women's and children's wash frocks, intensive activities are taking place at Soennichsen's where various departments are being shifted around to make available more space for the largest display of wash frocks ever carried at the store. Miss Palack, buyer in this department says the dresses procured for this season are the best values ever shown in Plattsmouth. Plans now being carried out will make this department one of the most attractive Wash Frock Departments to be found anywhere.

MYNARD U. B. CHURCH

RETURNS TO KANSAS

Mrs. A. W. Reed, of Alden, Kansas, Mrs. Frank W. Reed, of Plattsmouth, returned to their homes on last Saturday evening, and were callers at the office at which time Mrs. Reed renewed for her paper another year. She departed Monday morning for her home. She was called here on account of the accidental death of her nephew, Charles Richter.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cline were among those going to Omaha this morning where they were called to spend a few hours in that city visiting with friends and looking after some matters of business.

DEATH THREAT TO WOMAN

Papillon, Neb.—Receipt of an anonymous note threatening death to Mrs. Clara Lewis, who lives near here, has resulted in the arrest of her son-in-law, Robert Estes, thirty-one.

The note, only partly legible, warned Mrs. Lewis to "keep still or you will be burned out and killed." It was found in a window of her home last Wednesday.

Sheriff Oldergo said that Estes will be questioned about the burning of his automobile several weeks ago, and also to learn if he can throw any light on the mysterious death, Dec. 29, of Jacob Scholting, whose body was found in the ruins of his burned home. Scholting and Mrs. Lewis were neighbors and friends.

Estes, a packing house employe, married Mrs. Lewis' sixteen year old daughter last April. Several weeks ago he and Mrs. Lewis quarreled, and since then he and his wife have lived at the home of a neighbor.

The burning of Estes' automobile resulted in an investigation being started by an insurance company. Two men, friends of Estes, are being sought for questioning in connection with Scholting's death, the sheriff said.

Tom Beck was among the visitors in Omaha today where he was called to look after some matters of business for a few hours.
