"There is No Substitute for Safety"

Bible School Lesson Study!

Sunday, March 2nd D-9 By M. S. BRIGGS

Read 13th chapter of Matthew.

Sow the Seed Hoping

He that soweth sparingly shall reap sparingly, and he that soweth bountifully shall reap bountifully. The farmer selects seed corn with great care that it may grow. It may cost him more, and it is worth it. Do not be a piker, sow good seed and abundantly. Play your game with spirit and according to the rules—do not play to lose, but play to win. Put yourself in your game and your work. You cannot expect—

"To be carried thru the skies on flowery beds of ease, While others fight to win the prize and sail through bloody seas."

Do not trust to luck, or that the work will be done by another. Do it yourself and know it is well done. Whatever the task, learn to depend on your own muscles and your own mind, whether it be a matter of business, politics or love.

Success Is Up to You

Learn now in the fields of endeavor or you must work if you will win. You cannot crawl in on someone else's efforts. Sow your seed in the morning and in the evening with- hold not your hand. You have worked and are entitled to your share in the harvest. Unless you do your portion in good faith you are discounting the work, and doubting God.

The Sower Goeth Forth

While Christ was speaking He observed a sower going forth to sow, and challenged the disciples to attention to the lesson which it taught.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Leach, nine years of age, has been kept to his home and bed with a threatened attack of pneumonia, and which it is hoped good medical attention and nursing will prevent.

Mrs. P. A. Hill was over to the home of Rev. Lentz and wife, where they were entertaining at a shower given for a sister of Rev. Lentz, now Mrs. Elmer Max, but formerly Miss Rose Puls, a most enjoyable time was had.

R. A. Neell was spending a few days in Weeping Water last week, where he was assisting his brother, Harry Neell, move from near Weeping Water to the farm of David Tighe, where they will farm this summer. R. A. returned home last Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Barker entertained last Sunday at their home near Murray and had as their guests for the occasion Wm. Sporer and wife and their son, Charles, Martin Sporer and family and Chester Sporer and wife. A most enjoyable time was had, and a fine dinner.

Tony Sudduth and family, who have been making their home in Union for a number of years and who recently disposed of his business at that place, moved last Friday to the home of Harry Albin, who is a brother of Mrs. Sudduth, where they will reside this summer and will engage in the chicken business.

Dr. J. F. Brendel and family, C. D. Spangler and wife and Mrs. Margaret Todd and son Dick were guests for the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Hiatt, of Plattsmouth, where all enjoyed the excellent time which occurred when friends get together and with the excellent dinner which Mrs. Hiatt served.

J. E. Ringwood, of Minnesota, was called to Aurora to look after some business in the electric line and while here stopped off at Murray, visiting at the home of P. A. Hill and wife, the wife of Mr. Ringwood, formerly Miss Laura Puls, being a sister of Mrs. P. A. Hill. Mrs. Wm. Puls, Sr., who has been staying in Minneapolis for the winter, is soon to return to Murray and to the old time friends. She has enjoyed a very pleasant winter with her daughter in the north.

Returns to Murray

Mrs. J. W. Berger, who has been spending the winter at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Steiner, in Oklahoma, arrived home on last Sunday and she and Mr. Berger, who has

And as he sowed, some of the seed fell by the wayside and the fowls of the air devoured it. Some fell on stony ground and because it had little earth, although it sprang up, when the sun beat down upon it, it withered and died. Some fell where the brambles grew and they choked it and it bore no fruit. Other of the seed fell on good ground and it brought forth grain, some thirty, some sixty and some one hundred fold. He that hath ears, let him hear.

The seed in every case was good, for it was the same, and it was the Gospel, the good news of the Kingdom of God. This was the message from high heaven, sent by the loving Father, through the medium of his son, Jesus the Christ, who came to earth as a babe, that he might live among us and know the life of humanity. The seed by the wayside was that which was snatched away by the evil one before it found lodgment. The seed that fell on stony ground and that which was choked by the thorns was such as found lodgment, but the cares of business and other diversions crowded it out and it bore no fruit.

The seed that fell on good ground represents that portion of the Message which is received by mankind with joy and acceptance, with understanding, applying it to their lives and thus causing it to grow and yield rich returns. Some brought forth thirty, some sixty and some one hundred fold, as the message was carried on to others and thus increased the Kingdom of God.

been making his home with Mr. and Mrs. Dale Topfiff during the winter are now making their home in their place, where Henry Heebner resided the past several months. Mrs. Berger was pleased to get back to Murray among her many friends and sure they are hosts.

Will Give Excellent Entertainment

The Rev. Robert E. Hanson, who is one of the very excellent ministers and pastor of the Murray Christian church, has arranged a positive treat to Murray folks, in the shape of a gospel team from Colner college. The entertainment will be given at both the morning and evening hours and will consist of good old fashioned Gospel hymns, male quartette, violin solos, trumpet solos, vocal solos, the "Cowboy Preacher" and the "Lad from the Philippines," all taking part in this excellent program.

There are eight college boys in this group, whom we are sure you will be delighted to hear.

The Union enjoyed the presentation of the statement of Dr. J. W. Crabtree on the drinking among school students and which stated that the student of today was not drinking as those of the past had done and that they were growing more appreciative of the advantages of the elimination of liquor.

Mrs. J. E. Wiles presented a very interesting talk on "Non-Alcoholic Fruit Drinks" that was listened to with the greatest of interest by all of the members of the party.

The members of the W. C. T. U. held a very largely attended meeting on Monday afternoon at the pleasant home of Mrs. George Farnoff on Pearl street, the meeting being one that was devoted to the study of "Narcotics" and the evils attendant on the great menace.

The program was in charge of Mrs. A. L. Tidd and who gave a very able paper on narcotics and their dangers and the great efforts that the government is making to stamp out this evil that threatens the nation at this time and which is one of the greatest evils of the modern times.

Mrs. Robert Troop gave a very fine reading, "Tramp, Tramp, 60,000 Strong" that presented in the usual artistic manner of this talented lady, proved a great feature of the program.

Weaver Opposes Absolute Repeal of Guaranty Law

Tells Legislature Must Plan Future and Aid Depositors; Compromise Talk.

Lincoln, Neb., March 4.—Governor Weaver told the joint session of the special session of the legislature this afternoon that "absolute repeal of the guaranty law, without a new plan for the future and without equitable relief for the depositors will not solve the problem which now confronts the state."

In these words he threw down the gauntlet to members who for two days have been fighting strenuously for "absolute repeal and no assessments." At the same time the governor said: "I also respectfully ask consideration of a bill prepared at my request by the attorney general."

Davis Has Weaver Bill. "In your deliberations," he continues, "I ask you to give full consideration to every other plan offered, with the hope that through the consideration of all will come a new law, just to the depositors of failed banks and the existing state banks alike."

Representative Troy L. Davis of Cass county, chairman of the banking committee of the house, has the bill and expects to introduce it. The governor said "Mr. Davis thought it might suit."

While the governor has indicated he is not pressing the measure, his friends have become active and today more talk of compromise was voiced.

"Majority for Repeal." Repealers pure and simple held many conferences overnight to line up incoming members and many a senator and representative who in the last regular session stood absolutely for the guaranty law and openly declared for its repeal.

Leading friends of the present law even admit that majority of the legislature favors repeal.

But against this came a statement from Speaker Coulier that he favored the governor's plan and a flat announcement by former Speaker Allen Burke that "this special session will not pass a flat repeal." Representative John McLellan of Hall county said he was willing to vote for remedial legislation that did not cost the banks any more than it would to nationalize. He is a state banker.

See Defeat for Governor. The situation is peculiar in that some men on both sides think the governor's message is his swan song. Those favoring flat repeal and let the tail go with the hide, indicate they will swamp the suggested plan and if the governor does not sign a repeal bill, will continue to fight in the coming campaign. Representatives of the depositors fear that the governor is not urging his measure with enough force and say that the 75 thousand depositors in failed banks and their families and friends will be a force that he must fear.

Compromise is in the air with the prospect of a bitter fight before it is effected.

SALESMAN TAKES OWN LIFE

Crete—Louis Burns, about twenty-six, traveling salesman of Kansas City took his own life in his room here Tuesday afternoon by severing his jugular vein with a razor. A note which he left, addressed to his wife, indicated ill health was the motive for the act.

Burns was found by J. H. Galloway, who came here with him from Lincoln Tuesday morning. Both were representatives of an electric machinery company of Ridgeway, Ill. After the pair had called on a customer early in the afternoon, Burns complained of a headache and returned to his room.

Galloway became alarmed at his companion's long absence at about 5:30. Looking over the transom of the room he saw Burns lying on the bed. The hotel clerk and county Attorney Dredla were called and, entering the room, found the man lying in a pool of blood.

SUED MRS. EDDY FOR LIBEL

Boston—Mrs. Josephine Curtis Woodbury, died at Nice, France, Monday, it was learned here. She came into prominence here in 1880 as one of the early pioneers in the Christian Science movement. She later came out in opposition to Mary Baker Eddy, the founder of the movement of which she herself was an ardent exponent, and launched a campaign against her. As a result of her action she was barred from the church. The culmination of the difference between the two women brought Mrs. Woodbury international notoriety in 1899, when she sued Mrs. Eddy for $400,000 on grounds of criminal libel. She charged that Mrs. Eddy referred to her as the "Scarlet Woman of Babylon." The court decided in favor of Mrs. Eddy.

LANDSLIDE CLAIMS LIVES

Punchal, Madeira — Sweeping down from a high rock hanging over the sea, a great landslide Tuesday killed at least fourteen persons including several children, directly underneath the cliff. Scores of children were playing on the beach when the tons of rock slid down the cliff with a terrific roar and crashed upon the beach and in the sea. The violence and heaviness of the landslide caused such huge back waves along the beach that fishermen and water-women at Riberra, Vizario and Camara Lobos were carried into the water.
