Former Murray Lady Found Gag-

Mrs. Gertie Beckner Found at Home by Son and Tells of Unknown Assailant Committing Act

zled over a case in that city when occasion and a large number from Mrs. Gerite Beckner, former resi- Omaha and Council Bluffs were and beautiful ceremony on Tuesday back to the old home again. dent of Murray, was found at her taken into the order. The local memhome, 1802 Second avenue, at Ne- bers report a fine time and the most braska City, bound and gagged, the royal hospitality afforded them, act being committeed according to Mrs. Beckner by an unknown assailant who escaped without the victim learning who it was or any read tim learning who it was or any reason for the attack.

Shortly before midnight Tuesday Officers Jack Speckhals and Tom Jones were called to the Beckner home by Stephen Beckner, a son, who told police he had come into the house and found his mother lying on the floor, bound and gagged. Mrs. Beckner substantiated the story. Investigation revealed nothing in the house had been disturbed. Members of two other families who live in the same house reported they heard no disturbance.

had been "drugged." I was in my room doing some study work," she said. "I had taken up a manuscript years. and was about to do some writing when the door opened. I paid no attention because I believed it was Stephen returning from drill."

A towel was lying nearby, she said, and she believes her assailant stuffed that in her mouth and bound it with an apron. She could not cry out, she said, and soon had a feeling that she was losing conscious-

"I believe I was drugged," Mrs. Beckner declared, "and I still feel "Why would anyone break into your house and bind and gag you?" she was asked. "I believe there in it somewhere," she answered A few weeks ago Mrs. Bekner was Nebraska City, in a semi-conscious condition. She claimed at that time she had been forced from the road and slugged. "I have reason to believe the same person bound me Tuesday night that forced me from the highway a few weeks ago," she said. She said she caught a glimpse of her assailant but could not tell who it was. She could not tell whether he was accompanied by an accomplice.

NEED PLACE TO PLAY

chairman states, with the greatest of | holiday in this community. interest shown and here in this city a very large number of the boys are enthusiastic about enrolling in the league that it is hoped to form.

One of the big problems that Chairman Distell is meeting is that of a ground where the teams can play and it is hoped that if the athletic park and playground of the city school is completed, to stage the games there, the first game being death of Mrs. Hennessey occurred played on Saturday, May 10th according to the present lineup.

Whether teams can be organized at Nehawka and Elmwood has not been learned by Mr. Distell, the Louisville Legion post has decided not to try and handle a team owing to their other activities and this makes it necessary to recruit more of the kid teams here in this city.

MANY CHILDISH MALADIES

From Thursday's Dany-

The police department has been putting up the quarantine signs over | Elizabeth Hennessey of Omaha. the city for the childish maladies of chicken pox and measles and while have the deepest sympathy of the the chicken pox is apparently grow- many friends in this city. ing less the measles are still going good. So far the police have quarantined in the last few days some eighty-three cases of measles and thirteen of chicken pox. All cases seem to be in very light form of sickness.

A VERY HAPPY EVENT

Announcements have been received here by the friends of the George E. DeWolf family, of the arrival on Wednesday, April 16th at their home in Creston, Iowa, of a little son, John changes in the building by having Will. The question of an operation Mrs. Bach was very serious for sev-Waldbridge DeWolf. Mr. DeWolf was a new roof placed on the structure has not as yet been decided upon eral hours and the daughter, Mrs. superintendent of the Plattsmouth city schools for a number of years city hall from the deluges of the sum- patient may be brought out of the here to be with the rest of the family and the friends of the family here will be delighted to learn of the ed at this time. happy event that has come to them.

RECORD OF FARM SALES

A check has been made in the office of the county register of deeds, iod of April 1, 1929, to April 1, 1930, ization at their meetings.

EAGLES VISIT OMAHA

From Thursday's Dafly-Last evening some twenty memers of Plattsmouth aerie No. 365 the Fraternal Order of Eagles ged and Bound motored to Omaha where they were the guests of North Omaha aerie No. The occasion was marked by one of the finest gatherings that the Eagles have held in Omaha in many months and a large class of condidates were initiated into the order the work being given by Council Bluffs aerie. The local aerie had Ray The Nebraska City police are puz- McMaken as their candidate for the

Bridge Opening Friday, May 16

Occasions in the History of the City

The date for the formal opening the new Missouri river traffic Mrs. Beckner told The News-Press bridge at this city has been set for at Nebraska City, she believed she Friday, May 16th and should be one of the largest events that this city Engineer Cochran and other distin- valley and orchids. guished men in public life as well means of a great highway system berger, Jr., served as crossbearer. through the central and southern sections of Iowa and Nebraska. Owing to the fact that Governor Hammill of Iowa is busy in his campaign Rejoicing." Frank J. Lund, he will be unable to bride's father immediately followed be here for the dedication of the the ceremony. The reception rooms discovered in an automobile west of bridge unless he can later arrange his speaking so as to permit his at- were lovely with spring flowers. Mrs. tending.

For many years a bridge at this thought too improbable to be true, but the efforts of Omaha and Platts- Wiggenhorn and Mrs. A. C. Pancoast mouth citizens have now made it a the second hour. reality and the occasion should be the big muddy.

The committee in charge have not terman Avenue, St. Louis, Mo. as yet fully worked out the details of the opening celebration but they Junior baseball teams is progressing and all of the resident should note city were at Omaha Wednesday af- Delta, law fraternity. ternoon where they were in attend-Paul Vandervoort of this city. The late Monday afternoon after a very short illness from intestinel flu and her serious condition was not realized until death came. Mrs. Hennes- From Thursday's Danysey had been assisting in the care of

ATTENDS FUNERAL SERVICE

to be out a short time. the Forest Lawn cemetery

DOES CLEAN UP JOB

While not painting or redecorating the city hall building, the city

SHOWS SOME IMPROVEMENT

The reports from the Immanuel hospital at Omaha are to the effect drilling machinery that was used in From Friday's Daily-Miss Jessie M. Robertson, of the that Mrs. M. S. Briggs, who is there number of farm sales from the per- taking treatment, is now showing sold under a judgment at the court Mrs. Lloyd Sharp was gladdened by the family however.

Well Known Young People

Miss Barbara Wiggenhorn and Mr. Richard Elster Are Married at St. Stephens Church.

St. Stephens church at Ashland when Miss Barbara Wiggenhorn and Mr. Richard B. Elster were married at high noon by Bishop Ernest Vincent Shayler of Omaha, assisted by Rev. W. J. Woon of Lincoln. The marriage lines were read before an altar banked with Easter lilies, lilacs, pink roses, and Calla lilies.

A Delta Gamma choir of fourteen voices, accompanied by Mrs. H. F. Anderson at the piano, sang as processional, "Love Divine All Loves Excelling." The wedding party entered as the choir sang the Bridal Event Should Be One of the Gala Chorus from Lohengrin. Miss Miriam Wiggenhorn, the bride's only attendant, wore an azure blue chiffon sleeveless frock, with pink suede gloves, hat of pink moline, and pink

The bride entered on the arm of her father, Mr. E. A. Wiggenhorn, Jr. and vicinity has enjoyed for many She was gowned in ivory satin, made with a full skirt ending in a short The invitation of the committee of train and trimmed with rose point at the Chamber of Commerce to be pres- the neck and wrists. Her veil was of ent at this time has been accepted by Princesse and Burges lace. She car-Governor Arthur J. Weaver and State ried a shower bouquet of lilies of the

Mr. Carroll Gietzen of Omaha at as commercial leaders from this part | tended Mr. Elster as best man. The of the state will be present to take ushers were Giles Henkle of Lin part in the ceremonies of the dedi- coln; Simpson Morton of Nebraska eation of the great bridge that now City; Paul Stauffer and Richard serves to unite the great states of Wood of Omaha; and Carl Wiggen Iowa and Nebraska and furnished the horn of Ashland. Carl Wesley Harns

During the ceremony, the choice sang "Oh Perfect Love," and as a recessional, they sang "On Our Way

E. A. Frocke invited the guests to the dining room. Mrs. Ida L. Meye point has been a dream that has been and Miss Eugenia Wiggenhorn cut ices the first hour, and Mrs. H. A

Following the ceremony, Mr. and the means of a great festive day for Mrs. Elster left by motor for St the residents of Cass county and Louis. The bride wore a dark blue Mills county, our neighbor across ensemble with biege accessories They will be at home at 6016 Wa-

Following her graduation from the Ashland high school, Mrs. Elster at-The work of organizing the boys are planning on making it a red tended Dana Hall, Wellesley, and the of the county into American Legion letter event in this part of the west University of Nebraska, where she is a member of Delta Gamma. She also very nicely, W. T. Distell, county the date and reserve it for a general took post-graduate work at Columbia University. Mr. Elster attended the University of Michigan, and was graduated from the University of Ne braska, where he became a member Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Holmes of this of Phi Kappa Psi and Phi Alpha

> Mr. Elster is a son of Dr. and Mrs. ance at the funeral services of Mrs. W. B. Elster of Omaha and former Bert A. Hennessey, formerly a resi- residents of Plattsmouth and known dent of Plattsmouth and mother of to a great many of the local people

CHICKENS ARE STOLEN

Henry Ross, who resides south of her son, Paul, who has been very ill Nehawka, who has had a flock of from pneumonia and who is just able | fine chickens, is mourning the loss of a large number of the birds which The funeral was held from the were stolen last night. The loss was Heffman chapel and the interment at | not discovered until this morning and the matter at once reported to Sher-Mrs. Hennessey is survived by her liff Bert Reed, who hastened to the husband, two sons, Paul Vander- scene of action to discover is possivoort of this city, Kenneth Vander- ble some trace of who the party voort, and three daughters. Berta might be that had committed the devery busy in the past two weeks in Mae, Virginia Gertrude and Grace predation but as a considerable period had elapsed from the stealing In their sorrow the family will until it was discovered, it was very was the occasion of much merriment gone a number of previous operahard to get any trace of the person or to the young people. persons who might have taken the

BRADLEY FITZGERALD ILL

From Thursday's Dally-

The many friends of Bradley Fitzdepartment having in charge and gerald, well known young man and upkeep of the structure have gone employe of the Iowa-Nebraska Light so far as to have the windows of the & Power Co., will regret to learn tion.

BUYS DRILLING MACHINES

This morning the sale of the oil the Nehawka oil drilling project, was

LINDEMAN FAMILY HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Lindeman and family arrived here Wednesday afternoon from Orange, California, where they have resided for a num-Wed at Ashland ber of years, and are now to make their home in this city again. Mr. and Mrs. Lindeman will move into their home on North Eighth street and Mr. and Mrs. Chris Mockenhaupt, parents of Mrs. Lindeman. will move to the Halmes property on North Fourth street in a short time to make their home. The many friends here will be much pleased was the scene of a most impressive to welcome this estimable family

Show Attendance to 500 Last Nite

ment by Sam Brown Featured -Tonight Closing Nite

Rain cut down the attendance at the Merchants' Trade Exposition and children reached which were delin-Style Show last night, but withal slippers and hose. She carried pink enjoy the entertainment features and were a great number of the chilmingle with their friends, visiting dren reached by the probation officer the attractive booths and becoming with a share of the Christmas joys. better acquainted with their merchants and the service they have to

The electric refrigerator displays, of which there are three were especially busy places as people crowded each type shown.

Style Show Very Pleasing

ment divided time in presenting the provided in twenty-three families and applause of nearly everyone in ter provided for three families and it was possible to speed up this part make improvement at homes. ent feature by Sam Brown was pre-he small admission charged.

n this territory have attended the three cases. show the past couple of nights and all are loud in praise of the manner the office the contact with relatives frankly surprised at the decorations, cases. the size of the crowds attending and the advertising value the show gives. being quick to inform the merchants more are to be placed soon, insuring they could have just about anything they wanted.

Of all the beautiful booths, that of Henry Jasper, which combines not son crepe papers, but an array of beautiful and fragrant flowers, gets ts full share of attention and many and E. H. Wescott, Plattsmouth. complimentary expressions are heard from those who linger to enjoy its exquisite beauty.

FRESHMEN GIVE PROGRAM

This morning at the convocation hour at the high school the members of the freshmen class had the job of providing the program for the occasion and a fun producing event was staged by the lower classmen that kept the school in an uproar of laughter for the entire offering.

The mock wedding in which Max Schackneis appeared as the bride and of Denver, one of the best known Margaret Mrasek as the groom, was specialists in the west. one of the high spots of the program while the "Human Ford" also health for some time and has under-ous reading by Miss Anna May San- removal of a tumor from the bladder, ity work. din, given in her usual clever man- more than usually severe. A sister,

MRS. BACH VERY POORLY

very serious attack last evening of structure washed and the floors that Bradley is suffering from an at- heart trouble at the home of her scrubbed, so Judge Graves, the police tack of appendicitis being taken ill son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. magistrate, who has his offices at the last night while at work and which Bach, with whom she has been makcity hall states. The city, however, made necessary his being taken to ing her home since her first illness is planning some more extensive the home of his sister, Mrs. Robert several month ago. The condition of that will protect the occupants of the and it is thought that perhaps the James Donnelly of Omaha was called

NEW RESIDENT ARRIVES

Last evening the home of Mr. and family circle.

Probation Work in County Shown in Official Report

Office Is One That Reaches Into Many Homes and Touches Lives of Many People

as the county probation officer, Mrs. was called and the patient made as C. A. Rosencrans, has filed with the comfortable as possible. Mr. Schneiadvisory board of the county her der is a brother of H. A. Schnefder eport of the affairs of her office and president of the Plattsmouth State which is very complete and covers bank, and is a resident of many years thoroughly the activities of the in the vicinity of Cedar Creek.

This office is one that necessitates This office is one that necessitates the very closest touches with the Celebrate Anndividuals and families in the work and which requires the greatest liplemacy and human touch to handle in the proper manner the Style Show Models and Entertain- difficult problems that are quite often found and in this Mrs. Rosenchans has proven her ability and made a splendid record.

county served, with some ninety-six quent in school, or other manner crowd of over 500 was present to while at the Christmas season there

There were some twenty-three homes in the county visited and other visits covered forty-two children delinquent in school. In service in the various homes Mrs. Rosencrans was able to secure about to inspect the fine points of better employment in one case and employment in two cases to help in the family care, while financial as-The Emma Pease Style Shop and sistance was secured for eleven cases Soennichsen's house frock depart- that were investigated. Clothing was style show feature of the evening, over the county. Better quarters were the models attracting the attention secured in two cases, temporary shelthe hall. By having two or three in two cases the probation officer models on the promenade at one time was able to induce the landlord to

of the program considerably, at the This office has also to deal with conclusion of which the entertain- the physical conditions in the homes and families and the report discloses sented and the remainder of the that a very large number have been evening given over to visiting the served in this way. There were three health examinations arranged, hospi-Many of the merchants are serv- tal treatment in two cases, tonsil ng or distributing samples of mer- operations in three cases and two chandise that is worth more than more are pending, optical relief was given in two cases of children, pre-Several representatives and head natal and post natal care in two officials of wholesale houses selling cases, convalescent care arranged in In another phase of the work of in which the local show is being in homes visited were strengthened conducted. Some who had balked at in three cases while church relations giving the retail dealers large num- were strengthened in six families bers of samples and souvenirs be- with thirty-three children being cause they thought the show would reached and church and Sunday "like any small town show" were school relations established in these

Three children were placed in homes in the county while seven better care and surroundings for the children. In her work Mrs. Rosencrans has an advisory board composed of Mrs. only an artistic blending of Denni- Isadora Sheldon Tucker, Nehawka; Fred H. Gorder and Mrs. C. E. Tefft,

WILL UNDERGO OPERATION

Miss Helen Otterstine, daughter of William Otterstine, who has been making her home at Sterling, Colorado, for some time, is to undergo a Luke's hospital at Denver, the operation to be performed by Dr. Buchtel

The patient has been in poor tiens and her condition is such that The final offering was the humor- it makes the operation, that of the from Omaha, will be at her bedside, as well as a brother, Herman, of Grant, Nebraska. After leaving the hospital, Miss Otterstine expects to return to the W. J. Schledwitz home at Sterling where she has been for a number of years. Miss Ottersine is a sister of Richard Otterstine, Mrs. Ernest Schubeck of this city and Mrs. Fred S. Vallery of Sterling.

NEW DAUGHTER ARRIVES

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Conkling of Nebraska City but her condition is still quite ser- fine little daughter. Mrs. Conkling law had been unearthed. was formerly Miss Cordelia Fields. one of the teachers in the Plattsmouth schools for a number of years.

CARD OF THANKS

you .- Mrs. Chris Zimmerman. d&w. will be of short duration.

SUFFERS A STROKE

William Schneider, one of the best known residents of Cedar Creek

From Friday's Daily-

is quite ill at his home as the result of a paralytic stroke suffered Thursday morning and the outcome of he case cannot be fully determined for some time as the patient has shown no signs of rallying from the effects of the attack. Mr. Schneider was stricken very suddenly yesterday morning while looking after his work around the home and as soon as his Completing six months of service condition was discovered medical aid

niversary of Odd Fellows

There were thirty families in the Local I. O. O. F. and Rebekahs Observe 111th Anniversary Last Evening With Program

From Saturday's Dally --

The one hundredth and eleventh anniversary of the establishment of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows was most fittingly obesrved last evening by the members of the local I. O. O. F. and Rebekahs, the ladies auxuliary of the great fraternal or-

The occasion was featured by a banquet served in the dining room of the Odd Fellows building and which despite the rain and bad weather was very largely attended by the members and their families.

The banquet was presided over by Harry L. Kruger, chairman of the committee and who also served as the toastmaster.

Mayor John P. Sattler, long a prominent figure in the Odd Fellows was called upon and gave a very fine talk along the lines of the work of the order while Miss Marie Kaufmann was called upon for the Rebekahs and gave a most inspiring

Others who were called upon for remarks were Hans Sievers, who has just passed his thirty years of memby Avoca which deserved much credbership, Miss Jessie M. Robertson, Mrs. Fred Mumm, Miss Anna Leach, Mrs. Martha Peterson, all responding in a very clever manner.

The main address of the evening was by Rev. H. E. Sortor, noble grand of the local lodge, which covered the history of the order from its inception down to the present day and proved a wonderful contribution to the evening.

J. W. Taylor, past district deputy president, was also called upon and gave a very fine address on the work of Odd Fellowship in this state and particularly in this section of Nebraska.

PLATTS STUDENT HONORED

George F. Swatek of this city. freshman at the University of Ne-Weeping Water; Carl D. Ganz, Alvo, braska, who in his high school work here was outstanding as one of the The county officers co-operating in | most brilliant students, has repeated this work under the direction of his splendid success in the work at Hon. E. M. Pollard are Miss Alpha the university. The announcement Peterson, county superintendent; has been made by the university au-Judge James T. Begley, County Judge | thorities that this Plattsmouth boy A. H. Duxbury, County Attorney W. has attained one of the scholastic standings at the university and will be given recognition with other of the highest ranking students of the university at the convocation to be held on Wednesday, April 30th.

Mr. Swatek is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Swatek of this city and was a graduate of the Plattsmouth schools in the class of 1927, where as has been stated, he attained a very high rank for his work and in several state contests he was awarded special honors, especially in mathematics and science.

The Plattsmouth friends of the young man are much pleased to learn of his success and trust that he may have a very brilliant career in the remaining three years of his univers-

RAIDING IN COUNTY

This morning Sheriff Bert Reed, Deputy Sheriff Rex Young, Constable Tom Svoboda, Officers Dave Pickrel and Joseph Hadraba as well as two representatives of the state feeling assured that they had a sucsheriff's office, visited out in the cessful District meeting. county to dry up a few moist spots that had been located. The greater held at Nehawka. part of the places to be visited were at Weeping Water or the nearby territory where there had been a number of sales made in the past few From Friday's Dailydays. The officers were also to visit mer season and which is badly need- attack without the need of an opera- at the bedside of the mother. The will be pleased to learn of the ar- several places in the west part of ing to be sent to the U. S. Veterans aged lady was somewhat easier today rival at their home yesterday of a the countly where infractions of the hospital at Hot Springs, South

JOHN NELSON IMPROVING

John Nelson, Jr., who was operat- not be the best at this time and the ed on Tuesday night at the Clarkson patient will be sent probably to the I sincerely wish to thank the many hospital at Omaha for an acute at- U. S. Soldiers home at Fort Leavensome improvement altho her condi- house. The sale was held by Deputy the arrival of a fine little daughter kind friends and neighbors who sent tack of appendicitis, is reported as worth, Kansas, to be cared for. The and which shows that there were tion is still quite serious and the Sheriff Rex Young and the property who has come to make her home with flowers and cards to me during my doing very nicely and his condition examining physicians were of the ninety-nine sales of farms made patient will require further treat- was bid in by A. F. Sturm, who held them in the future. The mother and long illness. Also those who helped is such as to give every hope for his opinion that Mr. Stockham's case was where the consideration was $998. ment to fully determine her case. the judgment, the price paid being little one are doing very nicely and with the work and care of the chil-140.29. The facts were gathered to The change for the better the past $1,100 and now Mr. Sturm has a the event has brought a great deal dren. I appreciated every thing that his case will soon be so im- cured of and that the care and atbe used in the state board of equal- week has been most encouraging to full fledged oil drilling plant on his of pleasure to the members of the more than I can say. Again I thank proved that his stay at the hospital tention at the national home would

District Meet of Rebekahs is Held at Elmwood

Mrs. Anna Shackley of Avoca Is Named as President-Next Meeting at Nehawka

The Tenth Annual Session of the Rebekah Lodge of District No. 3, was ield in Elmwood, April 22, 1930. The neeting was held in the Community Building which was very prettily deorated with the Rebekah colors pink and green and with many beautiful plants and flowers. The meeting was opened with Elmwod Lodge in regular session, after which a staff of eleven Past Noble Grands of Elmwood seated the iDsrict officers with a very pretty drill. The District officers for 1930, were as follows: Mrs. Jessie Creamer, Elmwood-

Mrs. Anna Shackley, Avoca-Vice resident.

Mrs. Ida Corey, Syracuse-War-Mrs. Frances Miller, Elmwood-Secretary.

Miss Laura Easter, Nehawka-Freasurer. Mrs. Lois Gray, Syrncuse-Mar-

Mrs. Vera Jones, Weeping Water -Conductor.

Mrs. Elizabeth Meegan, Nebraska

ity-Chaplain. Mrs. Lena Stoll, Nehawka-Inside duardian. Miss Frances Hennings, Avoca-Outside Guardian.

Mrs. J. P. Cobb in her pleasing and clever manner extended a cordial welcome to the visiting lodges. Myrtle Clinkenheard of Nebraska

City, graciously responded. The usual procedure of business was carried out. The election of new officers reulted as follows:

Anna Shackley, Avoca-President. Ida Corey, Syracuse, Vice Presi-Laura Easter, Nehawka-Warden. Mary Harmon, Avoca-Secretary.

Frances Hayes Miller, Elimwood-The ballot march was exemplified

A reading by Mrs. G. G. Douglas was especially good and she received many compliments.

The school of instruction was conducted by Mrs. C. G. Bailey in her very capable and efficient manner. At this time, Mrs. Emma Clements in behalf of the Past Noble Grands of Elmwood presented the District President, Mrs. Jessie Creamer with a beautiful basket of flowers. Lodge then closed until evening session, during which time a sumptious banquet was served at the M. E. church by the ladies of both the Christian and M. E. churches. Evening session began with a beauiful and impressive Memorial servce given by Nehawka Lodge.

The Rebekah Degree was conferred by Syracuse. This work was done in a very creditable manner, their tableaux and floor work were esecially good. Weeping Water favored with ooth a musical selection and a readng which were greatly enjoyed. A one act act comedy given by Elmwood was very entertaining. A vocal duet from Nebraska City, was heartily applauded.

A silver offering for the home was taken which amounted to $17.34. This is to be sent to the home at York, Nebraska, to be used where it s most needed.

The roll call of lodges resulted as Elmwood, 62. Weeping Water, 39.

Syracuse, 25. Nebraska City. 17. Avoca, 8. Talmage, not represented, making Nehawka, 27.

total of 178. Installation of new officers was conducted by the Past Presidents, under the direction of Elizabeth Meegan of Nebraska City. After which the regular officers of Elmwood Lodge closed the meeting in regular Brick ice cream and cake were served as late refreshments. The visiting lodges departed voting Elmwood royal entertainers and

MAY GO TO HOME

The 1931 District Meeting will be

James Stockham, who was expect-Dakota, for treatment was given an examination yesterday at the Veterans bureau at Omaha and the decision reached that his case was such that the hospital treatment would be more beneficial than the hospital.