Obituary

John W. Barr was born at Plattsmouth, December 1, 1867, and died at Whittier, Calif. June 21, 1930.

He was the son of John Wesley Barr and Elizabeth Ann Barr from pioneer families of Plattsmouth, and prominent in the early days organization of the Methodist Episcopal church and Sunday school organization in eastern Nebraska. When John was a small boy his parents established their home at Greenwood, of a loving Christian mother who moulded a character of right living and high ideals that remained with him through life. At the age of 21 years John engaged in business with his father for a number of years and later engaged in ranching at Greenwood, Cass county, Neb., where he was married in the year 1896 to Effic J. Ewitt. Three children were born to them, all living, who will always have pleasant and lasting memories of the kind and tender love of a loving father. Later in life he resided with his family at University Place, Neb., where the family lived until going to California in 1919. It has been said of him, he was a true frend and a man loved by all who knew him. His poise and never Fred Wolfe was a visitor in Ash- complaining disposition, ever thoughtful of others and a spirit of enduring faith was exemplified during the last months of his life,

Those nearest to him left to mourn their loss are his devoted wife, Effie J. Barr, a son, Almon Barr, two daughters, Mrs. Blanche Stoll and Mrs. Shirley Crundall, two brothers, Walter E. Barr and Roy A. Barr, all of Whittier; two sisters, Mrs. R. F. Schuelke and Mrs. Charles Matthews of Oklahoma.
