Former Union Man Now Rich

The state papers tell of a former merchant of Union, John Nichlos, who was engaged in the retail business in the other days of Union, but who has been away for the past more than a score of years, and who has tried his fortunes here and there, being in business for a time in Omaha where he succeeded and after accumulating some money went to Oklahoma and there invested in oil, only to go broke after a year, and was all but determined to win and a bull dog grip, he held on and the state papers tell of his selling a portion of his holdings a few days since and realizing some $4,000,000. This did not come by chance but by the persistent keeping after the elusive dollar and sixteen and two-thirds cents, that in the end brought success. What one can do another also has an opportunity to do. Now let us see who will be the next Union merchant to tie this former merchant in a like success.

Was a Near Burglary

On last Sunday while Sam Pugh was asleep in his home in the north portion of Union he was disturbed in his sleep by a noise on the lower stairs, and arising carefully and being in his stocking feet, tripped lightly down the stairs, to find a strange man ransacking the bureau drawers.

The man was a stranger, and as Mrs. Pugh was away, and he not hearing anything when he entered the house evidently thought he was going to have pretty soft picking. He however, was mistaken, for when confronted by the man of the house and was able to defend his castle and home, he was for getting away and putting up a pitiful tale of hard luck and wanting to get something to eat with, he was able to beg off from the good natured Sam Pugh.

Will Hold Chautauqua

Arrangements have been perfected for the holding of a Chautauqua at Union on August 6th, 7th, 8th and 9th, which will provide good programs and entertainment for the people of this community as well as it is hoped will draw from other portions of the county. The matter of making a success of this enterprise is one which should be of interest to everybody, and we know that there are enough people in Union interested in the city and its success in every way to make it a success. The committees are out and hustling for the success of the Chautauqua. Do not forget to do your part and the matter will go over with a whoop.

The Old Settlers Reunion

This is the over the fortieth annual meeting of the pioneers and old settlers of Cass and adjoining counties, which is to meet late in August is being pushed by the various committees. Ira Clarke who is the chairman of the publicity committee is bending every effort to place the matter of the gathering this summer before every one who would in any way be interested.

This is an institution which for over forty years has afforded the people of Union, Cass county, and Otoe county, to gather together and enjoy a reunion with their former friends and relatives. We are certain that the committees will make the gathering a success this year.

Many Enjoy the Ak-Sar-Ben

Many of the citizens of Union were enjoying the Cass county day at the Ak-Sar-Ben den in Omaha on last Monday night. The evening was specially set apart for Cass and Otoe counties, and many were there to enjoy the very fine show which was provided. Not alone was the play which has pleased thousands and which was specially cast for rendition by the troupe who compose the entertainers at the den, but other stunts which enlivened the occasion were sure in evidence. Among those who attended were Frank Bauer, Elmer Withrow, Pat Roddy, Ben and Justin Anderson, Charles E. McCarthy, Hallas Banning, Messers and Messames P. F. Rhin, L. G. Todd, W. B. Banning and also Lucean Banning.

Stacy Niday, Mrs. Mabel Reynolds, the Smith family, Mont Robb and daughter, Miss Augusta.

Play Excellent Game of Ball

On last Sunday at the Union ball park which by the way is in the country, was had a very fine demonstration of the national game, when Union and Nehawka crossed bats, and notwithstanding the very warm day, was well attended by the ball fans. The result of the game was a victory for the home team by a score of 12 to 9. The personnel of the boys who led Union to victory is Charles Erwin, H. W. Griffin, Hathaway, Meade, Leo Roddy, Dewey True, Robert Eaton, Pat Roddy Wilber Eaton and Charles Everett.

MAY PLACE CAUTION SIGNS

Despite the demands of traffic the physical welfare of residents of Nebraska villages which state and federal highways traverse, must be considered, Attorney General Frensen ruled Tuesday, advising village authorities at Waverly that caution signs could be placed in the center of highway No. 38.

The his ruling is adverse to that of the department of public works which ordered signs moved in one or two instances, it is supported, Sorensen asserted, by legislative enactment that gives cities and towns full right to regulate traffic even though it may be on an arterial highway.

State Senator Warner of Waverly, made a personal appeal Tuesday to the attorney general's office and the ruling was the result. "Traffic thru his town, Warner said, imperils the welfare of school children who must cross highway No. 38 to reach their building. "It must be reasonably necessary," Sorensen held in the Waverly case, "that precaution should be taken for the protection of life and limb before signs can be erected."

Thrashing Returns Show Well.

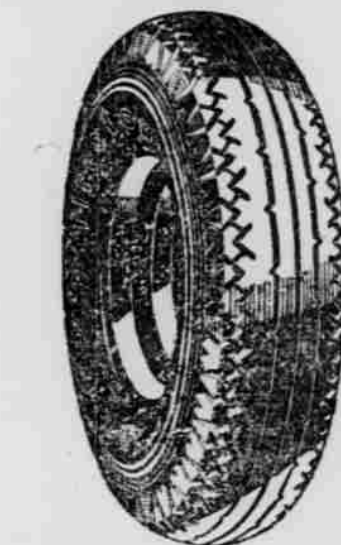

Cyrus Livingston who is managing the Farmers company thrasher, reports the returns for the year's crop thus far as very satisfactory. With but few exceptions the average has been high. The oats running over thirty-five bushels per acre and in many cases a great deal higher than this figure. The average of the wheat is crawling well up towards twenty-five bushels though some is making as low as twenty bushels and in a few cases slightly under this figure. A number of cases is reported much over the twenty-five mark and taking it all in all, the returns are very satisfactory. The low price seems to spoil it all.

IF A MAN drove a car to victory at 100 miles per hour in an international 500-mile race, would you say he could drive safely at 50 miles per hour on the road?

And if a certain make of tire were used on 35 out of 38 cars in that race, including all the winners, and finished without a single tire failure, would you say it was safe at 50, 60, 70 or more miles per hour on the road?

That is the record of the new High-Speed Firestone Heavy Duty Balloons. The only difference between these tires in our stock and those used in the race is in the tread. Ours are made with a deep, tough non-skid tread while those in the race were made with a stiff, smooth tread to permit "drift" or skidding on the turns.

TRADE-IN NOW!

Put a set of Firestone High-Speed Heavy Duty Balloons on your car and stop wondering about tire safety and trouble-free mileage. We will make full allowance for the unused mileage in your present tires and apply it on the purchase price.

boards which look after the various departments and divisions of the fair, are all working and we are certain that the gathering will be a great success this year. Let every citizen of Cass county make an effort to make this year the best which Cass county has ever held.

THE HUMAN TORCH

A blow torch in the hands of a mechanic working on a car in front of a garage suddenly exploded and the flames quickly enveloped the man's clothes. Terrified, and crying out in pain, he ran to the home of a neighbor who endeavored to beat out the flame with his hands. As a result, the fire was communicated to her clothing and to her house; she was burned, her home was damaged and the mechanic was terribly scarred. Incidentally, two automobiles were also destroyed.

When clothing catches fire, according to literature by The National Board of Fire Underwriters, one should get down on the ground or the floor and roll, in an attempt to smother the flames. If possible wrap a rug or other woolen material around the body, starting at the neck, to avoid inhaling the flame. When one remains standing he soon becomes a living torch, as the flames spread quickest in this position. Running is still worse, as that fans the fire to greater intensity.

WILL PATROL LINES

The natural gas lines that are being built into this locality will be kept under constant supervision when in service, the company that is handling the natural gas seeing that every effort is made to maintain the service and to prevent and check any pipe line disturbance that might take place.

The line will have control stations at stated intervals, probably some fifteen or twenty miles apart and these organized into divisions for the handling of the maintaining work.

Patrolmen will be engaged in checking over the line all of the way from Texas to the eastern terminus of the pipe line, making the examination of the line each two weeks to detect any interference with the line or any possible leaks in the long pipe line.

Workers of the company state that in Texas the inspections of the lines are made each day, the patrolmen being required to go on foot along the entire line for an inspection and suffering dire penalties if they are found riding while on the inspection work. They state that it is very easy to detect any leaks or breaks which are very infrequent but against which the companies are constantly on the alert and make quick and efficient handling of the matter and from their stations are able to isolate the sections where trouble might be located.

Don't advertise haphazardly. Lay out a definite plan and keep persistently at it. We will help you.

WILL RETURN FROM HOSPITAL

Arnold Mast, who has been at the hospital at Omaha, for the past ten days recovering from the wound sustained when he was shot by Theon Murray, his nephew, is to return from the hospital Thursday or Friday and will recuperate from the effects of the injuries at the farm home southwest of the town of Murray. Mr. Mast will suffer permanent injury as the result of the wound, it is thought.

It is reported that Gen. Jadwin, recently nominated by Mr. Hoover for the chairmanship of the newly created Federal Power Commission, will not accept the job. Neither the White House nor Jadwin has confirmed the report.
