

Ritz Theatre

Plattsmouth, Nebr.
All Talking Programs You'll Enjoy

FRIDAY - SATURDAY
Sept. 21-22-23
RICHARD DIX
As a Two-Fisted Roughneck Breaking Hearts in the "Four Hundred"

—in—
LOVIN' THE LADIES
Also Talking Comedy and News

SUNDAY-MONDAY-TUESDAY
Sept. 22-23-24
The World's Greatest Comeriennes Bert Wheeler and Robert Woolsey

—in—
THE CUCKOOS
Also Talking Fables and News

WEDNESDAY - THURSDAY
Sept. 24-25
RAMON NOVARRO
In a New All-Talking Comedy Drama

IN GAY MADRID
Matinee Sunday Afternoon

Matinee Prices Evening Prices
10-25c 10-35c

VETERAN BAKER RETIRES

Fred H. Mumm who has for the past many years served the residents of this community as owner and operator of the bakery on Main street between Fourth and Fifth street, is retiring from the conduct of the business and closing down his plant.

Mr. Mumm has been active in the life of the community here during his residence here and is a member of one of the old time families, and that he is giving up his bakery is regretted by all of the old time friends.

Mr. Mumm has conducted a fine bakery and given the people of this community splendid service in his line of breads and pastries and his patrons will miss very much the products that he has made in the past years, his best known line being the Pleasant bread.

After closing the business Mr. Mumm will enjoy a well earned vacation for some time until he makes definite plans for his future activities.

TALKS ON CONSTITUTION

At the meeting of the Rotary club Tuesday at their dining room in the Majestic cafe, the members had a very pleasant treat in the shape of an address by R. Foster Patterson, principal of the high school.

The address of Mr. Patterson was very thorough and covered the history of the constitution of the United States, the occasion of the 143rd anniversary of the signing of the constitution being observed today.

The members felt very appreciative of the fine address and Mr. Patterson was warmly congratulated on the fine manner in which he had presented the facts as to the constitution and the deep study that he had given to this great organic law of the land.

SAY IT WITH Your Hat

YOUR first measure of a man is, "What's under the hat." But you see the hat first.

Look at your Hat
Everyone Else Does

For that first impression, select your fall hat now. They are all ready for you. You cannot afford to wear seedy head gear when our prices are—

$3 - $5 - $8

Philip Thierolf
VALUE GIVING CLOTHES

If you don't choose to run in a hat—try a cap. Prices $1 and $1.75.

Nehawka

D. C. Rhoden, Jr. and wife of Murray were visiting with friends north of Nehawka for a short time on last Friday.

The Ladies General Kensington of Nehawka, was meeting at the home of Mrs. J. J. Pollard on Wednesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Young were guests at the social which was held at the Eight Mile Grove Lutheran church last Thursday.

Thomas Troop and Professor Smith were over to Omaha on last Friday where they were called to look after some business matters.

Albert Wolfe and daughter, Miss Gladys, were visiting and looking after some business matters in Lincoln on Monday of this week.

Mrs. Earl Kirkpatrick and son of Dallas, Texas, is visiting here and staying with Mrs. E. A. Kirkpatrick, who has been quite ill for some time.

Mrs. John Christweiser and little daughter Eileen were over to Plattsmouth where they went to see Dr. R. P. Westover regarding the health of Eileen.

C. M. Christweiser was looking after business matters in Plattsmouth for a short time on last Saturday morning, driving over to the big town in his car.

Messrs. Arnold Mast and Roy Gregg were looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth on last Saturday, they driving over to the county seat in their car.

Word has been received here of the recent wedding of Carl Hill, of Broken Bow, a son of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Hill who formerly resided north of Nehawka.

Charles R. Troop and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Troop, all of Plattsmouth, were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Troop.

Alvin A. McReynolds is painting his property in Nehawka where Wm. Obermaulle and wife reside. The painting of the place will add much to its appearance and will also be an insurance to its long life.

Beginning last week there has been a crew of workers unloading gravel which is being spread from the road leading south from the home of Wm. Chappel to the Otoe county line and two miles into Otoe county.

The Lewiston Union Nehawka band were guests at the church social at Eight Mile Grove Lutheran church on last Thursday where there was a large and very much pleased crowd at the very fine music which the band dispersed.

John Opp and the family were all over to Omaha on last Sunday and again on Monday Mr. and Mrs. Opp were down to Nebraska City, where they were looking after some business matters. They drove to both places in their car.

Mr. Frank Marler who has been in delicate health for some time past, and who has been troubled with the rheumatism departed last week for Excelsior Springs, Mo., where she will take baths and treatment for the restoration of her health.

Tommy Mason was a visitor at Omaha on last Sunday, accompanied by his parents where they went to see the grandchildren and where also Tommy was enjoying the auto races, entering himself, but the other cars were slightly too swift for him, for he did not win.

Mrs. Wm. Patterson who has been staying with her sister Mrs. Gertrude Beckner of Nebraska City for some time past, recuperating following her stay in the hospital at Omaha where she underwent a serious operation, returned home last Saturday and is feeling quite well at this time.

George I. Lloyd was a visitor last week at Excelsior Springs, Mo., and was accompanied by his son, Anderson Lloyd, where they went for a clinic for Mr. George Lloyd, and were well pleased with the results of the examination and the specialist in whose hands Mr. Lloyd placed his case.

Mrs. Tony Klimm who has been spending the past month or more visiting with relatives and friends in the south and where she saw some wonderful sights and enjoyed the visit very much, returned home the latter portion of last week well convinced that Cass county, Nebraska, is hard to beat.

Ralph Sturm who is making his home at San Antonio, Texas, is visiting for a short time at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Sturm, having arrived last week. Mr. Sturm has been away for some time and is sure enjoying the visit with the folks at home as well as his many friends here.

W. E. Countryman and son, Marvin were visiting in the country between Nehawka and Murray for a number of days during the past week, returned to their home at Paxton on last Monday. They report crops excellent in their section of the country and in fact the very best they have seen there.

Nellie Brown Welch of California, where she and her husband are now making their home, was a visitor in Mynard and the vicinity of Nehawka for a number of days last week. Mrs. Welch was formerly a teacher in the schools of Cass county and is a sister of Mrs. John Wooders of Mynard, and was formerly Miss Nellie Brown.

Thomas E. Fulton, the village blacksmith, that is of some time since for he is out of office in that position, was a visitor in Plattsmouth on last Tuesday where he was looking after some business matters as well as visiting with his old time friend, Mr. Robert Troop, Sr., who many years ago resided north of Nehawka when Mr. Fulton had the blacksmith shop there.

Alexander and wife of Rock Valley, Iowa, were guests for the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al-

WEeping WATER

Otto McQuary of Beatrice was a visitor at the home of C. S. Bailey where he visited for over the week end.

Walter E. Countryman and son, Marvin of Paxton, were visiting for a time last week with friends in and about Weeping Water, where they have many friends.

Harold Baker has accepted a position with the H. L. Richards store during the fair and sure there was large enough crowds in town if all desired to buy to employ a score of salesmen.

Bestor and Swatek have a very pretty booth in the Marshall building where they are exhibiting the styles of their own make their own gas. Better make it a point to drop around and see the booth.

Mrs. Fred Zink of Elmwood, but who is attending the state university, was a visitor in Weeping Water for a number of days last week, when she was the guest of her brother, Herbert Rattour and family.

Fred Schable of Fairview, Kansas, arrived in Weeping Water on last Tuesday afternoon and was accompanied by the good wife, they coming for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Baker, the ladies being sisters.

Mrs. Earnest Baker who has been in poor health for some time was last week taken to Omaha where she is being treated hoping that a restoration of her health can be effected with recourse to an operation.

Charles Edwin Baldwin, who makes his home at Colorado Springs, was a visitor in Weeping Water for the week, coming to visit the fair and to meet his many friends here. He is the guest of his brother, Frank H. Baldwin, while visiting here.

Joseph Mrasek of Plattsmouth was a visitor in Weeping Water last Tuesday coming over to bring a station belonging to Elbert Wise over to the fair. The horse which is a Belgian, is but two years old and weighs 1900 pounds and is sure a fine looking animal.

Wm. Bures, formerly of Weeping Water, and also having lived many years ago in Plattsmouth, but for the past few years making his home at Horton, Kansas, drove up to Weeping Water on last Tuesday and was visiting with many of his friends here as well as attending the fair.

E. E. Brooking, the proprietor of the Liberty theatre, is putting on some fine plays during the county fair and running the plays during the day time to accommodate those who desire to see a good play. It is the practice of this institution to furnish none but the very best and highest grade of talkie movies.

Edward Fick and wife, now of Benson, where Mr. Fick is employed with the Heintz company, were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of John S. Williams and wife. These two families were very near neighbors in South Dakota for many years and both moved to Nebraska. They had not met for the past six years and the meeting was indeed a very pleasant one.

A young man named Zessen who was working on the farm of Carl Day, had the misfortune while working with the horses in the field to get hurt, but the very best and highest grade of talkie movies.

Edward Fick and wife, now of Benson, where Mr. Fick is employed with the Heintz company, were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of John S. Williams and wife. These two families were very near neighbors in South Dakota for many years and both moved to Nebraska. They had not met for the past six years and the meeting was indeed a very pleasant one.

A young man named Zessen who was working on the farm of Carl Day, had the misfortune while working with the horses in the field to get hurt, but the very best and highest grade of talkie movies.

Edward Fick and wife, now of Benson, where Mr. Fick is employed with the Heintz company, were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of John S. Williams and wife. These two families were very near neighbors in South Dakota for many years and both moved to Nebraska. They had not met for the past six years and the meeting was indeed a very pleasant one.

A young man named Zessen who was working on the farm of Carl Day, had the misfortune while working with the horses in the field to get hurt, but the very best and highest grade of talkie movies.

Edward Fick and wife, now of Benson, where Mr. Fick is employed with the Heintz company, were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of John S. Williams and wife. These two families were very near neighbors in South Dakota for many years and both moved to Nebraska. They had not met for the past six years and the meeting was indeed a very pleasant one.

A young man named Zessen who was working on the farm of Carl Day, had the misfortune while working with the horses in the field to get hurt, but the very best and highest grade of talkie movies.

Edward Fick and wife, now of Benson, where Mr. Fick is employed with the Heintz company, were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of John S. Williams and wife. These two families were very near neighbors in South Dakota for many years and both moved to Nebraska. They had not met for the past six years and the meeting was indeed a very pleasant one.

A young man named Zessen who was working on the farm of Carl Day, had the misfortune while working with the horses in the field to get hurt, but the very best and highest grade of talkie movies.

Edward Fick and wife, now of Benson, where Mr. Fick is employed with the Heintz company, were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of John S. Williams and wife. These two families were very near neighbors in South Dakota for many years and both moved to Nebraska. They had not met for the past six years and the meeting was indeed a very pleasant one.

A young man named Zessen who was working on the farm of Carl Day, had the misfortune while working with the horses in the field to get hurt, but the very best and highest grade of talkie movies.

Edward Fick and wife, now of Benson, where Mr. Fick is employed with the Heintz company, were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of John S. Williams and wife. These two families were very near neighbors in South Dakota for many years and both moved to Nebraska. They had not met for the past six years and the meeting was indeed a very pleasant one.

A young man named Zessen who was working on the farm of Carl Day, had the misfortune while working with the horses in the field to get hurt, but the very best and highest grade of talkie movies.

Edward Fick and wife, now of Benson, where Mr. Fick is employed with the Heintz company, were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of John S. Williams and wife. These two families were very near neighbors in South Dakota for many years and both moved to Nebraska. They had not met for the past six years and the meeting was indeed a very pleasant one.

A young man named Zessen who was working on the farm of Carl Day, had the misfortune while working with the horses in the field to get hurt, but the very best and highest grade of talkie movies.

Edward Fick and wife, now of Benson, where Mr. Fick is employed with the Heintz company, were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of John S. Williams and wife. These two families were very near neighbors in South Dakota for many years and both moved to Nebraska. They had not met for the past six years and the meeting was indeed a very pleasant one.

A young man named Zessen who was working on the farm of Carl Day, had the misfortune while working with the horses in the field to get hurt, but the very best and highest grade of talkie movies.

WEeping WATER

Otto McQuary of Beatrice was a visitor at the home of C. S. Bailey where he visited for over the week end.

Walter E. Countryman and son, Marvin of Paxton, were visiting for a time last week with friends in and about Weeping Water, where they have many friends.

Harold Baker has accepted a position with the H. L. Richards store during the fair and sure there was large enough crowds in town if all desired to buy to employ a score of salesmen.

Bestor and Swatek have a very pretty booth in the Marshall building where they are exhibiting the styles of their own make their own gas. Better make it a point to drop around and see the booth.

Mrs. Fred Zink of Elmwood, but who is attending the state university, was a visitor in Weeping Water for a number of days last week, when she was the guest of her brother, Herbert Rattour and family.

Fred Schable of Fairview, Kansas, arrived in Weeping Water on last Tuesday afternoon and was accompanied by the good wife, they coming for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Baker, the ladies being sisters.

Mrs. Earnest Baker who has been in poor health for some time was last week taken to Omaha where she is being treated hoping that a restoration of her health can be effected with recourse to an operation.

Charles Edwin Baldwin, who makes his home at Colorado Springs, was a visitor in Weeping Water for the week, coming to visit the fair and to meet his many friends here. He is the guest of his brother, Frank H. Baldwin, while visiting here.

Joseph Mrasek of Plattsmouth was a visitor in Weeping Water last Tuesday coming over to bring a station belonging to Elbert Wise over to the fair. The horse which is a Belgian, is but two years old and weighs 1900 pounds and is sure a fine looking animal.

Wm. Bures, formerly of Weeping Water, and also having lived many years ago in Plattsmouth, but for the past few years making his home at Horton, Kansas, drove up to Weeping Water on last Tuesday and was visiting with many of his friends here as well as attending the fair.

E. E. Brooking, the proprietor of the Liberty theatre, is putting on some fine plays during the county fair and running the plays during the day time to accommodate those who desire to see a good play. It is the practice of this institution to furnish none but the very best and highest grade of talkie movies.

Edward Fick and wife, now of Benson, where Mr. Fick is employed with the Heintz company, were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of John S. Williams and wife. These two families were very near neighbors in South Dakota for many years and both moved to Nebraska. They had not met for the past six years and the meeting was indeed a very pleasant one.

A young man named Zessen who was working on the farm of Carl Day, had the misfortune while working with the horses in the field to get hurt, but the very best and highest grade of talkie movies.

Edward Fick and wife, now of Benson, where Mr. Fick is employed with the Heintz company, were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of John S. Williams and wife. These two families were very near neighbors in South Dakota for many years and both moved to Nebraska. They had not met for the past six years and the meeting was indeed a very pleasant one.

A young man named Zessen who was working on the farm of Carl Day, had the misfortune while working with the horses in the field to get hurt, but the very best and highest grade of talkie movies.

Edward Fick and wife, now of Benson, where Mr. Fick is employed with the Heintz company, were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of John S. Williams and wife. These two families were very near neighbors in South Dakota for many years and both moved to Nebraska. They had not met for the past six years and the meeting was indeed a very pleasant one.

A young man named Zessen who was working on the farm of Carl Day, had the misfortune while working with the horses in the field to get hurt, but the very best and highest grade of talkie movies.

Edward Fick and wife, now of Benson, where Mr. Fick is employed with the Heintz company, were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of John S. Williams and wife. These two families were very near neighbors in South Dakota for many years and both moved to Nebraska. They had not met for the past six years and the meeting was indeed a very pleasant one.

A young man named Zessen who was working on the farm of Carl Day, had the misfortune while working with the horses in the field to get hurt, but the very best and highest grade of talkie movies.

Edward Fick and wife, now of Benson, where Mr. Fick is employed with the Heintz company, were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of John S. Williams and wife. These two families were very near neighbors in South Dakota for many years and both moved to Nebraska. They had not met for the past six years and the meeting was indeed a very pleasant one.

A young man named Zessen who was working on the farm of Carl Day, had the misfortune while working with the horses in the field to get hurt, but the very best and highest grade of talkie movies.

Edward Fick and wife, now of Benson, where Mr. Fick is employed with the Heintz company, were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of John S. Williams and wife. These two families were very near neighbors in South Dakota for many years and both moved to Nebraska. They had not met for the past six years and the meeting was indeed a very pleasant one.

A young man named Zessen who was working on the farm of Carl Day, had the misfortune while working with the horses in the field to get hurt, but the very best and highest grade of talkie movies.

Edward Fick and wife, now of Benson, where Mr. Fick is employed with the Heintz company, were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of John S. Williams and wife. These two families were very near neighbors in South Dakota for many years and both moved to Nebraska. They had not met for the past six years and the meeting was indeed a very pleasant one.

A young man named Zessen who was working on the farm of Carl Day, had the misfortune while working with the horses in the field to get hurt, but the very best and highest grade of talkie movies.

Edward Fick and wife, now of Benson, where Mr. Fick is employed with the Heintz company, were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of John S. Williams and wife. These two families were very near neighbors in South Dakota for many years and both moved to Nebraska. They had not met for the past six years and the meeting was indeed a very pleasant one.

A young man named Zessen who was working on the farm of Carl Day, had the misfortune while working with the horses in the field to get hurt, but the very best and highest grade of talkie movies.

Edward Fick and wife, now of Benson, where Mr. Fick is employed with the Heintz company, were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of John S. Williams and wife. These two families were very near neighbors in South Dakota for many years and both moved to Nebraska. They had not met for the past six years and the meeting was indeed a very pleasant one.

A young man named Zessen who was working on the farm of Carl Day, had the misfortune while working with the horses in the field to get hurt, but the very best and highest grade of talkie movies.

WEeping WATER

Otto McQuary of Beatrice was a visitor at the home of C. S. Bailey where he visited for over the week end.

Walter E. Countryman and son, Marvin of Paxton, were visiting for a time last week with friends in and about Weeping Water, where they have many friends.

Harold Baker has accepted a position with the H. L. Richards store during the fair and sure there was large enough crowds in town if all desired to buy to employ a score of salesmen.

Bestor and Swatek have a very pretty booth in the Marshall building where they are exhibiting the styles of their own make their own gas. Better make it a point to drop around and see the booth.

Mrs. Fred Zink of Elmwood, but who is attending the state university, was a visitor in Weeping Water for a number of days last week, when she was the guest of her brother, Herbert Rattour and family.

Fred Schable of Fairview, Kansas, arrived in Weeping Water on last Tuesday afternoon and was accompanied by the good wife, they coming for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Baker, the ladies being sisters.

Mrs. Earnest Baker who has been in poor health for some time was last week taken to Omaha where she is being treated hoping that a restoration of her health can be effected with recourse to an operation.

Charles Edwin Baldwin, who makes his home at Colorado Springs, was a visitor in Weeping Water for the week, coming to visit the fair and to meet his many friends here. He is the guest of his brother, Frank H. Baldwin, while visiting here.

Joseph Mrasek of Plattsmouth was a visitor in Weeping Water last Tuesday coming over to bring a station belonging to Elbert Wise over to the fair. The horse which is a Belgian, is but two years old and weighs 1900 pounds and is sure a fine looking animal.

Wm. Bures, formerly of Weeping Water, and also having lived many years ago in Plattsmouth, but for the past few years making his home at Horton, Kansas, drove up to Weeping Water on last Tuesday and was visiting with many of his friends here as well as attending the fair.

E. E. Brooking, the proprietor of the Liberty theatre, is putting on some fine plays during the county fair and running the plays during the day time to accommodate those who desire to see a good play. It is the practice of this institution to furnish none but the very best and highest grade of talkie movies.

Edward Fick and wife, now of Benson, where Mr. Fick is employed with the Heintz company, were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of John S. Williams and wife. These two families were very near neighbors in South Dakota for many years and both moved to Nebraska. They had not met for the past six years and the meeting was indeed a very pleasant one.

A young man named Zessen who was working on the farm of Carl Day, had the misfortune while working with the horses in the field to get hurt, but the very best and highest grade of talkie movies.

Edward Fick and wife, now of Benson, where Mr. Fick is employed with the Heintz company, were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of John S. Williams and wife. These two families were very near neighbors in South Dakota for many years and both moved to Nebraska. They had not met for the past six years and the meeting was indeed a very pleasant one.

A young man named Zessen who was working on the farm of Carl Day, had the misfortune while working with the horses in the field to get hurt, but the very best and highest grade of talkie movies.

Edward Fick and wife, now of Benson, where Mr. Fick is employed with the Heintz company, were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of John S. Williams and wife. These two families were very near neighbors in South Dakota for many years and both moved to Nebraska. They had not met for the past six years and the meeting was indeed a very pleasant one.

A young man named Zessen who was working on the farm of Carl Day, had the misfortune while working with the horses in the field to get hurt, but the very best and highest grade of talkie movies.

Edward Fick and wife, now of Benson, where Mr. Fick is employed with the Heintz company, were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of John S. Williams and wife. These two families were very near neighbors in South Dakota for many years and both moved to Nebraska. They had not met for the past six years and the meeting was indeed a very pleasant one.

A young man named Zessen who was working on the farm of Carl Day, had the misfortune while working with the horses in the field to get hurt, but the very best and highest grade of talkie movies.

Edward Fick and wife, now of Benson, where Mr. Fick is employed with the Heintz company, were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of John S. Williams and wife. These two families were very near neighbors in South Dakota for many years and both moved to Nebraska. They had not met for the past six years and the meeting was indeed a very pleasant one.

A young man named Zessen who was working on the farm of Carl Day, had the misfortune while working with the horses in the field to get hurt, but the very best and highest grade of talkie movies.

Edward Fick and wife, now of Benson, where Mr. Fick is employed with the Heintz company, were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of John S. Williams and wife. These two families were very near neighbors in South Dakota for many years and both moved to Nebraska. They had not met for the past six years and the meeting was indeed a very pleasant one.

A young man named Zessen who was working on the farm of Carl Day, had the misfortune while working with the horses in the field to get hurt, but the very best and highest grade of talkie movies.

Edward Fick and wife, now of Benson, where Mr. Fick is employed with the Heintz company, were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of John S. Williams and wife. These two families were very near neighbors in South Dakota for many years and both moved to Nebraska. They had not met for the past six years and the meeting was indeed a very pleasant one.

A young man named Zessen who was working on the farm of Carl Day, had the misfortune while working with the horses in the field to get hurt, but the very best and highest grade of talkie movies.

Edward Fick and wife, now of Benson, where Mr. Fick is employed with the Heintz company, were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of John S. Williams and wife. These two families were very near neighbors in South Dakota for many years and both moved to Nebraska. They had not met for the past six years and the meeting was indeed a very pleasant one.

A young man named Zessen who was working on the farm of Carl Day, had the misfortune while working with the horses in the field to get hurt, but the very best and highest grade of talkie movies.

Edward Fick and wife, now of Benson, where Mr. Fick is employed with the Heintz company, were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of John S. Williams and wife. These two families were very near neighbors in South Dakota for many years and both moved to Nebraska. They had not met for the past six years and the meeting was indeed a very pleasant one.

A young man named Zessen who was working on the farm of Carl Day, had the misfortune while working with the horses in the field to get hurt, but the very best and highest grade of talkie movies.

WEeping WATER

Otto McQuary of Beatrice was a visitor at the home of C. S. Bailey where he visited for over the week end.

Walter E. Countryman and son, Marvin of Paxton, were visiting for a time last week with friends in and about Weeping Water, where they have many friends.

Harold Baker has accepted a position with the H. L. Richards store during the fair and sure there was large enough crowds in town if all desired to buy to employ a score of salesmen.

Bestor and Swatek have a very pretty booth in the Marshall building where they are exhibiting the styles of their own make their own gas. Better make it a point to drop around and see the booth.

Mrs. Fred Zink of Elmwood, but who is attending the state university, was a visitor in Weeping Water for a number of days last week, when she was the guest of her brother, Herbert Rattour and family.

Fred Schable of Fairview, Kansas, arrived in Weeping Water on last Tuesday afternoon and was accompanied by the good wife, they coming for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Baker, the ladies being sisters.

Mrs. Earnest Baker who has been in poor health for some time was last week taken to Omaha where she is being treated hoping that a restoration of her health can be effected with recourse to an operation.

Charles Edwin Baldwin, who makes his home at Colorado Springs, was a visitor in Weeping Water for the week, coming to visit the fair and to meet his many friends here. He is the guest of his brother, Frank H. Baldwin, while visiting here.

Joseph Mrasek of Plattsmouth was a visitor in Weeping Water last Tuesday coming over to bring a station belonging to Elbert Wise over to the fair. The horse which is a Belgian, is but two years old and weighs 1900 pounds and is sure a fine looking animal.

Wm. Bures, formerly of Weeping Water, and also having lived many years ago in Plattsmouth, but for the past few years making his home at Horton, Kansas